Points and Authorities

ORCP 71A provides that clerical mistakes in judgments, orders, or other parts of the record and errors therein arising from oversight or omission may be corrected by the court at any time on its own motion or on the motion of any party and after such notice to all parties who have appeared, if any, as the court orders.

In Sea-Air Handling Services, Inc. v. Reed, 327 Or 25 (1998), the Supreme court stated that "in the absence of anything to the contrary in the record, a judgment entered in the register is regarded as stating an 'absolute verity'". The purpose of correcting a clerical error is to make the record speak the truth and conform it to what actually occurred. Marriage of Hopkins, 102 Or App 655, 658 (1990) (citing Hubbard v. Hubbard, 213 Or 482, 487 (1958)).
