General Order
12-03

This matter coming before the court on its own motion:

Pursuant to ORS 419C.130:

(1) A youth or youth offender may not be detained at any time in a police station, jail, prison or other place where adults are detained, except as follows:

(c) When detention is authorized by ORS 419C.453, a youth offender may be detained in a jail or other place where adults are detained.

and ORS 419C.453:

(2) Pursuant to a hearing, the juvenile court may order a youth offender who is at least 18 years of age placed in a jail or other place where adults are detained. The placement must be for a specific period of time and may not exceed eight days in addition to time already spent in a juvenile detention facility or jail. The court may order placement under this subsection when:

(a) The youth offender has been found to be within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court by reason of having committed an act which would be a crime if committed by an adult; or

(b) The youth offender has been placed on formal probation for an act which would be a crime if committed by an adult, and has been found to have violated a condition of that probation.

(3) In order to detain a youth offender under subsection (2) of this section, the court shall make case-specific findings that placement in a jail or other place where adults are detained meets the specific needs of the youth offender.

An individual 18 years of age or older that is on court ordered release conditions, probation or parole may be detained in the jail.

It is so ordered this 8th day of May, 2012

Richard L. Barron, Presiding Judge
