For The Fifteenth Judicial District

In the Matter of the Violations)
Bureau Supplemental Order) Administrative Order
) (Supplemental)
)
) 92-07

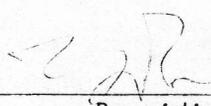

This matter coming before the court on its own motion, pursuant to ORS 153.600 and ORS 153.555:

It appearing to the court that ORS 153.555 allows the court to make a determination on a traffic infraction when a defendant fails to appear or otherwise comply with ORS 153.540 and to impose a fine as well as sanction the defendant's drivers license under ORS 809.220:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

When a defendant fails to appear or otherwise comply with ORS 153.540, regardless of the class of citation or the driving record of the defendant, the violations clerk shall enter a finding of guilty on the citation and impose a sentence of a fine pursuant to the provisions of the violations bureau administrative order (or the full bail if the order does not specify a fine) and sanction the defendant's drivers license under ORS 809.220. The clerk may notify the defendant of the finding, fee and sanction by first class mail at the address indicated on the citation.

It is so ordered this 22 day of June 1992.
