

NOTICE

PARENT EDUCATION AND MEDIATION REQUIREMENTS

You are required to serve this Notice on the other party with your Petition pursuant to SLR 8.013(4).

MANDATORY MEDIATION:

- Is required if you and the other parent cannot agree on custody and parenting time and the Respondent (other parent) has filed a response to the petition for dissolution or custody.
- If you are required to attend mandatory mediation, you must attend Mediation Orientation (see below).
- A judge will not hear your case until BOTH parties have attended mediation when required.

Petitioner (parent filing the case):

- You must attend a Court Mediation Orientation within 2 weeks from receiving the response to your petition.
- You must successfully complete a mandatory Parenting Class whether or not the other parent files a response to your petition.

Respondent (parent responding to a case that has been filed):

- If you are filing a response to a petition for dissolution or custody, YOU MUST successfully complete a mandatory parenting class.
- You must also attend mandatory mediation if required (see above).
- If you have received an Order for Mediation, YOU MUST attend a Mediation Orientation and successfully complete a Parent Education class PRIOR to your scheduled mediation session.
- If you have NOT received an Order for Mediation within 30 days from filing your response, you must attend a Court Mediation Orientation to schedule your mediation session.

MEDIATION ORIENTATION:

- Is conducted every Wednesday at 4:00 p.m. in the First Floor Conference Room in the Juvenile Services Building, 609 W. 10th Street, Medford, Oregon 97501.
- At the Mediation Orientation you will be assigned a time when you and the other party in your case are to participate in a mediation session.
- You will be provided with certified copies of an Order that you MUST SERVE on the other party.
- You must bring your case number to Mediation Orientation.
- If you need an interpreter or accommodations under the Americans with Disabilities Act, please contact the mediation program in advance.
- The local Parenting Class will be offered immediately after Mediation Orientation ONLY on the 2nd and 4th Wednesdays of the month.

MANDATORY PARENTING CLASSES:

- If you have children, you must successfully complete a parent education class.
- There are two options:
 - On-line parenting class - Children in Between Online ($45.95)
 - Attendance at local Parenting Class ($30.00)

Information regarding each of the parenting class options is attached. If you do not have this information, you may obtain it at the family law window at the Jackson County Justice Building or online at www.courts.oregon.gov/Jackson.

The parties shall successfully complete the parent education program prior to any court hearing or trial and prior to attending mediation (SLR 8.013(2)).

Jackson County Local Parenting Class Option

Meeting the Requirement of ORS 3.425 for Parent Education and Local Rules for the First Judicial District of Oregon, Jackson County Circuit Court

Class Name: Parenting in Transition

Location: Juvenile Services Building
First Floor Conference Room
609 W. 10th Street
Medford, OR 97501

Day: 2nd and 4th Wednesday of each month

Time: 4:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. Mediation Orientation
5:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. Parenting in Transition

Cost: $30.00 (cash or check) payable at the door*

How to sign up: Pre-registration is NOT required, just appear on one of the days above.

This class is mandatory for parents involved in a divorce, separation, custody, parenting time or paternity case. The class informs parents of ways to help their children cope with the changes in the family, so that their children will be less likely to develop long-term problems. Each class begins with an orientation to the mediation program.

Please attend this class prior to your mediation appointment.

Basic Guidelines:

- Be punctual
- Do not bring children
- Come prepared to actively participate
- Be prepared to attend the entire class to receive the Certificate of Attendance

* If your filing fees were waived or deferred, you must present a copy of the Order Waiving/Deferring Filing Fees at the time you attend the class.

 The Certificate of Attendance is required to be filed with the court prior to your judgment being entered. Following completion of the Parenting in Transition class, the mediator will prepare, and file with the court, a Certificate of Attendance.
