

Drop-in Class on File & Serve for Attorney's and Attorney Support Staff - Various Dates

Below is a schedule of classes intended to provide orientation and familiarity with the File & Serve system used in the Oregon eCourt for circuit court electronic filing (eFiling). These classes are being conducted to support the transition to mandatory eFiling of circuit court documents for Oregon State Bar members. Mandatory eFiling, via File & Serve, is expected to be made mandatory effective on December 1, 2014.

These are Drop-in sessions, no pre-registration is required. The sessions are open for attorneys and for support staff in their offices and agencies.
