

For nursing mothers who are visiting the Supreme Court Building, OJD provides access to a private lactation room. The room is located in the basement of the Justice Building, which is across the parking lot from the Supreme Court Building. The room is a separate closed door extension off the ladies' restroom and contains a chair, table, and electrical outlet. Nursing mothers who wish to use the room should call (503) 986 5555 and ask to speak to the Appellate Court Services Division Director or see the Oregon State Police trooper who is located in the lobby of the Supreme Court Building. An access escort to the floor and room will be provided.
