

Pacific Northwest Court Interpreter Conference Workshops

Ethics L-I-V-E 2016

June 24, 2016 6:00 PM - 8:00 PM

Ed Alletto, Melanie DeLeon, Joshua Elliott, Michael Traffas

- As a court interpreter, team interpreting is something that often happens, but is not often discussed, especially in terms of the Code of Professional Responsibility. In this two hour ethics panel, the moderators will walk participants through the pros and cons of teaming, how to have difficult but important conversations with your teammate, and the ethical implications of working as a team. Participants can expect to participate in roll playing scenarios and there will be ample time for group discussion.

Registration Notes:

- Oregon Certified and Registered Court Interpreters will earn 2 Ethics Continuing Education Credits for attending the workshop
- California and Idaho Court Interpreters will earn 2 CEUs for attending the workshop
- ASL Interpreters will earn 0.2 RID CEUs, Professional Studies, Content Level: Some, Specialty Area: Legal, offered through the Language Door, an approved RID CMP and ACET sponsor
- Washington Credits are pending approval
