

PACIFIC NORTHWEST COURT
INTERPRETER CONFERENCE
PRESENTER

---

KATHARINE ALLEN

Katharine Allen is Co-President of InterpretAmerica, LLC and specializes in community and healthcare interpreting and translation. She works nationally and internationally as an interpreter trainer, curriculum developer, language access consultant, author, and public speaker and event organizer. She has helped develop interpreter training and train-the-trainer curricula for organizations such as Kaiser Permanente, the Middlebury Institute of International Studies at Monterey (formerly the Monterey Institute of Interpretation Studies), the Department of Defense, Cross-Cultural Communications, Cyracom and the recently launched Indigenous Interpreting + program. She is currently an instructor for the Glendon College of Translation's Masters in Conference Interpreting program. Katharine is co-author of the recently-published The Community Interpreter®: An International Textbook.