

CLAS/OJD Ethics Webinar:

“ALL THE TOOLS IN YOUR TOOL BOX”

Oregon has developed several tools to assist interpreters with common requests from the Court that place interpreters in sticky situations. The situations that are specifically addressed are stand by interpreting, written evidence, recorded evidence and interpreting for victims. Please join us in an evening of reviewing these tools so we can better understand why they were developed and how/when to implement them. This is a must for all interpreters! We will begin with a quick CLAS update from our Program Manger before we dive into the ethics discussion. For this webinar we are pleased to have CLAS Program Manager, Kelly Mills, and free lance interpreter, Jessica Dover joining us, as well as CLAS Interpreter Analyst, Ed Alletto—an ethics webinar must!!

Washington has approved this course for 2.0 Ethics Credits.
