

OREGON JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT
Court Interpreter Services

ANNOUNCEMENT

May 5, 2011

As of July 1, 2011 Melanie Deleon-Benham will join the Oregon Court Interpreter Services Program as the Interpreter Liaison.

Mel is highly sought after in the interpreting field even during these difficult economic times. Mel has a Master's degree in Rehabilitation Counseling, Deafness and a Bachelor's in English/ASL Interpreting. She has a post graduate certificate in Therapy with Adoption Families and holds a Registry for Interpreters of the Deaf (RID) Certificate of Transliteration and Specialty Certification in Legal interpreting (SC:L). She has worked as a counselor, an OJD staff interpreter and freelance interpreter and as a manager and trainer of a major video relay service agency. Her passions include 13+ years of volunteer work for Mobility International, leading to all sorts of exciting world travels!

Welcome Mel!
