

Indian Child Welfare Program
Tribal Cultural Development Plan

Name:

Address:

Case Number:

Effective Date:

Participants:

Gain Tribal Cultural education :

The _____ have been instrumental in educating themselves on the history of Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde Tribes by reading the Smoke Signals Tribal Newspaper, utilizing the CTGR website, and learning the Chinuk language. _____ provide the Tribal children in their care cultural enrichment activities such as; Cultural themed literacy nights, Restoration celebration, drumming class, singing, and dancing.

Since _____ have been in their home, they have implemented the Chinuk language in their everyday vocabulary in school and at home.

The ICW Program and Foster Care certifier have provided _____ with current cultural information/training opportunities such as; a bimonthly ICW Newsletter, monthly Tribal foster parent support group, and invitations to upcoming Grand Ronde Cultural events such as; Chinuk Family Night, culture nights, cultural classes, camps, and pow wows.

Cultural Events:

The _____ family has exceeded the Cultural training requirements from the ICW Program for cultural enrichment and has attended several Cultural events such as; Annual Pow wow, Restoration Celebration, Chinuk Family Night, and various community and Tribal events. The _____ have made learning the Native American culture and implementing Grand Ronde specific customs into their everyday life a priority such as; learning and speaking the Chinuk language, singing, and drumming. Additionally, the _____ have made the commitment that if _____ wishes to participate in Pow wow dancing that they will make the necessary arrangements for her to do so.

Cultural Commitment:

On _____ the ICW Program met with the _____ to discuss maintaining and fostering the children’s cultural need for contact with the Grand Ronde Tribe. The ____ submitted a letter attached to the report that indicates their commitment to continue the children’s contact and need for Tribal connections. The ICW Program will continue to provide the ____ with Tribal events and information as needed to the children.

Provider who will provide service:

Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde

Timeline for completion of service:

_____ will continue to attend annual Grand Ronde gatherings and events for Cultural enrichment and connection to Grand Ronde Tribe.

How progress or lack there of, will be measured:

This need will be measured by active participation in the Grand Ronde events and attendance to gatherings. Also by the children having knowledge of Native American history, and identify what it means for to be a member of the Grand Ronde Tribe.

The ICW Program will assist _____ and the current foster parent in attending these meetings by providing assistance with the prior approval of which events the foster parent (s) chooses to take _____.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed this Agreement.

Signature: _____

Signature: _____

Date: _____

Date: _____