

ORS 107.102. When parenting plan required; contents

- (1) In any proceeding to establish or modify a judgment providing for parenting time with a child, except for matters filed under ORS 107.700 to 107.735, there shall be developed and filed with the court a parenting plan to be included in the judgment. A parenting plan may be either general or detailed.
- (2) A general parenting plan may include a general outline of how parental responsibilities and parenting time will be shared and may allow the parents to develop a more detailed agreement on an informal basis. However, a general parenting plan must set forth the minimum amount of parenting time and access a noncustodial parent is entitled to have.
- (3) A detailed parenting plan may include, but need not be limited to, provisions relating to:
 - (a) Residential schedule;
 - (b) Holiday, birthday and vacation planning;
 - (c) Weekends, including holidays, and school in-service days preceding or following weekends;
 - (d) Decision-making and responsibility;
 - (e) Information sharing and access;
 - (f) Relocation of parents;
 - (g) Telephone access;
 - (h) Transportation; and
 - (i) Methods for resolving disputes.
- (4)
 - (a) The court shall develop a detailed parenting plan when:
 - (A) So requested by either parent; or
 - (B) The parent or parents are unable to develop a parenting plan.
 - (b) In developing a parenting plan under this subsection, the court may consider only the best interests of the child and the safety of the parties.
