Juvenile Odyssey Time to First Jurisdiction Finding

For Dependency Petitions Filed between
1/1/2015 and 3/31/2015
Oregon Judicial Department
Juvenile Court Improvement Program

This report contains information only on petitions that were filed between the dates above in courts that had already implemented the Odyssey case management system. The report counts cases as having a jurisdiction finding even if the finding applies to only one parent. This way of counting time to jurisdiction is comparable to that used in Report 10a - Time to Jurisdiction Report, which measures time to jurisdiction for cases filed in OJIN.

Juvenile Odyssey Time to First Permanency Hearing

Oregon Judicial Department
Juvenile Court Improvement Program
For Dependency Petitions Filed between
2/1/2014 to 4/30/2014

This report shows information on first permanency hearings held concerning dependency petitions that were: 1) filed between the dates above and 2) filed in courts that had already implemented the Odyssey case management system.

The table shows the number of petitions that held their first permanency hearing within 425 days, the number that held their first permanency hearing after more than 425 days, and the percentage of first permanency hearings held within 425 days. Cases that have not held a permanency hearing are not included.

Because the report looks at cases that were filed fourteen months prior to the most recent quarter, courts will not appear on this report until at least fourteen months after their Odyssey implementation date.

This report is a draft, and does not contain official statistics.

Juvenile Odyssey Time to First Permanency Hearing, Looking Back

Oregon Judicial Department
Juvenile Court Improvement Program
For First Permanency Hearings Held between
4/1/2015 to 6/30/2015

This report contains information on the time between dependency petition and first permanency hearing for cases that: 1) held their first permanency hearing between the dates above and 2) were filed after their court implemented the Odyssey case management system.

Because it does not include cases that were filed in OJIN, this report will not include all first permanency hearings for courts that implemented Odyssey less than fourteen months prior to the dates above.

Juvenile Odyssey Time to TPR

For TPR Petitions Filed between
10/1/2014 to 12/31/2014
Oregon Judicial Department
Juvenile Court Improvement Program

This report shows information on termination of parental rights cases filed between the dates above in courts that had already implemented the Odyssey case management system. For the purposes of this report, each parent-child relationship on which a TPR petition is filed represents a separate case.

Because the report looks at cases that were filed six months prior to the most recent quarter, courts will not appear on this report until at least six months after their Odyssey implementation date.

 For Petitions Filed Between 2/1/2014 and 4/30/2014

This report shows the percent of 1st permanency hearings held within 425 days of petition file date. The data reported has the following limitations which may impact a court's statistics:

- * The date the petition was filed is used as a proxy for entry into foster care, regardless of whether the child is in care or not.
- * This report does not capture those dependency cases that did not have a permanency hearing, but should have.
- * The 425 day time frame is used as a proxy for the 14 month compliance timeline to capture most cases meeting the statutory

Time to Termination of Parental Rights (TPR)
 For TPR Petitions Filed Between 10/1/2014 and 12/31/2014

This measure shows the timeliness of termination of parental rights (TPR) proceedings for TPR petitions filed within the reporting period. Time to TPR is calculated from the file date of the TPR petition to the date the petition was resolved (or would be resolved if not appealed) by a judgment of termination, denial, or dismissal. The target for TPR proceedings is a judgment within 6 months (182 days) of the filing of the TPR petition.

28a - Time to Filing of TPR Petition

For TPR Petitions Filed between 4/1/2015 and 6/30/2015

This report shows the average and median number of days from filing of the last petition to terminate parental rights in range and filing of the most recent dependency petition preceding the filing of the TPR petition.

Note: In preparation for Odyssey implementation, some courts have begun entering TPR petitions separately from their underlying dependency case. Because TPR petitions that are entered as separate cases are not included in this report, the statistics below do not include all TPR filings in OJIN courts.

29a - Time to Resolution of TPR

For TPR Petitions Resolved between 4/1/2015 and 6/30/2015

This report shows the average and median number of days between resolution of a petition to terminate parental rights and filing of the immediately preceding dependency petition. Only those TPR petitions resolved within the time period are included in this report. If more than one TPR petition was resolved in the time period, the most recently filed petition was used. TPR petitions were resolved through dismissal or a judgment to terminate parental rights.

Note: In preparation for Odyssey implementation, some courts have begun entering TPR petitions separately from their underlying dependency case. Because TPR petitions that are entered as separate cases are not included in this report, the statistics below do not include all TPR filings in OJIN courts.

30a - Children Achieving Permanency

Permanency Achieved Between 10/1/2014 and 12/31/2014

This report shows the average and median number of days between filing of the dependency petition and the child reaching permanency. Three types of permanency--reunification, adoption, and guardianship--are broken out. The end date for the reunification query is the later of the date wardship was terminated or the date DHS was released from providing services. The adoption query uses the date wardship was terminated as the end date. The guardianship query uses the date the order for guardianship was entered as the end date.
