

Program Agenda at a Glance (for Judicial Officers Only)

Sunday, August 8, 2010

- 9:30 am Registration
- 10:30 am Pre-Session: Juvenile Interstate Compact
-Philip Cox, Assistant Director Community Services Div., Oregon Youth Authority
-Carol Gillespie, OYA Interstate Compact on Juveniles
With the enactment of Senate Bill 107 in 2009, Oregon joined the new Juvenile Interstate Compact. This session will explain the process for implementation of the new Compact and its application to delinquent juveniles, non-delinquent and dependent children.
- Pre-Session: Roundtable Discussion on DHS Statewide Efforts
-Erinn Kelley-Siel, Assistant Director, Children, Adults, and Families, DHS
-Lois Day, Department of Human Services
Erinn and Lois will present information and key findings on several DHS statewide initiatives. This is an opportunity for judges to dialog and provide input on the impacts of these initiatives on children and families in the child welfare system. Round table discussion topics will include: Placement with Relatives and Adoption Placement Selection; APPLA cases and Learnings from Permanency Roundtables; and Safely and Equitably Reducing Foster Care Entry—Promising Practices.
- 12:00 Registration & Bag Lunch for Pre-Session Participants
OR-Kids Demonstration
-DHS Trainers will be available to demonstrate their new case management system and show reports that will be available to the courts.
- 1:00 pm Welcome
-The Honorable David Brewer, Chief Judge, Oregon Court of Appeals
- 1:15 pm The Lens of Implicit Bias
-Dr. Shawn Marsh, Director of Juvenile and Family Law Department, NCJFCJ
Whether you call it autopilot, blink, or implicit bias, we all are impacted by how we automatically take in, process, and act on information. In this session, Dr. Marsh draws on the science of psychology to help us develop an understanding of how our brains process social information, and how this processing can ultimately influence our behaviors and interactions.
- 2:45 pm Break
- 3:00 pm Courts Catalyzing Change Panel Discussion
-The Honorable Paula Kurshner (Moderator), Multnomah County Circuit Court Judge
-The Honorable Merri Souther-Wyatt, Multnomah County Circuit Court Judge
-The Honorable Linda Hughes, Multnomah County Circuit Court Referee
- 4:00 pm Reasonable Efforts for Dependency Cases Involving Domestic Violence
-Rebecca Orf, JCIP/VAWA Staff Counsel
- Kathryn Yetter, Attorney, NCJFCJ, Family Violence Department
- 6:30 pm Dinner and Speaker for Conference Participants and Guests
-Laura van Dermoot Lipsky, Trauma Stewardship

Through the Eyes of a Child, XIII

Program Agenda at a Glance (for Judicial Officers Only)

Monday, August 9, 2010

- 8:15 am Welcome & JCIP Update
-Rebecca Orf , JCIP/VAWA Staff Counsel
- 8:30 am Facilitated Pre-Hearing Settlement Conferences in Dependency Cases
-The Honorable Douglas Johnson, President, National Council of Juvenile & Family Court Judges, Omaha, Nebraska
- 9:30 am Working With Relatives in Juvenile Court
-Lynn Travis, Attorney, Travis Consulting Company, Portland, Oregon
- 10:15 am Break
- 10:30 am Panel Presentation—Healing from Domestic Violence & Substance Abuse
-Ruth Taylor, Director, Parents Anonymous of Oregon
-Parent Recover Mentors: Chrstine Stolebarger, Angelina Rivera Richart, Shelly Harding
Parent Recovery Mentors will share a brief history of their own addiction and experiences with domestic violence and child welfare involvement and how they now use this life experience to motivate, support and inspire other DHS involved parents struggling with addiction and domestic violence. Mentors will offer recommendations on how to successfully engage addicted parents and those involved in abusive relationships and how to empathize with the multiple challenges they face in achieving reunification with their children.
- 11:15 am Model Dependency Forms & Benchbook
-The Honorable Daniel Murphy, Linn County Circuit Court Judge
-The Honorable Jim Fun, Washington County Circuit Court Judge
-Rebecca Orf, JCIP/VAWA Staff Counsel
-John Hamilton, Law Clerk, JCIP
- 12:00 pm Lunch—Chief Justice Champion Award Luncheon
-The Honorable Paul J. De Muniz, Chief Justice, Oregon Supreme Court
- 1:15 pm Appellate Update
-The Honorable Michael Livingston, Marion County Circuit Court Judge Pro Tem
- 3:00 pm Break
- 3:15 pm Visions, Initiatives, and Barriers (VIBS)
Social File, Oregon Juvenile Justice Institute, Settlement Conferences
- 4:15 pm Coordination Between Courts and CRB
-The Honorable Tracy Prall, Marion County Circuit Court Judge
-Leola McKenzie, Director, Juvenile Court Programs
-Thomas C. Carranza, Field Manager, Citizen Review Board
- 4:45 pm Child Welfare Program Update
-Erinn Kelley-Siel, Assistant Director, DHS, Children, Adults and Families Division
- 5:15 pm Adjourn for the Day Monday Night Dinner — On Your Own

Model Court Day: Summit on Child Abuse & Neglect Program Agenda at a Glance

Tuesday, August 10, 2010

Tuesday Breakfast — On Your Own

- 8:30 am Welcome - The Honorable Nan Waller
-Chief Justice Paul J. De Muniz
-Governor Theodore R. Kulongoski
-Senator Peter Courtney
- 9:00 am Cross-Over Youth: Working Across Systems & Preparing
(with break) Teens for Adulthood
-Shay Bilchik, Director, Center for Juvenile Justice Reform
Youth known to both the child welfare and juvenile justice systems have a discrete set of needs that we need to meet by working across systems of care. This session discusses these needs, how systems should work together to address them, as well as additional supports crossover youth need to successfully make the transition to adulthood. There will be a particular focus on how child welfare and juvenile justice systems can work together to address disproportionality.
- 11:45 am Multnomah County Cross-Over Project—Panel Discussion
-The Honorable Nan Waller (Moderator) Multnomah County Presiding Juvenile Court Judge
-Abbey Stamp, Juvenile Court Improvement Coordinator, Department of Community Justice
-Jerry Burns, Multnomah County District Manager, DHS
-David Koch, Assistant Director, Department of Community Justice
- 12:15 pm Lunch / Meet With Model Court Teams
- 1:45 pm Hot Local Initiatives: Statewide PIP Update, Multnomah County APPLA Initiative, Marion County Permanency Roundtables, & Malheur County's Courts Consulting with Children
- 2:30 pm Break
- 2:45 pm Oregon's ILP: Stakeholder Initiatives That Improve Services and Outcomes for Teens in Foster Care
-Rosemary Iavenditti, Independent Living Program Coordinator, DHS/CAF
-Pam Sorenson, Marion County CASA
-Jamie Hinsz, Oregon Foster Youth Connection, Past President
-Marty McMahon, DHS Clackamas County, Teen Unit Supervisor
- 3:45 pm Closing Remarks, & Evaluations

Through the Eyes of a Child, XIII

