

NOTICE TO SELF-REPRESENTED LITIGANT OF PROPOSED JUDGMENT OR ORDER

To be mailed to all other parties before submitting proposed judgment or order to the court for signature. Mail the judgment or order to the other party with this notice at least seven days before submitting it to the court. This does not apply to judgments submitted with a motion for order of default or after an order of default has been granted. Note: If the other party is represented, the attorney must be served with the proposed judgment or order at least three days prior to submitting it to the court. This notice is not for service on an attorney.

This notice is to inform you that you can object to the attached proposed judgment or order.

Uniform Trial Court Rule (UTCRC) 5.100 allows you to object to the proposed judgment or order. If you have no objections, you may sign the end of the judgment or order and return it to me.

If you do object to any of the terms of the judgment or order, you may:

1) Contact me within seven days of the date of this notice. If you contact me and we are not able to resolve your objections after reasonable efforts, I will include your objections with the proposed judgment or order when I submit it to the court.

or

2) Submit your objections directly to the court. If you intend to submit your objections directly to the court, notify me within seven days of the date of this notice so that I can inform the court of your intentions when I submit the proposed judgment or order. If you do object to the proposed order or judgment, you must contact me within seven days of the date of this notice.
