Current Employment

I am an Elder Law and probate attorney who practices in Fairview, Oregon. I represent families in adult guardianships and conservatorships, trust matters, and the probate of decedents estates.

Professional Memberships

Elder Law Section of the Oregon State Bar, National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys, Oregon Gerontological Association, Oregon Mediation Association, Oregon Guardianship/Conservatorship Association

Special Skills And Experience

I have taken post-law-school graduate classes in the Gerontology department at Portland State University. I have practiced Elder Law since 2003. I have experience in guardianships, conservatorships, trust matters, and probate of decedent's estates. I have experience dealing with persons impaired by drug addiction, alcoholism and compulsive gambling.

Compensation

My hourly fee for mediation is $200 per hour. I will conduct a mediation for represented parties that complies with Multnomah County Rule 12.045 for a flat fee of $1,000. That fee includes review of pleadings, clarification of issues with counsel, and a mediation session of up to four hours. If the matter is resolved I will draft an agreement capable of being reduced to judgment by the parties. In most circumstances the parties will have to provide the facilities for the mediation. The parties must each pay their proportion of the flat fee prior to the mediation session. The flat fee is not available if there are unrepresented parties. Additional work or mediation with unrepresented parties will be billed at my hourly rate.
