

Eligibility Requirements: A person seeking approval as a pro tem judge must:

- (a) be an Oregon resident and have not less than three years' active membership in the Oregon State Bar (ORS 1.635);
- (b) be an active member of the Oregon State Bar in good standing for a period of at least three years next preceding the appointment;
- (c) not less than two years' litigation experience in Oregon circuit courts;
- (d) not be charged with official duties under or exercise any function of the legislative or executive departments within the meaning of Article III, Section 1, of the Oregon Constitution, or hold another lucrative office or appointment within the meaning of Article II, Section 10, of the Oregon Constitution; and
- (e) be recommended by the local bar association's judicial screening committee.