Appellate Update

Jurisdiction
Delegation of Care to Third Party
Reasonable Efforts

Jurisdiction

- o Basic test: ORS 419C.100(1)(c)
- o Child's conditions or circumstances expose the child to a current threat of serious loss or injury that is likely to be realized.
- o When a petition is based on a parent's conduct, DHS must prove a nexus between the conduct and a current threat of serious loss or injury.

Current threat of serious loss or injury

o CRB Findings

- o Finding #6: The parents have made sufficient progress to make it possible for the child to safely return home.
- o Finding #10: There is a continuing need for placement.

Current threat of serious loss or injury

- o Methamphetamine, domestic violence, chaotic living, lack of emotional and behavioral regulation

- o DHS v. A.W., 276 Or App 276 \(2016\).

- o No jurisdiction when:

- o No evidence of drug use while caring for child, or evidence that use impaired parenting
- o No evidence that A was exposed to parents' behavior and no evidence that arguments had turned violent.
- o No evidence that A had seen or heard disagreements, or that such exposure put A at risk of serious harm or injury.

Current threat of serious loss or injury

- o Alcohol
 - o DHS v. H.R., 274 Or App 601 \(2015\)
 - o Repeated DUI convictions between 2002 and 2009 resulting in repeated incarceration
 - o Testimony:
 - o Stopped drinking and enrolled in treatment
 - o Back pain – started drinking again to help sleep
 - o Consumption varied every 3 to 5 days when kids were asleep
 - o Girlfriend with him “24 hours a day”
 - o Court found father’s testimony not credible
 - o Even small amounts of alcohol a problem for father (admitted alcoholic + prison + depends on alcohol for sleep)
 - o Jurisdictional judgment affirmed

Current threat of serious loss or injury

- o Alcohol, unexplained injury and domestic violence
 - o DHS v. K.V., 276 Or App 782 \(2016\)
 - o Jurisdiction over A when:
 - o Mother had protected A from father; but now mother was no longer living in the house.
 - o Father failed to protect S from mother; father didn’t believe there were any issues with mother’s parenting that would have led to the injury of S
 - o Father committed acts of domestic violence while intoxicated
 - o Minimal evidence that father had completed a substance abuse assessment; community reports he was still using alcohol.
 - o Nexus between father’s alcohol use, domestic violence and risk of harm to A supported by expert testimony that domestic violence between spouses is a risk factor for child abuse.

Current threat of serious loss or injury

- o Unexplained injury. DHS v. J.M., 275 Or App 429 \(2015\).
 - o When a parent has participated in some services, but there is concern the parent hasn't internalized better parenting techniques, the dispositive question is what the parent will likely do.
 - o Legally sufficient evidence links the lack of insight to the risk of harm.
 - o Totality of circumstances.

Current threat of serious loss or injury

- o Allegations no longer "current". DHS v. M.M., 277 Or App 120 \(2016\)
 - o Facts:
 - o Father attempted suicide in February, 2014
 - o He would provide his prescription drugs to mother to help her deal with illicit drug use
 - o Father had untreated PTSD
 - o Jurisdiction judgment entered April, 2015
 - o Court of Appeals
 - o Reversed.
 - o Parents separated for almost a year.
 - o No evidence regarding father's mental health since June, 2014.
 - o Father's circumstances had changed substantially since suicide attempt.

Child in care of third party

- o Grandparents.
 - o DHS v. A.H., 275 Or App 788 \(2015\).
 - o Child was removed from her parents and placed with grandparents.
 - o At the time of the jurisdictional hearing, no evidence was presented that grandparents were unsafe.
 - o The child's placement would continue without juvenile court jurisdiction or DHS involvement.
 - o Jurisdictional judgment reversed.

Reasonable Efforts

- o Six month delay in disclosing diagnosis of child's developmental delay to parents. DHS v. J.M., 275 Or App 429 \(2015\).
 - o Reasonable efforts considerations:
 - o Totality of circumstances
 - o Ward's health and safety
 - o Burdens the state would bear and what benefit might reasonably be expected to flow
 - o In this case, the record supports the inference that providing the information earlier would not have made a difference.

Reasonable Efforts

- o Five and a half month delay in referring father to services not reasonable. DHS v. R.W., 277 Or App 37 \(2016\).
- o Facts:
 - o Initial offer of services made 2 days after removal; father refused services and did not sign any releases of information.
 - o Three months later, the court established jurisdiction.
 - o Two and a half months later, the court held a dispositional hearing.
 - o Two days prior to this, father requested service referrals and signed a release. DHS made a referral the same day as the dispositional hearing.
- o Court of Appeals:
 - o In determining whether DHS made reasonable efforts, the court considers a parent's lack of cooperation within the context of DHS's conduct and the case circumstances.
 - o Although father was initially uncooperative, DHS did not demonstrate any subsequent attempts to provide, or even offer, father services.
 - o No explanation as to why DHS made no additional attempts to obtain a release.
 - o The fact that the teenage daughter did not want to visit with father doesn't matter in analysis.
