Two OJD eFiling Websites Available Until 2016 (Exact Date to be Announced)

Effective September 1, 2015 Google Chrome will no longer support websites that use Silverlight, including the current OJD eFiling website. To address this event, a new OJD eFiling website (HTML 5) that will accommodate Chrome users as well as Internet Explorer 11 and above, Firefox, and Safari, was launched on August 28, 2015. The "old" OJD eFiling website will remain temporarily active until 2016.

Users may continue to use the "old" OJD eFiling Website to eFile with the Oregon circuit courts during a transition period (ending in 2016) or may begin using the new version, OJD eFiling HTML 5. Filers can use either site to eFile documents with the Oregon circuit courts, but will only be able to continue using the Chrome browser with the new HTML 5 website – the "old" OJD eFiling website can still be accessed through Internet Explorer, Firefox, or Safari browsers.

New users coming onboard to OJD eFiling will be directed to the HTML 5 version of OJD eFiling.
