IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR THE COUNTY OF COLUMBIA

The Court hereby issues a Standing Order for Oregon State Police to reopen and disclose to the Columbia County District Attorney's Office any and all records sealed under ORS 137.225 for the limited purpose of assisting the investigation of a movant for Motion to Set Aside pursuant to ORS 137.225(5)(a)(A)(ii) and ORS 137.225(7)(b).

IT IS SO ORDERED THAT the Court finds good cause for Oregon State Police to release any and all records sealed under ORS 127.225 because consideration of previously set aside convictions, arrests, citations, and charges is mandated by the statute. Under ORS 137.225(5)(a)(A)(ii), "a conviction, arrest, citation, or charge that has been set aside under this section shall be considered for the purpose of determining whether this subparagraph is applicable." Furthermore, under ORS 137.225(7)(b), "a conviction that has been set aside under this section shall be considered for the purpose of determining whether this paragraph is applicable." Given the mandatory language of the statute, good cause exists for each and every Motion to Set Aside filed before this Court.

Dated this 24th day of April ____, 2019.

The Honorable Ienefer S Grant
