Welcome to the Families Restored Program

Welcome to the Families Restored Program. If you are reading this handbook it means that you have been accepted or are being considered for acceptance into families restored program based upon a detailed review of your history of drug/alcohol use. It also means that we are confident that family's restored program will help you to learn how to make successful choices free of the influence of drugs or alcohol.

As a participant in the families restored program you will work frequently or have regular contact with members of the treatment court team which includes; the Judge, the Trial Court Administrator, Treatment Court Coordinator, Columbia Community Mental Health, The Department of Human Services and you're Defense Attorney. Members of the family dependency treatment court Team want to see you succeed in this program and are willing to help you maintain sobriety by supporting you wholeheartedly in your efforts.

This handbook has been created to provide guidance to families restored participants throughout the program. The handbook will be a great resource for you, as a participant in the program. It has been designed to answer your questions, summarize what is expected of you as a participant in the program and to provide an overall summary of the Program.

Families Restored Program Overview

The Families Restored Program is a five-phase intervention/treatment program for parents who struggle with staying clean and sober and have had their children removed from their homes by DHS. It is a collaborative effort between the Circuit Court, Columbia Community Mental Health, Columbia County Community

Corrections and the Department of Human Services. By working together as a team, they seek to provide a variety of programs and consistent supervision geared toward supporting and helping you maintain a drug-free life.

The Families Restored Program involves frequent court appearances, random drug testing, supervision, groups, individual counseling and accountability. The court awards incentives for compliant behavior and imposes sanctions for negative behavior. Participants whom the treatment court team determine have been doing well, either in treatment, the community or their personal life are eligible for incentives which may include movie tickets, gift certificates, T-shirts or other clothing, or a variety of other incentives to be determined by the treatment court team, based upon need and level of accomplishment. Participants who do not comply with the rules may be given sanctions including moving back to the previous phase of program. There may also be a variety of other sanctions determined by the treatment court team. In some cases clients may even be terminated from the program.

All of the staff working with the Families Restored Program will assist you to make sure you understand what is expected of you and will help in any way that they can to make sure that you are able to succeed.

Families Restored Team Members

The Families Restored Program Judge will make all decisions regarding your participation in the program with input from the treatment court team. In addition to the Judge, the treatment court team consists of members from Columbia Community Mental Health, Department of Human Services, and volunteers who work together to create a safe and supportive environment for you to succeed in the Families Restored Program. Prior to court hearings, the team members familiarize themselves with your progress so that they may discuss that progress with you during your court hearing.

Progress Reports

Before your court hearing, the team will review your activity during the week. The progress report will discuss your drug testing results, attendance, participation and cooperation in the treatment program, employment or other requirements that may have been imposed. The Judge may ask questions about your progress and discuss any problems you may be having. If you are doing well you may be rewarded with reduced program requirements or, at times, other incentives like movie tickets, gift cards or clothing. If your progress reports show that you are not doing well, the Judge will discuss this with you and determine future action, which could include a sanction in order to help you remember your goals in the program. Sanctions can be anything from increased program requirements to moving back to the previous phase of the program.

Court Hearings

As a participant in the Families Restored Program, you will be required to appear at weekly court hearings. These hearings are every Monday at 4pm. Failure to appear will result in sanctions being issued. If you have questions about your court appearances you may contact the Treatment Court Coordinator, Treatment provider or your attorney. Confidentiality

State licensing requires that your identity and privacy be protected. In response to these regulations, The Families Restored Program and its team members and partners have developed policies and procedures that guard your privacy. You will be asked to sign Consent for Disclosure of Confidential Substance Abuse Information. This disclosure of information is for the sole purpose of hearings and reports concerning your specific dependency court case. CCMH may require that you sign additional forms relative to your specific case within the treatment court.

Program Rules

As a participant you will be required to abide by the rules outlined in the participant contract, including, but not limited to the following.

1. Totally abstain from the use of illegal drugs and alcohol.
2. Inform your doctor that you are a recovering addict and may not take narcotic or addictive medications or drugs.
3. Attend court sessions and treatment sessions as scheduled, submit to random alcohol and drug testing, remain clean and sober and law abiding.
4. Do not associate with people who use or possess drugs.
5. Do not possess any weapons while in the dependency treatment court program.
6. Keep the treatment court team informed of your current address and phone number at all times.
7. Dress appropriately for court and treatment sessions.

Sick Leave

A participant who is absent due to an illness or injury may be absent for no more than two days without providing a written doctor's note to the program coordinator and treatment provider. A participant who has a scheduled doctor's or dentist appointment must provide proof to the program coordinator and treatment provider that the participant did in fact attend the scheduled appointment. The participant will always provide copies of any medication prescribed by a doctor or dentist to the program coordinator and treatment provider. If a participant is continuously ill and the program feels that the two day rule is being taken advantage of the program can ask the participant to provide a doctor's note at any time.

Possible Incentives

*Sanctions/Incentives are determined on a case by case basis by the treatment court team

Upon the recommendation of the treatment court team, participants may be given rewards or incentives for compliant behavior. Common incentives:

Praise by the Court/Judge

Gift Certificates

Sobriety Tokens

Fishbowl drawings

Certificates of Graduation

Dismissal of Court Case

See attached list of other possible incentives

Possible Sanctions

*Sanctions/Incentives are determined on a case by case basis by the treatment court team

Sanctions can be imposed for failing to comply with academic or behavioral requirements. Academic compliance is considered doing well in treatment. Behavioral compliance is how a participant acts inside and outside of treatment. A participant may progress in treatment but if a participant's actions or attitude outside of treatment do not meet the program requirements the participant may not progress in the treatment court program.

Possible Sanction

Verbal Reprimand by Judge

Written essays

Day Reporting

Community Service work

Work crew

Increased UA's

Additional time in current phase

Return to prior phase

Curfew restrictions

Incarceration

See attached list of additional possible sanctions

Termination from Program

Arrests or a violation of any aspect of your treatment plan may result in you being terminated from the Dependency treatment court program. Other violations, which could result in termination, include the following:

- Missing and/or positive drug tests;
- Altered drug test;
- Demonstrating a lack of program response by failing to cooperate with the coordinator or treatment program;
- Violence or threat of violence directed at treatment staff, other participants of the program or other clients of the treatment providers.

Chemical Testing

1. You will be drug tested randomly throughout your entire treatment court program. You will be observed to ensure freedom from errors.
2. If you miss a test, or have a diluted UA it will count as a positive (dirty) test.
3. If you have a positive test in any treatment court phase, the Judge, based on recommendations from the coordinator or treatment staff, will apply immediate sanctions.
4. Creatin levels will also be monitored for possible dilution.
5. It is your responsibility to know what foods and beverages can result in a positive UA.

Aftercare Phase

In order to provide you with a continuing support system and to ensure that you can maintain your valuable sobriety, you will be expected to participate in a continuing care/aftercare phase. Please take advantage of this opportunity to prove to the treatment court team that you are ready to start your new life as a productive, member of society.

Graduation

Upon your successful completion of the aftercare phase of the treatment court program and satisfaction of all other court requirements including continued sobriety, you will graduate from family dependency treatment court program. Graduation from the Families Restored Program is recognized as a very important event. Your family and friends will be invited to join you at a special ceremony as treatment court team congratulates you for successfully completing Phases I – V of the program and achieving your goal to establish a drug-free life.
