GENERAL ORDER NO.

16-01

COOS COUNTY COURT
COQUILLE, OREGON

House Bill 2776, 2015 Legislative Session, requires the Presiding Judge of each county to designate at least one judge to be reasonably available to enter, in person or by electronic transmission, ex parte emergency protective orders at all times whether or not the court is in session and based upon such law, the court enters the following general order:

It is hereby ordered that in Coos and Curry Counties, a peace officer may, in person or by electronic transmission, submit an application for an emergency protective order to a reasonably available judge between the hours of 8am and 4pm Monday through Friday, except holidays;

It is hereby further ordered that an application submitted by a peace officer by electronic transmission shall be by fax to the court which will open a case, scan the documents into the case, and notify the judge reasonably available that an application has been made and is ready for review;

It hereby further ordered that on Saturdays, Sundays, holidays, and after 4pm on weekdays that are not holidays, a peace officer may, in person only, submit an application for an emergency protective order to a reasonably available judge;

It is hereby further ordered that the presiding judge shall send to all police agencies within the 15th Judicial District a copy of this general order and a schedule showing judges reasonably available to review an application for an emergency protective order.

Dated this 2nd day of February, 2016.

Richard L. Barron
Presiding Judge
