

Jackson County Treatment Court Recovery Opportunity Court (ROC) Participant/Community Benefits

Participant Benefits:

- Participants are provided a broad array of services and supports; Co-occurring treatment is offered as well as other ancillary services
- Immediate access to treatment/pre-engagement services
- Multidisciplinary team that includes the ARC, probation, LEA, Defense counsel, Prosecutor, and the Treatment Court Judge
- Non-adversarial approach aimed at treating the chronic Substance Use Disorder as well as addressing behaviors
- Participants, with the support of the team, work to create Recovery Capital, focusing on the participant's community connections, financial stability, social connections, and personal growth
- Gender responsive treatment group and court sessions
- Long-term, client-based treatment and monitoring through urinalysis testing
- Employment assistance
- Assistance to obtain stable housing
- Assistance obtaining ODL as well as setting up payment plans for fines/fees/restitution
- Certified Recovery Mentor support/assistance

Community Benefits:

- Enhanced public safety
- Reduced substance abuse and criminal activity within the community
- Rehabilitation of individuals to contributing members of the community
- Extensive oversight/supervision of high-risk offenders with frequent court contact
- Restitution payments are required to graduate
- Drug courts achieve higher reductions in recidivism and greater cost savings for the community and state