NOTICE OF REQUIRED PARENT EDUCATION

Pursuant to Klamath County Circuit Court Supplemental Local Rule (SLR) 8.070(1), “All individuals who are parties to a case involving child custody or parenting time, whether or not contested, must attend a three-hour, court-approved parent education class, which includes a mediation orientation session. Each party who has made an appearance in the case must file a certificate of completion of the parent education class with the court unless otherwise ordered by the court. The certificate of completion may remain in effect for two years from the completion date, unless otherwise ordered by the court.”

Parties may fulfill this requirement by completing an on-line parent education course.

Court approved programs are as shown below.
