II. Written Arguments/Responses

The court welcomes the parties' opinions about managing this case. Although Dominic M. Corollo's seven (7) page letter to the court dated August 24, 2018 was part of the incentive to set this conference, that letter and its enclosures will not be considered written comments or responses. He and other parties and counsel can file comments and responses as follows:

Written comments must be filed by February 1, 2019.

Written responses must be filed by February 16, 2019.

All written comments and responses must be served on the current service list. It is most helpful if comments and responses are brief and either support the existing process or procedures or make very specific suggestions for change.

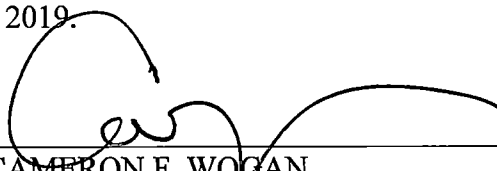

III. Agenda for Conference February 28, 2019 at 11:00 a.m.

1. Court's introduction
2. Comments from the Case Management Committee regarding status of future proceedings.
3. Recommendations for individuals to replace Dominic Corollo on the Case Management Committee after his resignation August 24, 2018. The court may appoint a replacement after hearing recommendations.
4. Comments about the process for Phase 3, Part 1, Group B legal issues.
 - Briefing schedule
 - Changes from Group A process?
 - The court suggests that each brief should address a single issue.
 - Other comments.
5. Discussion about keeping a record of changes to the ACFFOD and/or a spreadsheet. The record of these proceedings consists of about 930 filings in this case as of January 14, 2019. There was a court spread sheet which is not being updated. There is an Oregon Attorney General spreadsheet (AG spreadsheet) and it appears it was most recently updated 5/3/16. Should there be a continuing process to summarize changes to the ACFFOD and/or for the spreadsheet?

6. Other topics as set forth in comments or responses.
7. Other comments from parties or counsel.

Dated this 14th day of January, 2019.
