

Dissolution Forms and Instructions for Co-Petitioners, Cases with No Children

Instructions

I. General Information:

A. Use black or dark blue ink and print or type when you fill out your forms.

B. Always file the original forms with the clerk. You should always make yourself an extra copy before you file any form with the clerk.

C. Keep the court informed of your current address. It is your responsibility to keep the court informed of your current address. You are not required to use your residential address on any court form. You may use a contact address where you regularly check in. Your contact address will become public information. Please make sure that you use an address that is okay for other people, including the other party, to know. It must be an address in the state where you live where you can receive mail. If you use a contact address, the court will assume that you will receive all notices sent to that address.

D. Case Heading. Make sure you fill in your names in the blanks at the top of the forms using your full names (first, middle or middle initial, last). Write the names the same way on all of the forms.

E. Case number. The clerk will give you a case number when you file your papers. Don't worry about filling out this part of the case heading until that time. Make sure you put this number on all your copies and papers you file with the court.

F. Statutory Restraining Order. Oregon law requires both Co-Petitioners to obey a restraining order preventing either party from dissipating (selling, destroying, removing, disposing of) real or personal property, making unilateral (without the agreement of the other party) changes to insurance policies, and making extraordinary expenditures. Expenditures that are necessary for the safety or welfare of the parties are not prohibited. By filing your co-petition, you agree to be bound by the terms of this order. The order is effective immediately upon filing of the co-petition. If either co-petitioner violates the order, s/he may be subject to sanctions. The "Notice of Statutory Restraining Order Preventing the Dissipation of Assets in Domestic Relations Actions" is attached to this packet.

G. Confidential Personal Information. There is certain personal information that can only be listed in a Confidential Information Form (CIF) and may not be listed in any of the other papers you file with the court. See the CIF information sheet that is part of this packet.

H. Optional Forms. (Available upon request)

Waiver of Personal Service form. This form allows you to waive your right to personal service. After the judgment is final, you have the right to be personally served with a contempt charge if your ex-spouse believes you haven't followed the provisions of the judgment. If you want to keep your residential address confidential, this form allows you to list a mailing address, business address or a specified agent, and waive your right to be personally served (to have the papers actually delivered to you in person). Should you choose to use this form, you are responsible for making sure that all papers delivered to the specified address are actually delivered to you.

* Application, Declaration and Order for Waiver or Deferral of Fees. This form allows you to defer payment of the filing fees until final judgment if you are unable to pay the fees at the time you file your petition.

II. Completing the documents

You must: (1) fill out the forms and (2) file the forms with the clerk.

A. Fill out the forms.

1. Petition for Dissolution of Marriage/RDP.
2. UTCR 2.130 Confidential Information Form (CIF). (One for each party)
3. Notice of CIF Filing.
Record of Dissolution of Marriage/RDP. (Vital Statistics Form)

B. Have your documents reviewed.

Please have your documents reviewed by either the Family Court Specialist or your Lawyer. You should have a lawyer advise you on these forms if either of you have a retirement account. You may schedule an appointment for the Family Court Specialist to review your documents by calling 541-682-4302.

III. Filing the documents.

A. File the forms with the clerk.

When you have finished filling out your forms, file the following original forms with the clerk: (1) Petition for Dissolution, (2) UTCR 2.130 Confidential Information Forms (CIFs), (3) Notice of CIF Filing, and the Record of Dissolution of Marriage/RDP. You should make one copy of the forms you file with the clerk for your own record.

Payment of fees. When you file your petition for dissolution, you must pay a filing fee. You may ask the court to defer payment of this fee, by filling out an "Application, Declaration and Order for Waiver or Deferral of Fees" form. You may obtain the form and a fee schedule from the court clerk or the Family Court Specialist. You will need to attend an Ex parte hearing to have a judge make a decision on the fee deferral/waiver. Ex parte takes place Monday through Friday from 8:30 to 8:50 a.m., it is a hearing where judges are available to sign documents and you do not need to have an appointment to attend. You will not be allowed to file your dissolution petition until you either pay the fee, or get the deferral/waiver form signed by a judge. (If the court “defers” your fee, you will be required to pay all deferred fees back to the court at a later date.) You must file your forms on the same day you see a judge for the fee deferral/waiver.

IV. Finalizing Your Dissolution

A. 1. Once you have completed the previous steps, you may fill out and present the following forms to the judge to resolve your case. (It is possible to present these forms to the Judge the same day you file forms 1- 3 if you file in the morning before the 8:30 a.m. hearing described below.)

You do not need to have an appointment to attend. You must first check in with the cashiers on the second floor of the courthouse. You may submit a copy of your documents when you submit the originals. Once the court signs your documents, the clerk will conform your copies.

Information about the Confidential Information Form (CIF)

What is a CIF?

Most court files may be viewed by the public. Uniform Trial Court Rule (UTCRC) 2.130 requires certain confidential personal information to be protected from public disclosure. That is done by providing the information in a separate form. After you file your papers, the court keeps the form separate from the part of the court file that may be viewed by the public. The form is UTCRC Form 2.130.1, known as the Confidential Information Form, or CIF.

What information does a CIF make confidential?

The information protected by the CIF is social security numbers, birth dates, driver license numbers, and former legal names. Also protected are the name, address, and telephone number of a party's employer.

The CIF should only be used to protect the information described above. There may be other information in your court papers that you do not want the public to be able to see, such as bank account or credit card numbers. The separate process for protecting that information is described in UTCRC 2.100, which can be read at:

How do I know when I need to put information in the CIF?

When a document filed with the court requires you to include information protected by a CIF, that information must only be provided to the court in a CIF and must not be listed in any other document to be filed. Where you would otherwise provide the information in the document to be filed you must make a note that the information has been provided in the CIF. For example, if a document requires a party's full social security number to be listed, you must not list the social security number, but must instead make a note on the document that the information has been filed under UTCRC 2.130. The online court forms already have that note on the form.

Do I need to file more than one CIF?

In most cases, yes. You must fill out a CIF for yourself, and if the documents you are filing with the court require confidential personal information about the other party, you must also fill out a separate CIF with the other party's information. If your case involves children, you should include their information in your CIF. You do not need a separate CIF for your children.

If there is CIF information you do not know when you file your papers, or if the information changes during your case, you must file an amended CIF that provides the new or updated information.

The CIF rule requires you to redact – black out or erase – confidential personal information from any attachments to documents you file with the court and to make a note on the attachment that the information has been provided in the CIF. The only exception is when you are required to attach a court-certified document. Documents that are required to be court certified should not be altered in any way.

Does the other party get copies of a CIF I file?

You are not required to serve the CIFs on the other party, though you may share a CIF with the other party if you chose to do so. You are required to serve the other party with UTCR Form 2.130.2, which is a notice that a CIF has been filed. You must also file a certificate with the court showing that you served the other party with the notice that a CIF was filed.

There are steps the other party and other people can go through to ask the court to allow them access to a CIF that you have filed. UTCR 2.130 explains that process in detail, and also describes the circumstances under which the court must deny a request by someone else to view a CIF you have filed.

The CIF rule (UTCR 2.130) can be read at:

<http://courts.oregon.gov/OJD/OSCA/cpsd/courtimprovement/familylaw/familylawforms.page?>

and you can find additional information about the rule at:
