

PARENTING TIME ENFORCEMENT

The 1997 Oregon Legislature changed the law in child custody cases so that parents are now awarded “parenting time” with their children. “Parenting time” used to be called “visitation.”

The Legislature also established an expedited procedure to enforce violations of parenting time. Lane County has adopted four forms to use for this procedure:

- Motion
- Declaration
- Order to Show Cause (9:00 hearing)
- Supplemental Judgment

These forms are included in this packet. You can use the following instructions to help you fill out the forms.

In addition to these forms, you will need the following:

- current name and address of the other party
- copy of the court judgment or order which awarded parenting time
- filing fee OR Application for Waiver or Deferral (fee schedule and deferral form available from Court Information or the Family Court Assistance Office at the Court)

Notice about Enforcement of Orders from other Courts.

To enforce an out of state order or judgment, the following forms are required: (1) Enforcement of Out of State Child Custody and Parenting Time Judgments and (2) Parenting Time/Plan; Petition for Enforcement of Out of State Order. These forms are available through the Oregon Judicial Department at <http://courts.oregon.gov/Lane/> or through your local circuit court. If the order was entered in another county, you will need to file a request to transfer with the court that entered the order.

STEP 1

(Filling out the forms)

On each form, fill in the case caption and case number. The case caption and number must be the same as that in the Lane County Circuit Court case which orders the parenting time. If you were the Respondent in the case which ordered parenting time, you will remain the Respondent for the purposes of this motion. Even if your name has changed, the names in the caption should be the same as in the original case.

Start with the MOTION

Pages 1 and 2

On the MOTION, you can ask for up to nine different remedies for violation of parenting time (a) (1), (2), (3) and (b) through (g). You may check as many boxes as are appropriate to your situation.

Boxes (a) (1), (a) (2) and (a) (3) allow you to ask the court to modify the parenting plan by:

- (1) specifying a detailed parenting time schedule,
- (2) imposing additional terms and conditions, or
- (3) ordering additional parenting time to compensate you for wrongful deprivation of parenting time.

If you check any of these boxes, you should write out the details of the remedy you are seeking. For example, if you are asking for a detailed schedule, you should write it out in the space provided on the form and attach additional pages if necessary.

Check as many boxes as you think are appropriate on pages 1 and 2 of the MOTION.

NOTE: Box (g) allows you to ask the court for a permanent change of custody. Change of custody proceedings are complex and certain standards must be met at both the pleading stage and during a trial before a judge can even consider your motion. In addition, motions seeking a change of custody will not be heard for several months, whereas motions seeking other relief will be heard in no more than 45 days. If you are serious about seeking a change of custody and not just enforcement or modification of a parenting plan, you should see a lawyer immediately. In most cases, a judge will not allow you to use this packet for modification of custody.

Fill in the names and addresses for both parties. If you or the other party has changed your names, use the new name here.

Check the length that you expect the hearing to take.

ATTACH A COPY OF THE ORDER OR JUDGMENT ESTABLISHING PARENTING TIME. A JUDGE MAY NOT APPROVE YOUR MOTION UNLESS A COPY OF THE ORDER IS ATTACHED.

COMPLETE ITEMS 1 THROUGH 7 ONLY IF YOU ASKED FOR

(a) modification of parenting time or

(g) modification of custody IN YOUR MOTION.

- Number 1 Check all of the boxes that apply. Oregon is the “home state” if the child/ren has lived in Oregon with one or both parents (or a person acting as parent) for the last six months. If the child is less than six months old, Oregon is the “home state” if the child has lived in Oregon since birth. Temporary absences from the state do not affect “home state.”
- Number 2 Fill in the present address of the child/ren involved in this dispute.
- Number 3 Fill in the addresses of the child/ren over the last five years. Attach an additional sheet of paper if more room is needed.
- Number 4 Fill in the names and current addresses of the person(s) that the child/ren has lived with during the last five years. Attach an additional sheet of paper if more room is needed.
- Number 5 If you have participated in any other cases involving custody, visitation or placement of the child/ren involved in this case, fill in the name of the case and the court where the case took place. If none, write “none.”
- Number 6 If there is any other case pending which involves custody, visitation or placement of the child/ren involved in this case, fill in the name of the case and the court where the case is filed. If none, write “none.”
- Number 7 List any other person(s) who has physical custody of the child/ren or who claims custody or visitation rights. If none, write “none.”

Sign the Declaration.

Complete the ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

Fill in the case caption and case number. Underneath the caption, fill in the current name and address for the other party.

STEP 2

Before you take the papers to the court, you should make two copies. Keep one set of copies for your records. The second set will be served on the other party AFTER THE PAPERS HAVE BEEN FILED.

Take the forms to a judge at “Ex Parte.” “Ex Parte” is a time when you can present papers to the judges. It is between 8:30 a.m. and 8:50 a.m. Monday through Friday. You will need to check in with Court Information on the second floor in order to attend an Ex Parte hearing.

There is a filing fee. If you cannot afford to pay the fee, you can ask the judge at “Ex Parte” to waive or defer your fee. You will need to fill out a form to give to the judge. You can obtain the form from Court Information or the Family Court Assistance Office at the Courthouse.

If your papers are properly completed, the judge will sign the ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE. The judge will fill in a date for a show cause hearing. (The hearing will be on a Monday at 9:00 a.m., usually 3 to 4 weeks away. At that time, both sides will be expected to present all of their evidence, and the judge will decide whether to order the remedies you have requested.)

After the judge signs the ORDER, you must file the original MOTION, DECLARATION, and ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE with the Court Clerk on the 2nd floor of the Courthouse and EITHER pay the filing fee OR file a fee deferral signed by the Judge.

STEP 3

Use the copies that will be served on the other party.

Conform the ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE:

On the ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE, fill in the date it was signed and write in the name of the judge that signed the ORDER on the judge’s signature line. In front on the judge’s name on the signature line, write /s/ to show that the judge signed his/her name. It should look like this:

/s/ Judges Name
Circuit Court Judge

Fill in the date for the 9:00 hearing.

In other words, fill in all the blanks so the copy reads the same as the original.

The Court Clerk will stamp to “conform” the service copies of the ORDER, MOTION and DECLARATION.

SERVE THE PAPERS ON THE OPPOSING PARTY IMMEDIATELY

- OPTION #1: You can take the conformed copies to the sheriff and have them serve them on the other party. You will have to pay a fee to the sheriff unless the filing and service fees were deferred or waived. If fees were deferred or waived, the sheriff will need to see a copy of the signed fee order. Give the sheriff an extra copy of the ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE. The sheriff will use it to file the PROOF OF SERVICE with the court showing the date that the papers were served.

OPTION #2: There are also private “process servers” who will also serve papers. They are listed in the yellow pages under “process servers.” A private process server may be faster than the sheriff. The fee deferral or waiver does not apply to the fees of private process servers so you will have to pay the service fee.

OPTION #3: You can have someone else serve the copies on the other party. You cannot do it yourself. The person who serves the papers must be a resident of Oregon or the state in which service is made, age 18 or older. The person who serves the papers will have to file a CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE with the Court which states the date, time, place and manner of service. Fill out the case caption and case number of the CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE as well as the certificate of document preparation.

STEP 4

Attend the hearing set in the ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE. Participate in mediation if the court requires it. If the Judge decides that the Court needs more time to address the issues in your case, the Judge may choose to schedule another hearing. After the hearing, the judge may require that you complete the form called Judgment Re: Enforcement of Parenting Plan (bring this form to the hearing) or the judge may complete the Judgment and file it with the court. You should obtain a copy for your records and serve the other party with a copy.

MOTION FOR ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE RE
ENFORCEMENT OF
PARENTING PLAN

1. Motion

Petitioner/Respondent moves that the court order the other party to show cause why parenting time should not be enforced in the following way(s) based on the violation of parenting time or substantial violations of the parenting plan detailed in the attached declaration:

a. Modifying the provisions of the parenting time schedule, as follows:

(1) Specifying a detailed parenting time schedule, as follows: _____

(2) Imposing additional terms and conditions on the parenting time schedule, as follows: _____

_____.

(3) Ordering the following additional parenting time, if in the best interests of the child, to compensate for wrongful deprivation of parenting time: _____

- b. Ordering the party who is violating the parenting plan provisions to post bond or security.
- c. Ordering either or both parties to attend counseling or educational sessions focusing on the impact on children of violating the parenting plan.
- d. Awarding the prevailing party his or her expenses incurred in enforcing the parenting plan, including but not limited to attorney fees, filing fees, and court costs.
- e. Terminating, suspending or modifying spousal support.
- f. Terminating, suspending or modifying child support if the Court finds that parenting time has been denied or interfered with without good cause, and other requirements of ORS 107.431 are met.
- g. Scheduling a hearing for permanent modification of custody.

The Following are valid addresses for the court to mail hearing notices to each party.

Petitioner: _____

Respondent: _____

I understand that this matter shall be heard on the show cause docket at 9:00 a.m. on a date set in the order to show cause. If only box g is checked, the initial hearing will be for the sole purpose of scheduling a further hearing for modification of custody on the regular trial docket.

2. Representation of Hearing Length.

I expect that the total hearing time required for both sides will be:

- one hour or more;
- less than one hour.

3. Copy of Order Establishing Parenting Time

A true and exact copy of the Order or Judgment establishing the parenting time is attached to this Motion and labeled "Exhibit 1."

4. Points and Authorities

This request is based on ORS 107.434 which requires expedited hearings and authorizes various remedies for violations of parenting plans.

DECLARATION of
 Petitioner
 Respondent
SUPPORTING MOTION FOR ENFORCEMENT OF
PARENTING PLAN

I am the Petitioner / Respondent in this matter and I make this Declaration to support my Motion for Enforcement of the Parenting Plan. The details concerning the other party's violation of my parenting time, or his/her substantial violation of the parenting plan, are as follows:

Additional page attached, see section labeled "violations continued."

I request that the Court order the remedies I selected in my Motion because: _____

Additional page attached, see section labeled “remedies continued.”

If on Pages 1 and 2 of the “Motion for Order to Show Cause re Enforcement of Parenting Plan” you selected Paragraph “a” (modification of parenting plan provisions) of Section 1, or Paragraph “g” (scheduling a hearing for modification of custody) of Section 1, you must complete the following sections of this Declaration:

1. Basis of Jurisdiction: The Parenting Plan I am seeking to enforce was contained in an Order or Judgment entered in the State of _____. Oregon has jurisdiction over the custody or parenting time modification because: (check all that apply)

Oregon is the home state of the child/ren involved in my motion.

It is in the child/ren’s best interests that Oregon determine the custody or parenting time issue because the child/ren and the parents of the child/ren, or the child/ren and at least one contestant, have a significant connection with Oregon and there is available here substantial evidence concerning the child/ren’s present or future care, protection, training and personal relationships.

The child/ren involved in my motion are physically present in Oregon and the child/ren has/have been abandoned or it is necessary in an emergency to protect the child/ren because the child/ren has/have been subjected to or threatened with mistreatment or abuse or is/are otherwise neglected or dependent.

No other state has jurisdiction under the grounds specified above, or the State of _____ has declined to exercise jurisdiction because Oregon is the more appropriate forum, and it is in the child/ren’s best interest that Oregon assume jurisdiction.

2. Child/ren’s Present Address: The present address of the child/ren involved in my motion is _____.

3. Child/ren’s Past Addresses: During the last five years the child/ren involved in my motion has/have lived at the following addresses: _____

4. Caregiver's Identity and Present Addresses: During the last five years the child/ren involved in my motion have lived with the following parent(s) or other caregiver(s), who currently live at the following address(es): _____
_____.

5. Except for proceedings leading to the Order or Judgment I am trying to enforce, I have not participated in any capacity in any litigation concerning the custody, visitation or placement of the child/ren involved in this motion in Oregon or in any other state except for _____
_____.

6. I know of no custody, visitation or placement proceedings about the child/ren involved in my motion, in Oregon or in any other state, except for _____
_____.

7. I know of no person not a party to these proceedings who has physical custody of the child/ren involved in my motion, or who claims to have custody or visitation rights with respect to the child/ren, except for _____
_____.

I hereby declare that the above statements are true and complete to the best of my knowledge and belief. I understand they are made for use in court and I am subject to penalty for perjury.

IMPORTANT NOTICES ON NEXT PAGE

IMPORTANT NOTICES:

1) NOTICE ABOUT SANCTIONS

The remedies the Court may impose as a result of the motion to enforce a parenting plan are listed in the motion.

When pled and proven in a separate legal action, violation of court orders, including visitation and parenting time orders, may also result in a finding of contempt. This can lead to punishment by fines, jail, or other penalties.

2) NOTICE ABOUT MEDIATION

Mediation of the parenting plan enforcement issues may be ordered in certain cases, but is not being ordered in this case.

Generally, the court will not order mediation unless the moving party seeks to modify a pre-existing parenting time order, or otherwise seeks to modify the support or custody provisions of a pre-existing judgment. In addition the court will not order mediation if the order providing for parenting time arose from a domestic violence proceeding. .

3) SERVICE

Unless another time is ordered by the court, the moving party must have the motion and order to show cause and supporting documentation lawfully served on the other party promptly after they are filed with the court, and in any event no less than 10 days before the hearing.
