

Objection to Arrears Forms and Instructions

Instructions

STEP 1

You have 30 days following the date you were served with the certificate of arrears to file an objection with the court clerk. Fill out the Objection to Arrears form completely. The case heading (names and case number) at the top of each form will be the same as it is on the petition that started your original case.

STEP 2

Make three copies of the Objection to Arrears (one to mail to the administrative agency, the second to mail to the other parent, and the third to keep for your records).

STEP 3

Mail a copy of the Objection to Arrears to either the Division of Child Support or Family Law Division of the District Attorney's Office, whichever administrator initiated the arrears action, and to the other parent, using regular first class mail.

STEP 4

Fill out the Certificate of Mailing form completely.

STEP 5

File the original Objection to Arrears and the Certificate of Mailing with the court clerk on the second floor of the courthouse. There is no filing fee for this action.

STEP 6

Attend all hearings. If you don't receive notice of a hearing, check with either the administrative agency handling your case or the court to find out the status of your request.
