

Request for Temporary Access to Minor

These instructions are not a complete statement of the law. They cover basic procedure for requesting temporary relief during the pendency of a case. A petition for dissolution, separation, custody or parenting time must have already been filed, or must be filed at the same time as the forms in this packet are filed. These forms are not intended to be used during a post judgment modification proceeding. Neither the Court nor Court Staff is permitted to give legal advice. For legal advice you should speak with a lawyer. For additional information visit your local law library and/or refer to the Lane County Circuit Court Local Family Law Practices and Programs information sheet.

STEP 1

Fill out the following forms:

- Ex Parte Motion for Order to Show Cause Re: Access to Minor Child During Pendency of Proceedings; and Declaration in Support, and
- Order to Show Cause re: Access to Minor Child During Pendency of Proceedings.

The case heading (names and case number) at the top of each form will be the same as it is on the petition that started your case. Keep the court informed of your current address so you get notice of all court dates. You are not required to use your residential address on any court form. You may use a contact address where you regularly check in. The court will assume that you will receive all notices sent to that address.

Attach any existing custody orders involving the child/ren to the Motion and Declaration.

STEP 2

Have your paperwork reviewed by the Family Court Assistance Office or a lawyer. Make two copies of the documents (one for service; one for your records).

STEP 3

You must present the forms to a Judge. Lane County Supplementary Local Rule (SLR) 2.501 sets forth the procedure for presenting Ex Parte Orders and Judgments to a judge for signature. Review SLR 2.501 or contact the Family Court Assistance Office for current information about the process for presenting documents to a judge and filing with the Court. You may submit a copy of your documents when you submit the originals. Once the Court signs your documents, the clerk will conform your copies. There is no filing fee for this motion.

The Order to Appear and Show Cause

The judge will review your motion and declaration. The judge will sign the Order to Show Cause which either grants or denies your request to require the other party to appear in court and sets the hearing date and time.

STEP 4

Have the copies of the Motion and Declaration and the Order to Show Cause served on the other party. You may use the sheriff's office or a process server to complete service. For information about other service methods, talk to the Family Court Assistance Office or a lawyer. You cannot serve the documents yourself because you are a party. After the documents have been served, the person who serves them must complete and file the CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE with the court.

The hearing must take place on a date later than the 21st day following service. The court will either fill in or provide you with a date to fill in on the ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE.

STEP 5

Attend the hearing and bring the Order for Temporary Access to Minor During Pendency of Proceedings that is provided in this packet along with you to the hearing.
