FILING FOR CONTEMPT

What these forms do

These contempt forms may be used when one party has failed to comply with (obey) an order or judgment by the court. They are for "remedial" sanctions only - "punitive" sanctions may only be requested by certain authorized attorneys. (Remedial sanctions that you can request against the other party are listed in paragraph 3 of the Complaint and Ex Parte Motion for Order to Show Cause for Contempt and Supporting Declaration form).

- These forms do not allow you to ask the court to put the other party in jail for violating the order or judgment. If this is a sanction you want to request, you will most likely need the assistance of an attorney.
- To get a judgment for contempt and sanctions imposed against the other party, you must file your Complaint and Motion for Order to Show Cause within two years of the date when the other party failed to comply with (obey) the order or judgment at issue. If you file after more than two years, the court will not be able to award a judgment of contempt or impose sanctions against the other party.
- These forms are NOT meant to be used to enforce child support awards or custody or parenting time orders. However, they may be used to enforce spousal support awards. If you have child support enforcement issues and are receiving services through the Oregon Division of Child Support, you should contact them by calling their 24 hour information hotline (800) 850-0228 inside Oregon, (503) 378-5567 outside Oregon, or on the Internet at http://www.oregonchildsupport.gov. If you have custody, or parenting time enforcement issues, you will need to either contact an attorney or use the forms provided by your local court.
- Check with your local court or your court's family law facilitator to make sure you have followed the procedures and used the correct forms for your court. Many courts have their own forms and rules. Information about how to contact your local court may be found at the Oregon Judicial Department website: http://courts.oregon.gov.

I. General Information:

A. Use black or dark blue ink and print or type when you fill out your forms.

B. File the original forms with the clerk. You should always make yourself an extra copy before you file any form with the clerk.

C. Keep the court informed of your current address. It is your responsibility to keep the court informed of your current address. You are not required to use your residential address on any court form. You may use a contact address where you regularly check in. Your contact address will become public information. Please make sure you use an address that is okay for other people, including the other party, to know. It must be an address in the state where you live where you can receive mail. If you use a contact address, the court will assume that you will receive all notices sent to that address.

D. Case Heading. Make sure you fill in your full names in the blanks at the top of the forms (first, middle or middle initial, last). Print the names the same way on all of the forms. You will be the Plaintiff, and the other party is the Defendant.

E. Case number. The clerk will give you a new case number when you file your papers. Don't fill out this part of the case heading until that time. Make sure you put the case number on all your copies and papers you file with the court.

F. Underlying Case. In the first paragraph of the Complaint, you must provide the case number from the underlying judgment or order you are seeking contempt on and, indicate whether you are the petitioner or respondent in that case.

G. Optional Forms. (Available upon request) Application, Declaration and Order for Waiver or Deferral of Fees. This form allows you to defer payment of the filing fees until final judgment if you are unable to pay the fees at the time you file your motion.

II. Completing the Documents

You must fill out the following forms:

A. Starting your Case.

1. Complaint and Ex Parte Motion for Order to Show Cause re Contempt and Supporting Declaration. When filling out Paragraph 3 (Relief Requested), you will need to select the sanction(s) that you want the court to order against the other party. The relief you ask for in the Complaint cannot be easily changed later in the process so be careful in choosing what sanctions you ask the court to order against the other party. If you change your mind and want to change the type of sanctions you have asked for, you will have to file a motion to add the new provisions and serve it on the other party.

2. Order to Show Cause. Fill in the case caption at the top of the page and the "submitted by" section at the bottom of the page. The judge will complete the rest.

B. Have your documents reviewed.

Please have your documents reviewed by either the Family Court Assistance Office or your lawyer. You may schedule an appointment for the Family Court Assistance Office to review your documents by calling 541-682-4302 or by emailing LANFamilycourt@oid.state.or.us.

III. Filing and Serving the Documents.

A. File the forms with the clerk.

When you have finished filling out your forms, you must submit them to the Court for a Judge to review the Complaint and sign the proposed Order. Lane County Supplementary Local Rule (SLR) 2.501 sets for the procedures for presenting these forms to a Judge for signature. You should make one copy of the forms you file with the clerk for your own record.

Payment of fees. When you file your contempt complaint, you must pay a filing fee. You may ask the court to defer payment of this fee, by filling out an "Application, Declaration and Order for Waiver or Deferral of Fees" form. You may obtain the form and a fee schedule from the court clerk or the Family Court Assistance Office. You must be prepared to either pay the filing fee or submit the completed Application at the time you file your Petition. (If the court "defers" your fee, you will be required to pay all deferred fees back to the court at a later date.)

B. Serve the Defendant. After the judge has signed the ORDER, a "true copy" of the COMPLAINT and DECLARATION with MOTION, and ORDER must be "served" on (personally delivered to) the other party to inform them that the court will hold a hearing and that they have a right to appear and challenge your COMPLAINT. This is called "service." Service must be done after the Order is signed.

THREE CRITICAL POINTS:

- If you serve before you file, you will have to serve the papers again
- You CANNOT serve the papers yourself
- If Defendant has a lawyer, you should also mail a courtesy copy of the papers to the lawyer

1. Personal Service:

- a. By Process Server: Take a copy of your papers to the sheriff's office in the county where Defendant is located and have a sheriff's officer serve the papers. The sheriff's office charges a fee for service. You can also hire a private process server of your choice.
- b. By a Non-Party: Have a competent* person 18 years or older who is a resident of Oregon and who is not a party to the case (Plaintiff or Defendant), nor the lawyer of a party, serve the papers. The server cannot be an employee of any party. If the defendant is outside of Oregon, the server can be a resident of the state where the defendant is. If you have safety concerns, have the sheriff perform service.

*Competent means a person who can understand, remember, and tell others about an event.

A Certificate of Service must be filed with the court by whoever serves the defendant. The certificate must include the date of service and the name of the person served.

IV. The Hearing and the Judge's Ruling

Show up and attend the hearing at the time it is scheduled with the witnesses and evidence you would like to. Bring the proposed GENERAL JUDGMENT form with you to the hearing. During the hearing, the judge may issue a judgment or order of further appearance, depending on the issues involved in your case and whether or not the other party shows up for the hearing. If the other party does not attend the hearing, the court may grant the relief you requested or, in some circumstances, issue a warrant to compel that party's appearance. At the hearing, the judge will either grant or deny the relief requested in whole or in part.

V. If you are the Responding Party (Defendant)

STEP ONE - Filling Out the Response

- A. Fill out the form called "DEFENDANT'S RESPONSE to COMPLAINT for CONTEMPT.
- B. If you AGREE with all or part of the requested relief, complete Paragraph 1. If you agree with only part of the requested relief, explain what you disagree with in the portion of Paragraph 1 that begins: "□ except as follows:______." Do NOT complete Paragraph 2.
- C. If you DO NOT AGREE with the requested relief, complete Paragraph 2 by marking the same boxes that appear in the other party's MOTION and explaining why you disagree with each request.
- D. If you were unable to comply with the court's order or judgment, explain why in Paragraph 3.
- E. Make two copies of your forms. One is for your records and the other is to send to the other party.

STEP 2 - Filing and Mailing the Forms

Make two copies of the completed forms. One for your records and one for Plaintiff. Mail a copy of your RESPONSE to the other party, or his/her attorney by US mail. THEN fill out the Certificate of Mailing at the bottom of the Response. File your original Response with the circuit court.

STEP 3 - The Court's Ruling on the Motion

Show up and attend the hearing at the time it is scheduled. During the hearing, the judge may issue a judgment or order of further appearance.

IMPORTANT: If you do not attend the hearing, the court may issue a warrant to compel your appearance. The judge will either grant or deny the relief requested in whole or in part.

Motion

I, Plaintiff request that the Court issue an Order to Show Cause requiring Defendant to appear in the Lane County Circuit Court in Eugene, Oregon to show cause why this court should not grant relief for remedial sanctions for non-compliance with the above-referenced order or judgment entered by the Lane County Circuit Court.
