I, Petitioner Respondent, being first duly sworn, say that the following is true:

1. Petitioner Respondent should not be given:

- my residential address my fax number
- my mailing address my social security number
- my email address my driver license number
- my telephone number the name, address, and telephone number of my employer
- my contact telephone/cell phone number emergency notice about the child/ren
- other personal information as set forth below: _____

2. This information should not be disclosed for the following reasons:

A. An existing order (a copy of which is attached and labeled “Exhibit 1”) requires nondisclosure:

Case No.	Name of Court	Date of Order

B. Because the health, safety, or liberty of myself or of my child/ren would be jeopardized by disclosure of this information due to the following circumstance(s): _____

3. To keep my identification information confidential, I request that the court waive the requirement that the other party have me personally served with court documents, hearing notices, and other paperwork while this case is pending (being decided.) While this case is pending, I request that process shall be served on me by mailing a certified, true copy of paperwork and hearing notices to the following contact address: _____

I understand that if I wish to select a different method of service during the pendency of the proceedings, I must file an amended waiver of personal service form changing the waiver, setting out a substitute method of service, or selecting a substitute address for service.

4. In order that I may receive notices from the court about future court proceedings after the current matter has been decided, I select the following contact address for post-judgment notification: _____

I understand that if I wish to change my selected post-judgment notification address, I must inform the court in writing of my preferred contact address.
