

Oregon Judicial Department Seeks Comments on Proposed Fee Revision for Online Access to the Oregon Judicial Case Information Network

NOTICE OF PROPOSED FEE INCREASE, OPPORTUNITY TO COMMENT

Oregon Judicial Case Information Network (OJCIN)

July 3, 2025

The Oregon Judicial Department (OJD) has opened a public comment period on proposed fee increases for use of the Oregon Judicial Case Information Network (OJCIN). The OJCIN system provides both free and paid online access to calendar and other court information, including case documents. Comments on the proposed fee schedule are due no later than 5 p.m. on August 4, 2025.

The proposed fees are outlined in Chief Justice Order 25-021. If adopted, the revised fees would take effect on September 1, 2025, and continue to offset the costs of providing electronic access to court documents, technology support services, maintenance costs, hardware and software replacement, and other costs relating to state court electronic systems.

Persons wishing to comment on the proposed fees may send comments by e-mail to OJCIN@ojd.state.or.us, using "OJCIN Fee Comment" in the subject line, or by regular mail addressed to "OJCIN Fee Comment," c/o Business and Fiscal Services Division, Oregon Judicial Department, Salem, OR, 97301. All comments must be received by 5 p.m. on August 4, 2025.

The Chief Justice Order (CJO) establishing the notice and comment provisions, and establishing the proposed fees (CJO 25-021 ) is available on the OJD website at <http://www.courts.oregon.gov/services/online/Pages/ojcin.aspx>.
