REQUEST FOR TEMPORARY STATUS QUO ORDER

(pre-judgment Temporary Protective Order of Restraint)

You can use these forms to ask for a court order requiring both parents to keep the children's residence and schedule the same throughout your case. You can ask for a Status Quo Order at any time after filing a Petition for dissolution, separation, or custody and parenting time. A Status Quo Order does NOT award custody or parenting time to either parent and does not award support.

If you want temporary custody or support, file a Motion for Temporary Orders. If the children are in immediate danger, you can file a motion for an Order of Immediate Danger and Temporary Custody and Parenting Time. Go to www.courts.oregon.gov for those forms. A Status Quo Order will keep the children's schedules the same as they have been for the 3 months before you file the Motion.

Step 1: Filling out the Forms

- ➤ MAKE SURE YOU COMPLETE THE COUNTY NAME AT THE TOP OF THE FIRST PAGE OF EACH FORM!
- > Fill out the following forms:
 - Ex Parte Motion for Temporary Protective Order of Restraint & Declaration in Support
 - o Status Quo Order
- ➤ Parties & Case Number the parties and the case number are the same on your Motion as they are on your Petition. If you filed the Petition, then you are the Petitioner on this motion. If the other party filed the Petition, then you are still the Respondent, even if you are the one filing this motion.
 - o Make sure you put the case number on each form and on the bottom of each page
 - If you have any children with the other party who are 18, 19, or 20 years old, they are necessary parties. You must add their names to the form and serve all documents the same as you serve the other party. See below for service information.
- A Status Quo Order will keep the children's schedule the same as it has been for the past 3 months. In the Declaration section, you must list the address where the children have lived for 3 months before this motion. If the children have moved or changed schedules in the past 3 months, talk to a lawyer.

Have your documents reviewed

You may have your documents reviewed by a lawyer or a court facilitator before you file. Go to www.courts.oregon.gov/familylaw to see if your court has a facilitator available. For information about how to find a lawyer, call the Oregon State Bar at the number on Page 1. If you are low-income, you may get your documents reviewed for a smaller fee through the Oregon State Bar's Modest Means program, or call your local Legal Aid office.

Make a copy of all forms for your records. You will also need a copy of the Motion and Declaration for service. See Step 3 for service information.

Note: if you have adult children (18, 19, or 20) make an additional copy to serve each child

File the original Motion & Declaration and unsigned Order with the court clerk. There is no filing fee.

STEP 2: THE HEARING AND ORDER

Check with your local court to see how they handle ex parte matters. Some courts will hear your request the day you file. Others may have certain days and times to present ex parte motions.

If the judge grants your Motion, you must formally serve a copy of the Motion and Declaration and signed Order on the other party (see Step 3).

STEP 3: NOTIFY THE OTHER PARTY

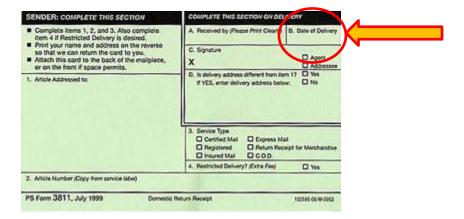

You must officially notify all other parties of the Order. This is called "service." You must serve BOTH the signed Order and a copy of the Motion & Declaration. The Order is effective once the judge signs it, but you cannot enforce it until you serve the other party and notify the court that service has been completed. If the other party has a lawyer, you should also send the lawyer a copy.

Personal Service:

- a. By Process Server: Take a copy of your papers to the sheriff's office in the county where the other party is located and have a sheriff's officer serve the papers. The sheriff's office charges a fee for service. You can also hire a private process server of your choice.
- b. By a Non-Party: Have a competent* person 18 years or older who is a resident of Oregon and who is not a party to the case (Petitioner or Respondent), nor the lawyer of a party, serve the papers. The server cannot be an employee of any party. If the other party is outside of Oregon, the server can be a resident of the state where the other party is. If you have safety concerns, have the sheriff perform service.
- *competent means a person who can understand, remember, and tell others about an event.

A Certificate of Service must be filed with the court by whoever serves the other party. The certificate must include the date of service and the name of the person served.

- 2. Substituted Service: The process server may leave the papers at the other party's residence (where he or she normally lives) with someone 14 or older who lives there. The process server must also mail a copy of the papers (with a statement of the date, time, and place that the papers were served) to the other party by first class mail. Make sure the process server completes a Certificate of Service. The date of service is the day the first class mailing is put in the mail.
- 3. Office Service: The process server may leave the papers with someone in charge of the other party's office or normal workplace. The process server must also mail a copy of the papers (with a statement of the date, time, and place that the papers were served) to the other party by first class mail. Make sure the process server completes a Certificate of Service. The date of service is the day the first class mailing is put in the mail.
- 4. By Mail: First, the process server must send the papers to the other party's home or business address by first class mail. Second, the server must send a copy by certified mail, return receipt requested. The process server must file proof of service with the court, including the signed green card, date of receipt, and item number along with a Certificate of Service. If the green card is not returned or if someone other than the other party signed for it, then service by mail was not effective and you must try another type of service. The date of service is the day the other party signs the returned green card.

Proof of Service

The Certificates are your proof of service. An original Certificate of Service must be filed with the court.

If you are not able to have the other party served by any of the methods listed above, you may ask a judge to allow you to use another service method. The judge might allow you to publish or post the documents. Check with your local court about how to make this request.

The other party can request a hearing to challenge the order at any time while the order is in effect. The court will notify you of the time of the hearing if this happens. If you do not go to the hearing, the court may "vacate" your order, meaning that your order will be cancelled. You will not be able to enforce any of the terms of the order against the other party.

Notice for pre-judgment orders: If you disagree with this order, you may request a hearing on this order as long as it remains in effect by filing with the court a request for a hearing. In the request you must tell the court and the other party that you object to the order and specifically why you disagree with the representation of the status quo described in the order. In the request you must also inform the court of your telephone number or contact number and your current residence, mailing or contact address. Go to www.courts.oregon.gov for forms to request a hearing.
