

SUMMARY OF DUII DIVERSION FEES

You are required to pay the fees listed below to participate in a DUII diversion program

Section 1: Payment to the Court

A. Court Fees

- $490 filing fee
- Court-appointed attorney fees
- A breakdown of your fees and a monthly payment schedule are located on the front of your order for DUII Diversion Entry (copy attached).

B. Restitution

The court may order restitution in cases where a victim suffered economic damages. After the end of the diversion period, you must continue making payments if you have not paid the full amount of restitution. The court cannot terminate a diversion agreement for failure to pay restitution if you have otherwise complied with and performed all of the conditions of the diversion agreement.

Section 2: Other Fees

C. Alcohol and drug abuse assessment and treatment

- You must pay $150 directly to the agency doing the assessment.
- You must pay for any treatment recommended by the assessment. The cost of treatment varies.
- You must pay treatment costs directly to the agency providing the treatment. If you are unable to pay, the provider may allow payment in installments over time.

D. Victim Impact Panel

You must attend a Victim Impact Panel and pay the (cash only) participation fee. You must pay this fee directly to the panel coordinator on the day of the panel. The date of your Victim Impact Panel is located on the front of your order for DUII Diversion Entry (copy attached). The Victim Impact Panel is held in the Washington County Public Services Bldg., 155 N 1st Ave, Hillsboro OR, 97124.

E. Ignition Interlock Device (IID)

The court may order you to install and use an approved ignition interlock device in any vehicle you operate during the term of the diversion agreement when you have driving privileges. You must pay the cost of installing, leasing, and maintaining the device directly to the IID service provider. Additionally, you will have a one- time IID monitor fee paid directly to Evaluation Services.

F. Negative Reports From IID Providers

Additional treatment may be ordered by the court if two or more negative reports are received from an IID provider. You will be responsible for all additional fees if this occurs.

G. Reckless Driving Diversion Fee

If you have an eligible Reckless Driving charge it will track with your diversion and be dismissed or terminated as appropriate. You are responsible for paying the Reckless Driving Diversion fee of $400. This fee is in addition to your DUII Diversion fees and is not included in your monthly DUII Diversion payment schedule.

Failure to pay may result in being expelled from the Diversion Program; it is your responsibility to check to make sure you are paid in full before the end of Diversion.

Make your check or money order payable to "State of Oregon" and reference your case number. Send or hand deliver to: Washington County Courthouse, Accounting Department, 150 N. First Avenue, Hillsboro, OR 97124.
