STEPS: SHOW CAUSE MODIFICATION of JUDGMENT

CHANGING ("MODIFYING") JUDGMENTS

Important Contact Information

Oregon Judicial Department – www.courts.oregon.gov Oregon State Bar Lawyer Referral Service - https://www.osbar.org/public/ Phone: 503.684.3763 or toll-free in Oregon at 800.452.7636

If you are deployed or about to be deployed, contact the Oregon State Bar Military Assistance Panel (www.osbar.org/docs/ris/militaryflier.pdf) for information about special rights and rules that may apply to you.

NOTE: If you only want to change child support, contact the Department of Justice, Division of Child Support (www.oregonchildsupport.gov).

What these forms do

This set of forms will help you to ask the court to change ('modify') support, custody, or parenting time if you already have a judgment from a court. If a change in custody or parenting time is ordered, the court may also change the amount of child support or end it.

- ➤ Military Deployment: If you need a modification because a parent is being deployed by the military, you must use a different packet of forms. Special rules and rights apply in those cases. Go to www.courts.oregon.gov/forms for the correct forms.
- ➤ Adult Children: If you have adult children 18, 19, or 20 years old, they are "necessary parties" to this case. They MUST be included as parties and properly served with all documents. Each child may later waive the right to be part of the case, but this must be done formally after you file. If you fail to properly serve an adult child, your case may be delayed until you do. Talk to a lawyer if you have any concerns.
- > Child Attending School: If you have an adult child (see above), the court may order child support for that child as long as the child is attending school. The court may order child support and medical support to be paid by either or both parents. There is NO parenting plan or parenting time credit for a Child Attending School. See ORS 107.108 for more information.

If Both Parties Already Agree

If you both agree on all of the issues, you may be able to file a stipulated Supplemental Judgment. Call the court to find out how to do that.

Information about Modifications

This type of case starts with a motion called an Ex Parte Motion for Order to Show Cause re: Judgment Modification and Declaration in Support. This Motion tells the court what you want. It ends with a Supplemental Judgment. The Judgment contains the changes that the court makes to your old judgment.

- ➤ Where to File You normally should file in the circuit court that entered the judgment you are trying to modify.
 - Talk to a lawyer or court staff if you want your modification heard in a different county.
 - o If you want to modify a judgment from another state, talk to a lawyer. Oregon courts may not be able to modify the judgment.
- Case Number –Your case number is the same as the one on your old judgment.
- ➤ Parties The parties are the same as on the judgment you want to modify. If you were the "Respondent" in that case, then you are still the "Respondent" now, even if you are the one requesting the modification.
 - o If any of the children in your old judgment are now 18, 19, or 20 years old, you will need to add those children to the case as "necessary parties."
- > Contact Information Keep the court and all other parties informed of your current address so you get notice of all court dates. You are not required to use your home address on any court form. You may use any contact address where you regularly check in, as long as it is in the same state as your home. If you use a contact address, the court will assume that you receive all papers sent to that address. It is YOUR responsibility to let the court and other parties know if you move or want to get mail at a different address.

STEP 1: FILLING OUT FORMS

Fill out the following forms:

- Ex Parte Motion for Order to Show Cause re: Modification of Judgment and Declaration in Support
- Confidential Information Form (CIF) and Notice of Filing of CIF (if either party's employer has changed)
- Uniform Support Declaration (if you are requesting a change in child support or spousal/partner support)
- Child Support Worksheets (if you are requesting a change of child support)
- Certificate of Mailing to DCS (if either parent is receiving public assistance)

It is important that you file with the court before you serve the other party! If you serve before you file, you will have to re-serve and pay the service fees again. See Step 2 below for information about service.

➤ MAKE SURE YOU COMPLETE THE COUNTY NAME AT THE TOP OF THE FIRST PAGE OF EACH FORM!

Uniform Support Declaration

If you are asking for a change in spousal/partner support or child support and you and the other party do not agree on an amount, you must complete a Uniform Support Declaration (USD). Talk to a tax professional about the tax impact of changing spousal/partner support.

Tips for filling out the USD:

- ➤ If you are requesting a change of spousal/partner support, fill out the Declaration and Schedule 1 and attach the documents required by both.
- If you are requesting child support for the amount that the Child Support Guidelines recommend, only fill out the Declaration and attach the documents it asks for.
 - o If you are requesting a different amount of child support than the Guidelines recommend, fill out both the Declaration and Schedule 1. Attach all of the documents that the Declaration and Schedule ask for.
- > Use your actual, present expenses. Estimates are fine as long as they are realistic and you have no way of confirming the amount.
- ➤ Some items may not apply to you mark those spaces "N/A" (Not Applicable), but complete every item that does apply.
- If you have an expense that is not listed, add it, along with a brief explanation.
- ➤ If you anticipate any major changes (birth of a new baby, a child entering or leaving school, a layoff, a car payment or mortgage being paid off), note these as well. Do NOT include fears or possibilities only things you know or reasonably expect will happen.
- If your amounts are unusually high or low, include a brief explanation of why (if one of you is temporarily living with a relative, or if one party moved out and is no longer contributing to shared expenses). Include an estimate of what you believe your expenses will be after the situation is resolved.
- ➤ If one of your children has a medical problem, be sure to note it and include a reasonably accurate estimate of the treatment cost.

Parenting Plan

A parenting plan is required if you want to change custody or parenting time. If you are only trying to change child support, you do not need to submit a parenting plan. The plan sets out the schedule and may include rules for each parent's time with the child. You can describe your parenting plan in the Motion or attach it as a separate page.

Oregon has a Basic Parenting Plan Guide for Parents. This guide has information about how to develop a plan, information about alternative schedules, and stages of your children's growth that should be considered when creating a plan. A sample parenting plan is included in the guide. The guide can be downloaded at www.courts.oregon.gov/parentingplans. There is also a Safety Focused Parenting Plan Guide on this website. This can help you develop a parenting plan if you have safety concerns for your children. Many local courts also have standard plans in their Supplemental Local Rules. Check your local court's website. You can use these plans whole or as a guide to develop your own. You can also use OJD Guide & File to create a parenting plan interactively. Go to www.courts.oregon.gov/iforms.

Co-Parenting Education

Many courts require that parents of minor children go to a court-approved co-parenting class. Some courts will not allow you to change custody or parenting time until you have completed the class and filed a certificate of completion with the court. Contact the court to see if you have to sign up or if the court will send you information after you file.

Moving

Neither parent may move more than 60 additional miles away from the other parent without giving him or her and the court notice of the move (unless your Judgment waived that requirement). You may ask the judge to waive this requirement by checking the appropriate box on the Motion.

Custody

Refer to ORS 107.137 for factors a court will consider in awarding custody. The most important factor is always the best interest and welfare of the child.

Child Support:

➤ Attach copies of any child support orders that are already in place regarding the children affected by your Motion.

Calculating Child Support

Child support can only be changed if there has been a significant change of circumstances or a change in custody or parenting time since the original order.

The amount of child support is determined by the Child Support Guidelines. The Guidelines have worksheets to help you estimate what support may be ordered. The Division of Child Support (DCS) also has an interactive calculator at www.oregonchildsupport.gov that can give you an idea of what child support may be ordered. You may also be able to ask a facilitator at your local court for help estimating child support. Submit the worksheet or calculator printout with your forms.

➤ NOTE: If you request a child support amount that is different from what the calculator or worksheet says, you must explain why and how you reached that amount. If not, your case may be delayed until you provide an explanation for the difference.

Payment of Child Support

Support is usually withheld from the payor's (the person who has to pay support) paycheck. The court may allow an exception to the income withholding requirement if you qualify under ORS 25.396 and if you request an exception. If the court grants an exception to income withholding, payment can be deposited into the receiver's bank account. If you are paying child support directly to the other parent, you should keep proof of every payment, including a receipt if you pay cash.

Health Insurance

The judgment must address health insurance for any minor child involved in your case if your existing order does not.

Cash Medical Support

In addition to child support, the court may order "Cash Medical Support." Cash Medical Support is to help pay for health insurance and out-of-pocket medical expenses.

If neither parent has health insurance available, the court must order Cash Medical Support unless the judge finds reasons not to. The judge cannot order Cash Medical Support in some situations.

Life Insurance

Life insurance orders can be modified by either party if child support or health insurance orders are being changed (including division of uninsured medical expenses)

Life insurance orders can also be modified by the party currently ordered to keep a life insurance policy for the benefit of the children under the following circumstances:

- When the paying parent retires
- ➤ Once every 5 years after the paying parent reaches 60 years of age
- ➤ If the lowest premium available costs more than 50% of the monthly support payment
- > If the benefits paid would be more than twice the total remaining support amount
- ➤ If the paying parent has established an appropriate trust for 125% of the total support amount that would have been paid after the paying parent's death

Adult Children (18-21)

If you have any child with the respondent who is 18, 19, or 20 years old who is not married or emancipated, that child is a necessary party to this case. He or she must be added as a party in the case caption and has the right to participate.

If an adult child is attending school at least half-time according to the school's standards, that child is considered a "child attending school." A child attending school is entitled to child support until age 21. The child must sign the judgment if support is ordered.

You must properly serve each adult child with all the same papers as the other parent (see section below about serving the other party). After being served, a child may sign a Waiver of Further Appearance and Consent to Entry of Judgment form if the child chooses not to participate in the case.

Have your documents reviewed

You may want to have your documents reviewed before you file. For information about how to find a lawyer, call the Oregon State Bar at the number on Page 1. If you are low-income, you might be able to get your documents reviewed for a smaller fee through the Oregon State Bar's Modest Means program. Your local Legal Aid office might review documents for free if you qualify. Facilitators may be available for free in your court, but you may have to make an appointment. Call your court for information.

Make copies

Make one copy of all of the forms for your records, and one copy of the Motion and Declaration to serve on the other party if the court grants your motion (see below).

You must also send a copy of the Motion and Declaration to the Division of Child Support branch office in your county if either of you is receiving public assistance. The branch office's address can be found at www.dcs.state.or.us/offices.htm or in the "Local Family Law Practices and Programs" form for your local court. Fill out and file the Certificate of Mailing to DCS after you mail the Motion.

STEP 2: FILING AND SERVICE

File your forms

File all of the original forms with the court clerk. You will have to pay the filing fee when you file your papers. Go to www.courts.oregon.gov/Pages/fees.aspx for the filing fee. Some courts will set a hearing for you to appear when you file your Motion. Ask the court when you file if you will have to appear or if you will receive the court's decision by mail (see The Order on Motion to Show Cause below)

• If you are low income, you may ask the court to defer (postpone) or waive your filing fee. You must complete an Application and Declaration for Deferral or Waiver of Fees and an Order Regarding Deferral or Waiver of Fees and file them with your papers. If the fee is deferred, you will have to pay the fee later. If the fee is waived, you don't have to pay it now. However, the judge may reconsider waived and deferred fees at the end of the case.

The Order on Motion to Show Cause

The judge will review your motion and declaration. The court will send (or give) you an Order on Motion to Show Cause which either grants or denies your request to have the other party respond to your requested changes. The order will have information for both you and the other party about how your case will proceed. If a hearing is scheduled, you must appear or the court will deny the changes you asked for.

- If the court grants your request on the Order to Show Cause, you must serve the Order and a copy of the Motion and Declaration on the other party. See the next section for service information.
- If the court denies your request, then no changes will be made to your judgment and no hearing will be scheduled.

You must officially notify the other party that you have filed a motion. This is called "service." Follow the same steps to serve any 18, 19, or 20 year old children.

Acceptance of Service - If it is safe for you to give the other party the papers yourself, you can use an Acceptance of Service form. If the other party signs an Acceptance of Service form, no other kind of service is required. Signing the Acceptance of Service does not mean the other party agrees with anything in your Petition, only that he or she received the papers. You must still file the papers with the court before you give the copies to the other party.

Formal Service

If the other party does not sign the Acceptance of Service, you must use another method. There are four ways you can serve. Service must be done after you receive an order granting your motion.

3 CRITICAL POINTS

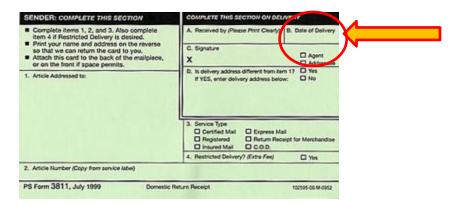

- 1. If you serve before you file, you will have to serve the papers again
- 2. You CANNOT serve the papers yourself
- 3. If the other party has a lawyer, you should also send a courtesy copy of the papers to the lawyer

1. Personal Service:

- a. By Process Server: Take a copy of your papers to the sheriff's office in the county where the other party is located and have a sheriff's officer serve the papers. The sheriff's office charges a fee for service. You can also hire a private process server of your choice.
- b. By a Non-Party: Have a competent* person 18 years or older who is a resident of Oregon and who is not a party to the case (Petitioner or Respondent), nor the lawyer of a party, serve the papers. The server cannot be an employee of any party. If the other party is outside of Oregon, the server can be a resident of the state where the other party is. If you have safety concerns, have the sheriff perform service.
 *competent means a person who can understand, remember, and tell others about an event.

A Certificate of Service must be filed with the court by whoever serves the other party. The certificate must include the date of service and the name of the person served.

- 2. Substituted Service: The process server may leave the papers at the other party's residence (where he or she normally lives) with someone 14 or older who lives there. The process server must also mail a copy of the papers (with a statement of the date, time, and place that the papers were served) to the other party by first class mail. Make sure the process server completes a Certificate of Service. The date of service is the day the first class mailing is put in the mail.
- 3. Office Service: The process server may leave the papers with someone in charge of the other party's office or normal workplace. The process server must also mail a copy of the papers (with a statement of the date, time, and place that the papers were served) to the other party by first class mail. Make sure the process server completes a Certificate of Service. The date of service is the day the first class mailing is put in the mail.
- 4. By Mail: First, the process server must send the papers to the other party's home or business address by first class mail. Second, the server must send a copy by certified mail, return receipt requested. The process server must file proof of service with the court, including the signed green card, date of receipt, and item number along with a Certificate of Service. If the green card is not returned or if someone other than the other party signed for it, then service by mail was not effective and you must try another type of service. The date of service is the day the other party signs the returned green card.

Certificate of Service

The Certificates are your proof of service. An original Certificate of Service or Acceptance of Service must be filed with the court for your case to proceed, regardless of the method of service.

If a certificate of service is not received within 63 days of filing your Motion, the court may send you a notice of dismissal.

If you are not able to have the other party served by any of the methods listed above, you may ask a judge to allow you to use another service method. The judge might allow you to publish or post the documents. Forms to make this request are available online at www.courts.oregon.gov.

STEP 3: RESOLVING YOUR CASE

IF YOU AND THE OTHER PARTY AGREE TO CHANGE YOUR JUDGMENT:

If you and the other party have agreed ("stipulated") to all of the issues, fill out and have both parties sign:

• Supplemental Judgment Modifying a Domestic Relations Judgment

IF THE COURT DID NOT SCHEDULE A HEARING ON YOUR ORDER:

If the other party does not respond to the court in writing within 30 days of the date of service, you may submit a completed Supplemental Judgment of Modification of Domestic Relations Judgment to the court. The Judgment MUST have exactly the same terms as your original Motion or you will have to either start over (and re-serve) or fill out a new Judgment. If you don't submit the Judgment to the court, your judgment terms will not be changed and your Motion may be dismissed.

You should receive a copy of the response. If not, you can check with the court to see if the other party responded.

IF THE COURT SCHEDULED A HEARING ON YOUR ORDER:

If the court schedules a hearing in your case, you must appear or your motion will be dismissed and no changes will be made to your existing judgment. NOTE: you must appear even if the other party does not file a written response.

The Judgment

Fill out:

Supplemental Judgment Modifying a Domestic Relations Judgment

Make a copy for yourself and one for the other party. File the original with the court.

The terms in the judgment must be exactly the same as what you requested in your Motion and Declaration unless you had a hearing and the judge made different orders.

Other parties can object to the Judgment. If that happens, you have to discuss the objections and attempt to resolve them before you submit the Judament to the court. If you are not able to resolve the objections, the objecting parties can either send you a written statement explaining their objections, or they can submit their objections directly to the court. You must complete the Certificate of Readiness section of the Judgment to tell the judge whether there are outstanding objections. See UTCR 5.100(1) for more information about notice and objections.¹

If the other party is responsible for preparing the judgment, they must send the proposed judgment to you before submitting it to the court. Then you can review it and object to it within 7 days of the date it was sent to you. If you and the other party are not able to resolve your objections after reasonable efforts, you can either send a written explanation of your objections to the party or directly to the court. You must notify the other party of your intentions so that they can advise the judge that there are outstanding issues. The judge may make a decision after reviewing the documents, or the court may contact you with further information.

If you are responsible for preparing the final judgment, make a copy for yourself and one for other party. File the original with the court.

Your modification is effective the date the Judgment is entered into the court register. You will receive a notice when the judgment is entered.

Information about the Confidential Information Form (CIF)

What is a CIF?

Most court files may be viewed by the public. Uniform Trial Court Rule (UTCR) 2.130 requires certain confidential personal information to be protected from public disclosure. That is done by providing the information in a separate form. After you file your papers, the court keeps the form separate from the part of the court file that may be viewed by the public. The form is UTCR Form 2.130.1, known as the Confidential Information Form, or CIF.

What information does a CIF make confidential?

The information protected by the CIF is social security numbers, birth dates, driver license numbers, and former legal names. Also protected are the name, address, and telephone number of a party's employer.

The CIF should only be used to protect the information described above. There may be other information in your court papers that you do not want the public to be able to see, such as bank account or credit card numbers. The separate process for protecting that information is described in UTCR 2.100.

How do I know when I need to put information in the CIF?

When a document filed with the court requires you to include information protected by a CIF, that information must only be provided to the court in a CIF and must not be listed in any other document to be filed. Where you would otherwise provide the information in the document to be filed you must make a note that the information has been provided in the CIF. For example, if a document requires a party's full social security number to be listed, you must not list the social security number, but must instead make a note on the document that the information has been filed under UTCR 2.130. The online court forms already have that note on the form.

Do I need to file more than one CIF?

In most cases, yes. You must fill out a CIF for yourself, and if the documents you are filing with the court require confidential personal information about the other party, you must also fill out a separate CIF with the other party's information. If your case involves children, you should include their information in your CIF. You do not need a separate CIF for your children.

If there is CIF information you do not know when you file your papers, or if the information changes during your case, you must file an amended CIF that provides the new or updated information.

The CIF rule requires you to redact—black out or erase—confidential personal information from any attachments to documents you file with the court and to make a note on the attachment that the information has been provided in the CIF. The only exception is when you are required to attach a court-certified document. Documents that are required to be court certified should not be altered in any way.

Does the other party get copies of a CIF I file?

You are not required to serve the CIFs on the other party, though you may share a CIF with the other party if you chose to do so. You are required to serve the other party with UTCR Form 2.130.2, which is a notice that a CIF has been filed. You must also file a certificate with the court showing that you served the other party with the notice that a CIF was filed.

There are steps the other party and other people can go through to ask the court to allow them access to a CIF that you have filed. UTCR 2.130 explains that process in detail, and also describes the circumstances under which the court must deny a request by someone else to view a CIF you have filed.

UNIFORM SUPPORT DECLARATION

The Uniform Support Declaration must be completed when the payment of child or spousal support is or could be an issue in the case. The USD provides basic information about expenses and ability to pay.

CAUTION:

Please read the instructions for and use UTCR 2.130 forms to separate social security numbers, dates of birth and other private information from public records.

It is your responsibility to black out (redact) any confidential information on the attachments or copies. Examples of confidential information that should be redacted are social security numbers, dates of birth, checking account information, etc.

Do not bring the originals of your attachments, such as paystubs and tax returns, and expect the court to make photocopies to attach to your Uniform Support Declaration. You are responsible for making copies and ensuring they are on $8\frac{1}{2}$ " x 11" paper.

	☐ Petitioner ☐ Respondent must not have parenting time because it would endanger the health or safety of the children

		Parenting time must be supervised by:
		Cost of supervision will be paid by Petitioner Respondent Other:
	c)	☐ Petitioner ☐ Respondent is allowed to move more than 60 miles farther away from the other party without advance written notice because good cause exists
	d)	$\hfill \square$ Petitioner $\hfill \square$ Respondent is not required to provide contact information to the other party
3 .	C	aild Support and Medical Costs
	a)	Petitioner's Respondent's child support obligation to children (names) is terminated based on the change of custody or (explain other reason for termination)
		(explain other reason for termination)
	b)	☐ Child support is changed as follows based on the requested change of custody or substantially changed circumstances
		Support must be paid: by □ Petitioner □ Respondent to □ Petitioner □ Respondent □ Adult Child Attending School on the first day of each month beginning □ the month following entry of this judgment or □ the date of service of this motion (date:)
		The monthly amount due is: $(Child Support Worksheets are attached and incorporated, labeled Exhibit) This amount is: □ the amount presumed to be appropriate under the support guidelines □ different from the presumed appropriate amount because:
	c)	☐ Income withholding is not ordered at this time because there is no support arrearage and ☐ The parents (or the State, if support rights are assigned) have agreed in writing to an alternative arrangement which is approved by the court; or ☐ Good cause not to require withholding is found because there is proof of timely payment of previously-ordered support and income withholding would not be in the best interests of the child
	In	all cases, select one of the following: All support payments must be made to the Department of Justice, Child Support Accounting Unit, P.O. Box 14506, Salem, Oregon, 97309
		Or ☐ An exception to income withholding applies as noted above. All support payments must be deposited to the recipient's checking or savings account. The receiving parent is ordered to provide the paying parent with current deposit slips or bank name, account name, and account number. Or

	Other (explain)
	Child Attending School Support for an adult child attending school as defined by ORS 107.108 must be paid directly to the child unless good cause exists for payment to be made another way ☐ GOOD CAUSE exists not to pay support directly to a child attending school Payments must be made to ☐ Petitioner ☐ Respondent in the amount of $ per month
25. arro par cau Dep	NOTICE OF INCOME WITHHOLDING s child support order is enforceable by income withholding under ORS 25.378 to 25.390, 414 to 25.372 and 25.375. Withholding shall occur immediately, whenever there is an earage at least equal to the support payment for one month, whenever the obligated ent requests such withholding, or whenever the obligee requests withholding for good se. The District Attorney or, as appropriate, the Division of Child Support of the partment of Justice, will assist in securing such withholding. Exceptions may apply in the circumstances.
d)	Length of Child Support: Child support will end when the last child (check one) ☐ reaches age 18, or if the child qualifies as a child attending school under ORS 107.108, age 21 ☐ reaches age 18 or becomes self-supporting, emancipated, or married
e)	Tax Dependents* ☐ Petitioner ☐ Respondent may claim the following children as dependents for tax purposes beginning with the tax year this judgment is entered. The other parent must complete any IRS waivers or forms necessary to accomplish this order in each tax year and must not file contradictory tax returns. List names:
	OR Other (specify): * Parties are advised that this judgment is not binding on the IRS and will not provide a defense if the
f)	parties fail to comply with IRS regulations in any given tax year. Parties are advised to speak to a tax specialist. Life Insurance Life insurance is terminated or changed as follows:
	☐ Petitioner ☐ Respondent must carry life insurance for the benefit of the children in the amount of $

g)	Medical Costs ☐ Medical costs and insurance have been addressed in a prior judgment and are not being changed
	 Health Insurance Coverage ☐ Petitioner ☐ Respondent is ordered to keep insurance for the children throughout the period of the child support obligation
	2. Cash Medical Support Cash Medical Support is ordered in the amount of $ per month because health insurance coverage is not available to either parent. Cash Medical Support is payable in addition to child support by the parent ordered to pay child support, and on the same schedule.
	☐ Cash Medical Support is not ordered because: ☐ Support is presumed to be unavailable for the reason marked above and the presumption has not been sufficiently rebutted ☐ The parent paying child support has income at or below Oregon's minimum wage for full-time employment ☐ The children's medical needs will be met by the Uninsured Medical Expenses provision below ☐ Other (explain):
	OHANGES TO HEALTH INCHDANCE AVAILABILITY
	CHANGES TO HEALTH INSURANCE AVAILABILITY Both the person paying and the person receiving child support must notify the Division of Child Support (DCS) in writing of any change in the availability of health insurance within 10 days of the change if collection services are provided by DCS.
h)	Uninsured Medical Expenses Petitioner must pay

NOTICE ABOUT PARENTING TIME AND CHILD SUPPORT

The terms of child support and parenting time (visitation) are designed for the child's benefit and not the parents' benefit. You must pay support even if you are not receiving parenting time. You must comply with parenting time and visitation orders even if you are not receiving child support.

Violation of child support orders and visitation or parenting time orders is punishable by fine, imprisonment or other penalties.

Publicly funded help is available to establish, enforce, and modify child support orders. Paternity establishment services are also available. Contact your local district attorney, the domestic relations court clerk, or the Department of Justice at 1.800.850.0228 or 503.378.5567 for information.

Publicly funded help may be available to establish, enforce, and modify parenting time or visitation orders. Forms are available to enforce parenting time or visitation orders. Contact the domestic relations, civil court clerk or courthouse facilitator for information.

NOTICE ABOUT PERIODIC REVIEW AND MODIFICATION OF CHILD SUPPORT ORDERS

If your child support case is handled by the District Attorney or the Department of Justice Division of Child Support, this agency will review your child support order if at least three years have passed since the order was entered, modified, or last reviewed. This review will take place only if a parent requests.

The purpose of the review is to see if the amount ordered is still within the guidelines for child support set out in Oregon law. The review could result in an increase or decrease in the support amount, depending on the parents' financial circumstances and the needs of the child.

This "periodic review" service is provided at no cost to parents, but is available only for cases handled by the District Attorney or the Department of Justice.

The support agency handling your case will also review your support order for compliance with the guidelines whenever a substantial change in circumstance has occurred. You can request this "change in circumstance" modification from the support agency. But any support order (not just orders handled by the District Attorney or Department of Justice) can be modified because of a change in circumstance, so a private attorney is also able to assist you with this. You may also represent yourself.

7. Information Required by ORS 25.020(8)(a)

8. Money Award*

As required by UTCR 2.130, a Confidential Information Form (CIF) has been completed for each party and filed with the court. The CIF contains all information required by ORS 25.020(8)(a).

Both parties must inform the Court and the Department of Justice (P.O. Box 14506, Salem, Oregon 97309) in writing of any change in the information within ten (10) days of such change. The Department of Justice or the District Attorney shall not disclose the information in the preceding section to the other party.
