1. Welcome (Judge Holmes Hehn)

Judge Partridge is stepping down as chair, Judge Holmes Hehn will be the interim chair. Judge Perez has offered to be the chair.

June and September minutes approved.

2. Introduction and Icebreaker (Jayne Cooper)

Many new members are present today, have been looking at the membership to make sure the correct stakeholders are represented. Today's meeting goals are to determine the purpose and mission of the committee, what the benefits and desired outcomes of these meetings are. Members sent to breakout sessions for brief introductions and discussions.

3. OSCA Legislative Concept on Collection of Demographic Data (Shalini Vivek)

PowerPoint presentation shown to members.

4. JCIP Advisory Committee Purpose and Mission Statement (Jayne Cooper)

Mission statement PowerPoint shared. Suggested mission statements added to shared mural.

5. CQI Data Review (Yousef Allouzi)

Review and update to quarterly data. Questions received about Guardianship and TPR data. Requests for future data comparisons.

6. Updates and Opportunities (Judge Holmes Hehn)

Jayne Cooper: Judicial, Court, and Attorney Measures of Performance (JCAMP) created a set of measures, JCIP has applied to be one of the implementation sites. Grant funding is available to help support gather the data. Email Jayne if interested or know anyone who might be. Two events upcoming; JELI Spring Convening will be a Judicial Academy on Reasonable and Active Efforts put on by the CBCC, will be held at the end of April 2023.

QLR subcommittee made a recommendation a core comprehensive training for attorneys on child welfare practice, finalizing contract with NACC. Bringing an Oregon specific Red Book training in May 2023, ultimately available to anyone in the system.

Hoping to create a smaller design team for the Model Court Summit, email Jayne if interested. Once a month meeting until summit. Focus of Model Court will be on safety decision making.

Next meeting: March 13, 2023, 1:30 to 4:00 pm
