I. Welcome & Introductions, 1:30-1:35 (Judge Holmes Hehn)

a. New JFCPD Staff

Heidi Moon, new Dependency analyst

b. Approval of Minutes from June 2022 Meeting

June minutes

II. Through the Eyes of a Child, 1:35-1:50 (Heidi S.)

a. Review of 2022 Feedback

Heidi Strauch: Post Eyes survey was sent out.

b. Breakouts to discuss 2023 topics

Jayne Cooper: attendees sent to breakout groups to discuss future conference topics. Topics posted in chat for review.

III. Model Court Summit, 1:50-2:05 (Jayne)

a. Review of 2022 Feedback

Jayne Cooper: Model Court was presented virtually, positive feedback about presentations was received.

b. JCIP Support for Model Court Teams

Jayne Cooper: Looking at hiring consultants to do a longer workshop presentation for Model Court Teams, supplemented by support from JFCPD. Sharepoint site has been created for teams to utilize. Regional convening possible for future trainings.

c. Model Court Summit Restructure for 2023 & beyond

Suzanne Callahan: discussed separating Model Court training from Through the Eyes of a Child Conference.

Jayne Cooper: Model Court Summit will be a virtual conference moving forward to allow for increased attendance. Will be shifting away from team focus to provide better support. Also separating summit from the Eyes Conference.

Survey would be a good idea to gather ideas from Model Court Teams about future topics.

Joanne Southey: supportive of separating the two conferences. Has a survey been conducted to find out what some of the teams find useful? Does appreciate the opportunity to meet in person.

Judge Temple: appreciated the opportunity to meet with their local group. In favor of extending statewide conference and making it in person.

Judge Hehn: also had a local group gather for the virtual meeting, had technical difficulties with the breakout rooms.

Judge Jacquot: enjoys having the opportunity to meet in person, fear of losing the significance of meeting other Model Court members.

IV. CQI Data Review, 2:05-2:15 (Yousef)

Yousef Allouzi: shares the JCIP 2021 Year End Data Summary and adoptions finalized report.

V. JCIP Advisory Subcommittee Reports & Discussion, 2:15-3 (Jayne)

Jayne Cooper: presents PowerPoint about subcommittees. Sent to breakout rooms for group discussion.

VI. Break, 3-3:15

VII. JCIP Advisory Committee Purpose 2 Practice Part 1, 3:15-4 (Jayne)

Purpose 2 Practice exercise will be done at December meeting.

Next meeting: December 12, 2022, 1:30 to 4:00 pm

June minutes to be reviewed and approved at December meeting.
