

Request for Funding-Individual or Group Professional Development Funds

Oregon Judicial Department's Juvenile Court Improvement Project (JCIP)

Our vision: Raising the Profile and Priority of Child Abuse and Neglect Cases in Oregon

Our Goals: Children are, first and foremost, protected from abuse and neglect
Children have permanency and stability in their living situation
The continuity of family relationships and connections is preserved for children
Families have enhanced capacity to provide for their children's needs
Increase the number of local courts that have developed intergovernmental plans supporting permanency outcomes for children in foster care

1. Please briefly describe the mission of your agency and the purpose of the program/event for which you are asking support. Be sure to describe how attendance at the conference/event will benefit the larger Juvenile Court Improvement Project's vision and goals described above.

This request is being submitted on behalf of Shoulder to Shoulder, which is a multidisciplinary conference that provides professional development to approximately 700 attendees. Our goals are to establish cross-system dialogue and to build stronger partnerships for children in the Oregon child welfare system

2. Have you contacted other sources for assistance? Please explain. (JCIP funds cannot be used to supplant other funds available to your agency for this program).

The conference has utilized other resources in the past (CJA, OFPA, ILP, PSU, ORPARC and Boys and Girls Aid) to support the conference. The conference will be requesting funds from Children's Justice Act Task Force, Juvenile Court Improvement Project, Oregon Foster Parent Association and the Department of Human Services to support the conference this year, 2019. We are committed to making Shoulder to Shoulder affordable for the many caseworkers, legal professionals, foster parents, kinship caregivers, adoptive parents, CRB and CASA volunteers who attend. Scholarships would be distributed across disciplines and geographically across Oregon. We are also exploring other funding sources through member agencies to support participant scholarships.

3. Please describe specifically how the funds for which you are applying relate to JCIP's goals towards broader multi-disciplinary approach.

This year's conference will focus on "Strengthening Children and Families," which will include relevant topics to child welfare. The all-day conference features a morning keynote speaker, as well as a comprehensive offering of approximately 26 workshops and panel presentations. Workshops will be planned in various categories to include: 1.) Partnering to Protect and Support Children, Youth and Families (including prevention, engagement, and safety issues) 2.) Child well-being (including mental, physical, educational, developmental, family connections & support) 3.) Foster, Kinship, Adoptive Parenting (address foster, kinship and adoptive parent issues) 4.) Policy and Practice (address new initiatives, court, and best practice) 5.) Culture and Diversity.

Workshops and keynote presentations will be oriented around the theme of "Strengthening Children and Families." Our morning keynote speaker, Richard Rose, a world renowned therapeutic life story practitioner from the U.K. will offer an overview of his unique life story work process and understanding the philosophy of his approach. He will also offer two workshops: one focused on communicating and direct work with traumatized children and the second workshop providing a more in-depth look at therapeutic life story work. Our afternoon keynote speaker, Cinnamon Spear, a Native American community member will talk about resiliency in foster care, youth empowerment and end with the power of your own breath. Cinnamon will also provide a workshop around navigating post-secondary education, self-advocacy, and coming from a reservation to an Ivy League university.

Workshops are broad and meant to be multidisciplinary for the range of attendees at the conference. Workshops will include: judges panel; therapeutic life story work; foster care resiliency; teens and screens; a parent advisory council panel; sensory beyond the basics; the life cycle of a DHS case; teens and development; allegation process; transgender/LGBTQ youth needs in foster care; building resilience; youth empowerment panel; transracial adult adoptee panel; navigating post-secondary education/college and self-advocacy; preparing children for adoption; managing meltdowns through play; toddler attachment; minimizing reactive behavior; communicating /direct work with traumatized children; trauma stewardship and wellness; collaborative problem solving.

4. Funds should be used in a manner that supports equity in attendance/participation. This request for funding will be used to sponsor:

Financial aid for individual(s) (scholarships)

Program support

5. If you are awarded financial assistance by JCIP, we ask that you agree to submit materials from your program for possible posting on the JCIP Website, and that you provide a report of program attendance and what was gained from that opportunity. This report is due on December 1st of the fiscal year that you were awarded.

I agree
