10:00 am Break - Willamette Foyer, 2nd Floor

Family First Prevention & Services Act (FFPSA) - Jamie Hinsz, Legislative Policy Office

10:15 am The Federal FFPSA is major child welfare reform that focuses on family first: 1) to help keep children safely at home by providing services to prevent removals; 2) when children need out of home placements they should be served in family foster homes not congregate care settings; and 3) provide federal support to recruit and retain high quality foster families and relative providers. Learn about the federal law and how Oregon plans to implement it.

Presentation and Q&A Session
Panelists: Alex Trotter, DHS; Staci Barry, DOJ and Liz Wakefield, PDSC

Moderated by Kristen Farnworth, JCIP

11:00 am Removals, Protective Custody Orders, and Shelter Hearings

HB 2849 restricts the circumstances in which a child can be placed in protective custody without a protective custody order from the court. Learn about the new standards for when children may be taken into protective custody without a court order and the different standards for Indian and non-Indian children. Understand the process the courts will use to take oral statements under oath. Hear about best practice standards for shelter hearings and ways to improve front end case processing.

Panelists: Liz Wakefield, PDSC and Shannon Dennison, DOJ
