

Tribal Court/State Court Judicial Forum

The Tribal & State Court Judges Convening was held on August 12, 2015 in Salem. Attendees heard from an ICWA panel, a VAWA panel, learned about other states' collaborative efforts, and discussed forming a tribal court/state court forum in Oregon.	The first Tribal Court/State Court Forum was held in Chiloquin, OR. On the agenda was a tour of the Klamath Tribes, review and approval of the proposed UTCR changes, a presentation on child support issues, and discussion of protection orders and family court orders.	The second Tribal Court/State Court Forum was held in Portland, OR. On the agenda was a presentation from Urban Indian Services, discussion from the protection orders enforcement workgroup, information about the transfer of juvenile cases, and collaborative problem solving on interjurisdictional drug courts.	The third Tribal Court/State Court Forum will be held in Warm Springs, OR. On the agenda is a tour of the Warm Springs museum and tribal court, discussion of full faith and credit for protection orders, with presentations from the Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla and the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs, as well as law enforcement, attorneys, and others.
--	--	---	--

August- October 2015

September/October 2016

June 2017

July 2018

A proposal for the creation of a Tribal Court/State Court Forum was delivered to Oregon's Chief Justice and to Oregon's nine federally recognized tribes.

A Memorandum of Understanding between OJD and the nine federally recognized tribes was signed.

A proposed rule change to UTCR 3.170 (pro hac vice) was drafted and presented before the UTCR Committee and Supreme Court Public Meeting.

The UTCR 3.170 proposed rule change was approved by the Supreme Court and went into effect August 1, 2017.

The Forum hosted a screening of the film "Tribal Justice" on November 7, 2017 and facilitated a discussion panel after the film.

A webinar training for law enforcement on full faith and credit for protection orders will be recorded and distributed in fall 2018.

July 2018