

Errata to the Oregon Appellate Courts Style Manual (Updated 2017)

Replacement pages for 2018, to update an existing printed copy of the 2015 version.

Page 7 \(view printable replacement page\):

I.G. Formatting: Title Page: Trial Court Judge

Revised narrative:

Identifies judge(s) ~~presiding over the proceedings below~~ who signed the appealable judgment(s) or order(s) that are the subject of the appeal. The Supreme Court footnotes that information on the title page with an asterisk.

Page 18 \(view printable replacement page\):

I.F. Citation: Signals

Revised narrative:

The courts generally follow The Bluebook regarding the appropriate use of signals, i.e., the ~~;~~ meaning of each signal, order of signals, order of authorities within signals, and parentheticals with signals. When using signals, the courts typically include a parenthetical explanation briefly describing the relevance of the authority cited, e.g.,

Page 42 \(view printable replacement page\):

III.A.15. Legislative History

Revised example:

Audio Recording, House Committee on Judiciary, HB 2460, Apr 16, 2001, at 2:10:38 (comments of Rep Amy Smith and Rep Barbara Jones), <https://olis.leg.state.or.us> (accessed Jan 2, 2013).

Page 43 \(view printable replacement page\):

III.A.16. Initiative Petitions, Ballot Measures, and Voters' Pamphlets

New heading and example:

16. Initiative Petitions, Ballot Measures, and ~~Voters' Related Pamphlets~~ and Manuals

Initiative Petition 136 (2001) (IP 136). (narrative form, first reference; citation form)

[* * * * *]

NOTE: The above examples refer to statewide measures. If citing a local measure, then follow the format set out above, but insert the appropriate local numbering, e.g., Ballot Measure 10-06 (1992).

Elections Division, Oregon Secretary of State, State Initiative & Referendum Manual [page] (Jan 2016), [link] (accessed Sept 19, 2017).

Page 50 \(view printable replacement page\):

IV.B.1. Books and Treatises: Citation

Revised example:

Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders 478 (5th ed 2013) (DSM-~~V~~5). (first reference; include parenthetical if subsequent references or citations follow)

Page 51 \(view printable replacement page\):

IV.B.2. Books and Treatises: Short Citation Form

Revised example:

DSM-~~V~~5 at 480.

Replacement pages indicating (Updated 2018):

Cover \(view printable replacement page\)

Page 1 \(view printable replacement page\)

Page 66 \(view printable replacement page\)