- (2) Show cause motions shall contain a warning in bold type that if the responding party does not file an appearance within 30 days of service, the party filing the show cause motion may file for judgment in accordance with the requests in the motion. The party filing the show cause motion shall immediately have the motion, order and supporting documents served on the other party and may not grant more than one 30-day extension to the responding party to appear. If the responding party fails to appear, the party filing the show cause motion may apply for judgment in accordance with the motion.
- (3) If a show cause hearing will take more than a half-day, the motion must state the approximate time estimated for the hearing in the caption of the motion.
- (4) A proposed order to show cause must contain a space for the court to insert the date, time, and location.
- (5) Omnibus hearings in Coos County are set in Coquille on Mondays at 9:00 a.m., 10:30 a.m., 1:30 p.m., and 3:00 p.m., except when Monday is a holiday. When

- (2) Coos - Civil jury trials and criminal jury and non-jury trials are set Tuesdays through Fridays at 9:30 a.m., but a trial set for five or more days may be heard on Mondays if so set by the Presiding Judge. Civil non-jury trials are set Tuesdays through Thursdays at 9:00 a.m.
- (3) Juvenile hearings in Coos are set on Mondays of each week. Juvenile trials, except termination of parental rights, are heard on every other Thursday beginning at 9:00 a.m. Termination of parental rights cases are set as provided in subsection (2).

- (5) Juvenile hearings in Curry are set at 2:30 p.m. on Mondays and trials are set at times designated by the Judge.
- (6) If parties have pretrial matters to discuss with the court prior to the start of a jury trial, the parties must appear at least 30 minutes before the start of trial and inform the court that pretrial matters need to be heard.

- (7) This rule applies to civil, criminal, domestic, juvenile, and all other types of matters requiring a trial or hearing.

6.008 Trial Fees

- (1) Pursuant to ORS 21.225 the trial fee for the first day of either a jury or non-jury trial must be paid no later than 12:00 p.m. on the judicial day immediately preceding the first day of trial.
- (2) If the party responsible for paying the trial fee under ORS 21.225 believes such party is entitled to a waiver or deferment of the trial fee under ORS 21.680 to 21.700, the party must obtain from the court a waiver or deferment no later than 12:00 p.m. of the judicial day immediately preceding the first day of trial. Waiver or deferment by the court of a filing fee or other fees for a party does not relieve such party from the obligation of obtaining a waiver or deferment of the trial fee as provided for in this paragraph.
- (3) Failure to pay or obtain a waiver of deferment of the trial fee no later than 12:00 p.m. on the judicial day immediately preceding the first day of trial, in addition to the remedy in ORS 21.225 (3)(c) and (4), may result in other orders by the court, including dismissal of the case.

6.012 Pretrial Settlement Conferences

- (1) In all circuit court civil cases, including dissolution of marriage and post-judgment modification proceedings, if one party requests a pretrial settlement conference, the settlement conference shall be held and shall be conducted according to the procedure set forth in this rule. However, the pretrial settlement conference will not be required if the opposing party demonstrates good cause why the settlement conference should not be held. Requests shall be in writing and directed to the Presiding Judge, who will confirm availability of a settlement judge.
- (2) Each trial attorney and party or representative of the corporation or insurance company who has full authority to settle and compromise the litigation shall personally appear at the pretrial settlement conference; however, the judge may permit telephone appearances for good cause. If the judge allows a telephone appearance, the person appearing by telephone must be available at all times during the settlement conference.
- (3) Each settlement conference shall be scheduled to allow adequate time for meaningful settlement discussions. Additional settlement conferences may be scheduled by the judge or by agreement of all attorneys and parties.

- (4) The pretrial settlement conferences shall not delay the trial scheduling. Conferences will be set only if a settlement judge is available.
- (5) If the case does not settle, the settlement conference judge shall be permitted to act as trial judge only if all parties so stipulate.
- (6) Before the beginning of the settlement conference, each party shall submit a pretrial statement to the settlement conference judge. The pretrial statement shall contain:
 - a) A brief summary and analysis of the key issues involved in the litigation; and
 - b) The status of any settlement negotiation.
- (7) The pretrial statements shall be confidential and shall not be placed in the trial court file.
- (8) Materials or notes prepared by the settlement conference judge will not be placed in the trial court file in the event that the case does not settle or upon request of either party, and in that event, the materials or notes shall be destroyed by the settlement conference judge.

6.021 Settlement and Call Day

- (1) Every Friday shall be call day except if that Friday is a non-judicial day, the preceding Thursday shall be call day.
- (2) Call day applies to civil, domestic, show cause, and other contested proceedings, but excluding juvenile cases, termination of parent rights cases, and all criminal cases.
- (3) During the week before a trial, proceeding, or hearing is scheduled to be tried, but not later than 12:00 p.m. on call day, it shall be the responsibility of every attorney who has a trial, proceeding, or hearing scheduled to be tried to notify the office of the presiding judge for cases in Coos County, and the office of the judge in Gold Beach for cases in Curry County whether the matter will be tried. Fulfillment of this requirement can be accomplished by phone or in writing as long as such communication is received by the appropriate judge's office during the week before the matter is to be tried, but no later than 12:00 p.m. on call day.
- (4) If a case is scheduled to be tried before a jury and has been settled, it will be necessary for the parties settling the case to either appear and put the settlement on the record or submit the appropriate dismissal or settlement papers to the court. This shall be done at least one judicial day before the date set for trial. A conference call to put the settlement on the record will be sufficient compliance with this rule. It will be the responsibility of the parties involved to arrange and pay for such call.

- (5) In any trial, proceeding, or hearing scheduled to be tried or heard by the court alone, if a case settles, it will be necessary for the parties involved to either appear in person and put the settlement on the record or submit the appropriate dismissal or settlement papers to the court. This shall be done on or before the time set for trial, proceeding, or hearing. A conference call arranged and paid for by the parties is sufficient compliance with this rule.
- (6) If the case does not settle as anticipated by the parties, they shall be prepared to try the case at the time scheduled or the case shall be dismissed. If the attorney or parties inform the court a case has settled and the trial date passes, the case will not be returned to the trial docket but will be dismissed unless exceptional circumstances are shown.

6.051 Trial Exhibits in Remote Proceedings

Exhibits for remote trials and hearings must be delivered or submitted to the court in accordance with Presiding Judge Order 21-05. Oregon Judicial Department : General Orders : Other Court Resources : State of Oregon

- (2) When a juror is excused for cause or by peremptory challenge, the replacement juror shall be questioned by the court with each party following. The court may place reasonable limits on jury selection.
- (3) Multiple parties must share the times allotted.
- (4) The parties may submit printed questions for the court to ask before the start of trial.
- (5) A request for jury selection other than as provided by this rule must be made in writing at least five judicial days before the trial is scheduled to start.

CHAPTER 7 – CASE MANAGEMENT

7.006 Scheduling

All court matters relating to any case shall be scheduled by the presiding judge or designee.

7.015 Pleas in Misdemeanor Cases in Coos County

- (1) In misdemeanor cases involving a defendant who is not in custody, the change of plea date shall be no later than 49 days after arraignment. A not guilty plea will be entered by the court at arraignment or based on a letter from an attorney indicating the attorney has been retained by the defendant and is appearing for the defendant.
- (2) If the defendant enters a not guilty plea through an attorney, at the change of plea date the attorney shall state on the record or in writing that the attorney has personally talked to the defendant about negotiating a plea before the entry of a not guilty plea and shall inform the court of his/her conflict dates.
- (3) After the change of plea date, a trial shall be held as soon as practicable.
- (4) Attorney letters of representation in contempt of court cases are set by court staff on the third Friday of the month at 9:00 a.m. for cases filed by the local District Attorney and 11:00 a.m. for cases filed by Department of Justice.
- (5) When an attorney appears on behalf of a client in a misdemeanor case, either in person or by a letter of representation, the attorney must file with the court within 14 days of the appearance an acknowledgment signed by the client of the next date at which the client is to appear in court. Failure to file the acknowledgment will result in the case being referred to the District Attorney.

CHAPTER 8 – DOMESTIC RELATIONS PROCEEDINGS:

8.011 Mediation Orientation/Parent Education

- (1) Pursuant to ORS 3.434 and the Coos/Curry Family Law Plan, individuals involved in dissolutions, child custody or parenting time disputes must complete the court approved online mediation orientation and parent education class. The cost for the online class shall be the responsibility of the parties.
- (2) Participation in the online mediation orientation and parent education class is mandatory unless an Order of Default Judgment has been entered by the court. If future motions are filed by the parties and they are at issue, then the class requirements will need to be met by both parties.
- (3) The parties must complete the online mediation orientation and parent education class prior to the court signing a judgment of dissolution unless the court waives attendance for good cause shown by motion and affidavit. Sanctions may be imposed by the court if a party fails to comply.

- (4) An in-person mediation orientation and parent education class may be substituted for the above requirements.

8.012 Domestic Relations Mediation Program

- (1) Mediation Requirement. In any domestic relations case not exempted under paragraph (2) of this rule, all parties are required to participate in mediation regarding any contested issue involving child custody, parenting time, or visitation. Mediation may be conducted in-person or by remote means.
- (2) Exemption from the Mediation Requirement. Any party exempt from mediation under the provisions of this paragraph shall follow the process to request a waiver of mediation described in paragraph (5). The following circumstances exempt a domestic relations case from mediation under this rule:
 - (a) Cases in which the parties are subject to a criminal no-contact order or an active protective order, including but not limited to:
 - (i) Family Abuse Prevention Act Orders.
 - (ii) Stalking Protective Orders.
 - (iii) Elderly Persons and Persons with Disabilities Abuse Prevention Act Orders.
 - (iv) Sexual Abuse Protective Orders.

Notwithstanding the exemptions listed above, mediation may occur at the request of the protected person so long as the circumstances of mediation do not violate the terms of the no-contact or protective order.

- (b) Any matter involving a minor child or youth who is a party in a pending juvenile court case or in the temporary or permanent custody or wardship of the Department of Human Services or the Oregon Youth Authority.
- (c) Cases in which the parties have submitted a stipulated judgment signed by both parties that fully resolves all contested issues involving child custody, parenting time, or visitation.
- (d) Cases in which the responding party has been found by the court to be in default or has waived further appearance in the matter.

- (3) Limitations on Issues and Claims Subject to the Mediation Requirement. The following issues and claims are not subject to the mediation requirement under this rule:
 - (a) "Immediate danger" motions seeking an order for temporary custody and/or parenting time under ORS 107.097(3) or 107.139.
 - (b) "Status quo" motions seeking a temporary protective order of restraint issued under ORS 107.097(2) or 107.138.
 - (c) Motions to modify or revoke financial restraining orders issued under ORS 107.093.
 - (d) Controversies concerning child support, spousal support, and/or the division of property or debt.
 - (e) Orders of Assistance.
- (4) Mediation is required for any contested issue involving child custody, parenting time, or visitation even if an accompanying issue is otherwise excluded from mediation under paragraph (3).
- (5) Waiver of Mediation and other Resolution Process. A party may not waive mediation without a court order. To request an order allowing waiver, a party must file a Motion to Waive Mediation and Declaration in Support with the court, in substantial conformity with Appendix II, or from the court's website, located at [Link to online form.]. An order to waive mediation may be granted on a party's or the court's own motion after a showing of good cause.
- (6) Mediation Orders.
 - (a) Upon receipt of a filed response contesting any issue involving child custody, parenting time, or visitation, the court will send the parties, or the attorneys (if represented), a Notice Regarding Mandatory Mediation and an Order for Mediation. The parties are directed to begin the process of mediation within fourteen (14) days of the receipt of the order. The order will include contact information for mediation provider services. The parties must conclude the mediation at least thirty (30) days before trial or hearing on the merits, or such later time as may be allowed by the court on motion and affidavit or declaration showing good cause.
 - (b) If private mediation is sought and the parties are unable to agree on a private mediator or payment of fees of the mediator, any party may file a motion and supporting declaration with the court requesting that the court determine the mediator and payment of fees.

- (7) Good Faith. The parties must participate in mediation in good faith which shall include a mediation orientation, at least one mediation session and up to six hours of total court connected mediation. Mediation shall not be used by any party for the purposes of harassment or delay.
- (8) Compliance. Court Connected Mediators will file a notice with the court when parties have attended mediation as authorized by ORS 107.765(2). In cases in which the parties complete mediation or other dispute resolution process required by this rule by a means other than Court Connected Mediation, each party must file a Certificate of Required Dispute Resolution in substantial conformity with Appendix III or from the court's website, located at [Link to online form.] The certificate must be filed at least seven (7) days in advance of the hearing or trial. If the certificate has not been filed (or the requirement waived) in a case scheduled for hearing or trial, the court may find that the parties are not ready to proceed to hearing or trial and impose sanctions for failing to comply with this rule, including but not limited to, delaying the hearing or trial date, dismissing the case, or refusing to allow a party to present evidence at the hearing or trial. Even if the parties have failed to participate in mediation, the court in its sole discretion may proceed to trial if it determines it is in the best interest of the parties to proceed.
