SHOW CAUSE ORDERS

- (1) Motions for Show Cause Orders (other than for contempt of court) must separately state each item of relief requested by the moving party. Such orders may not state the requested relief by reference to a supporting affidavit.
- (2) Unless otherwise specifically required by statute or ORCP or specifically directed by the court, Show Cause Orders (other than for contempt of court) shall not require the personal appearance of the opposing party and shall not set a time certain for response by the opposing party. - (3) In the event the opposing party fails to file a written appearance in response to a show cause order within thirty (30) days from the date of service of the order upon the opposing party, then at any time thereafter and while the opposing party remains in default for want of such written appearance, the moving party may present an ex parte [an] order granting the relief sought by the moving party, provided the return of service of the show cause order has been filed of record or is presented with the proposed ex parte order. Upon presentation of the proposed ex parte order, the court, in its discretion, may allow the requested relief ex parte or it may direct that a hearing be scheduled for the presentation of a prima facie case in support of the relief sought by the moving party.

CHAPTER 12 Mediation

12.015 MEDIATION FOR THE TWELFTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT

NOTE: Rules specifically relating to Temporary Custody Orders during Mediation are found in SLR Chapter 8.

- (1) Matters Subject to Mediation.
  - (a) Purpose of Mediation. The purpose of mediation shall be to assist the parties in reaching a workable settlement of those issues before the court.
  - (b) Mandatory Mediation. Any dispute involving custody and/or parenting time arising from any of the following types of cases shall, in the Twelfth Judicial District, be subject to mediation under this rule:
    - (i) Any domestic relations suit, as defined in ORS 107.510 (3);
    - (ii) Any filiation proceeding pursuant to ORS 109.124 to 109.230;
    - (iii) Proceedings to determine the custody or support of a child under ORS 109.103;
    - (iv) Any proceeding to modify custody and/or parenting time previously determined in one of the above types of cases;
    - (v) Any other matter involving a dispute over custody and/or parenting time upon referral of the court; and

- (vi) Other Matters. The mediator may consider issues of property division or spousal or child support with the written approval of both parties or of their counsel.

(2) Authority of Circuit Court not Affected by Mediation.

The authority of the Circuit Court for the Twelfth Judicial District over a domestic relations case filed in the Circuit Court for the Twelfth Judicial District is not affected by referral to mediation. Any agreement of the parties reached as a result of mediation for which court enforcement may be sought must be presented to the court and the court shall retain final authority to accept, modify or reject the agreement.

(3) Mediation Process.

- (a) Commencement of Mediation by Stipulated Request for Mediation. If there is a disagreement between the parents concerning custody or parenting time at any stage of a domestic relations proceeding, either parents or their attorneys may sign and file with the court a stipulated request for mediation. A mediator will be available to the parents in accordance with these rules or the parents may agree and stipulate to an independent mediator in their stipulated request for mediation. If the parties choose an independent mediator the costs for the mediator will be paid by the parties jointly.
- (b) Commencement of Mediation by Request for Mediation by One Parent. If there is a disagreement between the parents concerning custody or parenting time at any stage of a domestic relations proceeding, either parent seeking to resolve the matter may file with the court and serve upon the other parent or his or her attorney a request for mediation.
- (c) Commencement of Mediation when Custody or Parenting Time Appears at Issue. Whenever a respondent generally appears in a domestic relations suit by filing an answer such as “Respondent Appears” or the like, the respondent shall in addition state whether there is any disagreement over child custody and/or parenting time in the case or, alternatively, whether child custody or parenting time is not an issue in the case. In the event no such statement is made, it will be assumed that custody and/or parenting time is in dispute, and the matter shall be referred to mediation.

- (d) Mediation Orientation. Whenever mediation is requested as in paragraphs (a) and (b) above or whenever any pleadings indicate that child custody or parenting time is at issue, the parties shall be ordered to appear at a mediation orientation. The parents will be given an opportunity to choose a mediator from those under contract with the Twelfth Judicial District at the orientation or consult with their counsel and report their choice of a mediator to the court within ten (10) days. If the parties are unable to agree upon a mediator within ten (10) days, the court will appoint a mediator and notify the parties of the appointment.

Mediation shall consist of an orientation session and a maximum of eight (8) hours of sessions involving the parties and the mediator. Additional sessions may be provided at the parties' expense or upon approval of the court on recommendation of the mediator. Parents may, upon written request of the parties, be allowed, at any state of the proceeding, or post-judgment, to re-enter mediation to use the balance of session time not previously used.

- (e) Unsuccessful Mediation. The mediator may notify the court at any time following the initial mediation session involving the parties and the mediator that mediation has been unsuccessful, in which case the proceeding will be scheduled for hearing in the same course and with the same priority as if there had been no mediation. The mediator may determine that the mediation has been unsuccessful if the parents are unable to resolve the custody or parenting time controversy, if one or both parents are unwilling to participate in mediation or if the mediator determines that either parent is using the mediation process in bad faith for the delay of resolution of other issues.
- (f) Temporary Custody and Parenting Time Orders. At any point during the mediation the court may approve a temporary custody and parenting time order reflecting the parents' agreement as to the issues.
- (g) Temporary Support. If the parents cannot agree on the amount of support to be paid by one to the other and they are also in dispute as to custody and/or parenting time, the mediator may assist upon the written request of the parents and the consent of the mediator in resolving the support issue as well.

- (h) Mediation Completion. It is the responsibility of the parties and their attorneys to see that mediation is completed within such time as to not delay the trial of the case. Failure to do so may result in dismissal of the case when called for trial or postponement under such conditions as the court may require.
- (4) Custody Studies.
- (a) If the parties are unable, after a good faith effort, to resolve custody and/or parenting time issues in mediation, the parties may agree to a custody study. The study must be performed by a duly qualified person but must not be the mediator assigned to the case.
  - (b) The parties must agree in advance that the report of the custody study will be admissible at trial or other proceedings without appearance of the person who performed the study. The person who performed the study may, however, be subpoenaed at the expense of the person calling the person as a witness.
  - (c) When the study report had been received by the parties, the parties may, if both parties agree, resume mediation after the report is made available to the mediator.
  - (d) The expense of the study shall be the responsibility of the parties in such proportion as the parties may agree or as ordered by the court. Persons who seek a custody study under this rule may, prior to proceeding with a custody study, petition the court for partial assistance in the cost of the study, to be paid from funds from the county mediation filing fees. The decision to provide funding shall be based on the abilities of the parties to afford the study. A petition for financial assistance for the custody study shall be accompanied by the name and qualifications of the person to be selected, a recommendation from the mediator as to whether a custody study may be useful and an estimate of cost and affidavits setting forth the financial resources of the parties.

12.035 SMALL CLAIMS AND FED MEDIATION

- (1) All contested small claims and FED cases shall be referred to mediation pursuant to ORS 36.185, except as otherwise ordered by the court, cases involving an incarcerated party shall not be referred unless all parties to the case agree to the participate in mediation.

Approved placement as a mediator for the Twelfth Judicial District shall be made by the Presiding Judge.
- (3) After approval of a prospective mediator, Polk County counsel prepares a service agreement, which must be agreed to and signed by both the new mediator and a member of the Polk County Board of Commissioners.
- (4) The original agreement is filed in the Polk County Board of Commissioners' office. A copy of the agreement is sent to the mediator and a copy of the agreement is sent to the Trial Court Administrator for update of the list of approved mediators.

8.075 PARENTING TIME APPENDIX 2

1. INTRODUCTION:

The Twelfth Judicial District Local Rule recognizes that both parents are an important part of their child's growth and development. Therefore, the terms "custodial parent" and "non-custodial parent", in reference to these Local Rules, are to be read with the idea and belief that each parent should be afforded the opportunity to play an active role in the child's life. The purpose of these guidelines is to provide a schedule for parents who have not established another schedule. Parents are encouraged to be flexible and to consider their child's best interests in arranging additional parenting time. The Twelfth Judicial District may be able to provide mediation services to assist you in resolving conflicts regarding custody and parenting time upon the request of a party.

2. DEFINITIONS:

"Child" includes all minor children referred to in the Judgment or Order.

"Custodial" refers to the party awarded sole custody, or if joint custody is awarded, it refers to the person designated as providing the primary physical residence in the Judgment or Order.

"Non-custodial" refers to the party who is not the custodial parent as defined above.

"Joint Custody" true joint custody means that the parents have shared authority to make all major decisions concerning the child. Parents who agree on joint custody could, for example, decide that the child will live with one parent for more time than with the other parent. However, if they did so, both parents would still have to agree on significant decisions affecting the child.

IF PARENTS CANNOT AGREE ON JOINT CUSTODY AND HOW JOINT CUSTODY ARRANGEMENTS WILL WORK, THE COURT WILL NOT ORDER JOINT CUSTODY.

3. THINGS TO REMEMBER IN INTERPRETING THIS RULE:

3.1. Personal Plans. Personal plans of the custodial parent or child, (for example, school or church activities) will not be reasons for failing to follow the parenting time schedule set forth in the court's order.

3.2. Addresses and telephone numbers. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, both parties will provide home addresses and home telephone numbers to the other party. In the event the non-custodial parent is taking the child overnight out of the town of the non-custodial parent's residence, the non-custodial parent shall notify the custodial parent of the location and telephone number, if any, of where the child will be sleeping.

- 3.3. Non-assigned time. Unless otherwise agreed, in writing, the CUSTODIAL PARENT is responsible for the CHILD during all times not awarded to NONCUSTODIAL PARENT.
- 3.4. Delivery and Pick-up. All parenting time shall be exercised in a prompt manner. Unless otherwise agreed, or court ordered, pick-up and delivery shall occur no more than fifteen (15) minutes before or fifteen (15) minutes after the time specified for parenting time to begin and end.
- 3.4.1. The non-custodial parent shall pick up the child at the beginning of the visit and the custodial parent shall pick up the child at the end of the visit.
- 3.5. No shows for scheduled Parenting Time and Make-ups. Only medical reasons will be considered sufficient for postponement of parenting time. If a child is ill and unable to visit, a makeup parenting time shall occur on the following weekend. However, if the NON- CUSTODIAL PARENT fails to exercise HIS/HER parenting time, there will be no makeup parenting time.

When there is a history where the NON-CUSTODIAL PARENT does not show up for a scheduled weekend parenting time (for example: one "no show" per month for three months), the custodial parent may take the following action: To write the NON-CUSTODIAL PARENT indicating that unless the NONCUSTODIAL PARENT gives at least three days advance notice that he/she will exercise the scheduled weekend parenting time, the custodial parent will cancel the next following regularly-scheduled parenting time.

Canceling the next regularly-scheduled parenting time should not be done lightly and should not be done by the CUSTODIAL PARENT where, for example, there is no regular history of missed parenting time, or where the missed parenting time was due to an emergency situation such as health or emergency weather conditions.

- 3.6. Mutual Respect toward the Other Parent. Both parties shall not make bad or unflattering comments about the other party or in any way attempt to diminish the love, respect and affection that the child has for the other party.
- 3.7. Access to records and events. In addition to the parenting time specified above, unless otherwise specifically ordered by the court, the non-custodial parent shall have the right to visit with the child at school, attend the child's school activities (such as an open house or sports activities), and have full access to school teachers and administrators for complete information about the child in school. ORS 107.154 also affirms additional rights in the non- custodial parent unless otherwise ordered by the court. Each parent shall be responsible for keeping themselves advised of the child's activities and events.

- 3.8. Conflicting dates. The holiday schedule takes precedence over the summer parenting time and alternating weekend schedule. Due to the holiday parenting time schedule set out in this Rule, there may be occasions when one or both of the parents will have the child in his or her home for three weekends in a row. This could happen because any holiday defined in this Rule shall replace the normal schedule for a given weekend or time period. In other words, some weekends in a year will be lost due to conflicting vacations and holidays.
- 3.9. Daily Care. The parent with whom the child is staying will be responsible for daily care and will make necessary decisions regarding emergency medical or dental care. The non-custodial parent's rights to make daily care decisions does not include leaving a child unattended in violation of Oregon law, haircuts, permanents, or any substantial changes in the child's appearance (i.e., tattoos, ear piercing, etc.) unless authorized by the custodial parent.
- 3.10. Daycare. The non-custodial parent shall be responsible for arranging and paying for daycare for the child during his or her parenting time periods.
- 3.11. Emergencies. Each party will immediately notify the other party of any emergency circumstances or substantial changes in the health or safety of the child.

4. PARENTING TIME PROVISIONS:

4.3.3. The alternate weekend parenting time schedule and alternate Wednesday visits shall not apply during the winter vacation period.

4.4. SUMMER PARENTING TIME:

Unless otherwise agreed upon by the parties in writing, summer parenting time shall be divided into three (3) blocks of time; each block shall consist of a two (2) week visit (i.e., 14 days subject to remaining vacation time), as outlined below. When the child reaches the age of 8 years, the summer parenting time shall be six consecutive weeks provided, however, that the court can continue the three two-week block of time parenting time if deemed appropriate. (In part B there are suggestions for special age-related provisions. If you feel any provision is appropriate you will need to have the court order address these concerns.)

4.4.1. Three (3) two (2) week parenting time schedule in EVEN NUMBERED YEARS (unless otherwise agreed upon by the parties).

4.4.1.1. The non-custodial parent's first two-week block of time shall begin at 7:00 p.m. on the first Friday following the day school adjourns and shall end at 7:00 p.m. two weeks later;

4.4.1.2. The custodial parent's first two-week block of time shall begin at 7:00 p.m. on the third Friday after school adjourns and end at 7:00 p.m. two weeks later.

4.4.1.3. The non-custodial parent shall then have the child for the next two-week period. Once that two weeks is up, the child will once again go back to the custodial parent's residence and so on.

4.4.1.4. The alternate weekend parenting time schedule and Alternate Wednesday visits shall not apply during this extended summer vacation period.

4.4.1.5. The "summer" parenting time schedule will end at 7:00 p.m. on the sixth day before school resumes.

4.4.2. Three (3) two (2) week parenting time schedule in ODD NUMBERED YEARS (unless otherwise agreed upon by the parents).

4.4.2.1. The custodial parent's first two-week block of time shall begin at 7:00 p.m. on the first Friday after school adjourns and end at 7:00 p.m. two weeks later;

4.4.2.5. The “summer” parenting time schedule will end at 7:00 p.m. on the sixth day before school resumes.

4.4.3. The "summer" parenting time schedule will end at 7:00 p.m. on the sixth day before school resumes.

4.4.4. Six-week visit.

4.4.4.1. Before May 1 of each year, the non-custodial parent shall select and notify the custodial parent in writing of the Inclusive dates of the summer parenting time period which the non-custodial parent chooses to have with the child. The custodial parent shall have the child for the rest of the summer subject to the non-custodial parent’s “alternate weekends”, provided, however, that the custodial parent shall have the right to keep the child for two uninterrupted weeks during the custodial parent’s one-half of the summer which will result in the non-custodial parent losing one “alternate weekend”. There shall be no alternate Wednesday visits during the summer. The custodial parent shall have “alternate weekend” visits with the child during the non-custodial parent’s six-week visit provided, however, that the non-custodial parent shall have the right to keep the child for two uninterrupted weeks during noncustodial parent’s six-week visit which will result in the custodial parent losing one “alternate weekend” visit. Such interim parenting time by the custodial parent shall not lengthen the six-week parenting time period allowed to the non-custodial parent. The six-week summer parenting time shall not end later than 7:00 p.m. on the sixth day before school resumes. If the non-custodial parent fails to give written notice to the custodial parent before May 1 of the year of the summer parenting time, the non-custodial parent nevertheless shall have the right to such summer parenting time with the child after giving two weeks’ written notice to the custodial parent, if and to the extent the time remains for such parenting time; provided, however, that the custodial parent shall have the right to choose the inclusive dates for such parenting time.

4.5 LONG DISTANCE PARENTING TIME.

Where the non-custodial parent lives more than 200 miles from the child the following shall apply.

4.5.1. Extended Parenting Time:

4.5.1.1. Newborn to less than three years of age: Three one-week blocks with a break of at least one week between visits at any time during the year, excluding holidays to which the custodial parent is entitled. The non-custodial parent shall notify 90 days advance written notice to the custodial parent of the dates of each of the one-week blocks selected.

4.5.1.2. At least three years of age and less than six years of age:

Four weeks starting not less than one week and not more than five weeks after school ends. The custodial parent has the option of a weekend (7:00 p.m. Friday until 7:00 p.m. Sunday) after the first two weeks, in the general area of the non-custodial parent's residence.

4.5.1.3. Six years and older:

The non-custodial parent shall have all but two weeks of the child's summer school vacation, provided, the parenting time shall end not more than six days before school resumes. The custodial parent shall have a two-week period with the child either at the beginning of the summer or after the first one-half of the visit with the non-custodial parent. If the custodial parent chooses to have the two-week period after the first one-half of the parenting time period, the custodial parent shall pay for all transportation costs incurred in transporting the child from the non-custodial parent's home to the custodial parent's home and back to the non-custodial parent's home. The six days before school resumes shall not be considered a part of the custodial parent's two weeks.

4.5.1.3.1. The custodial parent shall by May 1 of each year provide written notice to the non-custodial parent of the dates selected for the custodial parent's two-week period with the child.

4.5.4. Transportation:

Transportation by plane, train or bus: If the noncustodial parent wants the child to travel by plane, train or bus, then the custodial parent shall deliver and pick up the child at the local international airport, train station or bus station. A child younger than five years shall not travel long distances unless accompanied by a parent or mutually-agreed upon adult known to the child. Approval of a non-parent companion shall not be unreasonably withheld.

6. STANDARDS FOR INTERPRETATION OF THE LOCAL RULES.

- 6.1 Support of parenting time. The custodial parent shall encourage parenting time with the child and the child shall not be permitted to determine whether the child wishes to visit the non-custodial parent unless agreed to, in writing, by both parents.
- 6.2 Meals & Clothes. The CUSTODIAL PARENT shall have the CHILD fed and ready on time for parenting time with sufficient clothing packed and ready for the parenting time period. The NON-CUSTODIAL PARENT shall return all clothing and feed the CHILD a meal before returning the child from the parenting time period.
- 6.3. Writing and telephoning. The NON-CUSTODIAL PARENT shall, in addition to the parenting time in this ORDER, have the right to correspond with the CHILD, and to telephone the child during reasonable hours without monitoring by CUSTODIAL PARENT or anyone else. Unless otherwise agreed to between the parties, telephone calls between NON-CUSTODIAL PARENT and the CHILD shall be limited to no more than 3 per week. The CUSTODIAL PARENT shall also have similar rights during periods of NON-CUSTODIAL PARENT's Twelfth Judicial District – Polk County – February 1, 2013 Page 28 parenting time. A child over the age of 12 shall have the right to initiate calls to the other parent during reasonable hours. Long distance calls are to be made collect unless other arrangements are made.
- 6.4. Decision Making. The CUSTODIAL PARENT is encouraged to consult with NON-CUSTODIAL PARENT regarding major decisions affecting the child; however, the CUSTODIAL PARENT shall have full decision-making authority. Each parent shall exert his/her best effort to work cooperatively for the best interests of the CHILD.
- 6.5. Parenting Time is Independent From Support. Parenting time is not dependent on payment of child support or on whether or not the other parent does or does not do other things not directly related to parenting time.

7. FLEXIBILITY.

Parents are encouraged to be flexible and to consider their child's best interests in arranging additional parenting time. It is the intent of this parenting time document to provide a schedule to parents who have not been able to agree to an alternate more flexible schedule. This rule is not intended to create an absolute maximum amount of time NON-CUSTODIAL PARENT can be with the CHILD. Nor is it intended to restrict a parent from seeing a child at school or events.

8. PARENT EDUCATION PROGRAMS.

The Twelfth Judicial District provides a mandatory Parent Education Program. (See Supplementary Local Rule 8.080.)

9. SMOKING OR DRINKING ALCOHOL IN THE PRESENCE OF THE CHILD.

An issue frequently occurs when one parent smokes or drinks alcohol in front of the child and the other parent objects. If the parents cannot agree on this issue, neither parent should smoke in the presence of the child (or smoke in any manner so the child is breathing the smoke) and neither parent should drink alcohol to the point where they are affected by the alcohol.

10. INVOLVEMENT AND FLEXIBILITY.

The parenting time schedule should be construed and implemented in a manner which fosters the child's best interest by providing liberal, predictable, and wholesome time between the child and the non-custodial parent. While this schedule promotes stability for the child, each parent acknowledges that reasonable adjustments will be needed from time to time and that an element of flexibility will be required in administering this parenting time schedule. Each parent should be flexible in arranging dates and time with the child so important family events and the child's activities are maintained with minimal disruption or hard feelings. Each parent shall act reasonably in registering the child for activities keeping in mind that neither parent is entitled to require activities for the child which will take place during the other parent's time with the child. On the other hand, there are natural activities which occur (such as school, athletic, music and other programs) that, by their very nature, take place on the other parent's weekend or scheduled parenting time.

- 10.1 Although neither parent is required to take a child to any activity, each parent is encouraged to use his or her best effort to keep the child involved in athletic events, school functions, lessons, birthday parties of friends, etc. even though those activities may fall during a parenting time period. To do otherwise would deprive the child of valuable growing opportunities.

- 10.2. Each parent is encouraged to use a child's activity as an opportunity for that parent to participate with the child, meet the child's friends and other families and to have a quality experience with the child.

11. THE FOLLOWING SUGGESTIONS ARE NOT BINDING UNLESS ADOPTED BY COURT ORDER.

If you feel there are activities of the child or parents, physical, emotional, religious, transportation or work-related concerns, or that there are special needs related to the age of a child and you are unable to mutually resolve those concerns, then you will need to seek the court's assistance to deviate from this rule to address those concerns.

For example, the Twelfth Judicial District Local Rule recognizes that parenting time guidelines should be based upon the needs of a growing child. Parents may wish to ask the court to consider the age of the child's suggestions if they are appropriate.

- 11.1. Infant, age 0 to less than 1. Frequent two to four hour visits, two or three days per week from CUSTODIAL PARENT's home; also one additional afternoon or evening per week. Single overnight visitations, provided NON-CUSTODIAL PARENT has been actively involved in the care taking role.
- 11.2. The toddler, age 1 to less than 3 ½. Four weekend days per month, plus one-half (½) day per week (4 to 6 hours). Overnight parenting time, provided NONCUSTODIAL PARENT has been actively involved in the care taking role and/or is accompanied by an older child. During any visits of 7 days or more, the other parent should have a four-hour mid-week visit.
- 11.3. The preschooler, age 3 ½ to less than 6. Alternate weekends from 7:00 p.m. Friday to 7:00 p.m. Sunday, plus either one non-overnight weekday per week during the afternoon or evening. Summer visits should be as per the Rule. During any visits of 7 days or more the other parent should have a four-hour midweek visit.
- 11.4. The early elementary, age 6 to less than 9. Summer visits should be as per the Rule. The parenting time schedule should be flexible enough to insure the children's participation in ongoing or special activities.
- 11.5. The later elementary, age 10 and older. The minimum is the same as the early elementary. Flexible parenting time is the basic principle, with the children having some input to avoid scheduling conflicts. At this age, it seems the quality of time is more important than the quantity but consideration should be given to the child's organized athletics and outside activities.

FOOTNOTE EXAMPLES

1. Effective February 1, 1997. (Revised Edition)
2. For example, the non-custodial parent shall pick the child up from the custodial parent's home at 7:00 p.m. on alternating Fridays, and return the child to the custodial parent's home the following Sunday evening in accordance with the rule. However, if the Monday is a recognized holiday, such as Memorial Day, and the non-custodial parent had the child that weekend, then he/she shall have parenting time with the child until 7:00 p.m. on the Memorial Day.
3. For example, in the year 1998, New Year's Day falls on a Thursday, the non-custodial parent's first weekend visit would begin at 7:00 p.m. on Friday, January 2, and end the following Sunday evening, January 4, at the time specified in Paragraph 4.1.1.
In accordance with the above example (New Year's Day falling on a Monday), if the first alternate weekend visit began on Friday, January 2, 1998, the non-custodial parent's second alternate weekend visit of the new year would begin on a Friday two weeks later, and so on:
First visit: 7:00 p.m. on Friday, January 2, 1998, through 7:00 p.m. the following Sunday;
Second visit: 7:00 p.m. on Friday, January 16, 1998, through 7:00 p.m. the following Sunday;
Third visit: 7:00 p.m. on Friday, January 30, 1998, through 7:00 p.m. the following Sunday.
4. For example, in the year 2001, New Year's Day falls on a Monday, the non-custodial parent's first weekend visit would begin on the second Friday in January, which would be Friday, January 12, 2001.
In accordance with the above example, if the non-custodial parent's first alternate weekend visit began on Friday, January 12, 2001, the second alternate weekend visit of the new year would commence two weeks later, on Friday, January 26, and end the following Sunday, and so on.
First visit: 7:00 p.m. on Friday, January 12, 2001, through 7:00 p.m. the following Sunday;
Second visit: 7:00 p.m. on Friday, January 26, 2001, through 7:00 p.m. the following Sunday;
Third visit: 7:00 p.m. on Friday, February 9, 2001, through 7:00 p.m. the following Sunday.
5. Using our example above, in the year 2001, if the non-custodial parent's first alternate weekend visit began on Friday, January 12, 2001, then the first alternate Wednesday visit would be on January 17, and so on. First Wednesday visit: Wednesday, January 17, 2001; Second Wednesday visit: Wednesday, January 31, 2001; Third Wednesday visit: Wednesday, February 14, 2001.

6. If the child is not of school age, Winter Vacation shall be considered to begin on the day school would normally let out for the school district in which the child resides.
7. For example, if the child goes back to school on January 8, 2001, the non-custodial parent's visit shall end at 7:00 p.m. on January 7, 2001.
