WAIVER OF RULES

(1) The Administrator may refuse to file any thing delivered for filing that does not comply with these rules or applicable statutes.

In any of those events, the period runs until the end of the next day the court is open.

(2) When the period of time prescribed or allowed relates to serving a public officer or filing a document at a public office, and if the last day falls on a day when that particular office is closed before the end of or for all of the normal work day, the last day shall be excluded in computing the period of time within which service is to be made or the document is to be filed, in which event the period runs until the close of office hours on the next day the office is open for business.

(3) When a party intends to file by mail a brief or other thing, other than a notice of appeal or other document subject to ORS 19.260, and the brief or other thing is due on a date that all local United States Postal Service facilities unexpectedly are closed in whole or in part, the party filing the brief or other thing shall have until the next day that United States Postal Service facilities are open to file the brief or other thing.

(b) If, pursuant to law or order of the court, a party's address and telephone number are not subject to public disclosure, the party filing any thing in the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals shall provide an alternative contact address that the court may make available for public inspection and for purpose of service under paragraph (2)(a) of this rule. The court shall not make the party's telephone number or actual address available for public inspection.

(c) A person filing a notice of appeal, petition for judicial review or petition under the original jurisdiction of the Supreme Court may file by mail and the filing shall be complete on deposit in the mail if mailed in accordance with ORS 19.260(1). If the person relies on the date of mailing as the date of filing under ORS 19.260(1), the person shall certify the date of mailing and shall file the certificate, together with acceptable proof from the post office of the date of mailing, with the Administrator with proof of service on the parties to the appeal, judicial review or original proceeding. Acceptable proof from the post office of the date of mailing shall be a receipt for certified or registered mail, with the certified or registered mail number on the envelope or on the item being mailed, with the date of mailing either stamped by the United States Postal Service on the receipt or shown by a United States Postal Service postage validated imprint on the envelope received by the Administrator.

(e) If filing is not done as provided in paragraph (c) or (d) of this subsection, then the thing shall not be deemed filed until the thing actually is received by the Administrator.

(2) Service Generally

(a) (i) Except as provided in clause (2)(a)(ii) of this rule, a copy of any thing delivered for filing under these rules must also be served by the party or attorney delivering it to the other parties to the cause.¹

(ii) A party filing a motion for waiver or deferral of court fees and costs under ORS 21.682 need not serve on any other party to the cause a copy of the motion or any accompanying documentation of financial eligibility.² After the court has ruled on the motion, if another party to the cause requests a copy of the motion or documentation of financial eligibility for the purpose of challenging the court's ruling, the filing party must comply with the request but may redact protected personal information as described in ORAP 8.50(1). As used in this clause, "documentation of financial eligibility" means a document showing eligibility for a government benefit based on financial need or an affidavit or declaration showing the income, assets, and financial obligations of a party and the party's household.

(b) Except as otherwise provided by law,³ service may be in person, by mail, or by third-party commercial carrier for delivery within three calendar days. Unless otherwise provided by law, service by mail or by third-party commercial carrier shall be complete on deposit in the mail or on dispatch to the carrier if the method of mailing or delivery is at least as expeditious as first-class mail.

(c) All service copies must include a certificate showing the date of filing.

(d) Any thing filed with the Administrator shall contain either an acknowledgment of service by the person served or proof of service in the form of a statement of the date and manner of service, and the names and addresses of the persons served, certified by the person who made service.

(e) If an attorney for a party files a change of address with the Oregon State Bar or with the court, or a self-represented party notifies the court of a change of address in writing or otherwise, the attorney or party must inform all other parties to the cause of the change of address within seven calendar days.

(3) Service on Trial Court Administrators and Transcript Coordinators

(a) When a copy of a notice of appeal is required to be served on the trial court administrator, service is sufficient if it is mailed or delivered to the person serving in the capacity of trial court administrator for the county in which the judgment or appealable order is entered.

(b) When a copy of a notice of appeal is required to be served on the transcript coordinator for the court from which the appeal is taken, the notice shall be mailed or delivered to the office of the trial court administrator addressed to "transcript coordinator."

(4) With respect to a person confined in an institution of confinement who files and serves a thing in the appellate court, the thing shall be deemed filed in the appellate court and served on another person when the original of the thing and the appropriate number of copies are delivered, in a form suitable for mailing, to the person or place designated by the institution for handling outgoing mail.

(5) (a) Parties filing any thing in the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals, including but not limited to notices of appeal, petitions for judicial review, and petitions invoking original jurisdiction, motions, and briefs, are

(i) Required to use recycled paper if recycled paper is readily available at a reasonable price in the party's community. Further, parties are encouraged to use paper containing the highest available content of post-consumer waste, as defined in ORS 459A.500(3), that is recyclable in the office paper recycling program in the party's community, and

(ii) Encouraged to print on both sides of each sheet of paper of the thing being filed.

(b) The court will not decline to accept any filing on the ground that the filing does not comply with paragraph (a) of this subsection.⁴

(6) Except as otherwise provided in these rules, parties may prepare any thing to be filed in the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals using either uniformly spaced type (such as produced by typewriters) or proportionally spaced type (such as produced by commercial printers and many computer printers). Uniformly spaced type shall not exceed 10 characters per inch (cpi) for both the text of the thing filed and footnotes. If proportionally spaced type is used, it shall not be smaller than 13 point for both the text of the thing filed and footnotes. This subsection does not apply to the record on appeal or review.

The Administrator will decide whether to place the notices of appeal in the same appellate file, but the appellant may state in each notice of appeal a preference that the Administrator place them in the same appellate file or assign them separate appellate case numbers. If the Administrator assigns separate appellate case numbers to each notice of appeal, any party to either appeal may move to consolidate the appellate cases.

(2) After a party has filed a notice of appeal from a decision in a trial court case, if another party files a notice of appeal from a decision in the same trial court case, the Administrator may place the subsequent notice of appeal in the same appellate file as the first notice of appeal or may assign a new appellate case number to the subsequent notice of appeal, subject to the following:

(b) When the Administrator has assigned a new appellate case number to a subsequent notice of appeal, any party to either appeal may move to consolidate the appellate cases.

(b) does apply to all other civil proceedings.²

(2) One filing fee is required for each appellant appearing separately or for two or more appellants appearing jointly. When two or more notices of appeal are filed under ORAP 2.10(1), a filing fee is required for each notice of appeal. When a notice of appeal has been filed and a notice of appeal subsequently is filed in circumstances resulting in the creation of a new appellate court case,³ the appellant is required to pay a filing fee at the time of the subsequent notice of appeal.

(3) Except as provided in subsection (4) of this rule, a respondent's appearance fee is required for each respondent appearing separately or for two or more respondents appearing jointly. When a notice of appeal has been filed and a notice of appeal subsequently is filed in circumstances resulting in the creation of a new appellate court case, the respondent shall pay an appearance fee at the time of the appearance in the subsequent appeal.

(4) (a) If two or more respondents appearing jointly submit a single brief or other first appearance, only one appearance fee is required.

(b) If a respondent concurs in a brief but does not join in submitting it, no appearance fee is required from the concurring respondent but the concurring respondent is deemed to have waived appearance and oral argument.

(c) After a brief is filed, if a stipulation is filed allowing a second respondent to join in the brief, the second respondent is deemed to have appeared, and an appearance fee is required from that party.

(5) If a party fails to pay the appearance fee, the court will not consider any thing filed by that party, and that party will not be allowed to argue the appeal.

² See generally ORS 21.010(1), ORS 21.480(3). AND ATTORNEY FEES AFTER NOTICE OF APPEAL FILED

(1) If the trial court enters a supplemental judgment awarding attorney fees or costs and disbursements under ORCP 68 C(5)(b) after the notice of appeal has been filed, and if the appellant intends to challenge the supplemental judgment on appeal, the appellant, within 30 days after entry of the supplemental judgment, shall serve and file an amended notice of appeal from the supplemental judgment.

(2) If the trial court enters a supplemental judgment disallowing, in whole or in part, any request for attorney fees or costs and disbursements after the notice of appeal has been served, and if a respondent intends to challenge the supplemental judgment on appeal:

(a) If that respondent has, before entry of the supplemental judgment, timely filed notice of cross-appeal, that respondent, within 30 days after entry of the supplemental judgment, shall serve and file an amended notice of cross-appeal from the supplemental judgment.

(b) If that respondent has not, before entry of the supplemental judgment, timely filed notice of cross-appeal, that respondent, within 30 days after entry of the supplemental judgment, shall serve and file a notice of cross-appeal.

(a) If the party who wishes to appeal is the appellant in the pending appeal, the appellant shall serve and file an amended notice of appeal from the subsequent order or judgment.

(b) If the party who wishes to appeal is the cross-appellant in the pending appeal, the cross-appellant shall serve and file an amended notice of cross-appeal from the subsequent order or judgment.

(c) If the party who wishes to appeal is any other party to the case, that party shall file a notice of appeal from the subsequent order or judgment.

(d) Any such notice of appeal, amended notice of appeal, or amended notice of cross-appeal shall contain the appellate case number of the pending appeal and shall be served and filed within 30 days after entry of the subsequent order or judgment.¹

(2) This subsection applies to a motion for relief from an order or judgment filed in juvenile court under ORS 419B.923 during the pendency of an appeal.

(a) If the copy of the motion required to be served on the appellate court is not entitled "MOTION FOR RELIEF FROM ORDER OR JUDGMENT UNDER ORS 419B.923," the copy shall be accompanied by a letter of transmittal identifying the motion as a motion for relief under ORS 419B.923.

(b) Any party to the appeal may request the appellate court to hold the appeal in abeyance pending disposition of the motion or allow the appeal to go forward. In the absence of a request from a party, the court on its own motion will review the motion for relief from judgment and decide whether to hold the appeal in abeyance. If the court does not order the appeal to be held in abeyance, the appeal will go forward.

(c) If the appellate court holds an appeal in abeyance pending disposition of a motion for relief from order or judgment and subsequently the court receives a copy of the juvenile court's order deciding the motion, after expiration of the period within which an appeal from the order may be filed, the appellate court will decide whether to reactivate the case or take other action.

(d) A party wishing to appeal an order deciding a motion for relief from order or judgment under ORS 419B.923 during the pendency of an appeal shall file a notice of appeal within the time and in the manner prescribed in ORS chapter 19. The notice of appeal as filed shall bear the same appellate case number assigned to the original notice of appeal.

(3) At the request of a party to a juvenile case or on the court's own motion, the Chief Judge may refer the case to the Appellate Settlement Conference Program under ORAP 15.05.

Rule 2.25
CASE TITLES;
CHANGES TO CASE TITLES

(1) With respect to appeals from courts:

(a) The case title shall include all parties or entities ever named in the case, including parties or entities dismissed from the case, notwithstanding that the title of the judgment being appealed may not refer to all parties in the case.

(b) All parties should be named completely and should be identified by their designations in the trial court (e.g., plaintiff, defendant, cross-plaintiff, intervenor) and on appeal, as appropriate (e.g., appellant, respondent, cross-appellant, cross-respondent). A party to the case who is not a party on appeal should be designated only by that party's designation in the trial court.

(c) Parties to a cross-claim, third-party claim or counterclaim should be set forth in a separate case title under the original case title.

(d) Where the trial court has used an "In Re" or other similar case title that does not identify the adverse parties to the proceeding, such as in probate and juvenile court cases, the contesting parties should be set forth in a separate case title under the original case title.

(e) The title shall include the trial court case number or numbers.¹

(2) The Administrator may correct the title of the case on appeal or judicial review to include all persons who were parties to the proceeding below and to designate properly the parties according to their status on appeal or judicial review. If the Administrator corrects the title, the Administrator shall give notice and opportunity to respond to all parties to the appeal or judicial review.

(3) (a) A person who was a party to the case in the tribunal from which the appeal was taken but who was not designated in the notice of appeal as a party to the appeal may appear as of right as a party to the appeal by filing a notice of intent to participate as a party.

(b) If the notice of appeal in a juvenile court, guardianship, conservatorship or other similar proceeding does not identify the juvenile or protected person as a party to the appeal, the juvenile or protected person may appear as of right as a party to the appeal by filing a notice of intent to participate as a party.

(c) A notice of intent to participate on appeal under paragraph (a) or (b) of this subsection shall be filed within 21 days after the date of filing of the notice of appeal, or within such further time as may be allowed by the court, and shall be served on all other parties to the appeal and on the court reporter or transcriber, if any, preparing the transcript.

(d) A party who appears on appeal under paragraph (a) or (b) of this subsection may recover costs and attorney fees, if any, and is liable for costs and attorney fees, if any, the same as any party to an appeal.

(4) (a) In an adoption, juvenile court, or civil commitment case, when the notice of appeal is filed, the court will modify the case title on appeal for the purpose of avoiding public disclosure of the identity of natural persons who are parties to the case.² For the same purpose, in all other cases, on motion of a party or on its own motion, and for good cause shown, the court may modify the case title or the version of the court's opinion published on the Judicial Department's website.³

(b) In all cases, notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subsection, the appellate judgment will contain the full case title.

good cause for modifying a case title or body of the court's opinion for the purpose of avoiding public disclosure of the identity of a party to the case. The version of an opinion in those publications cannot be modified after publication. Appellate court opinions also are collected and published, in book form or electronically or both, by various persons and entities, including private legal research entities. The court has no control over whether those persons and entities will honor the court's post-publication modification of an opinion.

See Appendix 2.25.

Rule 2.30 CONSOLIDATION

The appellate court, on motion of a party or on its own motion, may consolidate cases for purposes of appeal. Any party may file an objection to another party's motion for consolidation within 14 days after the filing of the motion. The appellate court, on motion of a party or on its own motion, may consolidate cases for oral argument, whether or not the cases have been consolidated for appeal.

Rule 2.35 SUMMARY DETERMINATION OF APPEALABILITY AND EXPEDITED SUPREME COURT REVIEW

(1) As used in this rule, "decision" means any oral or written ruling of a circuit court or the Tax Court.

(2) The Supreme Court in a direct appeal of a decision to that court and the Court of Appeals in an appeal of a decision to that court may make a summary determination of whether the decision is appealable.

(3) (a) If the court makes a summary determination of appealability, the order or opinion expressing the court's determination shall expressly state that the determination is a summary determination under ORS 19.235(3). The order or opinion also shall contain a notice informing the parties that the order or opinion is a summary determination of appealability under ORS 19.235(3), that the determination is subject to review or reconsideration by the Supreme Court, that the petition for review shall be filed within 14 days after the order or opinion or such shorter time as may be ordered by either court and that the Supreme Court will expedite its consideration of the petition.

(b) If an appellate determination of appealability does not expressly state that it is a summary determination of appealability under ORS 19.235(3), then the determination is not subject to ORS 19.235(3) or this rule.

(4) Unless a shorter period of time is ordered by the Court of Appeals or the Supreme Court, a petition for review of a summary determination by the Court of Appeals or a petition for reconsideration of a summary determination by the Supreme Court shall be filed within 14 days after the date of the appellate court's determination. The caption of the petition shall prominently display the words "Expedited Summary Determination of Appealability Pursuant to ORAP 2.35(4)." The Supreme Court shall expedite its consideration of a petition for review or reconsideration of a summary determination of appealability.

(5) If the appellate court has determined that the decision is not appealable and has dismissed the appeal, and the opportunity for review or reconsideration of that determination as provided in this rule has been exhausted or has expired, the Administrator shall immediately issue the appellate judgment.

See generally ORS 19.235.

Rule 2.40
NOTICE OF APPEAL IN GUILTY OR NO CONTEST PLEA, PROBATION OR SENTENCE SUSPENSION REVOCATION, AND RESENTENCING CASES

- resentencing pursuant to a remand from an appellate court
- resentencing pursuant to the judgment of a court granting post-conviction relief or from an order or judgment

- revoking probation or sentence suspension

 - (ii) Identify at least one colorable claim of error from the proceeding.¹

(2) (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, if, concurrently with filing a notice of appeal in a case subject to subsection (1) of this rule, the defendant has filed a motion for delayed appeal under ORS 138.071(5), the defendant need not identify a colorable claim of error in the notice of appeal.

(b) Where the defendant is unable timely to file a notice of appeal because of the need to identify a colorable claim of error in the case, the defendant requesting leave to file a delayed appeal under ORS 138.071(5) may do so by filing a combined notice of appeal and motion for late appeal. The document shall be entitled "Notice of Appeal; Motion -- File Late Appeal" and shall contain a statement, if true in the case, to the effect that the delay in filing the notice of appeal was attributable to the need to identify a colorable claim of error in the case. In the absence of opposition from the state filed within 14 days after filing of the combined notice of appeal and motion for delayed appeal, the motion shall be deemed to have been granted by the court.

(3) If the defendant entered a conditional guilty or no contest plea under ORS 135.335(3), the defendant need not comply with paragraphs (1)(a) and (b) of this rule, but the caption of the notice of appeal shall identify the case as a "Conditional Plea Case."²

(1) Referral to Court of Appeals of Question of Authority to Decide Case

(a) This subsection applies to an action or other proceeding against a public body when a circuit court or other tribunal refers the question of its legal authority to decide the case pursuant to ORS 14.165.

(b) The court or other tribunal shall:

(i) Issue a referral order entitled "REFERRAL ORDER PURSUANT TO ORS 14.165" stating the nature of the question of authority to decide the action or proceeding that has arisen, briefly summarizing the parties' contentions, and, if time is of the essence, identifying the date by which the court or other tribunal requests that the matter be decided.

(ii) Transmit the referral order and the record to the Court of Appeals through the Administrator, and send a copy of the referral order to each party.

(c) Any party wishing to address in the Court of Appeals the question of which court or other tribunal, if any, has authority to decide the action or proceeding may file a memorandum addressing the question. Any such memorandum shall be in the form prescribed in ORAP 7.10 for motions generally, shall not exceed 10 pages without leave of the court, and shall be served and filed within 21 days after the date of receipt by the Court of Appeals of the referral order.

(d) The Court of Appeals will decide the question as provided in ORS 14.165(5) summarily and as expeditiously as practicable, and will endeavor to decide the question by the date, if any, identified in the referral order.

(e) The Court of Appeals will issue an order communicating its decision to the parties and to the court or other tribunal that referred the question. If the Court of Appeals decides that another court or other tribunal has authority to decide the case, the Court of Appeals will enter a transfer order and send a copy of the order to each party. Pursuant to ORS 14.165(8), the person who filed the action or proceeding must comply with the provisions of ORS 14.165(8) to accomplish the transfer. At the request of the court or other tribunal to which the case has been transferred, the Court of Appeals will transmit the record to the court or other tribunal.

(f) No filing fee or first appearance fee is due for a referral to the Court of Appeals for a summary determination under ORS 14.165 of the question of authority to decide a case.

(2) Court of Appeals Determination that it is the Correct Forum

On referral of a question to the Court of Appeals under ORS 14.165(1)(b) or (3), if the Court of Appeals decides that it is the appropriate court to decide a case referred to it:

(a) The Administrator will assign the case a regular appellate case number.

(b) The Court of Appeals will enter an order stating its determination that it is the appropriate court to decide the case and identifying any actions that a party must take to perfect the case. On entry of the order, the case will be deemed to have been transferred to the Court of Appeals.

(c) For the purpose of determining the next event in the appellate process, the case will be deemed to have been filed in the Court of Appeals as of the date of entry of the order referred to in paragraph (2)(b) of this rule.*

(d) The appellant or petitioner shall pay the appellate court filing fee within 10 days after the date of entry of the order of the Court of Appeals or such additional time as the court may allow. Any respondent shall pay the respondent's first appearance fee on the respondent's first appearance thereafter.

(3) Transfer of Case to the Court of Appeals

(a) If the circuit court determines pursuant to ORS 14.165(1)(a) that the Court of Appeals is the court authorized by law to hear an action or proceeding against a public body and transfers the case to the Court of Appeals, the person who filed the action or proceeding must comply with ORS 14.165(8).

(b) When the person who filed the action or proceeding files a copy of the transfer order with the Administrator, the Administrator will assign a case number to the case. For the purpose of determining the next event in the appellate process, the case will be deemed to have been filed in the Court of Appeals on the day of filing of a copy of the circuit court's transfer order.*

(c) The person filing the action or proceeding shall pay the appellate filing fee at the same time as filing a copy of the transfer order or within such additional time as may be allowed by the Court of Appeals. Any respondent shall pay the respondent's first appearance fee on the respondent's first appearance thereafter.

(d) The Court of Appeals will give a party notice of any actions that the party must take to perfect the case in the Court of Appeals.

* Regardless of the date that the case is deemed filed in the Court of Appeals for the purpose of determining the next event in the appellate process, see ORS 14.165(6) and (7) regarding determining the timeliness of the filing of the action or proceeding.

See generally ORS 14.165. See ORS 14.165(10) for a definition of "public body" and "tribunal."

(3) The appellate court, on motion of a party or on its own motion, may order that any thing in the record in the trial court whether or not designated as part of the record in the notice of appeal, be transmitted to it or that parts of the oral proceedings be copied or transcribed, certified and transmitted to it.¹

(1) If a trial court determines that the whole or a part of the trial court file or exhibits to be transmitted to the appellate court is not subject to inspection by one or more parties, by the attorney for any party, or by the public, the trial court shall place such material in a separate, sealed envelope labeled as follows:

(a) If the trial court determines that the material be subject to inspection only by the parties or their attorneys, the trial court shall mark "confidential" on the envelope.

(b) If the trial court determines that the material not be subject to inspection by anyone, including any party or any party's attorney, the trial court shall mark "sealed" on the envelope.

(2) (a) In a criminal case, the presentence report is part of the record on appeal.

(b) After the notice of appeal is filed, upon request of counsel for either defendant or the state, the trial court shall cause a copy of the presentence report to be delivered forthwith to counsel, except that, if, pursuant to ORS 137.079, the trial court has excepted from disclosure any part of the presentence report, the trial court shall forward to counsel only those parts of the presentence report not excepted from disclosure, with an indication that other matter has been excepted from disclosure.

(c) When the appellate court requests the trial court to forward the trial court record, the trial court shall include the presentence report in a separate, sealed envelope marked "confidential."

(d) Any material excepted from disclosure under ORS 137.079 shall be placed in an envelope marked "sealed."

(e) The presentence report is not a public record and is not subject to inspection or disclosure to a party, a party's attorney, or the public except as provided in subsection (3) of this rule.

(3) (a) As to material other than a presentence report, upon request of a party or an attorney for a party, the Administrator shall permit the party or counsel to inspect material marked "confidential."

(b) As to a presentence report, upon request of counsel for either the defendant or the state, the Administrator shall permit the party's attorney to inspect the presentence report or any part thereof marked "confidential."

(4) The Administrator shall not permit any person to inspect "sealed" material, except on order of the trial or appellate court or pursuant to subsection (7) of this rule.

(5) If the Administrator declines a person's request to permit inspection of confidential or sealed material, the person may file a motion with the appellate court seeking leave to inspect the material. The appellate court may decide the motion itself or remand the motion to the trial court for a ruling.

(6) If the Administrator permits inspection of confidential or sealed material subject to restricted inspection under this rule, the Administrator shall note on the envelope the date of the inspection and the person who inspected the material.

(7) A judge of the appellate court, the judge's legal and administrative staff, and the appellate court's legal and administrative staff may open and inspect any confidential or sealed material as necessary to decide a matter pending before the court. The person inspecting confidential or sealed material shall note on the envelope the person's name and the date of the inspection.

(8) The provisions of this rule apply to the extent practicable and to the extent authorized by law to any material submitted to an appellate court when the appellate court determines that such material is not subject to inspection by a party, a party's attorney, or the public. The appellate court may designate material as not subject to inspection by a party, a party's attorney, or the public on its own motion or in response to a motion filed by any party.

Rule 3.10
DUTIES OF TRIAL COURT ADMINISTRATOR
REGARDING JUDGMENTS AND ORDERS
ENTERED AFTER NOTICE OF APPEAL

(1) The trial court administrator shall promptly send to the Administrator and to each party to the appeal a copy of any order settling the transcript.¹ If the date of entry in the register is not apparent from the order, the trial court administrator shall state on the order the date of entry.

(2) In criminal and other cases in which the trial court appoints an attorney to represent a party or authorizes preparation of a transcript at state expense, the trial court administrator shall promptly send to the Administrator and provide to the transcript coordinator a copy of any order appointing an attorney on appeal or authorizing preparation of a transcript at state expense.

(3) In a criminal case, after a notice of appeal is filed, if the trial court, on motion of a party or on its own motion, enters a judgment or a modified, corrected or amended judgment, the trial court administrator promptly shall send a copy of the judgment to the Administrator, to the defendant or to the attorney for the defendant if the defendant is represented by counsel, to the district attorney, and to the Solicitor General of the Department of Justice.²

(4) If a case is transferred to another circuit court after a notice of appeal is filed, the trial court administrator in the originating circuit court shall promptly notify the Administrator of the date of the transfer and the circuit court to which the case has been transferred.

² See, for instance, a modified judgment to correct arithmetic or clerical errors or to delete or modify any erroneous term in the judgment under ORS 138.083(1); an amended judgment specifying the amount of restitution to be paid by the defendant under ORS 138.083(2); a modified sentence under ORS 137.712(1) or the temporary provisions of Oregon Laws 1997, chapter 852, sections 5 to 7a (printed following ORS 137.712); a modified judgment under ORS 137.754, and a judgment or new or amended judgment under ORS 19.270(4).

Rule 3.15
PREPARATION AND FILING OF THE RECORD ON APPEAL

(1) The trial court administrator shall prepare and file the record in the same manner in all appeals.

(2) The trial court administrator shall identify separately by certificate and promptly forward on request of the appellate court:

(a) the trial court file, or part thereof designated by the parties if less than the entire file has been designated;

(b) the exhibits specified in the designation of record;

(c) if applicable, the audio or video record specified in the designation of record, or agreed narrative statement;¹ and

(d) any part of the trial court record ordered by the appellate court pursuant to ORAP 3.05(3).

(3) If the record of oral proceedings is an audio record and the appellate court has directed that the appeal proceed on the audio record without a transcript, the trial court administrator shall place the original audio record and the official log and reporter's certificate in an envelope or other suitable container, clearly identified as containing the audio record and official log, and forward the envelope or other container to the Administrator along with the trial court file.

See ORS 19.005, ORS 19.365, and ORS 138.185(1).

See ORAP 3.63 regarding the trial court record in proceedings recorded by videotape equipment.

Rule 3.20
TRIAL COURT FILE

(1) The trial court administrator shall prepare an index of the contents of the trial court file and shall securely fasten the index and file in a suitable cover or folder showing on the outside the title and trial court number of the case and the court and county from which the appeal is taken. The index may consist of a printout of the computer case register showing next to each entry the page in the trial court file at which each item will be found.

See ORS 19.005(7) and ORS 19.365(2).

Rule 3.25 EXHIBITS

(1) Exhibits designated as part of the record on appeal shall not be transmitted to the appellate court unless requested by the Administrator. The Administrator will request transmittal of documentary exhibits when it requests transmittal of the trial court file under ORAP 3.15(2), or sooner if requested by a party. The Administrator will request transmittal of a nondocumentary exhibit only if requested to do so by a party to the appeal or at the direction of the court. A party wishing to have one or more nondocumentary exhibits transmitted to the appellate court shall notify the Administrator by letter specifying the exhibit or exhibits to be transmitted. The letter shall be submitted to the Administrator no later than the date of filing of that party's brief and shall be copied to all other parties to the appeal.

(2) When the appellate court requests transmittal of documentary exhibits, the trial court administrator promptly shall transmit the documentary exhibits to the appellate court in a single envelope, so far as practicable, and shall note thereon or, if no envelope is used, on a separate list, the number and description of all exhibits being transmitted, with notations indicating those received and those not received in evidence.

(3) Notwithstanding a party's request for nondocumentary exhibits pursuant to subsection (1) of this rule, the trial court administrator need not transmit exhibits which are bulky, dangerous or difficult to transmit or store, such as machinery, firearms, clothing, narcotics, chemicals, money, or jewelry, unless a party in its request to the Administrator identifies the exhibit with particularity and requests that the Administrator arrange to have the exhibit transmitted to the appellate court. The trial court administrator shall make appropriate notation of retained exhibits on the exhibit list.

(4) If a party fails to comply with UTCR 6.120(2) requiring return of documentary exhibits within 21 days after receipt of the trial court's request, following the filing of a notice of appeal by any party, the appellate court may order that the appeal proceed without consideration of that party's exhibits.

(5) For purposes of this rule, "documentary exhibits" include text documents, photographs and maps, if not oversized, and audio and video tapes. An oversized document is one larger than standard letter size or legal size.

Rule 3.30
EXTENSION OF TIME FOR PREPARATION OF TRANSCRIPT

- (1) Except as provided in ORAP 3.40(3), only the appellate court may grant an extension of time for the preparation of a transcript.
- (2) A request for an extension of time to prepare a transcript may be filed by the party responsible for causing the transcript to be prepared or by the court reporter or transcriber (in audio and video record cases) responsible for preparing the transcript.
- (3) A request for an extension of time shall include the amount of time sought, the number of previous extensions obtained and the reason for the extension of time.
- (4) If all or part of the need for an extension of time is the failure to make satisfactory arrangements for payment of the transcript, the request shall so state. If a party makes a request for an extension of time under this rule, the party shall show why appropriate arrangements have not been made. The court in its discretion may deny the extension of time and direct that the appeal proceed without the transcript.
- (5) A court reporter's or transcriber's request for an extension of time shall include the date on which the transcript was ordered, the number of days of proceedings designated on appeal, the approximate number of pages of transcript to be prepared, and information about other transcripts due on appeal. The request shall be substantially in the form illustrated in Appendix 3.30 and shall show proof of service on the parties and, for the second or any subsequent request for extension of time, on the trial court administrator.
- (6) Any party may file an objection to a court reporter's or transcriber's request for an extension of time within 14 days after the request is filed. The objection must be served on all other parties, the court reporter or transcriber, and the trial court administrator. An objection received after the court has granted the request will be treated as a motion for reconsideration of the ruling. On reconsideration, if the court modifies the extension of time, the court reporter or transcriber and the parties will be notified; otherwise, the objection will be noted and placed in the file.

See generally ORS 19.395. See also ORS 19.370(2), which provides that the transcript shall be filed with the trial court administrator within 30 days after the filing of the notice of appeal.

Rule 3.33
PREPARATION, SERVICE, AND FILING OF TRANSCRIPT

- (1) On being served with a copy of a notice of appeal, the transcript coordinator shall examine the notice of appeal and determine:

(a) Whether the party has designated a record of oral proceedings as part of the record on appeal;

(b) Whether preparation of a transcript of the designated proceedings is required by law or these rules; and

(c) Whether the proceedings were reported by a court reporter or recorded by audio or video recording equipment, or both.

(2) (a) When a party has designated as part of the record on appeal a transcript of oral proceedings reported by:

(i) A court reporter, the transcript coordinator shall forward a copy of the notice of appeal to the court reporter or reporters who reported the proceedings designated as part of the record on appeal and inform the reporter(s) of the due date of the transcript.

(ii) Audio or video recording, the transcript coordinator shall identify one or more qualified transcribers, forward a copy of the notice of appeal to the transcriber(s) along with a certified copy of the audio or video tape recording, and inform the transcriber(s) of the due date of the transcript.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this subsection, the party shall make financial arrangements with the court reporter(s) or transcriber(s) for preparation of the transcript.

(c) When the appellant is eligible for court-appointed counsel on appeal, authorization for the preparation of the transcript at state expense is governed by the policies and procedures of the Office of Public Defense Services.¹

(d) If the transcript coordinator has not forwarded the notice of appeal to the court reporter(s) or has not forwarded the notice of appeal and a certified copy of the audio or video tape recording to a transcriber before the transcript due date, the transcript coordinator shall notify the appellate court of that fact.

(3) After making arrangements with the court reporter(s) or transcriber(s) as provided in subsection (2) of this rule, the transcript coordinator shall notify the appellate court and the parties to the appeal of the name, address, telephone number, and e-mail address of each court reporter or transcriber, or both, as appropriate, who will be preparing all or a part of the transcript.

(4) It shall be the responsibility of each court reporter or transcriber with whom arrangements have been made to prepare a transcript to:

(a) Cause the transcript to be prepared in conformity with ORAP 3.35.

(b) Serve a copy of the transcript on each party required by ORS 19.370 and file with the Administrator and serve on each party, the trial court administrator, and the transcript coordinator a certificate of preparation and service of transcript² within the time provided in ORS 19.370. In a criminal case, the state's copy of the transcript shall be served on the Attorney General.³ If the transcript is not served and the certificate is not served and filed within that time, the court reporter or transcriber shall move for an extension of time.

(c) Upon notice from the Administrator of the settlement of the transcript, file with the Administrator an electronic version of the transcript in the form required by ORAP 3.35(2) and, at the same time, file with the Administrator and serve on each party a certificate of filing of transcript.⁴ The certificate of filing must be a separate document and may not be included as part of the electronic version of the transcript. Filing an electronic version of the transcript with the Administrator is in lieu of filing a paper transcript and shall be in the form provided in ORAP 3.35(2).⁵

(5) (a) The court reporter or transcriber shall serve the appellant and the respondent each with a copy of the transcript as follows:

(i) If a party is represented by an attorney, unless the attorney has made other arrangements with the court reporter or transcriber, the court reporter or transcriber shall serve the transcript in electronic form on the attorney at the e-mail address identified in the notice of appeal as required by ORAP 2.05(5). If a party is not represented by an attorney, unless the party has made other arrangements with the court reporter or transcriber, the court reporter or transcriber shall serve a paper copy of the transcript on the party. In addition to or in lieu of service by e-mail or by paper copy, an attorney or party may make arrangements with the court reporter or transcriber to provide a copy of the transcript to that attorney or party on an optical disk or USB drive, or in other comparable medium.

(ii) If two or more respondents not represented by attorneys must be served by paper copy as provided in clause (5)(a)(i) of this rule, the court reporter or transcriber shall provide one copy of the transcript to the trial court administrator for use by all such respondents. The copy of the transcript provided to the trial court administrator under this clause shall be in the medium (e.g., paper or optical disk) requested by the trial court.

(b) If a party or attorney negotiates with a court reporter or transcriber to provide the transcript in a medium, other than paper or e-mail, provided by the court reporter or transcriber, the court reporter or transcriber may request payment of no more than $5.00 per optical disk, USB drive, or other comparable medium.

(c) A party may specify in the party's designation of record or other request for preparation of a transcript on appeal that the version of the transcript to be provided to that party be prepared by reducing the pages of the transcript in such a manner as to fit up to four pages of transcript onto a single 8-1/2 x 11 inch page or in the one page of transcript per one standard page format. If a party not responsible for arranging for preparation of a transcript is served with a transcript containing four reduced pages of transcript on one standard page, that party may arrange with the court reporter or transcriber, at the party's own expense, for preparation of a transcript in the one page of transcript per one standard page format.⁶

(6) The court reporter or transcriber may not charge for preparing more than one original transcript and may charge only at the rate for copying a transcript for any additional transcript that may be needed for an appeal or appeals:

(a) When two or more cases are heard simultaneously in the circuit court from which one or more appeals are taken, either as consolidated cases or otherwise; or

(b) When two or more cases not heard simultaneously in the circuit court are consolidated on appeal before the transcripts are prepared.

³ See footnote 1 to ORAP 1.35 for the service address of the Attorney General.

⁴ See Appendix 3.33-2 for form of certificate of filing of a transcript.

Rule 3.35 FORM OF TRANSCRIPT

(1) A transcript shall meet these specifications:

(a) It shall be prepared using either uniformly spaced type (such as produced by typewriters) or proportionally spaced type (such as produced by commercial printers and many computer printers). Uniformly spaced type shall be 10 characters per inch

(cpi). If proportionally spaced type is used, it shall be 12 point type. The font size shall be uniform and not vary from line to line or within the same line. Uppercase and lowercase letters shall be used according to rules of grammar; a transcript shall not be prepared using all uppercase letters.

(c) Each question shall be prefaced by "Q" and each answer shall be prefaced by "A." Each question and answer shall begin on a separate line no more than five spaces from the left margin and no more than five spaces from the "Q" and "A" to the beginning of the text. Text that carries on to the next line shall begin at the left margin.

(e) Quoted material shall begin no more than 15 spaces from the left margin. Text that carries on to the next line shall begin no more than 10 spaces from the left margin.

(f) Each page shall be consecutively numbered at the top right corner, and to the left thereof shall be given the name of the witness followed by a notation indicating whether the testimony is on direct, cross, redirect or recross examination, indicated by "D," "X," "ReD," or "ReX."

(g) Appropriate notation similarly shall be made of other proceedings, such as a motion for dismissal or a directed verdict, requested jury instructions, jury instructions, any opinion by the court, and other matters of special importance.

(h) It shall be preceded by an appropriate title page followed by an index noting:

(i) the first page of the direct, cross, redirect, and recross testimony of each witness;

(ii) all exhibits, with notation of the nature thereof and of the page of the record where offered and, when appropriate, where received in evidence; and

(iii) appropriate notations of other proceedings such as motions for involuntary dismissal and directed verdict, requested jury instructions, jury instructions, opinion of the court and other matters of special importance.

(i) Each transcript volume shall be bound in a manner that allows the pages of the transcript to lie flat when the transcript is open, as provided in this paragraph. The transcript volume shall be bound with a plastic comb binding, with the binding within 3/8 inch from the left edge of the transcript. A transcript volume may be bound by stapling if the transcript does not exceed 20 pages (10 pieces of paper), excluding the cover. A transcript volume bound by stapling shall be secured by a single staple placed as close to the upper left-hand corner as is consistent with securely binding the transcript.

(j) It shall have a cover sheet of clear plastic or 65-pound weight paper, front and back.

(k) If a transcript exceeds 200 pages, it shall be bound into volumes of approximately equal size of not more than 200 pages each. Volumes shall be consecutively numbered on their covers.

(2) The electronic version of the transcript filed with the Administrator as required by ORAP 3.33(4)(c) shall be in the following form:²

(a) The electronic transcript shall be in Portable Document Format (PDF) that allows text searching, and copying and pasting into another document. The pagination of the transcript served on the parties shall correspond to the pagination of the electronic transcript filed with the court.

(b) If the transcript exceeds 200 pages, the electronic transcript shall be broken into separate PDF files of approximately equal length not to exceed 200 pages. Regardless of whether a transcript consists of one or more PDF files, each file shall be named in accordance with the file naming conventions set out in Appendix 3.35. If a PDF file contains more than one proceeding date, the beginning of each proceeding shall be bookmarked.

(c) If the transcript is in two volumes or less, it may be filed by attaching the electronic transcript to an e-mail directed to appealsclerk@ojd.state.or.us. If the Administrator determines that an electronic transcript must be rejected for security reasons (e.g., virus or malware), the court reporter or transcriber shall resubmit the transcript as directed by the Administrator. If the transcript is more than two volumes, it shall be filed by optical disk.

(d) The electronic transcript shall comply with ORAP 3.35(1)(a), (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), and (h). The electronic transcript also shall comply with ORAP 3.35(1)(b), except that it will not be printed. Notwithstanding ORAP 3.33(5)(c), the electronic transcript filed with the court shall be prepared in the one page of transcript per one standard page format.

² The appellate courts anticipate that the rules and procedures related to the electronic transmission of transcripts may change between publication dates of the Oregon Rules of Appellate Procedure. For current rules and procedures, consult <http://tinyurl.com/eTransmissionpage>.

Rule 3.40

ADDITION TO OR CORRECTION OF TRANSCRIPT

(1) A party desiring to correct or add to the transcript shall file a motion in the trial court within 15 days after the service of the transcript and serve a copy of the motion on the Administrator and on the transcript coordinator.¹ When multiple parts of the oral record have been designated as part of the record on appeal or if more than one court reporter or transcriber is preparing the transcript, the transcript is not deemed filed until the last part of the transcript due on appeal is filed.

(2) The Administrator will hold the appeal in abeyance pending the trial court's disposition of the motion and the occurrence of one of the events specified in paragraphs (5)(b) or (c) of this rule.

(3) After the filing of a timely motion to correct or add to the transcript, the trial court shall have the authority to grant an extension of time for making the corrections or additions to the transcript.

(4) (a) If the trial court allows a motion to correct the transcript, after the filing of the corrected transcript, the moving party shall request that the trial court enter an order settling the transcript. The appeal will remain in abeyance until receipt by the Administrator of a copy of the order settling the transcript as provided in paragraph (5)(b) of this rule.

(b) If the trial court allows a motion to add to the transcript, the appeal will remain in abeyance for a period of 15 days after the filing of the additional transcript. If a motion to correct the additional transcript is filed timely, the appeal will continue in abeyance pending disposition of the motion to correct and receipt of an order settling the transcript as provided in paragraph (5)(b) of this rule.

(c) If the trial court denies the motion, the appeal will be reactivated as provided in paragraph (5)(c) of this rule.²

(5) (a) If no motion to correct or add to the transcript is filed, the transcript shall be deemed settled 15 days after it is served,³ and the period for filing the appellant's opening brief shall begin the next day.

(b) If a motion to correct or add to the transcript is filed and allowed, the period for filing the appellant's opening brief shall begin the day after entry by the trial court administrator of the order settling the transcript.

(c) If a motion to correct or add to the transcript is filed and denied, the period for filing the appellant's opening brief shall begin the day after entry by the trial court administrator of the order settling the transcript.

See generally ORS 19.370(5) to (7). See also ORAP 3.10(1) regarding the trial court administrator's duty to send to the Administrator a copy of the order settling the transcript.

Rule 3.45 AGREED NARRATIVE STATEMENT

If the parties agree to a narrative statement in lieu of or in addition to a transcript and the parties are able to reconstruct the statements and testimony of the judge, parties, counsel, witnesses, and others present at the proceeding, the narrative statement shall follow as nearly as practicable the form prescribed for transcripts in ORAP 3.35; otherwise, the statement may be in narrative form. The appellant shall file the agreed narrative statement in the trial court for transmittal to the Administrator. When the narrative statement is delivered for filing with the trial court, the appellant shall give notice thereof to the Administrator, showing the date of filing.

See ORS 19.380.

Rule 3.50 RETURN OF RECORDS AND EXHIBITS

(1) When the appellate judgment issues, the Administrator shall return the trial court or agency record, file, and exhibits to the trial court or agency.

(2) Jurisdiction over exhibits not forwarded to the appellate court and, after issuance of the appellate judgment, over those returned to the trial court or agency by the appellate court rests exclusively with the trial court or agency.

See ORS 19.365(6); see also ORAP 3.55.

WITHDRAWAL OF PAPERS OR EXHIBITS

No one shall remove from the office of the Administrator or from the court any thing on file with the appellate court except:

- (1) A judge or justice may do so for official business.
- (2) An administrative or legal staff person may do so for official business:
 - (a) Respecting a matter in the Supreme Court, with the authorization of the Chief Justice or a justice authorized by the Supreme Court to decide motions;
 - (b) Respecting a matter in the Court of Appeals, with the authorization of the Chief Judge or a judge authorized by the Court of Appeals to decide motions.
- (3) Any party or member of the public seeking to withdraw any thing shall file a motion stating the reason for the request and specifying the thing desired. If the court grants the motion, the person allowed to withdraw the thing shall furnish the Administrator a receipt for the thing withdrawn.

Rule 3.63
USE OF AUDIO OR VIDEO RECORD ON APPEAL

- (1) Where the appeal will proceed on the audio or video record without a transcript, on payment of the prescribed fee,¹ the trial court administrator shall:
 - (a) Arrange for duplication of the audio or video record and the official log of the audio or video record. Any duplicate copy of an audio or video record prepared for appeal shall contain the caption and trial court number of the proceeding and the number of tapes used in the proceeding (e.g., 1 of 5).
 - (b) Cause the copy of the audio or video record and official log to be served on the party requesting it and to have a certificate of duplication and proof of service prepared.
 - (c) Cause to be placed in the trial court file the original of the audio or video record, official log and certificate of duplication and proof of service, where they shall remain until the appellate court requests that the trial court record be forwarded to the appellate court, as provided in ORAP 3.15.
- (2) The trial court administrator shall file and serve copies of the audio or video record within 14 days after receiving notice that the appellate court has waived preparation of a transcript and is allowing the appeal to be heard on the audio or video record alone.

(3) The appellate court may order the transcription of any part of an audio or video recording not previously transcribed that the appellate court determines necessary for deliberation. The cost of transcription under this subsection shall be paid in the first instance by the parties to the appeal in such proportions as directed by the appellate court.

(4) (a) If the trial court administrator has previously provided a copy of all or part of the audio or video record to a party, on appeal that party need not pay for and the trial court administrator need not provide another copy of the audio or video record to that party.

(b) If the trial court administrator does not provide a duplicate copy of the audio or video record to a party on appeal under paragraph (a) of this subsection, the trial court administrator shall prepare and sign a proof of service certifying the date or dates on which the party received a copy of the audio or video record. The trial court administrator's certificate shall constitute proof of service of the audio or video record on that party and shall be forwarded to the appellate court in lieu of the proof of service required in paragraph (1)(c) of this rule.

(c) If the trial court administrator has provided a copy of all or part of an audio or video record to a party or the attorney for a party and on appeal the party is represented by an attorney or by a different attorney, respectively, the party or the attorney for a party who received a certified copy of the audio or video record shall, on request and without charge, give the audio or video record to the attorney or different attorney representing the party on appeal. The person giving the audio or video record may require that the person receiving the audio or video record provide a receipt therefor.

(d) If the trial court administrator has provided part but not all of the audio or video record to a party, the provisions of paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this subsection shall apply to so much of the audio or video record as has been previously provided to a party.

(5) If a part of a recording is extracted from the official audio or video recording and duplicated for the purpose of appeal, the trial court administrator shall attach a certificate stating that the copy is an accurate copy of the extracted part of the original. The copy containing the extract of the official recording shall become the official recording on appeal in lieu of the copy referred to in subsection (1) of this rule. The trial court administrator shall make copies of the extracted copy of the recording for service on the parties to the appeal, and prepare a certified copy of the relevant part or parts of the official log, to be served and filed as part of the record on appeal.

Rule 4.10 REVIEW OF ORDERS OF BOARD OF PAROLE

Judicial review of reviewable orders of the Board of Parole and Post-Prison Supervision, which shall be entitled "Parole Review," shall be in accordance with the rules for judicial review of orders of state agencies in contested cases and shall show the Board of Parole and Post-Prison Supervision as respondent.

Rule 4.15 FORM, CONTENT, AND SERVICE OF PETITION FOR JUDICIAL REVIEW

(1) A petition for judicial review shall be typewritten, double-spaced, and substantially in the form illustrated in Appendix 4.15-1 or Appendix 4.15-2 and must contain:

(a) The title as it was before the agency to the extent possible. The title shall include the names of the parties to the proceeding regardless of whether the title of the agency proceeding included the names of the parties. The title also shall include the agency if the agency is a party to the judicial review. The title must indicate the designations of the parties before the appellate court (e.g., petitioner, respondent, cross-petitioner, cross-respondent). If a party from the agency proceeding is not named as a party before the appellate court, the title shall indicate the party's agency designation, if any, followed by "below."¹

(b) A designation of the parties in the judicial review proceeding before the appellate court, including their positions in the appellate court proceeding (e.g., petitioner, respondent).

(c) The litigant contact information required by ORAP 1.30.

(d) A statement whether the petitioner is willing to stipulate that the agency record may be shortened. If the petitioner is willing to shorten the record, the petition shall designate the part of the record to be included in the record. Under ORS 183.482(4), the court may tax the cost of preparing the whole or any part of the record, including the transcript, against any party unreasonably refusing to stipulate to limit the record.

(2) Only the original need be filed. The petition shall be accompanied by a copy of the order, rule, or ruling for which judicial review is sought.

(3) The petition shall show proof of service on:

(a) the agency whose order, rule, or ruling is involved (unless the agency is the petitioner), even if the agency is not a party;

(b) the Attorney General, even if the agency is not a party.² In a workers' compensation case, only if the State Accident Insurance Fund is a party to the case and is representing a state agency, the petition shall show proof of service on the Attorney General;

(c) all other parties of record in the proceeding; and

(d) any other person required by law to be served.³

(4) The petition shall include a certificate of filing specifying the date the petition for judicial review was filed with the Administrator.

² See footnote 1 to ORAP 1.35 for the service address of the Attorney General.

³ Nothing in ORAP 4.15(3) shall be construed to require service of briefs on an agency or the Attorney General. For requirements governing the service of briefs, see ORAP 5.10(3) and ORAP 5.12.

See ORS 183.482 for additional requirements respecting the contents of a petition for judicial review and service requirements; ORS 656.298 (same for workers' compensation cases).

Rule 4.20
RECORD ON JUDICIAL REVIEW

(1) The agency shall transmit to the appellate court the record, including a transcription of the proceedings or the stipulated part thereof if the parties have stipulated to shorten the record pursuant to ORS 183.482(4).

(2) The record shall be filed within the 30 days or such further time allowed by the court as provided in ORS 183.482(4) or other controlling statute. The record shall be accompanied by proof of service of copies of the record, except exhibits, on all other parties of record in the agency proceeding and on any other person required by law to be served.

(3) The record shall be prepared in the manner provided by ORAP 3.20(1) and transmitted in a suitable cover or folder bearing on the outside the title and agency number of the case and the name of the agency from which the review is taken. Whenever feasible, the original record shall be transmitted. Notwithstanding ORAP 3.20(2), the agency may prepare the record either with the first filed document on top or the last filed document on top. Each document shall be separately indexed. Pages shall be consecutively numbered at the bottom of the page, commencing with the first page of the file if the first filed document is on top or with the bottom page of the file if the last filed document is on top. Notwithstanding ORAP 3.35(1)(b), any transcript of oral proceedings prepared for use by the administrative agency or tribunal and printed on only one side of each page is acceptable on judicial review.

(4) After the court has issued its appellate judgment,¹ the record will be returned to the agency unless the court otherwise directs.

(5) The record on judicial review in workers' compensation cases shall be prepared and filed in the manner prescribed in ORS 656.298(6) and this rule.

CORRECTING THE RECORD ON JUDICIAL REVIEW

Unless a statute prescribes a different procedure in particular cases, the record on direct judicial review of an agency order shall be corrected or added to as follows:

(1) Within 15 days after the agency files the record of agency proceedings, or such further time as may be allowed by the court, any party may file with the agency a motion:

(a) To correct any errors appearing in the transcript or to have additional parts of the proceedings transcribed, if the record includes a transcript.

(b) To correct the record, other than the transcript, by removing material appearing in the agency record as filed that was not made part of the record before the agency, or by adding material that was made part of the record before the agency but was omitted from the record as filed. This paragraph does not authorize supplementing the record on judicial review with evidence that never was part of the record before the agency.¹

(2) The motion shall be captioned "Before the [name of agency to which the motion is directed]." The party shall serve the court with a copy of the motion, which shall include on the title page the notation "Court Service Copy."

(3) The agency shall file with the court a copy of its order disposing of the motion to correct the record or to correct or add to the transcript. If the agency grants the motion in whole or in part, the agency shall serve on the adverse party or parties and file with the court a corrected record, a corrected transcript, or an additional transcript, as appropriate. When the agency files a corrected record or transcript, in the discretion of the agency, the agency may serve and file only those pages as have been corrected.

(4) When the agency has filed its order disposing of a motion to correct the record or the transcript and, if the agency granted the motion in whole or in part, the corrected record or transcript, the record shall be deemed settled and the time for filing petitioner's opening brief shall begin.

(5) Any party aggrieved by the agency's disposition of a motion to correct the record or to correct or add to the transcript, may request, by motion filed within 14 days after the date of filing of the agency's disposition, that the court review the agency's disposition. The motion shall be captioned "In the Court of Appeals of the State of Oregon" or "In the Supreme Court of the State of Oregon," as appropriate, and shall be entitled "Motion for Review of Agency Order Under ORAP 4.22."

(6) If no motion to correct the record or correct or add to the transcript is filed, the record shall be deemed settled 15 days after it is filed, and the period for filing the petitioner's opening brief shall begin the next day.

¹ See ORS 183.482(5) regarding an application for leave to present additional evidence that was never part of the record before the agency in the proceeding.

.See ORS 183.482(4) regarding correcting the record on judicial review of orders in contested cases: "* * * The court may require or permit subsequent corrections or additions to the record when deemed desirable. * * *"

Rule 4.25
ADDITIONAL EVIDENCE

(1) An application under ORS 183.482(5) for leave to present additional evidence on judicial review shall be submitted as a motion. The motion shall be accompanied by an affidavit describing the evidence sought to be presented, specifying why the evidence was not produced at the agency hearing and stating whether an extension of time was requested for the purpose of producing the evidence before the agency.

(2) When the court grants an application to present additional evidence pursuant to ORS 183.482(5), it may designate the time in which the new evidence, together with the agency's new findings and order, or certificate that it elects to stand on its original findings and order, shall be filed with the court.

(3) The filing by the agency of the new evidence and findings and order, or certificate that it elects to stand on its original findings and order, shall be accompanied by proof of service of copies of the new evidence, except exhibits unless otherwise provided by law, and the agency's new findings and order or certificate on all parties required to be served.

(4) The granting of an application to present additional evidence shall suspend the time for filing briefs until the filing by the agency of the findings upon the additional evidence, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

Rule 4.30
REVIEW OF AGENCY DENIAL OF MOTION TO STAY

A party may move for review of an agency's denial of a motion to stay. The motion shall include all documents that the party believes to have been considered by the agency on the party's request for a stay from the agency, the agency's written decision, if any, and any other documents the party considers relevant. The court may lengthen or shorten the period of time in which the agency may respond to the motion, as provided in ORAP 7.05(3).

See ORS 183.482(3)(d).

Rule 4.35
AGENCY WITHDRAWAL OF ORDERS

(1) (a) If an agency, pursuant to ORS 183.482(6), withdraws an order for the purpose of reconsideration, it shall file with the Administrator a notice of the withdrawal. The notice shall include a statement of reasons why the order is being reconsidered and the date the agency expects to submit a new order to the court after reconsideration. An order on reconsideration shall be filed within 60 days after the filing of the notice of withdrawal or within such other time as the court may allow.

(b) If an agency not subject to ORS 183.482(6) withdraws an order on judicial review for the purpose of reconsideration it shall file with the Administrator a copy of its order or other decision withdrawing that order, accompanied by a statement of reasons why the order is being withdrawn and a statement whether the agency expects to submit a new order to the court following the withdrawal and, if so, when.

(2) The filing of a notice under subsection (1) of this rule shall suspend proceedings on the petition for judicial review until an order on reconsideration is filed, or the time designated therefor expires, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(3) Regardless whether an order first has been withdrawn for the purpose of reconsideration under paragraphs (1)(a) or (b) of this rule, if an agency issues an order on reconsideration, the Attorney General shall file a copy of the order on reconsideration with the Administrator. The order shall be filed within seven days after the agency issues the order on reconsideration.

(4) (a) (i) Except as provided in subparagraph (4)(a)(ii) of this rule, after the filing of an order on reconsideration, if the petitioner desires judicial review of the order on reconsideration, the petitioner shall file an amended petition for judicial review or notice of intent to proceed with judicial review within a period equal to that allowed for filing an original petition.¹ No filing fee is required for an amended petition.

(ii) If the petitioner on judicial review of an order of the Board of Parole and Post-Prison Supervision desires to continue the judicial review after the Board issues its order on reconsideration, the petitioner shall file a notice of intent to proceed with judicial review within the period equal to that allowed for filing an original petition, unless the court allows additional time.²

(b) A person who is dissatisfied with the order on reconsideration and who does not file under paragraph (4)(a) of this rule may file a petition for judicial review of the order on reconsideration in accordance with statute and these rules.

(c) If no petition or notice of intent to proceed with judicial review is timely filed, the judicial review proceeding in the Court of Appeals will be dismissed.

(5) If the agency has considered any material beyond the present record, the agency shall submit an amended record to the Administrator within 14 days after the filing of a petition, amended petition for judicial review, or notice of intent to proceed with judicial review. The amended record on review shall be prepared pursuant to ORAP 4.20.

(6) If the petitioner filed an opening brief before the withdrawal of the order for reconsideration, in addition to filing an amended petition for judicial review or notice of intent to proceed with judicial review as required by paragraph (4)(a) of this rule, the petitioner may give notice to the Administrator of the petitioner's intent to proceed on the original opening brief. If the petitioner had not filed an opening brief or desires to file a supplemental brief, the petitioner's opening or supplemental brief shall be filed 28 days after the date the amended petition for judicial review or notice of intent to proceed with judicial review was filed or the date the agency submitted the amended record to the Administrator, whichever is later. A respondent's answering brief, if any, shall be filed within 28 days after the filing of the petitioner's opening or supplemental brief or notice that the petitioner will proceed on the original brief.

² See ORS 144.335(7).

APPEARANCE BY AGENCY
NOT A PARTY

(1) If an agency whose order, rule, ruling, policy, or other action is at issue is not a party to the proceeding, it may intervene as a party in the Court of Appeals by filing a brief. The brief shall be due on the same date that the respondent's answering brief is due.

(2) If an agency has filed a brief in the Court of Appeals and the decision is adverse to the agency's view of its order, rule, ruling, policy, or other action, the agency may petition for review as provided in ORAP 9.05.

(3) If an agency has not intervened in the Court of Appeals, it may file a petition for intervention and for reconsideration or review under ORAP 9.05 and ORAP 9.10.

(4) If the Supreme Court accepts review in a proceeding in which an agency's order, rule, ruling, policy, or other action is at issue, the agency may intervene by filing a brief. The brief shall be due on the same date that the respondent's brief on the merits on review is due.

(5) If an agency has intervened under this rule, it may move to argue orally before the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals. The motion must be filed at least seven days before the date set for argument.

(6) An agency intervening in a proceeding under this rule is a party only in the appellate courts and the agency's party status terminates upon issuance of the appellate judgment.

(b) The respondent's answering brief shall be served and filed within 21 days after the filing of petitioner's opening brief. If the respondent fails to file a brief within the time allowed by this rule, the cause will be submitted on petitioner's opening brief and oral argument, and the respondent will not be allowed to argue the case.

(2) On judicial review of a CRGC decision, a motion made before oral argument will not toll the time for transmission of the record.

Rule 4.74
SUMMARY DETERMINATION OF LUBA JURISDICTION BY COURT OF APPEALS

(3) The circuit judge or chairperson, as appropriate, may either request counsel for one of the parties to have copies of all documents in the file prepared for transmittal to the Court of Appeals or may direct that it be done by the trial court administrator or the equivalent LUBA staff person. In either event, either the counsel so designated or the circuit judge or chairperson shall address a letter to the Administrator to accompany the transmittal of the file stating that the file is being transmitted pursuant to ORS 34.102(5) and informing the Administrator whether the matter needs to be decided within a certain time.

(4) If counsel for either party or the circuit judge or chairperson, as appropriate, desires to set forth legal points or authorities in support of a position, a memorandum of points and authorities shall accompany the file and cover letter and be transmitted to the Administrator with the file.

(5) The decision of the Court of Appeals shall be made as expeditiously as practicable, and the decision shall be communicated in writing to the circuit judge or chairperson, with copies to counsel for the parties.

(6) Nothing in this rule shall be construed as limiting the authority of a judge of any court to transfer a case to another court that has jurisdiction over the matter.

See ORS 34.102(5).

5. PREPARATION AND FILING OF BRIEFS

Rule 5.05 SPECIFICATIONS FOR BRIEFS

(1) Briefs, including petitions for review or reconsideration in the Supreme Court, shall be reproduced by any duplicating process that makes a clear, legible, black image; the Administrator will not accept carbon copies, copies on slick paper, or copies darkened by the duplicating process.

(2) (a) Except as provided in paragraph (2)(c) of this subsection, an opening, answering, combined, or reply brief shall comply with the word-count limitation in paragraph (2)(b) of this subsection.¹ Headings, footnotes, and quoted material count toward the word-count limitation. The front cover, index of contents and appendices, index of authorities referred to, excerpt of record, appendices, certificate of service, any other certificates, and the signature block do not count toward the word-count limitation.

(b) (i) In the Supreme Court, no opening, answering, or combined brief shall exceed 14,000 words and no reply brief shall exceed 4,000 words.

(ii) In the Court of Appeals, no opening, answering, or combined brief shall exceed 10,000 words and no reply brief or reply part of a combined reply and cross-answering brief² shall exceed 3,300 words.

(c) If a party does not have access to a word-processing system that provides a word count, in the Supreme Court, an opening, answering, or combined brief is acceptable if it does not exceed 50 pages, and a reply brief is acceptable if it does not exceed 15 pages; in the Court of Appeals, an opening, answering, or combined brief is acceptable if it does not exceed 35 pages, and a reply brief or reply part of a combined reply and cross-answering brief is acceptable if it does not exceed 10 pages.

(d) An attorney or unrepresented party shall include at the end of each brief a certificate in the form illustrated in Appendix 5.05-2 that:

(i) The brief complies with the word-count limitation in paragraph (2)(b) of this subsection by indicating the number of words in the brief. The person preparing the certificate may rely on the word count of the word-processing system used to prepare the brief. If the attorney, or an unrepresented party, does not have access to a word-processing system that provides a word count, the certificate shall indicate that the attorney, or unrepresented party, does not have access to such a system and that the brief complies with paragraph (2)(c) of this subsection.

(ii) If proportionally spaced type is used, the size is not smaller than 14 point for both the text of the brief and footnotes.

(e) A party's excerpt of record or appendix or combined excerpt of record and appendix shall not exceed 50 pages.

(f) Unless the court orders otherwise, no supplemental brief shall exceed five pages.

(3) (a) On motion of a party stating a specific reason for exceeding the prescribed limit, the court may permit the filing of a brief, an excerpt of record, an appendix, or a combined excerpt of record and appendix exceeding the limits prescribed in subsection (2) of this rule or prescribed by order of the court. A party filing a motion under this subsection shall make every reasonable effort to file the motion not less than seven days before the brief is due. The court may deny an untimely motion under this paragraph on the ground that the party failed to make a reasonable effort to file the motion timely.

(b) If the court grants permission for a longer excerpt of record, appendix, or combined excerpt of record and appendix, the excerpt of record, appendix, or combined excerpt of record and appendix shall be printed on both sides of each page and shall be plastic spiral bound separately from the brief.³

(4) All briefs shall conform to these requirements:

(a) Front and back covers shall be paper of at least 65-pound weight. The cover of the brief shall be:

(i) For an opening brief, blue;

(ii) For an answering brief, red;

(iii) For a combined answering brief and cross-opening brief, violet;

(iv) For a reply brief, a combined reply brief and answering brief on cross-appeal, or an answering brief to a cross-assignment of error under ORAP 5.57(3)(b), gray;

(v) For the brief of an intervenor, the color of the brief of the party on whose side the intervenor is appearing;

(vi) For the brief of amicus curiae, green;

(vii) For a supplemental brief, the same color as the primary brief;

(viii) For a petition for review or reconsideration in the Supreme Court, yellow;

(ix) For a response to a petition for review or reconsideration in the Supreme Court, orange;

(x) For a brief on the merits of a petitioner on review in the Supreme Court, white;

(xi) For a brief on the merits of a respondent on review in the Supreme Court, tan.

(b) The front cover shall set forth the full title of the case, the appropriate party designations as the parties appeared below and as they appear on appeal, the case number assigned below, the case number assigned in the appellate court, designation of the party on whose behalf the brief is filed, the court from which the appeal is taken, the name of the judge thereof, and the litigant contact information required by ORAP 1.30. The lower right corner of the brief shall state the month and year in which the brief was filed.⁴

(c) Pages and covers shall be a uniform size of 8-1/2 x 11 inches.

(d) Paper for the text of the brief shall be white bond, regular finish without glaze, and at least 20-pound weight with surface suitable for both pen and pencil notation. If both sides of the paper are used for text, the paper shall be sufficiently opaque to prevent the material on one side from showing through on the other.⁵

(e) Printed or used area on a page shall not exceed 6-1/4 x 9-1/2 inches, exclusive of page numbers, with inside margin 1-1/4 inches, outside margin 1 inch, top and bottom margins 3/4 inch.

(f) Briefs shall be legible and capable of being read without difficulty. Briefs may be prepared using either uniformly spaced type (such as produced by typewriters) or proportionally spaced type (such as produced by commercial printers and many computer printers). Uniformly spaced type shall not exceed 10 characters per inch (cpi) for both the text of the brief and footnotes. If proportionally spaced type is used, the style shall be either Arial or Times New Roman and the size shall be not smaller than 14 point for both the text of the brief and footnotes. Reducing or condensing the typeface in a manner that would increase the number of words in a brief is not permitted. Briefs printed entirely or substantially in uppercase are not acceptable. All briefs shall be double-spaced with double space above and below each paragraph of quotation.

(g) The last page of the brief shall contain the name and signature of the author of the brief, the name of the law firm or firms, if any, representing the party, and the name of the party or parties on whose behalf the brief is filed.

(h) Pages shall be consecutively numbered at the top of the page within 3/8 inch from the top of the page. Pages of the excerpt of record shall be numbered independently of the body of the brief, and each page number shall be preceded by "ER," e.g., ER-1, ER-2, ER-3. Pages of appendices shall be preceded by "App," e.g., App-1, App-2, App-3.

(i) A brief shall be bound in a manner that allows the pages of the brief to lie flat when the brief is open, as provided in this paragraph. Regardless of whether a brief is prepared with text on one or both sides of the pages, the brief may be bound with a plastic comb binding, with the binding to be within 3/8 inch from the left edge of the brief. A brief also may be bound by stapling (1) if the brief is prepared with text only on one side of each page or (2) if the brief is prepared with text on both sides of the pages and does not exceed 20 pages (10 pieces of paper), excluding the cover but including the index, the excerpt of record and any appendix. A brief bound by stapling shall be secured by a single staple placed as close to the upper left-hand corner as is consistent with securely binding the brief.

(5) The court on its own motion may strike any brief that does not comply with this rule.

² See ORAP 5.75 regarding setting out reply brief and cross-answering brief as separate parts of a combined reply and cross-answering brief.

Rule 5.10 NUMBER OF COPIES OF BRIEFS; PROOF OF SERVICE

(1) Any party filing a brief on appeal or on judicial review in the Court of Appeals shall file with the Administrator* one brief, marked as the original, and 13 copies, except as provided in paragraphs (1)(a) and (1)(b) of this rule. Any party who filed a brief or briefs in the Court of Appeals shall file seven additional copies of the brief or briefs within 14 days after the date of notice from the Administrator that the Supreme Court has allowed a petition for review in the case.

(a) The original and five copies only need be filed for:

(i) A brief submitted pursuant to ORAP 5.90 and a brief filed in response;

(ii) A respondent's answering brief confessing error and not opposing the relief sought in the opening brief;

(iii) A brief submitted by a party who is not represented by an attorney and who has been determined to be indigent by the court or whose brief has been copied at the expense of the public institution of which the party is a resident, and a brief filed in response.

(b) The original and 10 copies only need be filed for any case in which the state, a state agency, or a county juvenile department is represented by the Attorney General and the adverse party is represented by appointed counsel compensated by the Office of Public Defense Services at state expense. Under this paragraph, the Administrator may provide additional copies of briefs as needed and bill the parties for the additional copies.

(2) Any party filing a brief on appeal, judicial review, or other proceeding originally heard in the Supreme Court¹ shall file with the Administrator* one brief, marked as the original, and 15 copies.

(3) Any party filing a brief shall serve two copies of the brief on every other party to the appeal, judicial review, or proceeding.

(4) The original of each brief shall contain proof of service on all other parties to the appeal. The proof of service shall be the last page of the brief or printed on or affixed to the inside of the back cover of the brief.

* See ORAP 1.35(1)(a) for the filing address of the Administrator.

See ORAP 9.05(3)(b) regarding the number of copies of a petition for review, ORAP 9.10(3) regarding the number of copies of a response to a petition for review and ORAP 9.25(2) regarding the number of copies of a petition for reconsideration of a Supreme Court decision.

Rule 5.12
BRIEFS OR PETITIONS FOR REVIEW
CHALLENGING CONSTITUTIONALITY OF STATUTES OR CONSTITUTION

A party filing a brief, petition for review, or petition invoking the court's original jurisdiction that challenges the constitutionality of an Oregon statute or an Oregon constitutional provision shall, at the time the brief or petition is filed, provide the Attorney General¹ with a copy of the brief or petition. The cover of the brief or petition shall state that the brief or petition includes a challenge to the constitutionality of a statute or constitutional provision and shall identify the statute or constitutional provision being challenged.

¹ See footnote 1 to ORAP 1.35 for the service address of the Attorney General.

DESIGNATION OF PARTIES IN BRIEFS

In the body of a brief, parties shall not be referred to as appellant and respondent, but as they were designated in the proceedings below, except that in domestic relations proceedings the parties shall be referred to as husband or wife, father or mother, or other appropriate specific designation.

Rule 5.20
REFERENCE TO EVIDENCE
AND EXHIBITS; CITATION OF AUTHORITIES

(1) Briefs, in referring to the record, shall make appropriate reference to pages and volumes of the transcript or narrative statement, or in the case of an audio record, to the tape number and official cue or numerical counter number or, in the case of an exhibit, to its identification number or letter.

(2) If the precise location on the audio record cannot be determined, it is permissible to indicate between which cue numbers the evidence is to be found.

(3) The following abbreviations may be used:

"P Tr" for pretrial transcript;

"Tr" for transcript;

"Nar St" for narrative statement;

"ER" for Excerpt;

"App" for Appendix;
"AR Tape No. ____, Cue No. ____" for audio record;
"PAR" for pretrial audio record;
"TCF" for trial court file;
"Rec" for record in judicial review proceedings only;
"Ex" for exhibit.

Other abbreviations may be used if explained.

(4) Guidelines for style and conventions in citation of authorities may be found in the Oregon Appellate Courts Style Manual.¹

(5) Cases affirmed without opinion by the Court of Appeals should not be cited as authority.

¹ Copies of the Oregon Appellate Courts Style Manual may be obtained from the Publications Section of the Office of the State Court Administrator, 1163 State Street, Salem, Oregon 97301-2563; (503) 986-5656.

Rule 5.30
ORDINANCES, CHARTERS, STATUTES, AND OTHER WRITTEN
PROVISIONS TO BE SET OUT

If an appeal involves an ordinance, charter, statute, constitutional provision, regulation, or administrative rule, so much of the provision as relevant shall be set forth verbatim with proper citation. If lengthy, such matter should be appended or footnoted and need not be set out verbatim if it appears in another brief in the case and is cross-referenced appropriately.

Rule 5.35
APPELLANT'S OPENING BRIEF: INDEX

The appellant's combined opening brief and excerpt shall begin with:

- (1) an index of the contents of the brief, including a statement of the substance of each assignment of error, without argument, with appropriate page references;
- (2) an index of appendices, if any; and

(3) an index of all authorities referred to, classified by cases (alphabetically arranged and with complete citations), constitutional and statutory provisions, texts, treatises, and other authorities, and indicating the pages of the brief where the authorities are cited. Citations are to be in the form prescribed by the Oregon Appellate Courts Style Manual. Reference to "passim" or "et seq." in the index of authorities is discouraged.

Rule 5.40
APPELLANT'S OPENING BRIEF:
STATEMENT OF THE CASE

The appellant's opening brief shall open with a clear and concise statement of the case, which shall set forth in the following order under separate headings:

(1) A statement, without argument, of the nature of the action or proceeding, the relief sought and, in criminal cases, the indictment or information, including citation of the applicable statute.

(2) A statement, without argument, of the nature of the judgment sought to be reviewed and, if trial was held, whether it was before the court or a jury.

(3) A statement of the statutory basis of appellate jurisdiction and, where novelty or possible doubt makes it appropriate, other supporting authority.

(4) A statement of the date of entry of the judgment in the trial court register, the date that the notice of appeal was served and filed, and, if more than 30 days elapsed between those two dates, why the appeal nevertheless was timely filed; and any other information relevant to appellate jurisdiction.

(5) In cases on judicial review from a state or local government agency, a statement of the nature and the jurisdictional basis of the action of the agency and of the trial court, if any.

(6) A brief statement, without argument and in general terms, of questions presented on appeal.

(7) A concise summary of the arguments appearing in the body of the brief.

(8) (a) In those proceedings in which the Court of Appeals has discretion to try the cause anew on the record and the appellant seeks to have the court exercise that discretion, the appellant shall concisely state the reasons why the court should do so.*

(b) In those proceedings in which the Court of Appeals has discretion to make one or more factual findings anew on the record and the appellant seeks to have the court exercise that discretion, the appellant shall identify with particularity the factual findings that the appellant seeks to have the court find anew on the record and shall concisely state the reasons why the court should do so.*

(c) The Court of Appeals will exercise its discretion to try the cause anew on the record or to make one or more factual findings anew on the record only in exceptional cases. Consistently with that presumption against the exercise of discretion, requests under paragraph (a) or (b) of this section are disfavored.

(d) The Court of Appeals considers the items set out below to be relevant to the decision whether to exercise its discretion to try the cause anew on the record or make one or more factual findings anew on the record. These considerations, which are neither exclusive nor binding, are published to inform and assist the bar and the public.

(i) Whether the trial court made express factual findings, including demeanor-based credibility findings.

(ii) Whether the trial court's decision comports with its express factual findings or with uncontroverted evidence in the record.

(iii) Whether the trial court was specifically alerted to a disputed factual matter and the importance of that disputed factual matter to the trial court's ultimate disposition of the case or to the assignment(s) of error raised on appeal.

(iv) Whether the factual finding(s) that the appellant requests the court find anew is important to the trial court's ruling that is at issue on appeal (i.e., whether an appellate determination of the facts in appellant's favor would likely provide a basis for reversing or modifying the trial court's ruling).

(v) Whether the trial court made an erroneous legal ruling, reversal or modification of which would substantially alter the admissible contents of the record (e.g., a ruling on the admissibility of evidence), and determination of factual issues on the altered record in the Court of Appeals, rather than remand to the trial court for reconsideration, would be judicially efficient.

(9) A concise summary, without argument, of all the facts of the case material to determination of the appeal. The summary shall be in narrative form with references to the places in the transcript, narrative statement, audio record, record, or excerpt where such facts appear.

(10) In a dissolution proceeding or a proceeding involving modification of a dissolution judgment, the summary of facts shall begin with the date of the marriage, the ages of the parties, the ages of any minor children of the parties, the custody status of any minor children, the amount and terms of any spousal or child support ordered, and the party required to pay support.

(11) Any significant motion filed in the appeal and the disposition of the motion. A party need not file an amended brief to set forth any significant motion filed after that party's brief has been filed.

(12) Any other matters necessary to inform the court concerning the questions and contentions raised on the appeal, insofar as such matters are a part of the record, with reference to the parts of the record where such matters appear.

* See ORS 19.415(3)(b) regarding discretion of the Court of Appeals to try the cause de novo or make one or more factual findings anew on appeal in some equitable proceedings; see also ORAP 5.45(5) concerning the identification of standards of review for each assignment of error on appeal.

Rule 5.45 ASSIGNMENTS OF ERROR AND ARGUMENT

(1) Assignments of error are required in all opening briefs of appellants and cross-appellants. No matter claimed as error will be considered on appeal unless the claim of error was preserved in the lower court and is assigned as error in the opening brief in accordance with this rule, provided that the appellate court may consider an error of law apparent on the record.

(2) Each assignment of error shall be separately stated under a numbered heading. The arrangement and form of assignments of error, together with reference to pages of the record, should conform to the illustrations in Appendix 5.45.

(3) Each assignment of error shall identify precisely the legal, procedural, factual, or other ruling that is being challenged.

(4) (a) Each assignment of error shall demonstrate that the question or issue presented by the assignment of error timely and properly was raised and preserved in the lower court. Under the subheading "Preservation of Error":

(i) Each assignment of error, as appropriate, must specify the stage in the proceedings when the question or issue presented by the assignment of error was raised in the lower court, the method or manner of raising it, and the way in which it was resolved or passed on by the lower court.

(ii) Each assignment of error must set out pertinent quotations of the record where the question or issue was raised and the challenged ruling was made, together with reference to the pages of the transcript or other parts of the record quoted or to the excerpt of record if the material quoted is set out in the excerpt of record. When the parts of the record relied on under this clause are lengthy, they shall be included in the excerpt of record instead of the body of the brief.

(iii) If an assignment of error challenges an evidentiary ruling, the assignment of error shall quote or summarize the evidence that appellant believes was erroneously admitted or excluded. If an assignment of error challenges the exclusion of evidence, appellant also shall identify in the record where the trial court excluded the evidence and where the offer of proof was made; if an assignment of error challenges the admission of evidence, appellant also shall identify where in the record the evidence was admitted.

(b) An assignment of error for a claimed error apparent on the record shall comply with the requirements for assignments of error generally by identifying the precise ruling, specifying the state of the proceedings when the ruling was made, and setting forth pertinent quotations of the record where the challenged ruling was made.¹

(c) The court may decline to consider any assignment of error that requires the court to search the record to find the error or to determine if the error properly was raised and preserved.

(5) Under the subheading "Standard of Review," each assignment of error shall identify the applicable standard or standards of review, supported by citation to the statute, case law, or other legal authority for each standard of review.²

(6) Each assignment of error shall be followed by the argument. If several assignments of error present essentially the same legal question, the argument in support of them may be combined so far as practicable. The argument in support of a claimed error apparent on the record shall demonstrate that the error is of the kind that may be addressed by the court without the claim of error having been preserved in the record.

² Standards of review include but are not limited to de novo review and substantial evidence for factual issues, errors of law and abuse of discretion for legal issues, and special statutory standards of review such as those found in the Administrative Procedures Act, ORS 183.400(4), and ORS 183.482(7) and (8). See also ORS 19.415(1), which provides that, generally, "upon an appeal in an action or proceeding, without regard to whether the action or proceeding was triable to the court or a jury," the court's review "shall be as provided in section 3, Article VII (Amended) of the Oregon Constitution"; ORS 19.415(3)(b) regarding discretion of the Court of Appeals to try the cause de novo or make one or more factual findings anew on appeal in some equitable proceedings; see also ORAP 5.40(8) concerning appellant's request for the court to exercise de novo review and providing a list of nonexclusive items Court of Appeals may consider in deciding whether to exercise its discretion.

Rule 5.50 THE EXCERPT OF RECORD

(1) After the conclusion of the substance of the brief, the appellant shall set forth an excerpt of record.*

(2) When preparing an excerpt of record, the appellant shall be guided by the following considerations:

(a) The excerpt of record shall include the pleadings relevant to the issue or issues raised on appeal, any written opinion or findings of fact issued by the trial judge addressing a ruling to which error is assigned, any order disposing of the claim to which an assignment of error relates, and the judgment document or order being appealed.

(b) The excerpt of record shall include any other document and part of a document that either is essential to or significantly helpful in understanding the arguments developed in the brief, particularly for purposes of assisting the court in advance of oral argument. The issues on appeal and the procedural posture of the case should determine the contents of the excerpt of record. The full record is available to and used by the court after submission of a case; therefore, the appellant should exercise judgment regarding the content of the excerpt of record, rather than merely duplicate the entire trial court file.

(c) It generally is not necessary to include in the excerpt of record memoranda of law filed in the trial court, unless the fact that a particular argument was or was not made in a memorandum has independent significance (e.g., a dispute over preservation of an issue).¹

(3) (a) In criminal, civil commitment, and juvenile cases, the excerpt of record shall contain the judgment document or order being appealed, and such other parts of the record as are appropriate to include.

(b) In criminal cases in which the defendant appealed after entering a conditional plea of guilty or no contest under ORS 135.335(3), the defendant shall include in the excerpt of record the writing in which the defendant reserved for review on appeal the trial court's adverse determination of a pretrial motion.

(4) In agency review cases, including workers' compensation and Land Use Board of Appeals cases, the excerpt of record shall include the order of the administrative law judge, the agency, and other administrative tribunal, if part of the lower tribunal's record, together with such other parts of the record as are appropriate to include.²

(5) If the appellant has failed to prepare an excerpt of record, the respondent may move the court to require appellant to do so. If the excerpt of record prepared by the appellant does not include materials that the respondent believes to be essential to or significantly helpful in the court's preparation for oral argument, the respondent may prepare a supplemental excerpt of record. The respondent shall set forth the supplemental excerpt of record after the conclusion of the substance of the respondent's answering brief.*

(6) The excerpt of record shall be in the following form:

(a) All documents or parts of documents shall be copies of documents included in the record, rather than summarized or paraphrased. Omissions, if not apparent, shall be noted. No matter shall be omitted if to do so would change the meaning of the matter included.

(b) Contents shall be set forth in chronological order. The excerpt shall be consecutively paginated, with the first page being page ER-1. The excerpt shall begin with an index organized chronologically, describing each item and identifying where the item may be found in the trial court or agency record, and the page where the item may be found in the excerpt.

(c) The materials included shall be reproduced on 8-1/2 x 11 inch white paper by any duplicating or copying process that produces a clear, black, legible image.

(d) The excerpt of record shall comply with the applicable requirements, including page limitations, of ORAP 5.05.

¹ See Appendix 5.50, which sets forth examples of documents that a party should consider including in the excerpt of record depending on the nature of the issues raised in the briefs.

² For other requirements for the excerpt of record in Land Use Board of Appeals cases, see ORAP 4.67.

* But see ORAP 5.05(3)(b) relating to separately binding an excerpt of record in excess of the page limit prescribed in ORAP 5.05(2)(b).

Rule 5.52 APPENDIX

The purpose of an appendix to a brief is to provide, for the convenience of the reader, materials that would be helpful in understanding and resolving an issue raised on appeal. A party appropriately may include in an appendix, for instance, copies of a statute or statutes at issue in the appeal, or copies of cases that are not readily available from standard research sources. A party should not include in the appendix materials from the record of the tribunal from which the appeal is taken that should be in the excerpt of record.¹

¹ For other requirements for appendices to briefs in land use cases, see ORAP 4.67.

RESPONDENT'S ANSWERING BRIEF

(1) The respondent's answering brief shall follow the form prescribed for the appellant's opening brief, omitting repetition of the verbatim parts of the record in appellant's assignments of error. It shall contain a concise answer to each of the appellant's assignments of error preceding respondent's own argument as to each.

(2) Under the heading "Statement of the Case," the respondent specifically shall accept the appellant's statement of the case, or shall identify any alleged omissions or inaccuracies, and may state additional relevant facts or other matters of record as may apply to the appeal, including any significant motion filed on appeal and the disposition of the motion. The additional statement shall refer to the pages of the transcript, narrative statement, audio record, record, or excerpt in support thereof but without unnecessary repetition of the appellant's statement.

(3) If a cross-appeal is abandoned, the respondent shall immediately notify the appellate court in writing and, if notice has not been given previously, the respondent shall notify the court of the abandonment when the respondent's answering brief is filed, in writing and separately from the brief.

(4) If the court gives an appellant leave to file a supplemental brief after the respondent's answering brief has been filed, the respondent may file a supplemental respondent's answering brief addressing those issues raised in the appellant's supplemental brief.

Rule 5.57
RESPONDENT'S ANSWERING BRIEF:
CROSS-ASSIGNMENTS OF ERROR

(1) A respondent must cross-assign as error any trial court ruling described in subsection (2) of this rule in order to raise the claim of error in the appeal.¹

(2) A cross-assignment of error is appropriate:

(a) If, by challenging the trial court ruling, the respondent does not seek to reverse or modify the judgment on appeal; and

(b) If the relief sought by the appellant were to be granted, respondent would desire reversal or modification of an intermediate ruling of the trial court.

(3) The appellant's answer to a cross-assignment of error shall be in the form prescribed by ORAP 5.55 for a respondent's answering brief and shall be:

(a) Contained in a separate section of the appellant's reply brief, if a reply brief is permitted under ORAP 5.70, and designated "response to cross-assignment of error;" or

(b) Filed within 21 days after the filing of the respondent's answering brief, if a reply brief is not permitted under ORAP 5.70, and entitled "appellant's answer to cross-assignment of error."

(4) A respondent may file a reply to an appellant's answer to a cross-assignment of error only if the nature of the case is one in which a reply brief is permitted under ORAP 5.70 and ORAP 5.80(3). The reply shall be no longer than 15 pages and shall be filed within 21 days after the filing of the appellant's answer to a cross-assignment of error.²

¹ This rule does not apply to a respondent who also is a cross-appellant and is assigning error as a cross-appellant.

² A brief under this rule is required to have a gray brief cover. ORAP 5.05(4)(a)(iv).

FAILURE OF RESPONDENT TO FILE BRIEF

If the respondent files no brief, the cause will be submitted on the appellant's opening brief and appellant's oral argument, and the respondent shall not be allowed to argue the case.

Rule 5.65

CROSS-APPELLANT'S OPENING BRIEF

(1) When a respondent has cross-appealed,¹ the opening brief on cross-appeal shall be presented in a separate part of the respondent's answering brief immediately following the body of the answering brief. The opening brief on cross-appeal shall be appropriately indexed at the front of the answering brief. Pages of the opening brief on cross-appeal shall be numbered consecutively following the numbering of the answering brief.

(2) A cross-appellant's opening brief shall be in the form of an appellant's opening brief.

¹ See ORAP 5.55(3) regarding abandoned cross-appeals.

REPLY BRIEF

(1) (a) Except as provided in subsection (3) of this rule, a party may file a reply brief to a respondent's answering brief or an answering brief of a cross-respondent.

(b) A reply brief shall be confined to matters raised in the respondent's answering brief or the answering brief of a cross-respondent; reply briefs that merely restate arguments made in the opening brief are discouraged.

(c) The court encourages a party who decides not to file a reply brief, as soon as practicable thereafter, to notify the court in writing to that effect.

(2) The form of a reply brief shall be similar to a respondent's answering brief. A reply brief shall have an index and shall contain a summary of argument.

(3) (a) Except on request of the appellate court or on motion of a party that demonstrates the need for a reply brief, reply briefs shall not be submitted in the following cases:

- (i) traffic, boating, wildlife, and other violations;
- (ii) criminal, probation revocation, habeas corpus, and post-conviction relief;
- (iii) juvenile court;
- (iv) civil commitment;
- (v) forcible entry and detainer; and
- (vi) judicial review of orders of the Land Use Board of Appeals and Land Conservation and Development Commission in land use cases, as provided in ORAP 4.66(1)(c).

(b) A motion for leave to file a reply brief shall be submitted, without copies, within 14 days after the filing of the brief to which permission to reply is sought.

Rule 5.75
ANSWERING BRIEF ON CROSS-APPEAL

When an appellant files an answering brief on cross-appeal, that party may file the brief separately or as a separate part of a reply brief, if a reply brief is filed. The answering brief on cross-appeal shall follow the form of a respondent's answering brief. If filed as part of a reply brief, it shall be presented in a separate part of the reply brief and be shown in the index of the reply brief as "Answering Brief on Cross-Appeal." An answering brief on cross-appeal and a reply brief, whether filed as one brief or as separate briefs, shall be subject to the length limitations prescribed in ORAP 5.05.

Rule 5.77
JOINT AND ADOPTED BRIEFS

(1) In a case involving more than one party on the same side, including cases consolidated on appeal, the court discourages the filing of briefs that duplicate arguments made in another brief in the same case and encourages parties to file joint briefs or to adopt to the extent practicable a brief filed by another party in the same case.¹

(2) A party may join or adopt a brief submitted in the same case or consolidated case but shall not join or adopt a brief in another case.

(3) Joint Briefs

(a) If two or more parties join in a brief by signing the brief and have not previously appeared and paid a filing fee, only one filing fee need be paid.

(b) A party who has not signed a brief filed by another may join that brief provided that the party:

(i) Obtains the consent of the party who filed the brief;

(ii) Pays a filing or first appearance fee; and

(iii) Submits a letter to the court copied to all parties on appeal stating that the party joins in the brief filed by another party and has the consent of the other party.

(4) Adopted Briefs

(a) A party who concurs with all or part of a brief filed by another party and who has no other position to assert may adopt the other party's brief by filing a brief adopting in whole or in part the brief of another party. If a party adopts only part of the brief of another, the brief shall identify the part of the brief of the other party being adopted.

(b) A party who concurs with all or part of a brief submitted by another party but who wishes to argue additional matters may submit a brief adopting by reference the part of the other party's brief in which the party concurs.

TIME FOR FILING BRIEFS

(1) Unless otherwise provided by statute or these rules, the appellant's opening brief and excerpt of record shall be served and filed within 49 days after:

- (a) the entry of the trial court order settling the transcript; or
- (b) the filing of an agreed narrative statement with the trial court; or
- (c) the transcript is deemed settled under ORS 19.370(7) or ORAP 3.40(5); or
- (d) the appellate court enters an order waiving a transcript under ORAP 3.05(2); or
- (e) if a transcript or narrative statement is not designated, the filing of the notice of appeal; or
- (f) in a judicial review case, the agency record has been settled.

(2) The respondent's answering brief shall be served and filed within 49 days after the filing of the appellant's opening brief. If the court has given an appellant leave to file a supplemental brief after the respondent's answering brief has been filed, the respondent's supplemental brief shall be served and filed within 21 days after the filing of the appellant's supplemental brief.

(3) A reply brief, if any, shall be served and filed within 21 days after the filing of the respondent's answering brief or after a motion to file a reply brief is allowed, unless otherwise provided in the order allowing the motion.

(4) An appellant's answering brief on cross-appeal or, in a case in which the appellant is permitted to file a reply brief, an appellant's combined reply brief on appeal and answering brief on cross-appeal shall be served and filed within 49 days after the filing of the opening brief on cross-appeal.

(5) When a party other than an appellant is made a cross-respondent, that party shall have 49 days after the filing of the opening brief on cross-appeal to serve and file an answering brief on cross-appeal.

(6) A cross-appellant shall have 21 days after the date of the filing of an answering brief on cross-appeal in which to serve and file a reply brief on cross-appeal, if permitted to do so by these rules or by order of the court.

(7) In cases in which the appellant is represented in the Court of Appeals by the Office of Public Defense Services, the appellant's opening brief shall be served within a period of time established by the Chief Judge in consultation with Office of Public Defense Services.

(8) In complex cases, such as cases with multiple parties, multiple appeals or cross-appeals, or both, the parties are encouraged to confer to develop a briefing schedule that varies from the schedule that would otherwise result under this rule but that will present the parties' positions in an orderly manner and to file a motion seeking approval of that suggested briefing schedule.

ADDITIONAL AUTHORITIES

(1) Any party filing a memorandum of additional authorities or a response memorandum shall submit the memorandum in the manner provided in this rule, subject to any instructions of the court. A party may submit a memorandum of additional authorities after the filing of the party's brief but before oral argument without leave of the court. After oral argument, a party may submit a memorandum of additional authorities only with leave of the court.

(2) A memorandum of additional authorities and a response, if any:

(a) Shall include citations to relevant cases and statutes and shall identify the issue that has been previously briefed to which the new citations apply;

(b) Shall not exceed two pages, without leave of the court;

(c) Shall be filed with the Administrator together with eight copies, if filed in the Supreme Court, and five copies, if filed in the Court of Appeals.¹

(d) If filed less than five business days before oral argument, shall include in the caption the words "ORAL ARGUMENT SCHEDULED FOR [DATE]."

(3) If a party files or is given leave to file a memorandum of additional authorities, any other party to the case who has filed a brief may file a response. Unless the court directs otherwise, a response is due 14 days after the date of filing of the memorandum of additional authority to which the party is responding.

¹ See ORAP 1.35(1)(a) for the filing address of the Administrator.

"BALFOUR" BRIEFS FILED
BY COURT-APPOINTED COUNSEL

(1) If counsel appointed by the court to represent an indigent defendant in a criminal case on direct appeal has thoroughly reviewed the record, has discussed the case with trial counsel and the client, and has determined that the case does not raise any arguably meritorious issues, counsel shall file an opening brief with two sections:

(a) Section A of the brief shall contain:

(i) A statement of the case, including a statement of the facts of the case. If the brief contains a Section B with one or more claims of error asserted by the client, the statement of facts shall include facts sufficient to put the claim or claims of error in context.

(ii) A description of any demurrer or significant motion filed in the case, including, but not limited to, a motion to dismiss, a motion to suppress and a motion in limine, and the trial court's disposition of the demurrer or motion.

(iii) A statement that the case is being submitted pursuant to this rule, that counsel has thoroughly reviewed the record and discussed the case with trial counsel and the client, and that counsel has not identified any arguably meritorious issue on appeal. If the brief does not contain a Section B, counsel also shall state that counsel contacted the client, gave the client reasonable opportunity to identify a claim or claims of error, and that the client did not identify any claim of error for inclusion in the brief.

(iv) Counsel's signature.

(b) (i) Section B of the brief is the client's product and may contain any claim of error that the client wishes to assert. The client shall attempt to state the claim and any argument in support of the claim as nearly as practicable in proper appellate brief form. Section B of the brief shall not exceed 48 pages in length. The last page of Section B of the brief shall contain the name and signature of the client.

(ii) Counsel's obligation with respect to Section B of the brief shall be limited to correcting obvious typographical errors, preparing copies of the brief, serving the appropriate parties, and filing the original brief and the appropriate number of copies with the court.

(2) A case in which appellant's opening brief is prepared and filed under this rule shall be submitted without oral argument, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(3) On reviewing the record and the briefs filed by the parties, if the court identifies one or more arguably meritorious issues in the case, the court shall notify appellant's counsel of the issue or issues so identified. Appellant's counsel shall have 28 days after the date of the court's notice to file a supplemental opening brief addressing those issues. In addition to addressing the issue or issues identified by the court, counsel may address any other arguably meritorious issue counsel has identified. Respondent shall have 28 days after appellant files a supplemental opening brief to file a response or supplemental answering brief addressing the issues raised in the supplemental opening brief.

(4) In a case other than a criminal case on direct appeal, court-appointed counsel who determines that there are no meritorious issues on appeal may submit a brief under this rule, in which case the matter will be submitted without oral argument, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(5) In any case in which the appellant is represented by court-appointed counsel on appeal and counsel filed a brief in the Court of Appeals under subsection (1) of this rule, counsel may submit a petition for review that contains a Section A that complies with ORAP 9.05(3)(a) and a Section B that complies with paragraph (1)(b) of this rule.

See generally State v. Balfour, 311 Or 434, 451-53, 814 P2d 1069 (1991).

Rule 5.92 SUPPLEMENTAL PRO SE BRIEFS

(1) When a client is represented by court-appointed counsel and the client is dissatisfied with the brief that counsel has filed, within 28 days after the filing of the brief, either the client or counsel may move the court for leave to file a supplemental pro se brief.¹ If the client files the motion, in addition to serving all other parties to the case, the client shall serve counsel with a copy of the motion. If counsel files the motion, in addition to serving all other parties to the case, counsel shall serve the client with a copy of the motion. Whoever files the motion may tender the proposed supplemental pro se brief along with the motion.

(2) The client shall attempt to prepare a supplemental pro se brief as nearly as practicable in proper appellate brief form. The brief shall identify questions or issues to be decided on appeal as assignments of error identifying precisely the legal, procedural, factual, or other ruling that is being challenged.² The last page of the brief shall contain the name and signature of the client. Unless the court orders otherwise, the statement of the case, including the statement of facts, and the argument together shall be limited to five pages.

(3) A supplemental pro se brief is the client's product; therefore, if the client requests assistance in preparing the brief, counsel's obligation shall be limited to correcting obvious typographical errors, preparing copies of the brief, serving the appropriate parties, and filing the original brief and the appropriate number of copies with the court. If the client prepares and files the brief without the assistance of counsel, in addition to serving all other parties to the appeal, the client shall serve a copy of the brief on counsel.

² See ORAP 5.45, which describes requirements for assignments of error and argument.

BRIEFS CONTAINING CONFIDENTIAL MATERIAL

(1) Except as provided in subsection (6) of this rule, if a brief contains material that is, by statute or court order, confidential or exempt from disclosure,¹ the party submitting the brief shall file two original briefs:

(a) One brief shall contain the material that is confidential or exempt from disclosure. The title page of the brief shall contain in or under the case caption the words "CONFIDENTIAL BRIEF UNDER _____" followed by the statutory citation or a description of the court order under which confidentiality is claimed.* The original of the brief shall be placed in a sealed envelope marked "CONFIDENTIAL BRIEF."

(b) One brief shall have the material that is confidential or exempt from disclosure removed or marked out. The title page of the brief shall contain in or under the case caption the words "REDACTED BRIEF UNDER _____" followed by the statutory citation or a description of the court order under which confidentiality is claimed.*

(2) (a) If a brief described in subsection (1) of this rule is filed in the Court of Appeals, the party filing the brief shall file 15 copies of the confidential brief and six copies of the redacted brief.

(b) If a brief described in subsection (1) of this rule is filed in the Supreme Court, the party filing the brief shall file 10 copies of the confidential brief and eight copies of the redacted brief.

(c) A party filing a brief under this rule shall serve two copies of the confidential brief and two copies of the redacted brief on each other party to the case on appeal or review.

(3) The Administrator shall keep both original briefs in the appellate file for the case. The Administrator shall make the redacted version of the brief available for public inspection and copying.

(4) (a) On motion of a person, the court shall make available for public inspection and copying a confidential brief based on a showing that the brief does not contain matter that is confidential or exempt from disclosure.

(b) On motion of a person and under such conditions as the court may deem appropriate, the court may authorize inspection or copying of a confidential brief based on a showing that the person is entitled as a matter of law to inspect or copy the material that is confidential or exempt from disclosure.

(5) When the appellate judgment issues terminating a case, the Administrator shall distribute to brief storage facilities only the redacted copies of a brief filed under paragraph (1)(b) of this rule.

(6) Briefs in the following categories of cases are exempt from the requirements of subsections (1) to (5) of this rule: adoption, juvenile dependency (including termination of parental rights), juvenile delinquency, and civil commitment of mentally ill and mentally deficient persons. Parties filing in the Court of Appeals briefs in those categories of cases must comply with ORAP 5.10(1) and (3) regarding the original and number of copies to be filed and served on other parties to the case.

6. SUBMISSION OF CASES AND ORAL ARGUMENT;
RECONSIDERATION IN COURT OF APPEALS

Rule 6.05
REQUEST FOR ORAL ARGUMENT;
SUBMISSION WITHOUT ARGUMENT

(1) (a) In the Court of Appeals, the Administrator will send the parties notice of the date that a case is scheduled to be submitted to the court ("the submission date"). Parties to the case may request oral argument in the Court of Appeals by filing a "Request for Oral Argument" in the form illustrated in Appendix 6.05 and directed to the attention of the court's calendar clerk. If a party files a timely request for oral argument, the case will be argued on the submission date and all parties who have filed a brief may argue. If no party files a timely request for oral argument, the case shall be submitted on the briefs on the submission date without oral argument, unless the court directs otherwise.

(b) A party wanting oral argument must file the request for oral argument and serve it on every other party to the appeal within the number of days specified in this subsection after the date the notice from the Administrator:

(i) On appeal in juvenile dependency (including termination of parental rights) and adoption cases within the meaning of ORAP 10.15, and on judicial review in land use cases as defined in ORAP 4.60(1)(b), 14 days after the date of the notice;

(ii) In all other cases, 28 days after the date of the notice.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this rule, in the Court of Appeals, if a self-represented party files a brief, the case will be submitted without argument by any party. An attorney representing himself or herself is not considered to be a self-represented party for the purpose of this rule.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this rule, when a respondent submits an answering brief confessing error as to all assignments of error and not objecting to the relief sought in the opening brief, the respondent shall so inform the court by letter when the brief is filed or at any time thereafter. On receipt of respondent's notice that a brief confesses error, the case will be submitted without oral argument. The appellant may by letter bring to the court's attention that a respondent's brief appears to confess error. If the court concurs, the case will be submitted without oral argument.

Rule 6.10
WHO MAY ARGUE;
FAILURE TO APPEAR AT ARGUMENT

- (1) A party may present oral argument only if the party has filed a brief.
- (2) An amicus curiae may present oral argument only if permitted by the court on motion or on its own motion.
- (3) An attorney who was a witness for a party, except as to merely formal matters such as attestation or custody of an instrument, shall not argue the cause without leave of the court.
- (4) Only active members of the Oregon State Bar shall argue unless the court, on motion filed not less than 21 days before the date for argument orders otherwise. If the court has allowed a lawyer from another jurisdiction to appear on appeal for a particular case under ORAP 8.10(4), the lawyer does not need leave of the court to participate in oral argument of the case.
- (5)
 - (a) After any party has filed and served a request for oral argument pursuant to ORAP 6.05(1), any party who decides to waive oral argument or cannot attend oral argument shall give the court and all other parties participating in oral argument at least 48 hours' notice that the party will not be appearing for oral argument.
 - (b) If a party fails to appear at oral argument, the court may deem the cause submitted without oral argument as to that party. A party's failure to appear shall not preclude oral argument by any other party.
 - (c) If a party fails to give at least 48 hours' notice of nonappearance at argument, the court may order counsel for that party to pay the costs and attorney fees that reasonably would have been incurred but for failure to give timely notice of nonappearance.

Rule 6.15
PROCEDURE AT ORAL ARGUMENT

- (1) In all cases in the Supreme Court:
 - (a) The appellant, petitioner, or petitioner on review shall have not more than 30 minutes to argue; and the respondent or respondent on review shall have not more than 30 minutes to argue.
 - (b) The appellant, petitioner, or petitioner on review shall argue first and may reserve not more than 10 minutes of the time allowed for argument in which to reply.
 - (c) If there are two or more parties on one side, they shall divide their allotted time among themselves, unless the court orders otherwise.

(2) (a) Unless the court otherwise orders, on oral argument in the Court of Appeals in all cases the appellant or petitioner shall have not more than 15 minutes and the respondent shall have not more than 15 minutes to argue.

(b) The appellant or petitioner may reserve not more than five minutes of the time allowed for argument in which to reply.

(3) A motion for additional time for argument shall be filed at least seven days before the time set for argument.

(4) No point raised by a party's brief shall be deemed waived by the party's failure to present that point in oral argument.

(5) For the purpose of this rule, a cross-appellant shall be deemed a respondent.

(6) It is the general policy of Oregon appellate courts to prohibit reference at oral argument to any authority not cited either in a brief or in a preargument memorandum of additional authorities.² If a party intends to refer in oral argument to an authority not previously cited, counsel shall inform the court at the time of argument and shall make a good faith effort to inform opposing counsel of the authority at the earliest practicable time. The court may, in its discretion, permit reference at argument to that authority and may give other parties leave to file a post-argument memorandum of additional authorities or a memorandum in response.

(7) The Court of Appeals encourages any party who is aware of another case pending under advisement in the Court of Appeals raising the same or a similar issue as the case being argued to bring that fact to the attention of the court at oral argument, or in writing after oral argument or after submission without oral argument.

(8) If counsel desires to have present at oral argument an exhibit that has been retained by the trial court, it is counsel's responsibility to arrange to have the exhibit transmitted to the appellate court.³

² See ORAP 5.85 regarding memoranda of additional authorities.

³ See ORAP 3.25 regarding arranging to have exhibits transmitted to the appellate court.

Rule 6.20
ARGUMENT IN SALEM AND OTHER LOCATIONS

The Court of Appeals will set most cases for oral argument in Salem, but, pursuant to Chief Justice Order 98-007, dated January 12, 1998, the court may set cases for oral argument in other locations throughout the state.

See ORS 2.560(1) and ORS 1.085(2).

RECONSIDERATION BY COURT OF APPEALS

(1) As used in this rule, "decision" means an opinion, per curiam opinion, affirmance without opinion, and an order ruling on a motion or an own motion matter that disposes of the appeal. A party seeking reconsideration of a decision of the Court of Appeals shall file a petition for reconsideration. A petition for reconsideration shall be based on one or more of these contentions:

- (a) A claim of factual error in the decision;
- (b) A claim of error in the procedural disposition of the appeal requiring correction or clarification to make the disposition consistent with the holding or rationale of the decision or the posture of the case below;
- (c) A claim of error in the designation of the prevailing party or award of costs;
- (d) A claim that there has been a change in the statutes or case law since the decision of the Court of Appeals; or
- (e) A claim that the Court of Appeals erred in construing or applying the law. Claims addressing legal issues already argued in the parties' briefs and addressed by the Court of Appeals are disfavored.

(2) A petition for reconsideration shall be filed within 14 days after the decision. The petition shall have attached to it a copy of the decision for which reconsideration is sought. The form of the petition and the manner in which it is served and filed shall be the same as for motions generally, except that:

- (a) The petition shall be accompanied by four copies, if the case was decided by a department of the court, or by 10 copies, if the case was decided by the full court, and

(b) The petition shall have a title page printed on plain white paper and containing the following information:

(i) The full case caption, including appropriate party designations for the parties as they appeared in the court from which the appeal was taken and as they appear on appeal, and the trial and appellate court case numbers; and

(ii) A title designating the party filing the petition, such as "Appellant's Petition for Reconsideration" or "Respondent's Petition for Reconsideration."

(3) The filing of a petition for reconsideration is not necessary to exhaust remedies or as a prerequisite to filing a petition for review.

(4) If a response to a petition for reconsideration is filed, the response shall be filed within seven days after the petition for reconsideration was filed. The court will proceed to consider a petition for reconsideration without awaiting the filing of a response, but will consider a response if one is filed before the petition for reconsideration is considered and decided.¹

(5) A request for reconsideration of any other order of the Court of Appeals ruling on a motion or an own motion matter shall be entitled "motion for reconsideration." A motion for reconsideration is subject to ORAP 7.05 regarding motions in general.

7. MOTIONS

Rule 7.05 MOTIONS IN GENERAL

(1) (a) Unless a statute or these rules provide another form of application, a request for an order or other relief shall be made by filing a motion in writing.

(b) A party seeking to challenge the failure of another party to comply with any of the requirements of a statute or these rules shall do so by motion.

(c) A party may raise an issue of the jurisdiction of the appellate court by motion at any time during the appellate process.

(2) (a) Generally, a party seeking relief in a case pending on appeal should file the motion in the court in which the case is pending.¹ A party seeking relief from a court other than the court in which the case is pending shall, on the first page of the motion, separately and conspicuously state that the party is seeking relief from a court other than the court in which the case is pending.

(b) A case is considered filed in the Supreme Court if the motion is captioned "In the Supreme Court of the State of Oregon" and in the Court of Appeals if the motion is captioned "In the Court of Appeals of the State of Oregon." Notwithstanding the caption, the Administrator has the authority to file a motion in the appropriate court, provided that the Administrator shall give notice thereof to the parties.

(3) Any party may, within 14 days after the filing of a motion, file a response.² The court may shorten the time for filing a response and may grant temporary relief pending the filing of a response, as circumstances may require.

(4) Unless the court directs otherwise, all motions will be considered without oral argument.

(5) Parties shall be referred to by their designation in the appellate court. Hyphenated designations are discouraged. However, in motions in domestic relations cases, parties shall be referred to as husband or wife, mother or father, or other appropriate specific designations.

¹ See ORAP 9.30 to determine in which appellate court a case is pending when a petition for review has or may be filed.

² But see ORAP 7.25(6) regarding time for responding to a motion for an extension of time.

PREPARATION, FILING, AND SERVICE OF MOTIONS

(1) A motion or a response to a motion, including a supporting memorandum, shall be on 8-1/2 x 11 inch white paper, printed or typewritten, double-spaced, and securely fastened in the upper left-hand corner with a single staple. A motion or response may be prepared using either uniformly spaced type (such as produced by typewriters) or proportionally spaced type (such as produced by commercial printers and many computer printers). Uniformly spaced type shall not exceed 10 characters per inch (cpi) for both the text of the brief and footnotes. If proportionally spaced type is used, it shall not be smaller than 13 point for both the text of the motion or response and footnotes. The first page of the motion or response shall contain the following information:

(a) The case caption, including appropriate party designations for the parties as they appeared in the court from which the appeal was taken and as they appear on appeal, and the trial and appellate court case numbers; and

(b) For a motion other than a motion for extension of time, a title designating the party filing the motion and one of the motion titles listed in the "Motion Titles" section of Appendix 7.10-1.¹ For example, the motion of a respondent on appeal to dismiss the appeal for lack of jurisdiction should be titled "Respondent's Motion–Dismiss - Non-Appellant/Non-Petitioner" and the motion of the state for summary affirmance should be titled "Respondent's Motion–Summary Affirmance." If more than one motion is contained in a single document, the title of each motion shall be listed. If none of the motion titles listed in Appendix 7.10-1 fairly describes the motion, select the title option of "Motion–Other" and add a title that accurately describes the motion. "Motion–Other" should be used only in circumstances in which the party has carefully reviewed the motion titles listed in Appendix 7.10-1 and does not find a title that describes the motion; or

(c) For a motion for extension of time (MOET), a title designating the party filing the motion for extension of time and one of the MOET titles listed in the "Motions for Extension of Time (MOET)" section of Appendix 7.10-1. For example, the motion of an appellant for an extension of time to file the opening brief should be titled "Appellant's MOET–File Opening Brief." If more than one motion for extension of time is contained in a single document, or if a motion for extension of time is contained in a single document with another motion, the title of each MOET and/or motion shall be listed. If none of the MOET titles listed in Appendix 7.10-1 fairly describes the motion for extension of time, select the title option of "MOET–Other" and add a title that accurately describes the motion. "MOET–Other" should be used only in circumstances in which the party has carefully reviewed the MOET titles listed in Appendix 7.10-1 and does not find a title that describes the motion for extension of time; or

(d) For a response to a motion or motion for extension of time (MOET), an indication that the filing is a response using the title of the motion or MOET to which the filing responds. For example, the response to a respondent's motion for summary affirmance should be titled "Response to Respondent's Motion–Summary Affirmance" and the response to an appellant's motion for extension of time to file the opening brief should be titled "Response to Appellant's MOET–File Opening Brief."

(2) A motion or response, including any supporting memorandum, but excluding appendices or exhibits, longer than 20 pages shall contain an index of contents, an index of appendices or exhibits, and an index of authorities, each with page references.²

(3) (a) A moving or responding party shall file with the Administrator the original motion or response with proof of service and the number of copies specified in paragraph (3)(b) of this rule.

(b) (i) Except as provided in subparagraph (3)(b)(iii) of this rule, eight copies of a motion or response shall be filed in the Supreme Court;

(ii) Except as provided in subparagraph (3)(b)(iii) of this rule, one copy of a motion or response shall be filed in the Court of Appeals;

(iii) Parties need not file copies of motions for extensions of time, consolidation, permission to file reply briefs or extended briefs, appellants' motions to dismiss, or stipulated motions to dismiss.

(4) Any party filing a motion to dismiss before the transcript has been filed shall serve a copy of the motion on the transcript coordinator and, if known to the party filing the motion to dismiss, all court reporters and transcribers who are responsible for preparing all or any part of the transcript on appeal.

² See ORAP 5.35(3).

See Appendix 7.10-2 for illustrations of motion title designations and Appendix 7.10-3 for illustrations of motions for extension of time title designations.

Rule 7.15
DECISIONS ON MOTIONS

(1) The Chief Justice or the Chief Judge, except as otherwise provided in ORAP 7.55, may determine any motion made before submission of a case to the court or after the date of the decision or may refer the motion to any other judge or judges of the court for decision.¹

(2) Any motion filed after submission of a case, but before decision, shall be decided by the court or, in the Court of Appeals, may be decided by the department to which the case has been submitted.

(3) If any motion other than a challenge to the court's jurisdiction is denied before submission of the case, the motion may not be resubmitted without leave of the court in the order on the motion.

(4) Except for a ruling on an oral motion for extension of time under ORAP 7.27, the court will rule on a motion by written order.

Rule 7.25
MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

(1) Only the appellate court may grant an extension of time for the performance of any act pertaining to an appeal.

(2) A motion for an extension of time shall contain:

(a) The date the notice of appeal was filed (or in the case of a petition for review;

(b) The date of the decision of the Court of Appeals for which review is being sought);

(c) The date the brief or other action is due;

(d) The date to which the extension is requested;

(e) Whether it is the first or other request;

(f) The specific circumstances which caused the act not to be completed in the allotted time; and

(g) In a criminal case, whether the defendant is incarcerated.

(3) A statement whether opposing counsel objects to, concurs in or has no position regarding the extension of time requested is required for any motion other than a first motion for 28 days or less to file a brief.

(4) An objection to a motion for extension of time shall articulate specific grounds for the objection and shall identify how an extension of time will prejudice the objector's interest. An attorney may object on the ground that the client has instructed counsel to object to any extension, but that alone will not be a sufficient ground to deny or reduce any extension of time.

(5) An objection to a request for an extension of time may be filed by facsimile transmission,¹ provided that the objection does not exceed five pages. Filing shall be deemed complete when the entirety of the objection being transmitted has been received by the Administrator. The facsimile transmission shall have the same force and effect as filing of the original.

(6) A motion for an extension of time generally will be decided within a few days after it is filed. An objection to a motion for an extension of time filed after the court has granted the extension will be treated as a motion for reconsideration of the ruling. On reconsideration, if the court modifies the extension of time, the parties to the appeal will be notified; otherwise, the objection will be noted and placed in the appellate file.

(7) Requests for extensions of time for preparation of transcripts shall be made in accordance with ORAP 3.30.

See ORAP 7.10(1)(c) concerning captions of motions for extension of time and Appendix 7.10-3 for illustrations of motions for extension of time.

Rule 7.27
ORAL REQUEST FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE BRIEF

(1) For good cause shown, the Administrator may grant an oral request for an extension of time of no more than 14 days to file an opening, answering, or reply brief, provided that:

(a) The party making the request for an extension of time under this rule shall give prior notice to the other parties to the appeal, except that such notice need not be given to a person confined in a state institution and not represented by counsel; and

(b) The party previously has not obtained written extension or extensions of time of more than 28 days.

(2) A party may request an oral extension of time under this rule, and the Administrator may grant or deny the motion, by telephone.

(3) The Administrator acting on an oral request for an extension of time shall enter the grant or denial of the request in the appellate case register.

(4) The grant of an extension of time under this rule will bar any further motion for time to file the brief unless such motion, made in writing, demonstrates extraordinary and compelling circumstances.

Rule 7.30

MOTIONS THAT TOLL TIME

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this rule or if the court otherwise orders, any motion that must be ruled on before the next event in the appellate process occurs, including but not necessarily limited to a motion to hold the appeal in abeyance, a motion to amend a designation of record, to dismiss, to determine jurisdiction, for summary affirmance under ORS 34.712, ORS 138.225, or ORS 138.660, to remand, to strike a brief, to supplement the record, or for leave to present additional evidence under ORS 183.482(5),¹ tolls the time for the next event in the appellate process as established in these rules, until the court disposes of the motion. The motions listed in this rule do not toll the running of any period of time established by statute.

(2) If the court has ordered that no further extensions of time will be granted, no motion tolls the time for the next event in the appellate process as established in these rules. A party may move for relief from a no-further-extensions-of-time order based on a showing of extraordinary and compelling circumstances; any such motion must include in its title the notation "RELIEF FROM NONTOLLING REQUESTED."

MOTIONS SEEKING EMERGENCY RELIEF

(1) If a party files a motion for substantive relief and requires relief in less than 21 days, the party shall include in the caption of the motion a statement that the motion is an "EMERGENCY MOTION UNDER ORAP 7.35." The motion should explain in the first paragraph the reason for the emergency and identify any deadline for action by the court.

(2) Before filing the motion, the movant shall make a good faith effort to notify the opposing counsel or opposing party, if the party is not represented by counsel. The motion shall state whether the other party has been notified and served.

(3) A motion seeking emergency relief, other than a motion for an extension of time, and any response to a motion seeking emergency relief may be served and filed by telephonic facsimile communication device,¹ provided that the material being transmitted does not exceed 10 pages and subject to the following conditions:

(a) Filing shall not be deemed complete until the entirety of the motion or response being transmitted has been received by the Administrator, but, as so filed, the facsimile transmission shall have the same force and effect as filing of the original.

(b) The party or attorney being served maintains a telephonic facsimile communication device at the party's address or at the attorney's office and the device is operating at the time service is made. The proof of service shall contain the facsimile number of any party or attorney served by facsimile transmission.²

¹ The facsimile transmission number for the Administrator is (503) 986-5560.

DISMISSAL OF APPEAL FOR LACK OF AN UNDERTAKING FOR COSTS ON APPEAL

(1) A motion to dismiss an appeal for lack of an undertaking for costs on appeal shall not be filed without at least seven days' notice to the appellant.¹ Notice may be written or oral. The notice shall not be filed with the court.

(2) A motion to dismiss an appeal for lack of an undertaking for costs on appeal shall state that the movant has given the notice required by subsection (1) of this rule or explain why it has not. If written notice was given, a copy of the notice shall be attached to the motion.

(3) The filing of an undertaking in response to a motion to dismiss shall not, in and of itself, be a sufficient response to the motion. Appellant shall file an answer to the motion explaining whether there was good cause for the failure to comply with the notice or the statutory deadline for filing and shall append a copy of the undertaking filed in the trial court.

(4) The movant may, but is not required to, assert that the movant has been prejudiced by appellant's failure to file timely an undertaking for costs on appeal. If, however, the motion is based on an assertion that appellant's failure to meet the statutory filing deadline should result in dismissal, even though appellant complied with a later filing deadline stated in the notice provided under subsection (1) of this rule, the movant must establish that substantial prejudice resulted from appellant's failure to meet the statutory filing deadline.

¹ See ORS 19.300 regarding filing an undertaking for costs on appeal.

MOTIONS ARISING FROM SETTLEMENT, MEDIATION, OR ARBITRATION

(1) If a party files a motion to dismiss an appeal filed by that party, or files a response to such a motion, and the motion is the result of a negotiated settlement or compromise, the motion or response shall so state.

(2) If a party files a motion to dismiss or to determine jurisdiction arising from an arbitration or mediation required or offered by a court, or files a response to such a motion, the caption of the motion or response shall so state.

Rule 7.50
MOTION FOR SUMMARY AFFIRMANCE IN COURT-APPOINTED COUNSEL CASES

(1) Except as provided otherwise by statute,¹ in any case in which one of the parties is represented by court-appointed counsel,² the court on motion of the respondent may summarily affirm the judgment if the court concludes, after submission of the appellant's opening brief and without submission of the respondent's answering brief, that the appeal does not present a substantial question of law. The Chief Judge may deny a motion for summary affirmance and may grant an unopposed motion for summary affirmance. Only the court may grant, in the manner provided by ORS 2.570, a motion for summary affirmance to which the appellant has filed written opposition. A summary affirmance under this rule constitutes a decision on the merits of the appeal.

(2) If a motion for summary affirmance is filed under ORS 138.225, ORS 138.660, or ORS 34.712, or subsection (1) of this rule and counsel has filed a Balfour brief under ORAP 5.90 with a Section B or, with leave of the court, counsel's client has filed a supplemental pro se brief,³ counsel forthwith shall forward a copy of the motion for summary affirmance to the client. The client shall have 35 days after the date the motion for summary affirmance was filed to file an answer to the motion.

² For example, appeals in civil commitment cases under ORS chapters 426 or 427 and appeals arising from juvenile court under ORS 419A.200.

³ "Pro se" means "for oneself" or "on one's own behalf." A supplemental pro se brief is the product of the party himself or herself, and not of the attorney representing the party.

Rule 7.55
COURT OF APPEALS
APPELLATE COMMISSIONER

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this rule, the appellate commissioner for the Court of Appeals is delegated concurrent authority to decide motions and own motion matters that otherwise may be decided by the Chief Judge under ORS 2.570(6).¹ The appellate commissioner is delegated concurrent authority to decide any other matter that the Court of Appeals or Chief Judge lawfully may delegate for decision.

(2) The appellate commissioner does not have authority to decide a motion that would result in the disposition of a case on its merits, except as to:

(a) A joint or stipulated motion for a disposition on the merits, where the relief granted is consistent with the relief sought in the motion.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph(c) of this subsection, a motion to reverse and remand for new trial under ORS 19.420(3) due to loss or destruction of the trial court record.

(c) A motion for summary affirmance to the same extent that the Chief Judge could decide the motion under ORS 30.647(3), ORS 34.712, ORS 138.225, ORS 138.660, ORS 144.335(6), or any other statute authorizing summary affirmance.

(3) The appellate commissioner shall have the authority to refer any matter to the Chief Judge or the Motions Department, as appropriate.

(4) (a) A party may seek reconsideration of a decision of the appellate commissioner as provided by ORAP 6.25, with the exception that the provision of ORAP 6.25(1)(e) disfavoring claims addressing legal issues already argued by the parties or addressed by the court shall not apply to petitions or motions for reconsideration of a decision of the appellate commissioner. If a party files a petition or motion for reconsideration of a ruling by the appellate commissioner, the appellate commissioner may consider the matter in the first instance. The appellate commissioner shall have the authority to grant a request for reconsideration and modify or reverse the result. However, if the appellate commissioner would deny the request or grant the request and affirm the result, the commissioner shall forward the request to the Chief Judge or the Motions Department, as appropriate, for decision.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this subsection, a decision of the appellate commissioner is not subject to a petition for review in the Supreme Court, but the decision of the Chief Judge or the Motions Department on reconsideration of a ruling of the appellate commissioner is subject to a petition for review. ORAP 6.25(3) is not applicable to a ruling of the appellate commissioner.

(c) When the appellate commissioner makes a determination of appealability under ORS 19.235(3) and designates it as a summary determination as provided in ORAP 2.35(3)(a), the appellate commissioner's order is subject to a petition for review in the Supreme Court.

(5) As used in this rule, "own motion matter" includes but is not limited to an order to show cause why a case should not be dismissed for lack of jurisdiction or for lack of prosecution, an order of dismissal for lack of jurisdiction or lack of prosecution where the court has raised the ground for dismissal on its own motion, and an order for substitution of a public officer who is a party to the case where a new person has duly assumed the public office.

(6) As used in these rules, "Motions Department" means the Court of Appeals Motions Department.

¹ The Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals established the Appellate Commissioner Program by Chief Judge Order No. 08-04, dated March 5, 2008. The order may be viewed on the Oregon Judicial Department's website at <http://www.publications.ojd.state.or.us/CJOrder0804.pdf>.

8. MISCELLANEOUS RULES

Rule 8.05 SUBSTITUTION OF PARTIES IN CIVIL CASES; EFFECT OF DEATH OR ABSCONDING OF DEFENDANT IN CRIMINAL CASES

(1) Oregon Rule of Civil Procedure (ORCP) 34, relating to substitution of parties in civil cases, is adopted.

(2) (a) Any party who learns of the death of a defendant in a criminal case that is pending on appeal shall notify the court and all other parties of the death within 28 days after learning of the death. Any party may move to dismiss the appeal.

(b) If the appeal is from a judgment of conviction and sentence, the party filing the notice also may, concurrently with filing the notice of the defendant's death, file a memorandum addressing whether the court should dismiss the appeal or vacate the judgment, or both. Within 28 days after the filing of the notice of the defendant's death, any other party or interested person may file a memorandum addressing the same issues.

(c) The following are presumptive dispositions under this subsection:

(i) For a state's appeal, the court will dismiss the appeal.

(ii) For a defendant's appeal, if the defendant has made an assignment of error that, if successful, would result in reversal of the conviction, the court will vacate the judgment and dismiss the appeal.

(iii) For a defendant's appeal, if the defendant has assigned error only to a part of the sentence other than a monetary provision, the court will dismiss the appeal but will not vacate the judgment. If the defendant has assigned error to a monetary provision of the sentence, the court will dismiss the appeal and vacate the challenged monetary provision, but will not vacate the remainder of the judgment.

(iv) Notwithstanding subparagraphs (ii) and (iii) of this paragraph, if the defendant dies after issuance of a Court of Appeals decision affirming the judgment and after all right to petition for review has expired, the court will dismiss the appeal but will not vacate the judgment.

(3) If a defendant in a criminal case, a petitioner in a post-conviction relief proceeding, a plaintiff in a habeas corpus proceeding, a petitioner in a parole review proceeding, or a petitioner in a prison disciplinary case, on appeal of an adverse decision, escapes or absconds from custody or supervision, the respondent on appeal may move for dismissal of the appeal. If the appellant is not in custody or under supervision at the time the motion is decided by the court, the court may dismiss the appeal or judicial review.

Rule 8.10
WITHDRAWAL, SUBSTITUTION, AND ASSOCIATION OF ATTORNEYS ON APPEAL

(1) During the pendency of an appeal, an attorney may not withdraw from or substitute new counsel in a case except on order of the appellate court. A motion to withdraw or substitute new counsel must be filed and served on the client and every other party to the appeal, and is subject to ORS 9.380(1)(b) and ORS 9.390.

(2) Except as provided in ORAP 8.12, unless it appears otherwise from the record, the court will presume that good and sufficient cause exists for substitution of counsel if both attorneys sign the motion for substitution of counsel. On filing of the motion for substitution of counsel in proper form and bearing the signatures of both attorneys, the substitution shall be deemed to have been ordered by the appellate court.

(3) An attorney who associates another attorney from a different firm on appeal shall file a notice of association with the appellate court, accompanied by proof of service on every other party to the appeal.

(4) An attorney admitted to the practice of law in another jurisdiction, but not in Oregon, may appear by brief and argue the cause in a proceeding before an appellate court in the manner prescribed in UTCR 3.170.¹

¹ See ORS 9.241; see also ORAP 6.10(4) concerning appearing for oral argument only.

Rule 8.12
APPOINTMENT, WITHDRAWAL, AND SUBSTITUTION OF COURT-APPOINTED COUNSEL OR LEGAL ADVISOR ON APPEAL

(1) (a) During the pendency of an appeal, withdrawal or substitution of court-appointed counsel is subject to ORAP 8.10(1).

(b) A court-appointed attorney shall have no obligation to move to withdraw or substitute counsel at the client's request unless the attorney has a good faith basis for the motion.

(2) (a) If court-appointed counsel of record wishes to substitute another court-appointed attorney as counsel for a party, counsel of record first must consult with the Office of Public Defense Services regarding the need for a substitution and who should be substituted as new counsel. Thereafter, if counsel of record files a motion for substitution, in addition to satisfying the service requirements provided in ORAP 8.10(1), counsel of record shall serve a copy of the motion on the Office of Public Defense Services. Upon expiration of seven days after the date of filing the motion, unless it appears otherwise from the record, the court will presume that good and sufficient cause exists for substitution of counsel and the substitution shall be deemed to have been ordered by the court if:

(i) Counsel of record has signed the substitution;

(ii) The new attorney to be substituted as counsel for a party has been determined by the Office of Public Defense Services to be qualified for the type of case in which the motion for substitution is filed; and

(iii) No objection is filed to the proposed substitution.

(b) If, after consultation by counsel of record with the Office of Public Defense Services, the Office of Public Defense Services does not concur with the need for substitution of counsel or does not approve the attorney to be substituted into the case, counsel of record may file a motion for substitution of counsel. Any such motion must satisfy the service requirements of subsection (1) of ORAP 8.10, must include proof of service on the Office of Public Defense Services, and is subject to ORAP 7.05 and any other rule relating to motions generally.¹

(3) (a) If the client of a court-appointed attorney moves to appoint new counsel based on the client's dissatisfaction with professional services rendered by the attorney, the client shall file the motion in the appellate court and serve the motion on the court-appointed attorney.

(b) If a party has a statutory or constitutional right to be represented by court-appointed counsel, the filing of any motion that would result in the party proceeding on appeal or review without counsel constitutes an attempt to waive the right to counsel.²

(c) If the court declines to accept a party's attempt to waive counsel, the court shall give the party an opportunity to file a supplemental pro se brief as provided in ORAP 5.92(2) and (3).³

(4) To the extent practicable, the provisions of this rule are applicable to a legal advisor appointed under ORS 135.045(1)(d).⁴

¹ See ORS 138.500(2)(d) regarding substitution of counsel pursuant to the policies and procedures of the Public Defense Services Commission; Public Defense Payment Policies and Procedure 1.7 (Substitution of Appointed Counsel).

² See ORS 135.045(1)(c) regarding waiver of counsel in criminal cases generally and in death sentence cases. See ORS 138.504 regarding waiver of court-appointed counsel on appeal in criminal cases. See also Hendricks v. Zenon, 993 F2d 664, 668-71 (9th Cir 1993), regarding waiver of the right to counsel on appeal in criminal cases.

³ "Pro se" means "for oneself" or "on one's own behalf." A supplemental pro se brief is the product of the party himself or herself, and not of the attorney representing the party.

⁴ See ORS 135.045(1)(d) regarding appointment of a legal advisor for a defendant in a criminal case who waives the right to counsel.

Rule 8.15 AMICUS CURIAE

(1) A person¹ may appear as amicus curiae in any case pending before the appellate court only by permission of the appellate court on written application setting forth the interest of the person in the case. The application shall state whether the applicant intends to present a private interest of its own or to present a position as to the correct rule of law that does not affect a private interest of its own. The application shall not contain argument on the resolution of the case.

(2) The application shall be submitted by an active member of the Oregon State Bar. A filing fee is not required. The form of the application shall comply with ORAP 7.10(1) and (2) and the applicant shall file the original and one copy of the application. A copy of the application shall be served on all parties to the proceeding.

(3) In the Court of Appeals, the application to appear amicus curiae may, but need not, be accompanied by the brief the applicant would file if permitted to appear. In the Supreme Court, the application shall be accompanied by the brief sought to be filed. The form of an amicus brief and the number of copies of the brief shall be subject to the same rules as those governing briefs of parties.²

(4) In the Court of Appeals, unless the court grants leave otherwise for good cause shown, an amicus brief shall be due seven days after the date the brief is due of the party with whom amicus curiae is aligned or, if amicus curiae is not aligned with any party, seven days after the date the opening brief is due.

(5) With respect to cases in the Supreme Court on petition for review from the Court of Appeals:

(a) A person wishing to appear amicus curiae may seek to appear in support of or in opposition to a petition for review, on the merits of the case on review, or both.

(b) Unless the court grants leave otherwise for good cause shown, an application to appear amicus curiae in support of or in opposition to a petition for review shall be filed within 14 days after the filing of a petition for review.

(c) Unless the court grants leave otherwise for good cause shown, an application to appear amicus curiae on the merits of a case on review shall be filed:

(i) On the date the brief is due of the party on review with whom amicus curiae is aligned,

(ii) On the date the petitioner's brief on the merits on review is due, if amicus curiae is not aligned with any party on review,³ or

(iii) Within 28 days after review is allowed, if petitioner on review has filed a notice that petitioner does not intend to file a brief on the merits or has filed no notice, regardless of the alignment of amicus curiae.

(d) If a person filing an application to appear amicus curiae wishes to file one brief in support of or in opposition to a petition for review and on the merits of the case, the application and brief shall be filed within the same time that an application to appear in support of or in opposition to a petition for review would be filed. If a person has been granted permission to appear amicus curiae in support of or in opposition to a petition for review and the Supreme Court allows review, the person may file an amicus curiae brief on the merits without further leave of the court.

(e) If a party obtains an extension of time to file a petition for review, a response to a petition for review or a brief on the merits and if an amicus curiae brief was due on the same date as the petition, response or brief on the merits, the time for filing the amicus curiae brief is automatically extended to the same date.

(6) Except as provided in ORAP 11.30(7), with respect to cases in the Supreme Court on direct review or direct appeal, or other proceedings not subject to subsection (5), amicus curiae briefs shall be due as provided in subsection (4) of this rule.

(7) Amicus curiae may file a memorandum of additional authorities under the same circumstances that a party could file a memorandum of additional authorities under ORAP 5.85.

(8) Amicus curiae shall not be allowed to orally argue the case, unless the court specifically authorizes or directs oral argument.⁴

(9) The State of Oregon may appear as amicus curiae in any case in the Supreme Court and Court of Appeals without permission of the court. The state shall comply with all the requirements for appearing amicus curiae, including the time within which to appear under subsections (4), (5), and (6) of this rule. If the state is not aligned with any party, the state's amicus curiae brief shall be due on the same date as the respondent's brief.

¹ As used in this rule, "person" includes an organization.

² See ORAP 5.05 to 5.30, ORAP 5.52, ORAP 5.77, ORAP 5.95, ORAP 9.05, ORAP 9.10, and ORAP 9.17 concerning requirements for briefs.

⁴ See ORAP 6.10 concerning oral argument.

EFFECT OF BANKRUPTCY PETITION

(1) Whenever a party by notice, with proof of service on all other parties to the case, shows that a case on appeal is subject to the stay provisions of 11 USC § 362(a)(1)¹ (relating to bankruptcy proceedings), the court shall enter an order holding the appeal in abeyance and hold the appeal in abeyance until it is shown to the court's satisfaction that the stay has been lifted or that 11 USC § 362(a)(1) is not applicable to the case.

(2) If a petition in bankruptcy is filed after entry of a judgment or final order but before a notice of appeal or petition for judicial review is filed and the adverse party desires to appeal, the notice or petition must nonetheless be filed within the time provided by statute or rule.

(3) If an appellant believes that a pending bankruptcy proceeding involving a party to the judgment being appealed should stay the appeal pending disposition of the bankruptcy proceeding, the notice of appeal or petition for judicial review shall contain, in addition to all other requirements under a statute or these rules, a statement identifying the party that has filed a petition in bankruptcy and a request to hold the appeal in abeyance on account of the bankruptcy proceeding.

(4) (a) Whether the petition in bankruptcy is filed after judgment or final order but before a notice of appeal or petition for judicial review is filed, or after a notice or petition is filed, the appellate court will not exercise jurisdiction as to the debtor party as long as the stay under 11 USC § 362 remains in effect.

(b) If more than one creditor and debtor are parties to the case on appeal and the presence of the debtor subject to the bankruptcy petition is necessary to resolve on appeal the claims of the other parties, then the appellate court will not exercise jurisdiction of the entire cause as long as the stay under 11 USC § 362 remains in effect.

¹ The filing of a petition in bankruptcy under 11 USC §§ 301, 302, or 303 operates as a stay as to all entities, of:

"the commencement or continuation, including the issuance or employment of process, of a judicial, administrative, or other proceeding against the debtor that was or could have been commenced before the commencement of the case under this title, or to recover a claim against the debtor that arose before the commencement of the case under this title * * *."

11 USC § 362(a)(1).

MOTION UNDER ORCP 71 FOR RELIEF FROM JUDGMENT

(1) If the copy of a motion for relief from judgment under ORCP 71 A or ORCP 71 B required to be served on the appellate court¹ is not entitled "MOTION FOR RELIEF FROM JUDGMENT UNDER ORCP 71," it shall be accompanied by a letter of transmittal identifying the motion as a motion for relief under ORCP 71 A or ORCP 71 B.

(2) When a party has filed a motion for relief from judgment under ORCP 71 A or ORCP 71 B while the judgment is on appeal, the appellate court will decide whether to hold the appeal in abeyance pending disposition of the motion or to allow the appeal to go forward. Any party to the appeal may move the court to hold the appeal in abeyance or to allow the appeal to go forward. In the absence of a motion from a party, the court on its own motion will review the motion for relief from judgment, decide whether to hold the appeal in abeyance and notify the parties if it decides to do so. If the court does not order the appeal to be held in abeyance, the appeal will go forward.

(3) A party wishing to appeal an order deciding a motion filed under ORCP 71 A or ORCP 71 B during the pendency of an appeal shall file a notice of appeal within the time and in the manner prescribed in ORS chapter 19. The notice of appeal as filed shall bear the same appellate case number assigned to the original notice of appeal.

(4) If the appellate court holds an appeal in abeyance pending disposition of a motion under ORCP 71 A or ORCP 71 B and subsequently receives a copy of the trial court's order deciding the motion, the appellate court shall decide whether to reactivate the case or take other action after expiration of the period within which an appeal from the order may be filed.

Rule 8.27
MODIFICATION OF JUDGMENT OF DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE DURING PENDENCY OF APPEAL

(1) During the pendency of an appeal from a judgment of dissolution of marriage, if it comes to the attention of the court that a party has filed a motion under ORS 19.275(1) to modify the judgment of dissolution of marriage, including a motion to reconsider spousal or child support provisions of a judgment pursuant to ORS 107.135, the appellate court may hold the appeal in abeyance pending disposition of the motion or allow the appeal to go forward. Any party to the appeal may move the court to hold the appeal in abeyance or to allow the appeal to go forward. In the absence of a motion from a party, the court on its own motion may review the motion filed in the trial court, decide whether to hold the appeal in abeyance and notify the parties if it decides to do so. If the court does not order the appeal to be held in abeyance, the appeal will go forward.

(2) A party wishing to appeal the trial court's final decision on a motion under ORS 19.275 during the pendency of an appeal shall file a notice of appeal within the time and in the manner prescribed in ORS chapter 19. The notice of appeal as filed shall bear the same appellate case number assigned to the original notice of appeal.

(3) If the appellate court holds an appeal in abeyance pending disposition of a motion under ORS 19.275(1) and subsequently receives a copy of the trial court's final decision, the appellate court shall decide whether to reactivate the appeal or take other action after expiration of the period within which an appeal from the final decision may be filed. If a timely appeal from the final decision on a motion under ORS 19.275 is filed, the court may direct that both appeals be heard at the same time or may allow the appeals to proceed independently of one another.

Rule 8.28
CORRECTED, SUPPLEMENTAL, OR NEW JUDGMENTS IN CRIMINAL CASES AFTER NOTICE OF APPEAL FILED

(1) After a notice of appeal is filed in a criminal case, if either the state or the defendant files a motion in the trial court for entry of a corrected or supplemental judgment, the party filing the motion shall transmit a copy of the motion to the appellate court.¹

(2) (a) If the trial court enters a corrected or supplemental judgment on motion of a party or on its own motion, a party wishing to appeal the corrected or supplemental judgment shall file an amended notice of appeal within the time and in the manner prescribed in ORS chapter 138 and shall use the appellate case number assigned to the appeal from the original judgment. The amended notice of appeal shall state when the party received notice of entry of the corrected or supplemental judgment.

(b) If the trial court enters a corrected or supplemental judgment and the appellant no longer wishes to pursue the original appeal, the appellant shall file a motion to dismiss the appeal.

(c) If the trial court denies a motion for entry of a corrected or supplemental judgment subject to subsection (1) of this rule, the party who filed the motion shall notify the Administrator in writing and within seven days after the date of entry of the trial court's order and shall attach a copy of the order denying the motion.

(3) When a party has filed a motion subject to subsection (1) of this rule, pending a final ruling on the motion by the trial court, the appellate court, on motion of a party or on its own motion, may order that the appeal be held in abeyance. If an order is entered holding the appeal in abeyance, when the court receives notice under subsection (2) of this rule that the trial court has entered a corrected or supplemental judgment or a final order disposing of the motion, the appellate court shall reactivate the appeal or issue such other order as may be appropriate.

Rule 8.30 DISQUALIFICATION OF JUDGE

(1) If a party or counsel for a party discovers that a sitting Court of Appeals or Supreme Court judge participated in the case in the proceedings being appealed or reviewed, the party or counsel shall notify the Administrator by letter of the judge's participation as soon as possible after discovering the judge's participation.

(2) The duty of a party or counsel to notify the Administrator of a sitting appellate judge's previous participation in the proceeding includes, in post-conviction relief and habeas corpus cases, the underlying criminal proceeding.

(3) (a) In addition to the notice required by subsection (1) of this rule, a party or attorney for a party in a case before the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals may move to disqualify a judge of the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals for one or more of the grounds specified in ORS 14.210, or upon the ground that the judge's participation in the case would violate the Oregon Code of Judicial Conduct. The motion shall be filed as soon as practicable after the party or attorney learns of the ground for disqualification.

(b) (i) The Administrator shall forward a copy of the motion to the judge against whom the motion is directed without waiting for an answer to the motion. The judge may grant the motion with or without an answer having been filed. If the judge does not believe that the motion is well taken, the judge shall refer the motion to the presiding judge for decision. The judge's referral may be accompanied by any written response the judge may wish to make. If the judge accompanies the referral with written response, the judge shall provide the parties with a copy of the written comments. The presiding judge may rule on the motion or may refer the motion to the full court for a decision.

(ii) In the Court of Appeals, "presiding judge" means the Chief Judge, unless the motion to disqualify is directed at the Chief Judge, in which case "presiding judge" means the next senior judge available to rule on the motion. In the Supreme Court, "presiding judge" means the Chief Justice, unless the motion to disqualify is directed at the Chief Justice, in which case "presiding judge" means the next senior judge available to rule on the motion.

Rule 8.35 MEDIA COVERAGE OF APPELLATE COURT PROCEEDINGS

(1) As used in this rule, "judge presiding in a proceeding" means the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals, or the justice or judge presiding in a public proceeding in the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals, as appropriate.

(2) The judge presiding in a proceeding shall have the authority and responsibility to control the conduct of proceedings before the court, insure decorum and prevent distractions, and insure the fair administration of justice in proceedings before the court. Subject to that authority and responsibility, radio, television, and still photography coverage of public judicial proceedings in the appellate courts shall be allowed in accordance with this rule.

(3) Where available, audio pickup for all media purposes shall be accomplished from existing audio systems present in the courtroom, except if the audio pickup is attached to and operated as part of a television or videotape camera. If no technically suitable audio system exists in the courtroom, microphones and related wiring essential for media purposes shall be unobtrusive and shall be located in places designated in advance of the proceeding by the judge presiding in the proceeding.

(4) One still photographer, utilizing not more than two still cameras and related equipment, and one television or videotape camera operator shall be permitted to cover any public proceeding in an appellate court. The judge presiding in the proceeding shall designate:

(a) Where in the courtroom the photographer or television or videotape camera operator shall be positioned; and

(b) Where outside the courtroom videotape recording equipment that is not part of the television or videotape camera shall be positioned.

(5) Microphones and cameras shall be placed in the courtroom before proceedings each day or during a recess and, once positioned, shall not be moved during the proceeding. Microphones and cameras shall be removed only after adjournment of proceedings each day or during a recess. Broadcast media representatives shall not move about the courtroom while proceedings are in session.

(6) (a) Audio and photographic equipment that produces distracting sound or light shall not be used, nor shall artificial lighting device of any kind be used. Broadcast media representatives shall eliminate all excessive noise while in the courtroom; e.g., any equipment coverings or cassette cases should be removed or opened before being brought into the courtroom and may not be replaced or closed inside the courtroom. Television film magazines (as distinct from videotape) and still camera film or lenses shall not be changed in the courtroom except during a recess.

(b) The judge presiding in the proceedings may require any media representative intending to cover the proceeding to demonstrate adequately in advance of the proceeding that the equipment that will be used meets the light and sound standards of this rule.

(7) "Pooling" arrangements required by the limitations of this rule on media equipment and personnel shall be the sole responsibility of the media without calling on the judge presiding in the proceeding to mediate any dispute as to the appropriate representative or equipment authorized to cover a particular proceeding. In the absence of advance media agreement on disputed equipment or personnel issues, the judge presiding in the proceeding shall exclude all radio, television and still photography coverage.

(8) Media representatives attending an appellate court proceeding shall be dressed so as not to detract from the dignity of the court and may be removed from the courtroom for failure to wear appropriate attire.

Rule 8.40 REVIEW OF TRIAL COURT RULINGS AFFECTING APPEAL

During the pendency of an appeal, if the trial court rules on a matter affecting the appeal,¹ any party aggrieved by the trial court's ruling may request, by motion filed within 14 days after the date of entry of the trial court's ruling, that the appellate court review the trial court's ruling and grant appropriate relief. The appellate court may review the ruling of the trial court on a matter affecting an appeal as necessary to decide a matter before the court.

With respect to undertakings and stays on appeal, see ORS 19.360 (providing for appellate review and prescribing time within which to move for appellate review of trial court orders relating to undertakings and stays on appeal, prescribing the standard of the court's review, and prescribing the scope of relief the appellate court may grant generally); ORS 19.300 (amount of undertaking for costs on appeal); ORS 19.305 (qualifications of sureties and objections to sufficiency of an undertaking); ORS 19.310 (approval of stipulations dispensing with undertaking requirements and waiver, reduction, or limitation of undertaking for good cause); ORS 19.335 (supersedeas undertakings); ORS 19.340 (sale of perishable property); ORS 19.350 (discretionary stays); and ORS 19.355 (stays in domestic relations cases).

Rule 8.45
DUTY TO SERVE NOTICE OR FILE MOTION ON OCCURRENCE OF EVENT
RENDERING APPEAL MOOT

Except as to facts the disclosure of which is barred by the attorney-client privilege, when a party becomes aware of facts that probably render an appeal moot,¹ that party shall provide notice of the facts to the court and to the other party or parties to the appeal, and may file a motion to dismiss the appeal. If a party becomes aware of facts that probably render an appeal moot and fails promptly to inform the other party or parties to the appeal and the court dismisses the appeal as moot, the court, on motion of the aggrieved party, may award costs and attorney fees incurred by the aggrieved party incurred after notice should have been given of the facts probably rendering the appeal moot, payable by the party who had knowledge of the facts.

¹ For example, the death of the defendant in a criminal case, the release from custody of the plaintiff in a habeas corpus case, or settlement of a civil case.

Rule 8.50
SEGREGATION OF PROTECTED PERSONAL INFORMATION

- (1) For purposes of this rule, "protected personal information" is information that:

(a) Identifies a person beyond that person's name (e.g., Social Security number, maiden name, driver license number, birth date and location) or identifies a person's financial activities (e.g., credit card number, credit report, bank account number or location); and

(b) The appellate court is permitted to maintain as confidential and not subject to public inspection.

(2) (a) A person or entity required to file a document in the appellate court that contains protected personal information may submit that information on a separate document together with a motion describing the information and requesting that the appellate court keep the separate document segregated from the appellate court file. The moving party shall serve a copy of the motion on all other parties to the appeal, review, or other proceeding. During the pendency of the motion, the separate document will not be available for public inspection.

(b) A person or entity who has filed a document in the appellate court that contains protected personal information may submit a motion to replace the document with a document that redacts the protected personal information and requesting that the appellate court keep the original document segregated from the appellate court file. The moving party shall submit the proposed redacted document with the motion. The moving party shall serve a copy of the motion and the proposed redacted document on all other parties to the appeal, review, or other proceeding. During the pendency of the motion, the document containing protected personal information will not be available for public inspection.¹

(3) If the court grants the motion, then the court will segregate the document containing protected personal information from the appellate court file. The motion will remain in the appellate court file. Any request for public inspection of such a document containing protected personal information must be made in writing, filed with the appellate court, and served on all other parties to the appeal, review, or other proceeding.

See Oregon Laws 2003, chapter 380, adopting ORS 107.840 and amending other statutes and protecting the confidentiality of Social Security numbers; see also ORAP 1.35(1)(b) concerning requirement that parties with contact information that is shielded by law or court order provide appellate courts with alternative contact information that may be made available for public inspection.

Rule 8.55
CRIMINAL CONVICTION SET ASIDES;
DELINQUENCY ADJUDICATION EXPUNGEMENTS

If a circuit court sets aside the conviction of a party in a criminal case under ORS 137.225 or expunges the delinquency adjudication in a juvenile court case under ORS 419A.262 and the party wishes to have the appellate court record sealed, the party must provide the Administrator with a true and complete copy of the circuit court order. After taking such steps as appropriate to confirm the validity of the order:

(1) If the circuit court order sets aside all convictions or expunges all delinquency adjudications in the case, the Administrator will seal the appellate court record and modify the version of the court's opinion published on the Judicial Department's website to avoid use of the party's name in the case title and body of the opinion.*

(2) If a circuit court order sets aside fewer than all convictions or adjudications in a case, the Administrator will not seal the appellate court record, but may modify the version of the court's opinion published on the Judicial Department's web site to avoid use of the party's name in the case title and body of the opinion.*

* Appellate court opinions also are published in the softbound Oregon Appellate Courts Advance Sheets and thereafter in the hardbound Oregon Reports. The version of an opinion in those publications cannot be modified after publication. Appellate court opinions also are collected and published, in book form or electronically or both, by various persons and entities, including private legal research entities. The court has no control over whether those persons and entities will honor the court's post-publication modification of an opinion.

9. PETITION FOR REVIEW AND RECONSIDERATION IN SUPREME COURT

Rule 9.05
PETITION FOR SUPREME COURT REVIEW OF COURT OF APPEALS DECISION

(1) Reviewable Decisions

As used in this rule, "decision" means a decision of the Court of Appeals in the form of an opinion, per curiam opinion, or affirmance without opinion, or an order ruling on a motion, own motion matter, petition for attorney fees, or statement of costs and disbursements, including an order of the appellate commissioner together with the decision of the Chief Judge or Motions Department under ORAP 7.55(4)(b) or an order of the appellate commissioner under ORAP 7.55(4)(c).

(2) Time for Filing and for Submitting Petition for Review

(a) Except as provided in ORS 19.235(3) and ORAP 2.35(4), any party seeking to obtain review of a decision of the Court of Appeals shall file a petition for review in the Supreme Court within 35 days after the date of the decision of the Court of Appeals.¹ The Supreme Court may grant an extension of time to file a petition for review.

(b) (i) If a timely petition for reconsideration of a decision of the Court of Appeals is filed by any party, the time for filing a petition for review concerning that decision for all parties shall not begin to run until the Court of Appeals issues its written disposition of the petition for reconsideration. If a party obtains an extension of time to file a petition for reconsideration and does not file a petition for reconsideration within the time allowed, the time for filing a petition for review shall begin to run on expiration of the extension of time.

(ii) If a petition for review is filed during the time in which a petition for reconsideration in the Court of Appeals may be filed, the petition for review will not be submitted to the Supreme Court until the time for filing a petition for reconsideration expires.

(iii) If a petition for review is filed after the filing of a timely petition for reconsideration, the petition for review will not be submitted to the Supreme Court until the Court of Appeals issues its written disposition of the petition for reconsideration.²

(c) (i) If a party files a petition for review after the appellate judgment has issued, the party must file with the petition a motion to recall the appellate judgment. The petition and the motion must be filed within a reasonable time after the appellate judgment has issued. The motion to recall the appellate judgment must explain why the petition for review was not timely filed. The party need not file a separate motion for relief from default.

(ii) A party filing a motion to recall the appellate judgment in a criminal case, in addition to serving all other parties to the appeal, shall serve a copy of the motion on the district attorney.

(3) Form and Service of Petition for Review

(a) The petition shall be in the form of a brief prepared in conformity with ORAP 5.05 and ORAP 5.35. For purposes of ORAP 5.05, the petition must not exceed 5,000 words or (if the certification under ORAP 5.05(2)(d) certifies that the preparer does not have access to a word-processing system that provides a word count) 15 pages. The cover of the petition shall:

(i) Identify which party is the petitioner on review, including the name of the specific party or parties on whose behalf the petition is filed, if there are multiple parties on the same side in the case.

(ii) Identify which party is the respondent on review.

(iii) Identify the date of the decision of the Court of Appeals.

(iv) Identify the means of disposition of the case by the Court of Appeals:

(A) If by opinion, the author of the challenged opinion and the other members of the court who concurred in or dissented from the court's decision;

(B) If by per curiam opinion, affirmance without opinion, or by order, the members of the court who decided the case.³

(v) Contain a notice whether, if review is allowed, the petitioner on review intends to file a brief on the merits or to rely on the petition for review and brief or briefs filed in the Court of Appeals.⁴

(vi) For a case expedited under ORAP 10.15, prominently display the words "JUVENILE DEPENDENCY CASE EXPEDITED UNDER ORAP 10.15," "TERMINATION OF PARENTAL RIGHTS CASE EXPEDITED UNDER ORAP 10.15," or "ADOPTION CASE EXPEDITED UNDER ORAP 10.15," as appropriate.

(vii) Comply with the requirements in ORAP 5.95 governing briefs containing confidential material.

(b) Any party filing a petition for review shall serve two copies of the petition on every other party to the appeal or judicial review, and file with the Administrator an original petition, marked as such, and 12 copies, together with proof of service.

(4) Contents of Petition for Review

The petition shall contain in order:

(a) A short statement of the historical and procedural facts relevant to the review, but facts correctly stated in the decision of the Court of Appeals should not be restated.

(b) Concise statements of the legal question or questions presented on review and of the rule of law that the petitioner on review proposes be established, if review is allowed.

(c) A statement of specific reasons why the legal question or questions presented on review have importance beyond the particular case and require decision by the Supreme Court.⁵

(d) If desired, and space permitting, a brief argument concerning the legal question or questions presented on review.

(e) A copy of the decision of the Court of Appeals, including the court's opinion and any concurring and dissenting opinions.

¹ See generally ORS 2.520. See ORAP 7.25(2) regarding information that must be included in a motion for extension of time to file a petition for review.

² Paragraph (2)(b) of this rule does not apply to a motion for reconsideration filed under ORAP 6.25(5).

³ See Appendix 9.05.

⁴ See ORAP 9.17 regarding briefs on the merits.

See ORAP 5.90(5) regarding filing a petition for review where a "Balfour" brief was filed on behalf of the appellant in the Court of Appeals.

CRITERIA FOR GRANTING DISCRETIONARY REVIEW

The Supreme Court considers the items set out below to be relevant to the decision whether to grant discretionary review. These criteria are published to inform and assist the bar and the public. They are neither exclusive nor binding. The court retains the inherent authority to allow or deny any petition for review. A petition for review may refer to those items that are relevant to the case and need not address each listed item.¹

(1) Whether the case presents a significant issue of law. A significant issue of law may include, for example:

- (a) The interpretation of a constitutional provision,
- (b) The interpretation of a statute,
- (c) The constitutionality of a statute,
- (d) The legality of an important governmental action,
- (e) The use or effect of a rule of trial court procedure,
- (f) The jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals or the trial court, or
- (g) The application or proposed modification of a principle of common law.

(2) Whether the issue or a similar issue arises often.

(3) Whether many people are affected by the decision in the case. Whether the consequence of the decision is important to the public, even if the issue may not arise often.

(4) Whether the legal issue is an issue of state law.

(5) Whether the issue is one of first impression for the Supreme Court.

(6) Whether the same or a related issue is pending before the Supreme Court.

(7) Whether the legal issue is properly preserved, and whether the case is free from factual disputes or procedural obstacles that might prevent the Supreme Court from reaching the legal issue.

(8) Whether the record does, in fact, present the desired issue.

(9) Whether present case law is inconsistent (among Court of Appeals cases, between Court of Appeals cases and Supreme Court cases, or among Supreme Court cases).

(10) Whether it appears that trial courts or administrative agencies are inconsistent or confused in ruling on the issue that the case presents.

(11) Whether the Court of Appeals published a written opinion.

(12) Whether the Court of Appeals was divided on the case.

(13) Whether the Court of Appeals decided the case en banc.

(14) Whether the Court of Appeals decision appears to be wrong. If the decision appears to be wrong:

(a) Whether the error results in a serious or irreversible injustice or in a distortion or misapplication of a legal principle.

(b) Whether the error can be corrected by another branch of government, such as by legislation or rulemaking.

(15) Whether the issues are well presented in the briefs.

(16) Whether an amicus curiae has appeared, or is available to advise the court.

Rule 9.10 RESPONSE TO PETITION FOR REVIEW

(1) A party to an appeal or judicial review in the Court of Appeals may, but need not, file a response to a petition for review. The response may include the party's contingent request for review of any question properly before the Court of Appeals in the event that the court grants the petition for review. In the absence of a response, the party's brief in the Court of Appeals will be considered as the response.

(2) A response to a petition for review is due within 14 days after the petition for review is filed.

(3) A response shall be in the form of a brief prepared in conformity with ORAP 5.05 and ORAP 5.35. For purposes of ORAP 5.05, the response must not exceed 5,000 words or (if the certification under ORAP 5.05(2)(d) certifies that the preparer does not have access to a word-processing system that provides a word count) 15 pages. The cover of a response shall be orange. Any party filing a response shall file with the Administrator one response, marked as the original, and 12 copies, serve two copies of the response on every other party to the review, and file proof of service.

Rule 9.17
BRIEFS ON THE MERITS ON REVIEW

(1) After the Supreme Court allows review, the parties to the case on review may file briefs on the merits of the case, as provided in this rule. A respondent may file a brief on the merits on review even if the petitioner on review elects not to do so.

(2) (a) If a petitioner on review has given notice of intent to file a brief on the merits as provided in ORAP 9.05(3)(a)(v), the petitioner shall have 28 days after the date that the Supreme Court allows review to file the brief.

(b) The petitioner's brief on the merits on review shall contain:

(i) Concise statements of the legal question or questions presented on review and of the rule of law that petitioner proposes be established. The questions should not be argumentative or repetitious. The phrasing of the questions need not be identical with any statement of questions presented in the petition for review, but the brief may not raise additional questions or change the substance of the questions already presented.

(ii) A concise statement of:

(A) The nature of the action or proceeding, the relief sought in the trial court, and the nature of the judgment rendered by the trial court; and

(B) All the facts of the case material to determination of the review, in narrative form with references to the places in the record where the facts appear.

(iii) A summary of the argument.

(iv) The argument.

(v) A conclusion, specifying with particularity the relief which the party seeks.

(c) The petitioner's brief on the merits on review shall conform to ORAP 5.05, ORAP 5.35, ORAP 5.95, and ORAP 9.05(3), except that the cover of the brief shall be white.

(3) (a) The respondent's brief on the merits on review shall be filed within these time limits:

(i) If petitioner files a brief on the merits on review, respondent's brief on the merits on review is due within 28 days thereafter;

(ii) If petitioner gives notice of intent to file a brief on the merits on review but ultimately either does not do so or does not do so within the time allowed, respondent's brief on the merits on review is due within 28 days after the date on which petitioner's brief on the merits on review was due;

(iii) If petitioner either has failed to give notice of intent to file a brief on the merits on review as provided in ORAP 9.05(3)(a)(v) or has given notice of intent not to file a brief on the merits on review, respondent's brief on the merits on review is due within 28 days after review is allowed.

(b) Items required by paragraph (2)(b) of this rule need not be included in respondent's brief on the merits on review unless respondent is dissatisfied with their presentation in petitioner's brief on the merits on review.

(c) The respondent's brief on the merits on review shall conform to ORAP 5.05, ORAP 5.35, and ORAP 5.95, except that the cover of a brief shall be tan.

(4) In complex cases, such as cases with multiple parties, multiple petitions, or both, the parties may confer and suggest an alternative briefing schedule as provided in ORAP 5.80(8).

(5) The original of each brief, marked as such, and 12 copies, shall be filed with the Administrator, together with proof of service. Two copies of the brief shall be served on each party to the review.

(6) Any party filing a brief on the merits on review, including any intervenor and any person who has been granted permission to appear amicus curiae, shall submit a copy of the brief on the merits on review in electronic form in addition to complying with the filing and service requirements in subsection (4).¹ A party who electronically files a brief using the appellate courts' eFiling system, pursuant to chapter 16 of these rules, is exempt from the requirements of this section. A person confined in a state institution and not represented by counsel who is filing a brief on the merits is exempt from the requirements of this subsection. Any party who lacks the technological capability to comply with this subsection may file a motion to be relieved from the requirements of this subsection at the same time that the party files its brief on the merits on review.

(a) The filing party shall submit the electronic form of the brief on the merits on review in Portable Document Format (PDF) configured at a resolution of 300 dpi and attach the electronic form of the brief to an e-mail sent to briefs@ojd.state.or.us. The subject line of the e-mail shall contain the case title and Supreme Court case number as assigned by the Administrator in substantially the following format: "Doe v. Smith, SC _____." The e-mail address is to be used for the purpose of submitting an electronic brief on the merits on review only. The Administrator will not respond to any e-mail sent to this address. Submission of any document by e-mail to this address will not constitute compliance with any other filing, service, or submission requirement of these rules.

(b) The electronic form of the brief on the merits on review shall be identical in content and format to the printed form of the brief. The filing party shall include in the electronic form of the brief on the merits on review the excerpt of record and appendices to the brief unless the filing party lacks the technological capability to convert the excerpt of record or appendices into electronic form. A party who submits an electronic version of a brief on the merits on review without the excerpt of record or appendices shall inform the court in the body of the transmittal e-mail that the party lacks the technological capability to convert the excerpt of record or appendices into electronic form.

(c) Except as provided in ORAP 5.95(6), if a brief on the merits on review contains material that is, by statute, rule, or court order, confidential or exempt from disclosure, the filing party shall provide both a redacted version and an unredacted version in separate attachments.² The filing party should name the attachments so as to allow easy identification of each version.

(d) The filing party shall submit the electronic form of the brief on the merits on review via e-mail on the same day that the filing party mails or delivers the brief to the Administrator.

(e) The filing party shall certify that the e-mail attachment containing the electronic form of the brief on the merits on review has been scanned for viruses and that it is virus-free.

² See ORAP 5.95.

ALLOWANCE OF REVIEW
BY SUPREME COURT

(1) A petition for review of a decision of the Court of Appeals shall be allowed if one less than a majority of the judges eligible to vote on the petition vote to allow it.

(2) If the Supreme Court allows a petition for review, the court may limit the questions on review. If review is not so limited, the questions before the Supreme Court include all questions properly before the Court of Appeals that the petition or the response claims were erroneously decided by that court. The Supreme Court's opinion need not address each such question. The court may consider other issues that were before the Court of Appeals.

(3) When the Supreme Court allows a petition for review, the court may request the parties to address specific questions. Those specific questions should be addressed at oral argument and may also be addressed in the parties' briefs on the merits on review or by additional memoranda. If addressed by additional memoranda, the original and 12 copies of such additional memoranda shall be served and filed not less than seven days before argument or submission of the case.

(4) The parties' briefs in the Court of Appeals will be considered as the main briefs in the Supreme Court, supplemented by the petition for review and any response, brief on the merits on review, or additional memoranda that may be filed.¹

(5) The record on review shall consist of the record before the Court of Appeals.

¹ See ORAP 9.10 regarding responses to petitions for review; see ORAP 9.17 regarding briefs on the merits.

Rule 9.25

RECONSIDERATION IN SUPREME COURT

(1) A party seeking reconsideration of a decision of the Supreme Court shall file a petition for reconsideration within 14 days after the date of the decision. The petition shall be in the form of a brief, prepared in conformity with ORAP 5.05 and ORAP 5.95, insofar as they are applicable. The petition must be no longer than a petition for review in the Supreme Court as prescribed by ORAP 9.05(3)(a). The petition shall include a copy of the court's decision. A petitioner shall identify on the cover which party is the petitioner, the date of the decision, and, if there is an opinion or if there are opinions, the judges who joined therein.

(2) The petitioner shall file the original and 12 copies of the petition with the Administrator. The original shall show proof of service of two copies on every other party to the appeal or review.

(3) No other party shall respond unless the court so requests.

(4) The court shall either deny or allow reconsideration. If the court allows reconsideration, the court may reconsider with or without further briefing or oral argument. Reconsideration shall result in affirmance, modification, or reversal of the decision that has been reconsidered.

Rule 9.30
AUTHORITY OVER MATTERS, INCLUDING
MOTIONS, WHEN CASE IS PENDING
IN THE SUPREME COURT

(1) The Supreme Court has authority to decide matters, including motions, if the case is pending in that court. For purposes of this rule, a case is pending in the Supreme Court in the following circumstances:

(a) If a petition for review is filed, until the Supreme Court finally disposes of the review proceeding;

(b) If a motion for an extension of time to file a petition for review is filed, until the Supreme Court denies the motion or, if the Supreme Court allows the motion, until the time for filing the petition for review expires;

(c) If a motion to hold a case in abeyance pending disposition of another case in the Supreme Court is filed, until the Supreme Court denies the motion or, if the Supreme Court grants the motion, until the abeyance period expires.

(2) The Court of Appeals has authority to decide matters, including motions, in an appeal that was filed in that court in the following circumstances:

(a) If the case is not pending in the Supreme Court, until the appellate judgment issues.¹

(b) If the case is pending in the Supreme Court, until the later of these two events occurs: (1) the time for filing a petition for reconsideration pursuant to ORAP 6.25 expires or (2) if a timely petition for reconsideration is filed, the date the Court of Appeals disposes of the petition for reconsideration.

(c) In connection with claims for attorney fees, costs and disbursements, and damages² in connection with the proceedings in the Court of Appeals, until the appellate judgment issues, notwithstanding that the case is pending in the Supreme Court.

(d) If a case is pending in the Supreme Court as to any action of the Court of Appeals that does not dispose of an appeal, until the appellate judgment issues. In these circumstances, the Court of Appeals, in its discretion, may proceed with the case or await disposition by the Supreme Court.

(3) Motions should not be filed simultaneously in both the Supreme Court and Court of Appeals. If either the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals receives a motion that it determines should have been filed in the other court, it shall transfer the motion to the other court. In the event a dispute arises concerning which court should rule on a motion, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals may confer and decide which court will rule on the motion.

10. SPECIAL COURT OF APPEALS RULES

Rule 10.05 APPLICATION FOR INTERLOCUTORY APPEAL IN CLASS ACTION

The practice and procedure governing applications to appeal from certain court orders involving questions of law under ORS 19.225 shall be as follows:

(1) An application to file an interlocutory appeal under ORS 19.225 shall be entitled "Appellant's Application for Interlocutory Appeal Pursuant to ORS 19.225." The applicant shall be entitled "Appellant" and the opposing party "Respondent." The application shall be accompanied by the appellant's filing fee.

(2) The application shall consist of:

(a) A statement not exceeding three pages formally applying for leave to file notice of appeal and informing the court of the nature of the cause or causes of action involved, the specific order desired to be appealed and its effect on the litigation, and the controlling question of law pertinent to the application.

(b) A memorandum not exceeding 10 pages explaining why the application should be allowed, accompanied by a copy of any exhibits necessary to the explanation.

(c) A notice of appeal in the form provided in ORAP 2.05.

(3) An applicant shall file with the Administrator the original and five copies of the application and all accompanying papers, together with proof of service on all other parties to the case and the trial court judge.

(4) The opposing party shall be allowed 14 days within which to file an answer, which shall be entitled, "Respondent's Memorandum in Response to Application for Interlocutory Appeal Pursuant to ORS 19.225." The answering memorandum shall not exceed 10 pages and shall be accompanied only by the exhibits necessary to support the explanation why the application should not be allowed.

(5) The respondent shall file with the Administrator the original and five copies of the answering memorandum and all accompanying papers, together with proof of service on all other parties to the case and the trial court judge. The answering memorandum shall be accompanied by the respondent's appearance fee.

(6) If the respondent seeks to appeal from an order under ORS 19.225 independently of the appellant, the respondent shall accompany the answering memorandum with an application in the form required by this rule and an appellant's filing fee. If the respondent seeks to cross-appeal from the same order that the appellant seeks to appeal only if the court allows the appellant's application, respondent shall tender a notice of cross-appeal but need not comply with subsections (2), (3), and (5) of this rule.

(7) An applicant shall be allowed seven days within which to file a reply, consisting of no more than seven pages, which shall be entitled "Appellant's Reply to Memorandum in Response to Application for Interlocutory Appeal Pursuant to ORS 19.225." The applicant shall file the reply and five copies together with proof of service on all other parties to the case and the trial court judge.

(8) If the Court of Appeals allows an application under ORS 19.225, the notice of appeal and notice of cross-appeal are deemed filed as of the date of the order allowing the application. The appeal shall then proceed in accordance with the statutes and rules governing civil appeals.

Rule 10.10
CERTIFICATION OF APPEAL TO
SUPREME COURT BY COURT OF APPEALS

(1) Certification of an appeal to the Supreme Court pursuant to ORS 19.405 shall be through the Chief Judge by a majority of the judges of the Court of Appeals not disqualified to consider the appeal to be certified.

(2) Written notice of certification shall be given to the parties to the appeal by the Administrator, but failure to give or receive the notice shall not affect the validity of the certification.

(3) Certification shall have the same effect as a motion subject to ORAP 7.30, except that the Court of Appeals may consider any motion, petition or other matter presented by a party pending the acceptance or denial of acceptance of the certification, on a showing that the matter presented should be considered during the pendency of the certification.

(4) If the Supreme Court denies acceptance of a certified appeal, or if the Supreme Court fails to accept or deny acceptance of a certified appeal within the time provided by ORS 19.405, the Administrator shall notify the Court of Appeals and the parties to the appeal in writing; the case shall thereafter proceed in due course in the Court of Appeals.

(5) The Court of Appeals may not certify an appeal more than one time.

(6) To accept a certified appeal, a majority of the judges of the Supreme Court considering the certification must vote in favor of acceptance. The court shall file an order accepting or denying the certification within 20 days after the date of receiving the certification, except that the court, by order entered within that 20-day period, may extend by not more than 10 days the time for acceptance or denial of the certified appeal. If the court does not file an order accepting or denying the certification within that time, the certification is deemed denied. If the court accepts or denies a certification by written order, the Administrator shall send a copy of the order to the parties and to the Court of Appeals.

(7) If the Supreme Court accepts a certified appeal, the Court of Appeals shall transmit the record of the case and the briefs of the parties to the Supreme Court, and the Supreme Court shall thereafter have jurisdiction of the case, and it shall be considered pending in the Supreme Court without additional notice of appeal, filing fee, undertaking or, except as the Supreme Court may require, briefs. The case shall then proceed in the Supreme Court as directed in its notification of acceptance.

See ORS 250.044 regarding special provisions for certifying certain appeals arising from cases filed in Marion County Circuit Court challenging the constitutionality of a state statute or an amendment to the Oregon Constitution by a ballot measure.

(b) On motion of a party or on the court's own motion, the Court of Appeals may direct that a juvenile dependency case under ORS 419B.100, except a termination of parental rights case, be exempt from subsections (2) through (10) of this rule.

(2) The caption of the notice of appeal, notice of cross-appeal, motion, or any other thing filed either in the Court of Appeals or the Supreme Court shall prominently display the words "EXPEDITED JUVENILE DEPENDENCY CASE (NOT TPR)," "EXPEDITED TERMINATION OF PARENTAL RIGHTS CASE," "JUVENILE DEPENDENCY SUPPORT CASE (NOT EXPEDITED)," or "EXPEDITED ADOPTION CASE," as appropriate.¹

The appellant or respondent may move to include as part of the record on appeal a transcript of an earlier proceeding or exhibits in an earlier proceeding based only on a showing that the trial judge took judicial notice of or otherwise considered the record of the earlier proceeding in the course of deciding the disposition, dispositional review, permanency or termination of parental rights proceeding.

(4) (a) The court shall not extend the time for filing the transcript under ORAP 3.30 or for filing of an agreed narrative statement under ORAP 3.45 for more than 14 days.³

(7) The court will set the case for oral argument within 56 days after the filing of the opening brief.

(8) Notwithstanding ORAP 7.30, a motion made before oral argument shall not toll the time for transmission of the record, filing of briefs, or hearing argument.

(9) The Supreme Court shall not grant an extension or extensions of time totaling more than 21 days to file a petition for review.

(10) (a) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in ORAP 14.05(3):

(i) The Administrator forthwith shall issue the appellate judgment based on a decision of the Court of Appeals on expiration of the 35-day period to file a petition for review, unless there is pending in the case a motion or petition for reconsideration on the merits, or a petition for review on the merits, or a party has been granted an extension of time to file a motion or petition for reconsideration on the merits or a petition for review on the merits. If any party has filed a petition for review on the merits and the Supreme Court denies review, the Administrator forthwith shall issue the appellate judgment.

(ii) The Administrator shall issue the appellate judgment based on a decision of the Supreme Court on the merits as soon as practicable after the decision is rendered and without regard to the opportunity of any party to file a petition for reconsideration.

(b) If an appellate judgment has been issued on an expedited basis under paragraph (a) of this subsection, the Administrator may recall the appellate judgment or issue an amended appellate judgment as justice may require for the purpose of making effective a decision of the Supreme Court or the Court of Appeals made after issuance of the appellate judgment, including but not necessarily limited to a decision on costs on appeal or review.

11. ORIGINAL PROCEEDINGS IN THE SUPREME COURT

Rule 11.05 MANDAMUS: INITIATING A MANDAMUS PROCEEDING

(1) A party seeking a writ of mandamus in the Supreme Court shall apply by filing a petition substantially in the form prescribed by this rule.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this rule, a petition for writ of mandamus shall comply as to form with ORAP 5.05(4)(c) through (h). The petition shall also include, in addition to any matters required by law:

(a) A title page including a caption containing the title of the proceeding, a heading indicating the type of writ requested (e.g., "petition for alternative writ of mandamus," "petition for peremptory writ of mandamus"), and, if the mandamus proceeding arises from a matter before a lower court or administrative agency, the identifying number, if any, assigned to the matter below.

(i) In a mandamus proceeding that challenges the action of a judge in a particular case in the circuit court, the Tax Court, or the Court of Appeals, the case title of the proceeding shall be the same as the case title in the lower court, except that the party seeking relief shall be designated as the "relator" in addition to that party's designation in the trial court, and the adverse real party in interest shall be designated as the "adverse party" in addition to that party's designation in the trial court. The judge or court shall not be named as a defendant in the mandamus proceeding.¹

(ii) In any other mandamus proceeding,² the case title of the proceeding shall be "State ex rel _____, Plaintiff-Relator, v. _____, Defendant," which title shall appear on the petition and all other documents filed in the proceeding.³

(b) On the title page, the relator shall include the litigant contact information required by ORAP 1.30. If any party is not represented by an attorney, the title page shall include the party's name, mailing address, and telephone number.

(c) A statement in support of the petition, containing:

(i) A concise but complete statement of facts material to a determination of the question or questions presented and the relief sought;

(ii) A statement why the petition is timely.⁴

(iii) A statement why application was not made to the circuit court for relief; and

(iv) A statement why appeal or any other applicable potential remedy is not a plain, speedy and adequate remedy in the ordinary course of law, precluding issuance of the writ.⁵

(d) Proof of service as follows:

(i) In a mandamus proceeding that challenges the action of a judge in a particular case in the circuit court, the Tax Court, or the Court of Appeals, the relator shall accompany the petition with proof of service on the adverse party, any other party (if any) to the proceeding in the lower court, and the judge or court whose action is challenged in the mandamus proceeding.

(ii) In any other mandamus proceeding, the relator shall accompany the petition with proof of service on the defendant and, if the mandamus proceeding arises from another proceeding or controversy, proof of service on any other party to the proceeding or controversy.

(iii) If the state, a state officer, or a state agency is a party to the case, proceeding, or controversy from which the mandamus proceeding arises, the relator shall include proof of service on the Attorney General.⁶

(e) If the relator seeks a stay in the proceedings from which the mandamus proceeding arises, the caption shall indicate "STAY REQUESTED," and the relator shall show, in the statement in support of the petition, that the relator requested a stay from the court, judge, or administrative agency or official whose order or decision is being challenged and that the request for a stay was denied, or that it would be futile to request a stay from the court, judge, or administrative agency or official. If the relator seeks to have the Supreme Court stay the proceedings from which the mandamus proceeding arises, the relator shall file a motion pursuant to chapter 7 of the Oregon Rules of Appellate Procedure.

(f) If the mandamus proceeding challenges a written order or decision, a copy of the order or decision shall be attached to the petition.

(3) The relator shall accompany the petition:

(a) With a memorandum of law with supporting arguments and citations. The form of the memorandum shall comply with ORAP 7.10(1) and (2).

(b) If the mandamus proceeding arises from a matter in which a record has been made, the relator shall assemble an excerpt of record, prepared in compliance with ORAP 5.50(6), containing such parts of the record relating to the matter as is necessary for a determination of the question or questions presented and the relief sought.

(c) In a mandamus proceeding that challenges the action of the Court of Appeals, the Tax Court, or a judge in a particular case in the circuit court, the relator need not accompany the petition with a proposed form of writ of mandamus; in any other mandamus proceeding, the relator shall do so.

(4) (a) The caption of any memorandum, motion, or any other document filed in the mandamus proceeding, except the petition for a writ of mandamus, shall display prominently the words "MANDAMUS PROCEEDING."⁷

(b) If no record was made below, the petition, memorandum, and other supporting material may be submitted as a single document.

(c) If a record was made in the matter from which the mandamus proceeding has arisen, the relator shall assemble and submit the petition, the memorandum in support of the petition, and the excerpt of record as separate documents.

(d) The original and eight copies of the petition and accompanying documents shall be filed with the Administrator. If the excerpt of record is more than 50 pages, the relator need file only two copies of the excerpt of record.

Rule 11.10
MANDAMUS:
RESPONSE BY ADVERSE PARTY AND CONSIDERATION BY THE COURT

(1) Unless the court directs otherwise, the adverse party in a mandamus proceeding that challenges the action of a judge in a particular case in the circuit court, the Tax Court, or the Court of Appeals or the defendant in any other mandamus proceeding may file a memorandum in opposition.¹ The form of the memorandum shall comply with ORAP 7.10(1) and (2). The original and eight copies of the memorandum shall be filed within 14 days after the date the petition was filed. A relator may not file a reply memorandum unless the court has requested one.

(2) The petition and any memoranda in opposition to the petition shall be considered by the court without oral argument unless otherwise ordered. If the court determines to accept jurisdiction, it shall issue an order allowing the petition. Otherwise, the petition shall be denied by order of the court.

(3) If the court issues an alternative writ of mandamus in a mandamus proceeding that challenges the action of a judge in a particular case in the circuit court, the Tax Court, or the Court of Appeals, the Administrator shall mail copies of the order allowing the petition and the alternative writ of mandamus to the relator, to the adverse party, to any intervenor, and to the judge or court whose action is challenged in the petition. Proof of service of an alternative writ of mandamus need not be filed with the court. Unless the alternative writ of mandamus specifically requires that a return, answer, or responsive pleading be filed, the judge or court to which the writ is issued need not file a return, answer, or responsive pleading.

(4) If the court issues an alternative writ in any other mandamus proceeding, the court shall set a return date in the writ, and the Administrator shall mail copies of the order allowing the petition and the alternative writ of mandamus to the relator, to the defendant, and to any intervenor. On or before the return date in the writ, the defendant shall either file a certificate of compliance or show cause by answer or motion to dismiss as provided by ORS 34.170. If the defendant fails to file a certificate of compliance or show cause by answer or motion to dismiss on or before the return date set in the writ, the court, without further notice to the parties, may issue a peremptory writ of mandamus, as provided in ORS 34.180. When the case is at issue on the pleadings,² the court will notify the parties to that effect.

(5) At any time after the filing of a petition for writ of mandamus or the issuance of an alternative writ of mandamus, if the defendant, judge, or court performs the act sought in the petition or required in the alternative writ, the relator shall notify, and the defendant, judge, court, or any other party to the lower court case may notify, the court of that compliance. After receiving notice of the compliance, the court on motion of any party or on its own motion may dismiss the mandamus proceeding.

See generally ORS 34.105 through 34.250 and Article VII (Amended), section 2, of the Oregon Constitution.

Rule 11.15
BRIEFS AND ORAL ARGUMENT

(1) Unless otherwise directed by the court, and provided that the court does not receive notice of compliance with the alternative writ of mandamus by the official to whom the writ was issued, the relator shall file the opening brief:

(a) Within 28 days after the date of issuance of the alternative writ of mandamus, in a mandamus proceeding that challenges the action of a judge in a particular case in the circuit court, the Tax Court, or the Court of Appeals; or

(b) Within 28 days after the date that the case is at issue on the pleadings, in any other mandamus proceeding.

(2) The adverse party in a mandamus proceeding that challenges the action of a judge in a particular case in the circuit court, the Tax Court, or the Court of Appeals, or the defendant in any other mandamus proceeding, shall have 28 days after the date the relator serves and files the opening brief to file the answering brief.

(3) The relator may file a reply brief only with leave of the court. A motion requesting leave to file a reply brief shall be filed, without copies, within seven days after the filing of the brief to which permission to reply is sought. The content of a reply brief shall be confined to matters raised in the answering brief, and the form shall be similar to an answering brief, but need not contain a summary of argument.

(4) In complex cases, such as cases with multiple parties, multiple writs, or both, the parties may confer and suggest an alternative briefing schedule as provided in ORAP 5.80(8).

(5) All briefs shall be prepared in substantial conformity with ORAP 5.35 through 5.50. An original brief, plus 15 copies, shall be filed with the Administrator with proof of service showing that two copies were served on each party. Parties shall also submit briefs in electronic form as outlined in ORAP 9.17(6).

(6) After the briefs are filed, unless the court directs that the writ will be considered without oral argument, the court will set the matter for oral argument as in cases on appeal. At oral argument, the parties shall argue in the order in which their briefs were filed.

Rule 11.17
MANDAMUS:
ISSUANCE OF COMBINED
PEREMPTORY WRIT OF MANDAMUS
AND APPELLATE JUDGMENT

If the court has determined that the relator is entitled to a peremptory writ of mandamus, the court shall direct the Administrator to issue the writ. The peremptory writ may be combined with the appellate judgment and issued together as a single document. If the peremptory writ and the appellate judgment are combined, the relator need not file proof of service of the writ with the court, and the judge or court to which the writ is issued in a mandamus proceeding that challenges the action of a judge in a particular case in the circuit court, the Tax Court, or the Court of Appeals or the defendant in any other mandamus proceeding need not file a return showing compliance with the writ.

See ORS 34.250(8).

Rule 11.20

(2) A petition for a writ of habeas corpus shall be entitled "_____, Plaintiff, v. _____, Defendant." A petition for a writ of quo warranto shall be entitled "_____, Petitioner, v. _____, Respondent."

See ORS 34.310 through 34.730 and Article VII (Amended), section 2, of the Oregon Constitution; see also ORS 30.510 through ORS 30.640 relating to actions for usurpation of an office or of a franchise.

At the time the petition and brief are filed, the Bar shall indicate whether it wishes to waive oral argument and submit the case on the record, or

Rule 11.30
BALLOT TITLE REVIEW

The practice and procedure governing a petition to the Supreme Court to review a ballot title shall be:

(1) Any elector dissatisfied with a ballot title provided by the Attorney General under ORS 250.067 or ORS 250.075(2), or by the Legislative Assembly under ORS 250.075(1), may file with the Administrator a petition to review the ballot title.

(2) The petition must be filed within 10 business days after the day upon which the Attorney General certifies the ballot title to the Secretary of State, or the Legislative Assembly files the ballot title with the Secretary of State. If a petition is mailed to the Administrator in compliance with ORAP 1.35(1)(c), then the petition is deemed filed when mailed; otherwise, a petition is deemed filed when actually received by the Administrator.

(3) The form of the petition shall comply with ORAP 7.10 governing motions. The petition shall have a title page containing:

(a) A case title in which the party petitioning for review is designated as the petitioner and the Attorney General is designated as the respondent.

(b) The title "Petition to Review Ballot Title Certified by the Attorney General" or "Petition to Review Ballot Title Certified by the Legislative Assembly," as the case may be.

(c) The date the ballot title was certified.

(d) The chief petitioner referred to in ORS 250.045.

(e) The litigant contact information required by ORS 1.30.

(4) The body of the petition shall be no longer than 10 pages and:

(a) Shall state the petitioner's interest in the matter, whether the petitioner is an elector, and whether the petitioner timely submitted written comments on the draft ballot title.

(b) Shall include the reason the ballot title does not substantially comply with the requirements of ORS 250.035, and a request that the Supreme Court certify to the Secretary of State a ballot title that complies with the requirements of ORS 250.035 in lieu of the ballot title challenged by petitioner or refer the ballot title to the Attorney General for modification.

(c) May include under the heading "Arguments and Authorities" legal arguments and citation of legal authorities.

(5) (a) The petition shall have attached to it a copy of the ballot title as certified to or filed with the Secretary of State and containing the full text of the ballot title and a photocopy of the text of the measure as submitted to the Secretary of State.

(b) The petition shall show proof of service on the Secretary of State and the Attorney General,¹ as well as any chief petitioner who did not file the petition to review the ballot title.

(c) The original of the petition shall be filed. The petition shall be accompanied by the filing fee required for an original proceeding in the Supreme Court.

(6) The Attorney General has five business days after the filing of the petition, unless a shorter time is ordered by the court, to:

(a) File the draft ballot title, the certified ballot title, the Attorney General's letter of transmittal to the Secretary of State and, if not overly lengthy, written comments received by the Secretary of State concerning the draft ballot title. In addition, the Attorney General may provide the court with the text of the certified ballot title, and any subsequent modified ballot title, by electronic mail.

(b) File an answering memorandum. If the Attorney General claims that text as contained in the petition is in error, the Attorney General must file an answering memorandum pointing out the discrepancy; otherwise, the Attorney General may submit a letter waiving the filing of an answering memorandum. Any answering memorandum must be in the form prescribed by ORAP 7.10 for answers to motions and may not be longer than 10 pages, except that when the court has consolidated review of more than one petition to review a ballot title in one proceeding, the length of the answering memorandum may be increased by five pages per each additional petition. The Attorney General must file an original of the answering memorandum, with proof of service on counsel for the petitioner. The answering memorandum may set forth concisely the reasons why the Attorney General believes the ballot title filed with the Secretary of State substantially complies with the requirements of ORS 250.035 or, alternatively, may suggest alterations that in the Attorney General's judgment would make the ballot title substantially comply. The answering memorandum may also contain under separate heading legal arguments and citation to legal authorities.

(7) Any person who is interested in a ballot title that is the subject of a petition, including the chief petitioner of a measure, may file a motion in the form prescribed by ORAP 7.10, asking leave of the Supreme Court to submit a memorandum as an amicus curiae. The motion must be accompanied by the proposed memorandum that the amicus curiae intends to submit. The proposed memorandum must be in the form prescribed by ORAP 7.10 for answers to motions and may not be longer than 10 pages. The motion and proposed memorandum must be filed and served on or before the date that the answering memorandum is due. If a party seeks to appear as an amicus curiae after the Attorney General has filed a modified ballot title after referral from the Supreme Court, then the motion and memorandum must be filed with and actually received by the Administrator and must be served on and actually received by all parties within five business days after the date that a party has filed an objection.

(8) The petitioner has five business days after the filing of the answering memorandum, unless a shorter time is ordered by the court, to file a reply memorandum. Any reply memorandum must be in the form prescribed by ORAP 7.10 for answers to motions and must not be longer than five pages. The petitioner must file an original of the reply memorandum, with proof of service on the Attorney General.

(9) After the filing of all memoranda permitted, the Supreme Court will consider the matter without the filing of briefs or presentation of oral argument unless otherwise ordered by the court, either on its own motion or on request of a party. If the court orders oral argument, the petitioner shall argue first. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, an amicus curiae may not participate in oral argument.

(10) (a) For ballot title review proceedings in which the Supreme Court has referred the Attorney General's certified ballot title to the Attorney General for modification, the Attorney General must prepare and modified ballot title. The modified ballot title must be filed with and actually received by the Administrator, and it must be served on and actually received by all parties, within five business days after the date of the referral.

(b) The petitioner, or an intervenor under paragraph (10)(c), may file an objection to the modified ballot title within five business days after the date of filing of the modified ballot title. An objection or proposed objection under paragraph (10)(c) must be in the form prescribed by ORAP 7.10, and it may not exceed 10 pages. The objection or proposed objection must be filed with and actually received by the Administrator. The objection or proposed objection must be served on and actually received by all parties within five business days after the date of filing of the modified ballot title. The objection or proposed objection may be filed and served by telephonic facsimile communication as provided by ORAP 7.35(3).² A party may file a response to the objection or proposed objection within five business days after the date of filing of the objection, unless the court otherwise directs.

(c) A person who submitted written comments to the Secretary of State under ORS 250.067 regarding the original ballot title, or the chief petitioner, may seek to intervene as a party to object to a modified ballot title when the Supreme Court has referred the Attorney General's certified ballot title to the Attorney General for modification. The person must file a motion to intervene, together with a proposed objection to the modified ballot title, within five business days after the date the modified ballot title has been filed. The motion and proposed objection must comply with the filing and service requirements prescribed by paragraph (10)(b). The proposed objection may assert only that the modifications by the Attorney General themselves have caused the modified ballot title to not comply substantially with the requirements of ORS

(11) (a) If the Supreme Court issues a dispositional decision in which the court certifies the Attorney General's certified ballot title or certifies the Attorney General's modified ballot title, with or without additional modification, the Administrator will issue the appellate judgment on the next judicial day after the filing date of the decision.

(b) If the court refers the Attorney General's certified ballot title to the Attorney General for modification or refers the Attorney General's modified ballot title to the Attorney General for further modification and no party files a timely objection to a modified ballot title, then the Supreme Court will certify the modified ballot title, and the Administrator will issue the appellate judgment, on the next judicial day after the time for filing an objection expires.

(c) The court's decision shall become effective in accordance with ORAP 14.05(2)(c).

- (a) A copy of the judgment of conviction.
- (b) A copy of the order of sentence of death unless that sentence is contained in the judgment of conviction.
- (c) A certificate by the trial court administrator stating:
 - (i) the date of entry of each writing described above.
 - (ii) the names, mailing addresses, telephone numbers, and e-mail addresses of the attorneys of record for the state and for the defendant at the date of entry of each writing described above.

(d) A cover sheet captioned "In the Supreme Court of the State of Oregon" and showing the court in which the judgment of conviction and sentence of death were made, the title of the case, the trial court case number, the name of the judge who imposed the sentence of death and the caption: "Automatic Death Sentence Review."

(4) The trial court administrator shall serve a true copy of the packet on the defendant and on each attorney and the transcript coordinator. The trial court administrator shall endorse proof of service on the original of the packet and send the original to the Administrator, who shall immediately notify the Chief Justice of receipt thereof.

(5) (a) Service of a copy of the packet on the transcript coordinator shall be deemed to be authorization for the transcript coordinator to arrange for preparation of a transcript of all parts of the criminal proceeding, including all pretrial hearings and selection of the jury.

(b) A transcript shall meet the specifications of ORAP 3.35.

(c) A transcript shall be filed within 60 days after the date the packet is served on the transcript coordinator.

(d) Transcripts shall be settled in the same manner as on an appeal pursuant to ORS 138.185 and ORS 19.370, except that a first extension of time of 30 days to file a motion to correct the transcript or add to the record will be deemed granted if, within 15 days after the transcript is filed, a party files a notice of need for additional time to file such a motion.

(6) (a) If the defendant desires to file an opening brief, the brief is due 180 days after the transcript is settled.

(b) If the state desires to file an answering brief, the brief is due:

(i) When the defendant does not desire to file an opening brief, 180 days after the transcript is settled.

(ii) When the defendant files an opening brief, 180 days after the defendant serves and files the defendant's opening brief.

(c) If the defendant has filed an opening brief, the defendant may file a reply brief, which shall be due 90 days after the state serves and files its answering brief.

(d) Specifications for briefs shall be those set forth in ORAP 5.05, except that the maximum length of a brief without obtaining leave of the court for a longer brief is 28,000 words or, if the certification under ORAP 5.05(2)(d) certifies that the preparer does not have access to a word-processing system that provides a word count, 100 pages.

(7) The trial court administrator shall send the trial court file and exhibits to the Administrator at the request of the Administrator.

(8) Preparation, service, and sending of the packet, the trial court file and exhibits offered, preparation of transcripts, preparation of briefs, and review by the Supreme Court shall be accorded priority over all other cases by all persons concerned.

Rule 12.12
APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL IN DEATH SENTENCE CASES

(1) On receipt of notice of a conviction of aggravated murder and sentence of death as provided in ORAP 12.10, the Administrator shall send a letter to the defendant acknowledging receipt of the notice of conviction and sentence of death, and notifying the defendant of the court's automatic and direct review of the conviction and sentence. The letter shall inform the defendant of the right to be represented by counsel and the procedure for notifying the court if the defendant has retained counsel or for requesting court-appointed counsel. The letter shall be copied to the defendant's trial attorney, the Solicitor General of the Department of Justice, the Office of Public Defense Services, and the transcript coordinator.

(2) If the defendant or the defendant's attorney gives notice to the Administrator that the defendant is represented by retained counsel on appeal, the retained attorney shall be shown as the attorney of record.

(3) If the defendant requests appointment of counsel and establishes eligibility for appointed counsel, the court shall appoint the Office of Public Defense Services. If the defendant does not respond within 28 days to the letter informing the defendant of the right to be represented by counsel and it appears from the record that the defendant is indigent, the court shall appoint the Office of Public Defense Services.

(4) (a) Should defendant object at any time to particular court-appointed counsel, a motion for substitution of counsel or appointment of legal advisor shall be made in accordance with ORAP 8.12.

(b) If the court allows the motion for substitution of court-appointed counsel or appointment of legal advisor, the court shall notify the Office of Public Defense Services.¹

¹ See ORS 138.500(2)(d) regarding substitution of counsel pursuant to the policies and procedures of the Public Defense Services Commission; Public Defense Payment Policies and Procedures 1.7 (Substitution of Appointed Counsel).

Rule 12.15
COORDINATION OF CLASS ACTIONS
IN TRIAL COURTS

The practice and procedure for coordination of class actions in circuit court shall be as follows:

(1) A motion filed pursuant to ORCP 32 K shall set forth the grounds for coordination and may be accompanied by an affidavit. Service by mail shall be made on all counsel and the trial court administrators of the courts where the cases are pending. If the motion is filed by a party, the presiding judge shall allow or deny it within 10 days. If the motion is allowed, the presiding judge shall immediately request the Supreme Court to assign a judge to determine whether coordination is appropriate and to forward to the Supreme Court a copy of the motion and of the papers filed in support and in opposition to the motion.

(2) The Supreme Court will assign a judge, pursuant to ORCP 32 K(1)(a), within seven days after receiving a request for the assignment, and shall notify by mail all counsel and trial court administrators of the identity and address of the assigned judge. The Supreme Court shall forward to the assigned judge copies of all papers accompanying the request for appointment.

(3) Within 14 days after the Supreme Court designates the assigned judge, any party may file a memorandum in favor of coordination and serve it on all counsel. Any party may serve and file a memorandum in opposition to coordination within 21 days after the Supreme Court designates the assigned judge. The assigned judge may take testimony and hear oral argument on the issue of coordination. Within 28 days after being designated by the Supreme Court, the assigned judge shall determine which, if any, cases are to be coordinated and, if any are coordinated, recommend the court in which they shall proceed.

(4) In the absence of a stay order, a case which is being considered for coordination may proceed as if no motion for coordination had been filed, but no trial shall be commenced and no judgment shall be entered in that action.

(5) If the assigned judge orders coordination, the judge shall send a copy of the order to the Chief Justice and to all counsel and the trial court administrators of the respective trial courts. The Chief Justice shall sign an order within 14 days designating a trial judge and the court where the coordinated cases will proceed and shall serve all counsel and trial court administrators with a copy of the order. An order coordinating the cases shall operate as a stay of all proceedings in the coordinated cases except as otherwise permitted by the trial judge designated to hear them. If the assigned judge denies coordination, the judge shall send a copy of the order to the Chief Justice and to all counsel and the trial court administrators of the respective trial courts.

(6) The trial judge designated to hear the coordinated cases shall have full power to control pleadings, discovery, notices, conferences, hearings, and the schedule of the trial or trials in any manner the judge deems appropriate with due consideration to the convenience of the witnesses, parties, and counsel, efficient judicial administration, and the ends of justice. The trial judge may decoordinate all or some or one of the cases and may order any issue tried separately. The trial judge shall pass on motions filed under ORCP 32 K(3) to include an additional case or cases.

(7) On a showing of good cause, any time limit in this rule may be extended for a period not exceeding seven days by the judge before whom the issue of coordination is then pending.

See ORS 1.004 regarding the authority of the Supreme Court to adopt a rule prescribing procedure for coordination of class actions under ORCP 32.

Rule 12.20
CERTIFICATION OF QUESTION OF LAW TO SUPREME COURT BY FEDERAL COURTS AND OTHER STATE COURTS

The procedure for certifying a question of law to the Supreme Court under ORS 28.200 through 28.255 shall be as follows:

- (1) (a) The certification order shall set forth the question of law sought to be answered and a statement of facts relevant to the question, including the nature of the controversy in which the question arose. The statement of facts may be a brief, memorandum, or other material from the file of the certifying court if it contains the relevant facts and shows the nature of the controversy.
 - (b) The certification order shall be signed by the presiding judge and forwarded to the Supreme Court by the trial court administrator of the certifying court accompanied by a copy of the court's register of the case. If the certifying court's register does not show the names and addresses of the parties or their attorneys, the trial court administrator shall separately provide that information.
- (2) The filing and first appearance fees in the Supreme Court shall be equally divided between the parties unless otherwise ordered by the certifying court in its order of certification. The fees shall be collected when the parties file their stipulated or separate designations of record, as provided in subsection (5) of this rule.
- (3) The Supreme Court will consider whether to accept a question certified to it without oral or written argument from the parties unless otherwise directed by the Supreme Court.
- (4) The Administrator shall send a copy of the court's order accepting or declining to accept a certified question of law to the certifying court and to the parties.

(5) (a) If the court accepts certification of a question of law, the parties to the certified question shall attempt to agree on a designation of the part of the record of the certifying court necessary to a determination of the question. If the parties are unable to agree on a designation of record, each party may file a separate designation of record.

(b) A stipulated designation of record or the parties' separate designations of record shall be filed within 14 days after the date of the court's order accepting certification.

(c) On receipt of a stipulated designation or separate designations of record, the Administrator shall request from the trial court administrator of the certifying court the part or parts of the record as designated, and any parts of the record that the Supreme Court determines may be necessary in answering the certified question(s). The Administrator shall serve a copy of the request on the parties.

(6) (a) Unless otherwise ordered by the Supreme Court, the certified question of law shall be briefed by the parties. The proponent of the question certified to the court shall file the opening brief and any other party may file an answering brief. If the nature of the question is such that no party is the proponent of the question, the plaintiff or appellant shall file the opening brief and the defendant, respondent, or appellee shall file the answering brief.

(b) The opening brief shall be served and filed within 28 days after the date the Administrator requests the record from the certifying court. The answering brief shall be served and filed within 28 days after the date the opening brief is served and filed. No reply brief will be permitted except upon leave of the court.

(c) As nearly as practicable, briefs shall be prepared as provided in ORAP 5.05 through 5.52, except that in lieu of assignments of error, the brief shall address each certified question accepted by the court, and only the original and 15 copies of the brief need be filed. Parties shall also submit briefs in electronic form as outlined in ORAP 9.17(6).

(7) The case will be set for oral argument as soon as practicable after the parties' briefs are filed.

(8) The court shall issue a written decision stating the law governing the question certified. Unless specifically ordered by the Supreme Court, costs will not be allowed to either party. The Administrator shall send to the parties copies of the court's decision at the time the decision is issued.

(9) Petitions for reconsideration of the court's decision shall be subject to ORAP 9.25. After expiration of the period for filing a petition for reconsideration or after disposition of all petitions for reconsideration, the Administrator shall send a copy of the decision under seal of the Supreme Court to the certifying court and shall send copies thereof to the parties. Issuance of a sealed copy of the court's decision to the certifying court terminates the Supreme Court case.

Rule 12.25
EXPEDITED JUDICIAL REVIEW OF ORDER OF THE ENERGY FACILITY SITING COUNCIL

On direct judicial review of an order of the Energy Facility Siting Council under ORS 469.403:

- (1) The case caption of any brief, motion, or other paper filed with the court shall include the words "EXPEDITED JUDICIAL REVIEW UNDER ORS 469.403."
- (2) Within seven days after being served with a copy of the petition for judicial review, the Energy Facility Siting Council shall transmit the record to the Administrator. The record shall be accompanied by proof of service of copies of the record, except exhibits, on all other parties of record in the proceeding and on any other person required by law to be served.
- (3)
 - (a) Petitioner's opening brief and excerpt of record shall be served and filed not later than 14 days after the filing of the petition for judicial review. Failure to file the opening brief within the prescribed time will result in automatic dismissal of the petition.
 - (b) Any respondent's answering brief shall be served and filed within 14 days after the filing of petitioner's opening brief. If any respondent fails to file a brief within the prescribed time, the judicial review will be submitted without that respondent's answering brief and that respondent will not be allowed to argue the case.
 - (c) No party shall file a reply brief.
- (4) Except as prescribed in ORS 469.403(6), (7), and (8), the court shall not grant a continuance or extension for transmitting the record or filing briefs as specified in this rule, or for the time set for oral argument.
- (5) A motion made before oral argument will not toll the time for transmitting the record, filing briefs, or hearing oral argument.

13. COSTS AND DISBURSEMENTS, ATTORNEY FEES, AND DAMAGES

Rule 13.05 COSTS AND DISBURSEMENTS

(1) As used in this rule, "costs" includes costs and disbursements. "Allowance" of costs refers to the determination by the court that a party is entitled to claim costs. "Award" of costs is the determination by the court of the amount that a party who has been allowed costs is entitled to recover.¹

(2) The court will designate a prevailing party and determine whether the prevailing party is allowed costs at the time that the court issues its decision.

(3) When an allowance of costs is dependent on identification of a party as a prevailing party, the appellant or petitioner (or cross-appellant or cross-petitioner, as appropriate) is the prevailing party only if the court reverses or substantially modifies the judgment or order from which the appeal or judicial review was taken. Otherwise, the respondent (or cross-respondent, as appropriate) is the prevailing party.

(4) When a party prevails on appeal or on review and the case is remanded for further proceedings in which the party who ultimately will prevail remains to be determined, the court may allow costs to abide the outcome of the case. If the court allows costs to abide the outcome of the case, the prevailing party shall claim its costs within the time and in the manner prescribed in this rule. The appellate court may determine the amount of costs under this subsection, and may condition the actual award of costs on the ultimate outcome of the case. In that circumstance, the award of costs shall not be included in the appellate judgment, but shall be awarded by the court or tribunal on remand in favor of the prevailing party on appeal or review, if that party also prevails on remand, and shall be awarded against the party designated on appeal or review as the party liable for costs.

(5) (a) A party seeking to recover costs shall file a statement of costs and disbursements within 21 days after the date of the decision. The filing of a petition for review or a petition for reconsideration does not suspend the time for filing the statement of costs and disbursements.

(b) A party need only file the original statement of costs and disbursements, without copies, but accompanied by proof of service showing that a copy of the statement was served on every other party to the appeal.

(c) A party objecting to a statement of costs and disbursements shall file objections within 14 days after the date of service of the statement. A reply, if any, shall be filed within 14 days after the date of service of the objections. The original objection or reply shall be filed with proof of service and eight copies in the Supreme Court. Only the original objection or reply shall be filed in the Court of Appeals.

(6) (a) (i) Except as provided in paragraph (ii) of this subsection, whether a brief is printed or reproduced by other methods, the party allowed costs is entitled to recover 10 cents per page for the number of briefs required to be filed or actually filed, whichever is less, plus two copies for each party served and two copies for each party on whose behalf the brief was filed.

(ii) If a party filed a brief using the eFiling system, the party allowed costs is entitled to recover the amount of the transaction charge and document recovery charge incurred by that party for electronically filing the brief, as provided in subsection (b) of this section. The party allowed costs is not entitled to recover for the service copy of any brief served on a party via the eFiling system, but is entitled to recover for two copies for each party served conventionally.

(b) If the party who has been allowed costs has incurred transaction charges or document recovery charges in connection with electronically filing any document, the party is entitled to recover any such charge so incurred.

(c) If the prevailing party who has been allowed costs has paid for copies of audio or video tapes in lieu of a transcript or incident to preparing a transcript, the party is entitled to recover any such charge so incurred.

(d) (i) For the purposes of awarding the prevailing party fee under ORS 20.190(1)(a), an appeal to the Court of Appeals and review by the Supreme Court shall be considered as one continuous appeal process and only one prevailing party fee per party, or parties appearing jointly, shall be awarded.

(ii) The prevailing party fee will be awarded only to a party who has appeared on the appeal or review.

(iii) A prevailing party is not entitled to claim more than one prevailing party fee, nor may the court award more than one prevailing party fee against a nonprevailing party, regardless of the number of parties in the action.²

(e) If a prevailing party who has been allowed costs timely files a statement of costs and disbursements and no objections are filed, the court will award costs in the amount claimed, except when the entity from whom costs are sought is not a party to the proceeding or when the court is without authority to award particular costs claimed.

(f) If a prevailing party who has been allowed costs untimely files a statement of costs and disbursements, that party is entitled to recover the party's filing or first appearance fee and the prevailing party fee under ORS 20.190(1).

(g) If a prevailing party who has been allowed costs does not file a statement of costs and disbursements, the court shall award that party's filing or first appearance fee and the prevailing party fee under ORS 20.190(1) as part of the appellate judgment.

(7) Parties liable for payment of costs and disbursements shall be jointly liable.

¹ See generally ORS 20.310 to 20.330 concerning costs and disbursements on appeal and in cases of original jurisdiction.

² See ORS 20.190(4).

Rule 13.10 PETITION FOR ATTORNEY FEES

(1) This rule governs the procedure for petitioning for attorney fees in all cases except the recovery of compensation and expenses of court-appointed counsel payable from the Public Defense Services Account.¹

(2) A petition for attorney fees shall be served and filed within 21 days after the date of decision. The filing of a petition for review or a petition for reconsideration does not suspend the time for filing the petition for attorney fees.

(3) When a party prevails on appeal or on review and the case is remanded for further proceedings in which the party who ultimately will prevail remains to be determined, the appellate court may condition the actual award of attorney fees on the ultimate outcome of the case. In that circumstance, an award of attorney fees shall not be included in the appellate judgment, but shall be awarded by the court or tribunal on remand in favor of the prevailing party on appeal or review, if that party also prevails on remand, and shall be awarded against the party designated on appeal or review as the party liable for attorney fees.

(4) When the Supreme Court denies a petition for review, a petition for attorney fees for preparing the petition for review or a response to the petition for review shall be filed in the Supreme Court.

(5) (a) A petition shall state the total amount of attorney fees claimed and the authority relied on for claiming the fees. The petition shall be supported by a statement of facts showing the total amount of attorney time involved, the amount of time devoted to each task, the reasonableness of the amount of time claimed, the hourly rate at which time is claimed, and the reasonableness of the hourly rate.

(b) If a petition requests attorney fees pursuant to a statute, the petition shall address any factors, including, as relevant, those factors identified in ORS 20.075(1) and (2) or ORS 20.105(1), that the court may consider in determining whether and to what extent to award attorney fees.²

(6) Objections to a petition shall be served and filed within 14 days after the date the petition is filed. A reply, if any, shall be served and filed within 14 days after the date of service of the objections.

(7) A party to a proceeding under this rule may request findings regarding the facts and legal criteria that relate to any claim or objection concerning attorney fees. A party requesting findings must state in the caption of the petition, objection, or reply that the party is requesting findings pursuant to this rule.³ A party's failure to request findings in a petition, objection, or reply in the form specified in this rule constitutes a waiver of any objection to the absence of findings to support the court's decision.

(8) The original of any petition, objections, or reply shall be filed with the Administrator, accompanied by five copies if filed in the Court of Appeals and eight copies if filed in the Supreme Court, together with proof of service on all other parties to the appeal, judicial review, or proceeding.

(9) In the absence of timely filed objections to a petition under this rule, the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals, respectively, will allow attorney fees in the amount sought in the petition, except in cases in which:

- (a) The entity from whom fees are sought was not a party to the proceeding;
- or
- (b) The Supreme Court or the Court of Appeals is without authority to award fees.

Rule 13.15
APPEAL OF PUBLIC DEFENSE SERVICES COMMISSION DECISION REGARDING COURT-APPOINTED COUNSEL
COMPENSATION, COSTS, AND EXPENSES

(1) This rule governs the procedure under ORS 138.500(6) for an appeal from the Public Defense Services Commission executive director's disposition of a payment request.

(2) The person who submitted the payment request shall take an appeal by filing a motion for review of the executive director's decision in the court in which all or a majority of compensation and expenses were incurred. The person shall accompany the motion with a copy of the request for payment as submitted to the Public Defense Services Commission and a copy of the executive director's disposition of the request. The person shall serve a copy of the motion on the executive director of the Public Defense Services Commission and shall include with the motion proof of service on the executive director.

Rule 13.25
PETITIONS AND MOTIONS FOR DAMAGES
AND SANCTIONS

(1) Damages under ORS 19.445, attorney fees under ORS 20.105, and reasonable expenses (including attorney fees) under ORAP 1.40(4) and ORCP 17 D are recoverable only by petition filed within 21 days after the decision deciding the appeal or review in the manner provided in ORAP 13.10. A request for damages, attorney fees, and reasonable expenses should not be included in the party's brief.

(2) A motion for reasonable expenses (including attorney fees) under ORAP 1.40(4) and ORCP 17 D based on the filing of a motion or thing shall be included in the answer or objection to the motion, statement of costs and disbursements, or petition for attorney fees to which the motion for sanctions relates.

Rule 13.30
REQUESTS FOR JUDGMENT AGAINST SURETIES

(1) A party entitled to judgment against a surety under ORS 19.450(4) shall file with the Administrator and serve on the other parties to the appeal and on the surety a notice requesting entry of judgment as part of the appellate judgment. The notice shall identify the party in whose favor judgment will be entered, the surety against whom judgment will be entered, the amount of the judgment, the rate of interest and the date from which interest will run. In the absence of an indication otherwise, the interest will be simple, at nine percent per annum, from the date of entry of the appellate judgment.

(2) All parties served with the notice shall have 14 days after the date of filing to file objections.

14. APPELLATE JUDGMENT

Rule 14.05 APPELLATE JUDGMENT

- (1) As used in this rule,
- (a) "Appellate judgment" means a decision of the Court of Appeals or Supreme Court together with a final order and the seal of the court.
 - (b) "Decision" means a designation of prevailing party and allowance of costs together with,
 - (i) In an appeal from circuit court or the Tax Court, or on judicial review of an agency proceeding, an order disposing of the appeal or judicial review or affirming without opinion; or with respect to a per curiam opinion or an opinion indicating the author, the title page of the opinion containing the court's disposition of the appeal or judicial review.
 - (ii) In a case of original jurisdiction in the appellate court, in addition to the documents specified in subparagraph (i) of this paragraph, an order denying, dismissing, or allowing without opinion the petition or other document invoking the court's jurisdiction. An order allowing a petition for an alternative writ of mandamus or writ of habeas corpus is not a decision within the meaning of this rule.
 - (c) "Designation of prevailing party and allowance of costs" means that part of a decision indicating, when relevant, which party prevailed before the appellate court, whether costs are allowed, and, if so, which party or parties are responsible for costs.
 - (d) "Final order" means that part of the appellate judgment ordering payment of costs or attorney fees in a sum certain by specified parties or directing entry of judgment in favor of the Judicial Department for unpaid appellate court filing fees, or both.
- (2) The decision of the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals is effective:
- (a) With respect to appeals from circuit court or the Tax Court, on the date that the Administrator sends a copy of the appellate judgment to the court below.
 - (b) With respect to judicial review of administrative agency proceedings, on the date that the Administrator sends a copy of the appellate judgment to the administrative agency.

(c) With respect to original jurisdiction proceedings, within the time or on the date specified in the court's decision or, if no time period or date is specified, on the date of entry of the appellate judgment. When the effective date is specified in the court's decision, the decision is effective on that date notwithstanding the date the appellate judgment issues.

(3) The Administrator shall prepare the appellate judgment, enter the appellate judgment in the register, send a copy of the appellate judgment with the court's seal affixed thereto to the court or administrative agency from which the appeal or judicial review was taken, and send a copy of the appellate judgment to each of the parties.

(a) With respect to a decision of the Court of Appeals, the Administrator will not issue the appellate judgment for a period of 35 days after the decision to allow time for a petition for review pursuant to ORS 2.520 and ORAP 9.05. If a petition for review is filed, the appellate judgment will not issue until the petition is resolved.

(b) With respect to an order of the Supreme Court denying review or a decision of the Supreme Court, the Administrator will not issue the appellate judgment for a period of 21 days after the order or decision to allow time for a petition for reconsideration under ORAP 9.25 or a petition for attorney fees or submission of a statement of costs and disbursements under ORAP 13.05 and ORAP 13.10.

(c) If one or more statements of costs and disbursements, petitions for attorney fees, or motions or petitions for reconsideration are filed, the Administrator will not issue the appellate judgment until all statements of costs and disbursements, petitions for attorney fees, or petitions for reconsideration are determined by order of the court.

(d) Notwithstanding paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this subsection, a party may request immediate issuance of the appellate judgment based on a showing that no party intends to file a petition for review, petition for attorney fees, or any other thing requiring a judicial ruling.

(4) (a) The money award part of an appellate judgment for costs, attorney fees, or both, in favor of a party other than the Judicial Department that has been entered in the judgment docket of a circuit court may be satisfied in the circuit court in the manner prescribed in ORS 18.225 to 18.238, or other applicable law.

(b) The money award part of an appellate judgment for an unpaid filing fee or other costs in favor of the Judicial Department shall be satisfied as follows. Upon presentation to the Administrator of sufficient evidence that the amount of the money judgment has been paid:

(i) The Administrator shall note the fact of payment in the appellate court case register; and

(ii) If requested by the party and upon payment of the certification fee, the Administrator shall issue a certificate showing the fact of satisfaction of the money award. As requested by the party, the Administrator shall issue a certificate to the party, to the court or administrative agency to which a copy of the appellate judgment was sent, or to both.

See generally ORS 19.450 regarding appellate judgments in appeals from circuit court and Tax Court. A party considering petitioning the United States Supreme Court for a writ of certiorari with respect to an Oregon appellate court decision should review carefully 28 USC § 2101(c) and the United States Supreme Court Rules, currently US Sup Ct Rule 13, to determine the event that triggers the running of the time period within which to file the petition. See also International Brotherhood v. Oregon Steel Mills, Inc., 180 Or App 265, 44 P3d 600 (2002) (majority, concurring, and dissenting opinions).

Rule 14.10
STAY PENDING ACTION BY THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

(1) A party may file a motion requesting a stay of the issuance of the appellate judgment, a stay of the enforcement of the appellate judgment, or a recall of the appellate judgment pending the filing of a petition for a writ of certiorari with the Supreme Court of the United States.¹ The motion must show that the certiorari petition would present a substantial question and that there is good cause for a stay.

(2) The motion shall be addressed to and acted upon by:

(a) the Court of Appeals when the Oregon Supreme Court has denied review of a Court of Appeals decision;

(b) the Oregon Supreme Court in all other instances.

(3) The stay will automatically terminate in 90 days, unless:

(a) The appellate court extends the period for good cause shown, or

(b) The party who obtained the stay files a petition for a writ of certiorari with the United States Supreme Court and so notifies the Appellate Court Administrator in writing within the period of the stay. In that case, the stay will continue until the final disposition by the United States Supreme Court.

See ORS 19.270(6)(b) and (c).

15. APPELLATE SETTLEMENT CONFERENCE PROGRAM

Rule 15.05 APPELLATE SETTLEMENT CONFERENCE PROGRAM

(1) Cases Subject

(a) The procedures in this rule apply to cases filed in the Court of Appeals. The Chief Judge or the Chief Judge's designee shall determine the individual cases or categories of cases that may be included or excluded from the appellate settlement conference program (program). Upon the court's own motion, at any time, a panel of the Court of Appeals may refer a case to the program.

(b) (i) A settlement conference shall be held for any case assigned to the program unless the program director or the court cancels the conference or removes the case from the program. A party or person with actual authority to settle the case must be present at the program settlement conference unless that person's absence or appearance by telephone is approved prior to the conference by the program director.

(ii) After the first settlement conference is held, any party may withdraw from the program, except that the program director may require the parties to attend one or more additional conferences as the program director deems reasonable and necessary to facilitate a settlement. If the program director requires the parties to attend one or more additional conferences, the neutral's fee for any additional conference will be paid by the program and not by the parties.

(2) Supervising Judge and Program Director

(a) The Chief Judge shall have overall responsibility for the program but may appoint a supervising judge and a program director for the program.

(b) If a supervising judge is appointed, the supervising judge shall have the powers needed to administer the program. The Chief Judge, and the supervising judge if one is appointed, may delegate authority to the program director.

(c) If the Chief Judge, or the supervising judge if one is appointed, serves as a judge or judge pro tempore of the Court of Appeals, the Chief Judge or supervising judge may not participate in the consideration of any case in which the judge is aware of confidential information concerning the case obtained from the program.

(d) If a judge or judge pro tempore of the Court of Appeals serves as the neutral in a case and the case does not settle and proceeds in the Court of Appeals, that judge shall not thereafter participate in any way in the case. Further, such judge shall take steps as necessary to insure that the judge does not disclose to other judges or to court staff any communication from the settlement conference.

(3) Neutrals

(a) The Chief Judge shall determine the responsibilities and qualifications of neutrals to be provided by the program and shall approve the neutrals selected for the program. The supervising judge, if one is appointed, or program director will assign neutrals for individual cases.

(b) A neutral shall not act in any other capacity in the case.

(4) Abeyance of Appeal

(a) (i) On assignment of a case to the program, the court will hold preparation of the transcript (including correcting it or adding to it), preparation of the record, and briefing, in abeyance for a period of 120 days after the date of the notice of assignment of the case to the program. During that time, a party to the appeal may file an amended designation of record. A party wishing to hold in abeyance any other aspect of the appeal or seeking an extension of time to complete any other task required by law or by the Oregon Rules of Appellate Procedure must file an appropriate motion with the court.

(ii) At the end of the 120-day abeyance period, if the parties have engaged in settlement negotiations and need more time to reduce the settlement to writing or to implement a settlement, any party may request the program director to order, and the program director may order, an extension of the abeyance period for up to 60 days. If all parties to an appeal agree to an extension for longer than 60 days, the program director may extend the abeyance period for as long as reasonably necessary to implement a settlement.

(b) If a respondent files a motion to dismiss the appeal or an appellant files a motion to stay enforcement of the judgment when the case is being held in abeyance, in addition to serving a copy of the motion on all other parties to the appeal, the party shall serve a copy of the motion on the program director accompanied by a letter of transmittal stating whether the party prefers that the motion be decided before the case proceeds in the program. The program director may direct that the case proceed in the program or may terminate the referral. If the program director terminates the referral, the case may be re-referred to the program after the court disposes of the motion to stay enforcement or denies the motion to dismiss.

(c) The program director may reactivate a case held in abeyance at any time:

(i) On the program director's own motion; or

(ii) On motion of a party showing good cause for reactivating the appeal. In addition to serving a copy of the motion on all other parties to the appeal, a party filing a motion to reactivate shall serve a copy of the motion on the program director.

(5) Submission of Information

The parties may be required to submit information to facilitate the screening of cases for the program or the program settlement conference. The parties shall submit this information in a timely manner to the program director or the neutral as designated in the request. Each party also shall submit the requested information to the other parties, with the exception of material that is designated by the party as confidential, which shall be treated by the program director or the neutral as confidential pursuant to subsection (6) of this rule.

(6) Confidentiality

(a) Program settlement conferences are subject to ORS 36.210 to 36.238.

(b) All materials submitted to the supervising judge or to the neutral and all materials created by the supervising judge or the neutral that pertain to a program settlement conference and are not a part of the record on appeal shall be maintained separately from the record of the case. These materials shall not be subject to disclosure, except as the law may require or as the parties and the supervising judge may all agree. The materials referred to in this paragraph shall be destroyed at the time and in the manner prescribed by the policy adopted by the program director pursuant to the Task Force on Records Retention.

(c) The supervising judge or program director may request the parties or the neutral or both to provide oral and written evaluations of the case settlement process. The materials referred to in paragraph (6)(b) of this rule, and oral and written evaluations of the case settlement process, may be used to evaluate the program. Any evaluation of the program, whether disseminated to the appellate courts or to the public, shall not disclose specific case identifying information.

(7) Appellate Settlement Conference Program Fees

(a) For the purposes of this paragraph, multiple parties who are represented by the same attorney or attorneys shall be deemed to be a single party. Except as provided in paragraph (d) of this subsection, each party to the appeal who participates in the program shall pay the initial program fee prescribed in this subsection. Each party shall pay the initial program fee directly to the neutral or, if instructed by the program director, to the State Court Administrator. Except as provided in paragraph (f) of this subsection, each party shall pay the initial program fee no later than the date of the first settlement conference. Unless otherwise agreed to by the parties, the neutral, and the program director, each party to a general civil or domestic relations appeal must pay an initial program fee of $350, and each party to a workers' compensation appeal must pay an initial program fee of $150. In all other appeals, the parties, neutral, and program director shall agree on the fees.

(b) (i) The initial program fee shall cover up to one hour of neutral preparation time and up to five hours of settlement conference time whether or not the settlement conference involves more than one session.

(ii) In unusual cases, if the neutral reasonably needs more than one hour of preparation time, the neutral may contact the program director and the program director may contact the parties to discuss whether to exclude the additional preparation time from the initial program fee.

(iii) If the parties agree to extend the settlement conference beyond the initial five hours, the parties shall compensate the neutral for any additional time that is expended and recorded by the neutral, with the total cost of the additional time being shared equally by the parties. The rate shall be $150 per hour, unless otherwise agreed to by the parties, the neutral, and the program director.

(c) If an individual or entity who is not a party to the appeal participates in the settlement conference as part of an attempt to reach a global resolution of a dispute or disputes outside the scope of the appeal but involving some or all of the parties to the appeal, the program director may require each such individual or entity to pay the program fees prescribed in paragraph (a) of this subsection.

(d) The Chief Judge or the Chief Judge's designee may waive or defer payment of program fees on motion of a party based on a showing that the party is financially unable to pay the fees without substantial economic hardship in providing basic economic necessities to the party or the party's dependent family. If liability for payment of a party's share of program fees is waived or deferred, that party's portion of program fees shall be paid by the program from funds appropriated for that purpose.

(e) When a settlement conference is conducted by a neutral, an administrative law judge, "Plan B" retired judge, or other person who does not accept a fee for the services, the parties shall make the program fees payable to the State Court Administrator, reference the case name and number, and mail it to: Appellate Settlement Conference Program, 1163 State Street, Salem, OR 97301-2563.

(f) A party whose program fees are deferred and who has not paid the fees by the conclusion of the settlement conference shall remain liable for the unpaid fees, unless the fees are waived following completion of the settlement conference. If a party's program fees have been paid by the program and the party thereafter pays the fees, the fees shall be paid to the program as provided in paragraph (e) of this subsection.

(8) Actions Are Not Reviewable

Except as necessary to decide a motion for sanctions under subsection (9) of this rule, the actions of a neutral, a program director, or a supervising judge shall not be reviewed by the Court of Appeals or by the Supreme Court.

(9) Sanctions

At the request of the program director, the court may impose sanctions against a party, or counsel for a party, or both, for the failure of the party, or counsel, or both to perform any act required by this rule or by the written policies of the Appellate Settlement Conference Program. Sanctions include but are not necessarily limited to monetary assessments and dismissal of the appeal.

See ORS 2.560(3).

Rule 15.10
APPELLATE SETTLEMENT CONFERENCE PROGRAM

(b) The court may reactivate a case held in abeyance at any time:

(i) At the request of the program director pursuant to the request of a party or on the director's own motion, or

(9) "Initiating document" means any document that initiates a case, including but not limited to a notice of appeal; a petition for review; a petition for judicial review; a petition for a writ of mandamus, habeas corpus or quo warranto; and a recommendation for discipline from the Oregon State Bar or the Commission on Judicial Fitness and Disability.

(10) "PDF" means Portable Document Format, an electronic file format.

(11) "Username" means the identifying term assigned to an eFiler by the court, used to access the appellate court eFiling system.

Rule 16.10 eFILERS

(1) Authorized eFilers

(a) Any member of the Oregon State Bar who is authorized to practice law may register to become an eFiler.

(b) To become an eFiler, an attorney must complete a registration form to request a username and must complete a training program, either online or in person, regarding the appellate court eFiling system. Links to the registration form and to the online training program are available at <http://tinyurl.com/eFilepage> (<http://courts.oregon.gov/OJD/OnlineServices/eFile/index.page?>>). An attorney who has been assigned a username, has created a password, and has completed training may eFile documents with the appellate courts.

(2) Conditions of Electronic Filing

(a) To access the eFiling system, each eFiler agrees to and shall

(i) review the technical requirements for electronic filing at <http://tinyurl.com/eFileFAQpage> (<http://courts.oregon.gov/OJD/OnlineServices/eFile/electronicFilingFAQs.page?>>);

(ii) register for access to the eFiling system;

(iii) comply with the electronic filing terms and conditions when using the eFiling system;

(v) advise the appellate courts and the Oregon State Bar of changes in the eFiler's e-mail address.

(b) An eFiler's username and password may be used only by the attorney to whom the username and password were issued or by an employee of that attorney's law firm or office or by another person authorized by that attorney to use the username and password.

(c) The appellate court may suspend the electronic filing privileges of an eFiler if the court becomes aware of misuse of the eFiling system or of the eFiler's username and password.

Rule 16.15

FORMAT OF DOCUMENTS TO BE FILED ELECTRONICALLY

(1) Any document filed via the eFiling system must be in a Portable Document Format (PDF) that is compatible with the eFiling system requirements.¹ The PDF document shall allow text searching and shall allow copying and pasting text into another document.

(2) A submitted document, when viewed in electronic format and when printed, shall comply, to the extent practicable, with the formatting requirements of any applicable Oregon Rule of Appellate Procedure. Except as provided in ORAP 16.40, a document submitted for electronic filing need not contain a physical signature.

(3) An eFiler who submits a document that does not comply with an applicable Oregon Rule of Appellate Procedure will receive from the court an acknowledgement of the electronic filing and a notice of the deficiency or deficiencies to be corrected.²

(4) The court may require that an eFiler submit, in the manner and time specified by the court, an electronic version of a document in its original electronic format.

² See ORAP 1.20.

Rule 16.20

FILING FEES AND eFILING CHARGES

(1) The appellate courts may impose a transaction charge for using the eFiling system, as prescribed by order of the Chief Justice.

(2) The appellate courts may collect a document recovery charge to offset the cost incurred by the courts in making the necessary number of printed copies. The document recovery charge shall be at the rate prescribed by Chief Justice Order, multiplied by the number of copies required for a particular document. The number of copies, if any, varies based on the type of document that is eFiled.¹

(3) An eFiler shall pay any required filing fees or eFiling charges at the time of the electronic filing, by using the electronic payment system, unless otherwise directed by the court. Charges for electronic filing may be recovered in the manner provided by ORAP 13.05.

(4) If an eFiler seeks to waive or defer filing fees, the eFiler shall apply for a waiver or deferral of filing fees by eFiling an application to waive or defer filing fees at the time of filing a document electronically.

(5) If the court rejects an eFiled document, the court may, upon request, refund any fees paid.

Rule 16.25 ELECTRONIC FILING

(1) Electronic Filing: The submission of a document electronically by the eFiler and acceptance of the document by the court accomplishes electronic filing. When accepted for filing, the electronic document constitutes the court's record of the document.

(a) The court considers a document received when the eFiling system receives the document. The eFiling system shall transmit a receipt to the eFiler's e-mail address, and to any other e-mail address provided by the eFiler, to confirm that the eFiling system received the document.

(b) To complete the electronic filing process, the document must be accepted by the court. The court shall notify the eFiler via the eFiler's e-mail address, and any other e-mail address provided by the eFiler, when the court accepts the eFiler's document.

(c) If the court rejects a document submitted for filing via the eFiling system, the court shall notify the eFiler of the rejection via the eFiler's e-mail address, and any other e-mail address provided by the eFiler, and the document shall not become part of the court's file. To complete the filing requirements after the court has rejected a document, the eFiler may conventionally file the document or may resubmit the document via the eFiling system and repay the applicable filing fee via the electronic payment system.¹

(2) Documents Conventionally Filed: The court may digitize, scan, or otherwise reproduce a document that is filed conventionally into an electronic record, document, or image. The court subsequently may destroy a conventionally filed document in accordance with the protocols established by the State Court Administrator under ORS 8.125(11).

SPECIAL FILING AND SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS

(1) An eFiler shall file conventionally any oversized demonstrative exhibit or oversized part of an appendix or excerpt of record within three business days of eFiling. An eFiler may note, in the "comments" section of the eFiling screen, that an oversized appendix or excerpt of record will be filed conventionally.

(2) For all other documents, unless otherwise provided by these rules or directed by the court, an eFiler shall not submit to the court paper copies of an eFiled document.

Rule 16.35

ELECTRONIC FILING DEADLINES

(1) Electronic filing is permitted at all times.¹ The filing deadline for any document filed electronically is 11:59:59 p.m. in the time zone in which the court is located on the date by which the document must be filed.

(2) The court considers a document submitted for filing when the document is received by the eFiling system. The eFiling system will issue a confirmation receipt to the eFiler that includes the date and time of receipt.

(3) If the court accepts the document for filing, the eFiling system will affix to the document the time of day, the day of the month, the month, and the year that the electronic filing system received the document. The date and time of filing entered in the register relate back to the date and time that the eFiling system received the document. If the document was electronically served by the eFiling system pursuant to ORAP 16.45, the date of service will also relate back to the date and time that the eFiling system received the document.

(4) If the eFiling system is temporarily unavailable due to a system malfunction or if an error in the transmission of the document or other technical problem prevents the eFiling system from receiving a document, the court may, upon satisfactory proof, permit the filing date of the document to relate back to the date that the eFiler first attempted to file the document electronically. A party must show satisfactory proof by filing and serving with the document as to which the party seeks relation back an accompanying letter explaining the circumstances, together with any supporting documentation. Problems with the eFiler's equipment, the eFiler's hardware or software, or other problems within the eFiler's control generally will not excuse an untimely filing.

(5) In the event that the court rejects a document submitted for filing via the eFiling system, the court shall notify the eFiler, via the eFiler's e-mail address and any other e-mail address provided by the eFiler, of the basis for the rejection. The document shall not become part of the court's file. As provided in ORAP 16.25(1)(c), to complete the filing requirements after the court has rejected a document, the eFiler may file the document conventionally or may resubmit the document using the eFiling system and repay the applicable filing fee using the electronic payment system. Except as provided in ORAP 16.35(5), the date and time of the filing of any conventionally filed document do not relate back to the date and time of the attempted electronic filing of the original document.

Rule 16.40 ELECTRONIC SIGNATURES

(1) The username and password required to submit a document to the eFiling system constitute the signature of the eFiler for purposes of these rules and for any other purpose for which a signature is required.

(2) In addition to information required by statute or rule to be included in the document, an electronically filed document must include a signature block that includes the printed name of the eFiler, preceded by an electronic symbol intended to substitute for a signature (such as a scan of the eFiler's handwritten signature or "s/") in the space where the signature would otherwise appear.

Example: s/Attorney Name
Attorney Name
Oregon State Bar No. _____
Attorney for _____.

(3) When a document is filed electronically in which an opposing party joins, that all such parties join in the document must be shown either by:

(a) submitting a scanned document containing the signatures of all parties joining in the document;

(b) including a recitation in the document that all such parties consent or stipulate to the document; or

(c) identifying in the document the signatures that are required and submitting each such party's written confirmation no later than three business days after the court's acceptance of the electronic filing.

(4) A party electronically filing a document, such as a declaration, that must be signed by a person other than the eFiler, shall include a scanned image of the signature page showing the person's signature.

Rule 16.45 ELECTRONIC SERVICE

(1) Registration as an eFiler with the eFiling system constitutes consent, within the meaning of ORCP 9 G,¹ to receive service via the electronic mail function of the eFiling system.

(2) (a) A party electronically filing a document, other than an initiating document, with an appellate court may accomplish service of that document on any other party's attorney, if that attorney is a registered eFiler, by using the electronic service function of the eFiling system. The eFiling system will generate an e-mail to the attorney to be eServed that includes a link to the document that was electronically filed. To access the electronically filed document, the attorney who has been eServed must log in to the eFiling system.

(b) Notwithstanding ORCP 9 G, electronic service is effective under this rule when the eFiler has received a confirmation e-mail stating that the eFiled document has been received by the eFiling system.

(3) A party electronically filing a document with the court must accomplish service as to parties who do not qualify for eService under subsection (2)(a) of this rule via the conventional manner as provided by the applicable statutes and by the Oregon Rules of Appellate Procedure, which may include service via electronic mail as provided by ORCP 9 G. Parties who do not qualify for eService include parties represented by attorneys who are not registered eFilers and parties who are self-represented. Parties who electronically file initiating documents must accomplish service conventionally.

(4) All electronically filed documents must be accompanied by a proof of service under ORAP 1.35(2)(d). The proof of service must certify service on all parties regardless of the means by which service was accomplished, including eService.

(5) If an eFiled document is not electronically served by the eFiling system because of an error in the transmission of the document or other technical problem experienced by the eFiler, the court may, upon satisfactory proof, permit the service date of the document to relate back to the date that the eFiler first attempted to serve the document electronically. A party must show satisfactory proof by filing and serving an accompanying letter explaining the circumstances, together with any supporting documentation.

¹ See generally ORCP 9 G, cross-referenced in ORCP 9 B, made applicable to the appellate courts by ORS 19.500.

Rule 16.50 HYPERLINKS

(1) An eFiled document may contain one or more hyperlinks to other parts of the same document or hyperlinks to a location outside of the document that contains a source document for a citation.

(a) When a party eFiles a brief, the party is encouraged to electronically bookmark the sections of the brief addressing separate assignments of error or questions presented on review using PDF document creation software. When a party eFiles a brief or other memorandum that is accompanied by excerpts of record or attachments, the party is encouraged to hyperlink citations to the relevant portions of the excerpts or attachments.

(b) The functioning of a hyperlink reference is not guaranteed. The appellate courts neither endorse nor accept responsibility for any product, organization, or content at any hyperlinked site.

(2) A hyperlink to cited authority does not replace standard citation format. The complete citation must be included within the text of the document. Neither a hyperlink, nor any site to which it refers, shall be considered part of the record. A hyperlink is simply a convenient mechanism for accessing material cited in an eFiled document.

Rule 16.55 RETENTION OF DOCUMENTS BY eFILERS

(1) Unless otherwise ordered by the court, any party who electronically files a document that contains the original signature of a person other than the eFiler shall retain the document in its original paper form for two years from the date of issuance of the appellate judgment for the case in which the document was filed.

(2) Upon reasonable notice, the eFiler must provide a printed copy of a document filed electronically for inspection by another party or by the court.

Rule 16.60
PROTECTED INFORMATION

(1) The filing and use of information contained in a document filed electronically or information accessed through the eFiling system shall be consistent with state and federal law.

(2) A party filing a document containing protected personal information may comply with ORAP 8.50 by eFiling the redacted version of a document and conventionally filing the unredacted version within three business days after the court's acceptance of the document.

(3) A party filing a brief containing confidential material must comply with ORAP 5.95 by eFiling the redacted version of the brief and conventionally filing the unredacted version within three business days after the court's acceptance of the document.

(4) Briefs in the following categories of cases shall be filed conventionally and shall not be eFiled: adoption, juvenile dependency (including termination of parental rights), juvenile delinquency, and civil commitment of mentally ill and mentally deficient persons.

Model Complete Assignment of Error (Ill. 1);
Other Partial Assignments of Error (Ill. 2-6)

(Model Complete Assignment of Error)
Illustration 1

FIRST ASSIGNMENT OF ERROR

The trial court erred in declining to give defendant's requested menacing instruction on the ground that menacing is not a lesser included offense of robbery in the first and second degrees.

A. Preservation of Error

At the close of the evidence, defendant submitted a requested instruction on menacing. (ER-____.) By way of memorandum in support of the requested instruction, defendant argued to the trial court that menacing is necessarily included in the statutory definition of robbery in the first degree (the crime with which defendant was charged) and that the record contained evidence from which a jury could find defendant guilty of the lesser charge and not guilty of the greater charge. (ER-____.) The trial court declined to give the instruction, stating:

"I'm not going to give the requested instruction on menacing. Menacing is not expressly included in the charging instrument and, in my view, is not a statutorily lesser-included offense of the crime of robbery because it does not share all of the same elements as robbery. The prosecutor could have charged defendant with menacing, but didn't. And without a match on the elements of the two offenses, a lesser-included instruction isn't proper."

B. Standard of Review

The court reviews the trial court's decision either to give or to decline to give a requested jury instruction pursuant to a combination of standards of review. Regarding review of the record to support such an instruction, the court "review[s] the evidence in the light most favorable to the establishment of facts that would require those instructions." State v. Boyce, 120 Or App 299, 302, 852 P2d 276 (1993). Whether the language of the statute defining the lesser offense is necessarily included in the greater offense is a pure question of law, one that the court decides without any particular deference to its resolution below. See State v. Cunningham, 320 Or 47, 57, 880 P2d 431 (1994), cert den, 514 US 1005 (1995); State v. Moses, 165 Or App 317, 319, 997 P2d 251, rev den, 331 Or 334 (2000).
