

Oregon eCourt Circuit Court Calendars – FAQs

Which court calendars will I find in Oregon eCourt Circuit Court Calendars?

This system allows you to access court calendars for all Oregon circuit courts and the Tax Court. Court calendars provide the date, time, location, judicial officer, and type of hearing that has been scheduled for a case.

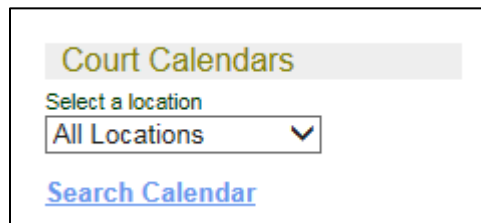

How do I find court calendars for the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals?

“Other Court Calendars” can be found by following the link at the bottom of the page.

Can I do a statewide search or do I need to search county by county?

It is recommended that you search by county however you can search by either option. An “All Locations” is available in the “Select A Location” list on the Court Calendars page

OR you can use the drop down menu to select a specific county if you know where the case was filed.

What options do I have to search by?

Search options include attorney, case, judicial officer, party or defendant name, and date range.

I am confused about what the calendar has listed.

If you have questions about the content of the Court Calendar, you will need to contact the court directly. If you are in the county courthouse where the case was filed, ask for assistance at the court clerk's counter. Otherwise, you can find the circuit court and the Tax Court contact information on the Oregon Judicial Department's website (www.courts.oregon.gov).

How do I print calendar information?

Printing from Oregon eCourt Circuit Court Calendars does not require a special command. Use your browser's print command or print icon.

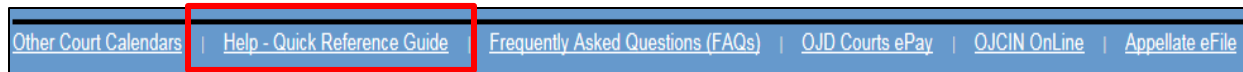

How do I close my Oregon eCourt Circuit Court Calendar session?

Use the Logout link on the Navigation menu located at the top of the page on the left side. This will clear your search information from the screen or simply close the web browser.

Is there is User Guide for Oregon eCourt Circuit Court Calendars?

There is a "Help – Quick Reference Guide" link at the bottom of the Court Calendars page.
