General

Do I have to register to use File & Serve?

Yes, all users must register prior to using File & Serve.

What is the role of the Firm Administrator?

The Firm Administrator registers the firm and is responsible for setting up and maintaining all information for system users, credit card accounts, and attorneys at the firm.

When a new firm is registered, all users added to that firm are associated with the firm. If a firm has multiple locations, those users can be added to the original firm, but Tyler recommends that each location registers his or her location as a new firm with its own Firm Administrator. In this way, each firm's users from each location will only see their specific filings for their specific location; otherwise, users will see instead of all filings under the original firm.

Do independent users need a Firm Administrator to register for File & Serve?

No, independent users do not need a Firm Administrator to register to use File & Serve. Independent users can register to use File & Serve without the assistance of a Firm Administrator.

How can I get a user name and password?

You can get a user name and password by registering to use File & Serve.

Perform the following steps to register:

1. Go to your File & Serve home page.
2. Click the Register Now link.
3. Complete the File and Serve Registration Wizard.
4. Check your e-mail inbox for an e-mail confirmation that contains your user name and password.
5. Copy and paste the password received in the e-mail confirmation when logging into File & Serve for the first time.

i Note: If you cannot self-register to use File & Serve, contact your Firm Administrator to get a user name and password.

What if I forget my user name or password?

Perform the following steps to reset your password:

1. Go to your File & Serve home page.
2. Click the Forgot Password? link on the login screen.
The Reset Password dialog box opens.
3. Type your e-mail address in the field provided.
4. Click the Next button.
5. Type the answer to your security question in the field provided.
6. Click the Ok button to close the dialog box.

This action takes you back to the login screen.

Your password is reset, and a temporary password is sent to your e-mail address. Use the temporary password to log in and then change your password to one of your preference.

Note: Contact your Firm Administrator if you are unable to reset your password.

Does my password expire or need to be changed periodically?

No. Currently user passwords do not expire, and there is no requirement that users must periodically change their passwords.

Note: First-time users of File & Serve may be prompted to download and install Microsoft® Silverlight.

The recommended settings for your workstation are as follows:

Are there court rules that apply to e-filing using File & Serve?

If I am a self-represented litigant, can I use the File & Serve system?

Yes, self-represented litigants can register as either an "independent user" or a "firm administrator." There is no longer a requirement that a firm within File & Serve must have an attorney.

Both attorneys and support staff can use the system to complete these tasks under their own user names. UTCR 21.070 sets out a list of documents that, due to technical or other reasons, cannot be electronically filed and instead must be conventionally filed.

What type of cases can I e-file in my courts?

With the exception of the types of cases listed in UTCR 21.070(3)(a) through (f), any type of case may be initiated through File & Serve. Once a case has been created, any document may be e-filed using File & Serve, except the documents listed in UTCR 21.070(3)(g) through (m), and applications for fee waivers and deferrals.

How do I determine the case type if I am initiating a new case through File & Serve?

If you are unable to determine the correct case type from the available drop-down choices, check the Filing Code Quick Reference Guide or contact your local court for assistance in determining the correct case type.

What is an envelope?

An envelope is a filing submitted to the court. An envelope can contain one or more documents submitted to the court for the same case. File & Serve identifies filings by their envelope number.

Is my e-filing automatically accepted when it is received?

No, the documents that were filed will be reviewed by a court clerk before they are accepted.

What is the filed date of my e-filed document?

Once the court accepts the filing, the filed date is the date that the document was submitted to File & Serve for review. For more information please consult UTCR 21.080.

How long are file-date-stamped documents available in my Filings queue?

File-date-stamped documents are available for 45 days.

Will I receive a notification if the court rejects my e-filing?

Yes, you will receive a notification by email if your e-filing was rejected. This email will also contain the reason(s) for the rejection. Please consult UTCR 21.080(5) and the Filing Code Quick Reference Guide for more information regarding rejections.

If my e-filing is rejected and I resubmit the filing, what will the filed date be for my documents?

If the corrected filing is submitted within three days of receiving notification of the rejection, and you comply with the requirements of UTCR 21.080(5), the court may approve relation back of the filed date to the original submission date of the rejected filing. For more information please consult UTCR 21.080(5).

How do I enter the case number to search when searching for a case that I have filed using File & Serve?

To search for a case in File & Serve, type the case number in the search case field located in the upper-right corner of your screen exactly as it was given to you by your local court, with the two-digit year, the two-digit letter case type, and the five-digit case number. For example, 13CR00001.

Yes, if all of the documents pertain to the same case, multiple documents can be submitted together by selecting the Add Another Filing option. The documents will be submitted to the court in a single File & Serve envelope.

I have several documents to submit. What should I do?

Documents and their attachments (exhibits, affidavits, declarations, etc.) should be submitted as a single PDF document (UTCR 21.040)(1) and (2). There are two exceptions to this rule:

- 1) Any document requiring the court's signature (such as a proposed order or proposed judgment) must be submitted as its own PDF document in the same envelope as its supporting documents.
- 2) Any document that is confidential (such as a confidential information form) must be submitted as its own PDF document in the same envelope as the other documents with that filing (such as a petition for dissolution).

What is the maximum file size that can be electronically submitted?

The file size may not exceed 25 MB per document. Documents greater than 25MB must be broken down and submitted as separate documents (within the same envelope) that do not exceed 25 MB. An envelope cannot exceed 35 MB.

Each document should be submitted in order using the same filing code. The filer shall indicate which part of the whole document that the filed document represents (1 of 3, 2 of 3, 3 of 3) within the Filing Comments field.

Please breakdown the document at logical points to ensure ease of use for judges viewing the documents electronically. See UTCR 21.040(1).

What if I need to withdraw an e-filing?

After a filing has been submitted but before the court's review has begun, a Cancel button is available for that filing in your Filings queue.

As long as the Cancel button is present, the filing has been submitted by File & Serve but not yet been reviewed by the court. If the Cancel button is not available, contact your local court clerk's office.

Do I have access to the documents that I file in the system?

Yes, by using the My Filings feature located on the Filings tab, you can find and view information concerning electronic filings that have been submitted to File & Serve through your user name or by any member of your firm.

After a transaction is completed, you can access a PDF version of all of your filings through the system for up to 45 days. This PDF version is read-only; it can no longer be modified.

Are hyperlinks permissible in PDF documents?

Internal links, which point to other places within the same document, are permissible and are accepted by File & Serve. However, external links, which point to other documents, websites, or other legal sources, can be risky and must be avoided in documents submitted to the court. Use of external links can result in format errors that may prevent your document from being accepted by File & Serve.

Format Errors

This section describes the format errors received when using File & Serve.

Format Errors Defined

I am receiving “Format Errors.” What does this mean?

When a filing is not successfully processed and identified as having a “Format Error,” this indicates that the filing has one or more document files that are not valid for filing document conversion. The underlying cause of the issue is typically either that the document was not successfully uploaded or the document has a characteristic that prevents the standard processing of the file.

As a start, errors of this type will be minimized if they comply with a standard format that includes the following:

- Use 8.5x11-inch paper with portrait orientation.
- Set the DPI resolution lower than 300.
- Do not use unintelligible images (i.e., all-black images).
- Use non-secured document properties (i.e., not password-protected).
- Remove external references in the documents, such as URLs and shortcuts.

Causes of Typical Format Errors

Format errors are typically caused by the following submissions:

- Corrupt files (i.e., files with 0 bytes of data).
- Secured or password-protected PDFs.
- File types other than PDF.
- Files with non-standard image compression. Standard is CCIT; this is usually a scanner setting.
- A document that has Optical Character Recognition (OCR) associated with it; usually determined by a larger file size.
- Any file that experienced an upload issue or time out on the file transfer on behalf of the filing party; usually appearing as an incomplete image or file when opened.
- A document scan that is in landscape orientation, noticeably off-center, or of an irregular size.
- Any scan (PDF) that is unreadable or has large black images in the document where pictures may have been.

- A file that contains an invalid table; usually a result of importing or pasting table data into a word processing application.

Actions to Identify the Format Error Issue

There are several ways to identify format issues within filed documents. This section can help identify documents with formatting issues.

Checking the Filing Queue

The first action is to determine whether the document uploaded successfully.

To determine this, do the following:

1. Open the document files using the Filing Queue link on the left menu.
2. Click the  icon under the Details column for your case.
3. Scroll down to the Documents section of the Filing Details page to locate the document uploaded.
4. Click on the document link under the File Name column to open the document.

Note: If the file does not open using the original authoring tool, cancel this filing and create a new filing.

Prior to uploading documents for new filings, confirm the document files will open successfully from their original source.

Corrupt Files

Corrupt files, for example, files with zero (0) bytes of data are one of the many reasons a filing has format errors.

Below are examples of corrupt file errors messages:

- A corrupted PDF document with zero byte file.

Document Security

PDF files have security settings that can prevent documents from being e-filed. A file with document security has a padlock icon on the document and/or has “SECURED” shown in the file name.

The document security can include a number of different options, any of which will prevent the document file from being processed. To ensure successful document processing, recreate the PDF with no security options.

Unsupported Fonts

Font resources are included in newly created documents. This is a standard with PDF/A files. Document generating tools use non-supported fonts when creating documents, which results in the inability to convert the document into the standard e-filing format.

There are multiple ways to examine the fonts embedded in the file. PDF viewers can show the fonts, or the file editors can allow you view the fonts used.

The JBig font is not a supported font.

The following is an example of a PDF viewer identifying the fonts used by a PDF file.
